The Millheim Journal. THURSDAY, APRIL 26TH, 1883. BY DEININGER & BUMILLER.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

-Last Thursday we had the first thundergust of the season.

-Mifflinburg is now agitating the question of water works.

-All the papers say that local news is scarce--and for once they all speak the truth.

-The Evangelical congregation of Milesburg are making preparations to build a church.

-The grain fields throughout Buffalo Valley appear promising. So say the Union county papers.

-The Presbytery of Hundingdon at its tate session at Mifflintown passed a series of strong prohibitory resolutions."

-Mr. Wm. Mauck intends to give his Penn street property a thorough overhauling and repairing. That's business, Villyum-push Penn street ahead.

-And now, April 23rd, we are haying a right smart snow. Don't remember whether it is the 25th or the 28th, but hope it may be the last one of the season.

-Mr. Philip H. Meyer left on Monday on a western trip of observation. He goes direct to Carthage, Mo., and afterwards to other points. We wish him health, luck and much pleasure.

-A fine monument was last week erected at the grave of our departed fel. low-citizen, Amos Alexander, Esq. It was built at the Millheim Marble Works and reflects credit both on the family and the makers.

-Lewisburg brags of an elm tree measuring 23 feet in circumference at a point one foot above ground. There is a tree on the bank of Penn's Creek, near Penn Hall which we think will exceed this. Who will measure the giant and give us the result ?

-Our cigar man, Mr. Adolph Miller, has made a considerable reduction in the price of cigars in consequence of the new law which goes into effect May 1st. He makes a good article of "smok-'ers'' and deserves to be patronized. Give him a call

-Last Monday evening the band awoke from its winter sleep and took a good drill. That's right boys, get ready for the summer campaign.

Miscellaneous.

The indications point to a heavy depression in the iron trade-and that means dull times in general. Bessie Boush, a little Williamsport girl, died on Sunday from the effects of James Marshall & Co., one of the heaviest iron firms of Pittsburg, have failed with liabilities approaching $2, 000.000. In the bed tick of Mrs. Patrick Brig-

gins, of Johnstown, who died recently, tiary and had reached Twenty-first and Wallace streets, when they attempted ! to escape. The prisoner whom the Sheriff had charge of and who was evidently a leader, at this place turned and looked back at his companions, who were walking in the rear. He then cial had time to reply suddenly grabbed him by the neck and wrenching his other arm from the hold which the officer had upon it, struck him in the face with the arm he had released. It all took place before the sheriff's deputies were aware of it, and just as the sheriff fell to the ground the other men turned upon the officers who had them in charge. The officers battled with the prisoners, but as the latter were in a majority it appeared as if they were going to escape. Lieutenant Jordan, of the ninth police district, and Officer Supplee, who happened to be passing by, saw the affair and went to the assistance of the officers. The prisoners then called upon the crowd which gathered at the place for assistance. Severalof those present started to render succor, but Lieutenant Jordan warned them to their peril, and the men retreated. It is thought that some of the men who composed the crowd were in league with the prisoners.and that they had followed the party from Carlisle. The prisoners, seeing that all chance of escape was past, gave in to the officers. They were then conveyed to the penitentiary, where they were locked up in cells. Sheriff Eyster's head was badly cut.-Patriot.
