York County Democrats.

The Democracy of York county at their recent county meeting passed a series of scund and seasonable resolutions, from which we give below the two principal ones—the first commends the course of our excellent Governor, the second speaks in no uncertain sound against the gross abuse of corporate powers, and very properly demands that the plain provisions of the constitution be enforced against them. These resolutions have the true ring of reform and deserve the active endorsement of every citizen:

1. The chief executive magistrate of the commonwealth elected in November, and inaugurated in January, has entitled himself to the respect, confidence and gratitude of the democraey by his able and faithful efforts to reform the abuses of the public service and to abolish the corrupt practices which had grown up under previous administrations.

2. We fully concur with the governor in the judgement so strongly expressed in his mesrages, that the power of corporate monopolies to rule the state, according to their pleasure. and plunder it for their profit, ought to be immediately checked, that the extortion of unreasonable tolls, taxes and freights by railroad companies, and the grossly unjust discriminations between parties whose rights are exactly equal, have never been author zed by any law, are now expressly forbidden by the constitution and, therefore, should be effectually stopped: that the sevent eenth article of the constitution being designed merely to make the railroad corporations honest, and hold them like other public servants to the performance of their plain duty, it should be enforced and carried into full effect, and that the wilful failure of the legislature, or members thereof, to enforce the constitution by appropriate legislation, is a direct breach of their oaths, and inexcusable on the score of common morality.

ISRAEL ERB SAVED FROM HANGING.

Imprisonment for Life.

HAR RISBURG, May 1st. The board of pardons held a spechours and was intended to complete ny. Very respectfully yours, all business possible before the retirement of Colonel A. K. Dunkle. Recorder Everett read the testimony in the case of old Israel Erb and it took over three hours in the hearing of it. The paper books are volsigned in the next few days.

The Anti-Treating Bill Buried.

HARRISBURG, April 25 .- The Senate, on motion of King, Democrat, today reconsidered the vote by which Green's anti-treating bill was defeated vesterday. During the discussion that followed, Cooper, in opposing the bill, said he feared that it would increase the number of plug-bats in which to carry flasks. George Tandy Smith noticed that most of the supporters of the bill were men who did not treat. For instance, he would never suspect Greer or Sill of treating. George Handy was sure that if the bill passed he could not be re-elected to the Senate. His people would not believe that there was such a law, and by refusal to treat he would lose his reputation for liberality. The bill was again defeated for want of a Constitutional majority, receiving twenty-one votes, four less than it got yesterday. The "nces" were twenty.

What Democratic Unity Means.

From the Erie Evening Herald. A union of the friends of Mr. Wallace and Mr. Randall will secure -for the latter a united democratic delegation from Pennsylvania in favor of his re-election to the speakership. It will insure a united delegation in the next democratic national convention and give the Keystene democracy the weight to which they ere entitled in the nomination of the presidential ticket. It will put the party in better fighting trim than it has been since 1856, and prove the truth of an assertion made by Chairman Hensel in the Erie opera house last fall-that a majority of the electors of Pennsylvania are democrats and can always carry the state if they poll their full strength. With the good feeling engendered by a lasting peace between the rival leaders, supplemented by thorough organization, the party will poll its full vote and place the Keystone commonwealth permanently in the democratic column.

The Country is Safe Without Them.

From the Cincinnati Enquirer (Dem.) The New York Herald suggests that the Republican party should take steps to send Roscoe Conkling and James G. Blaine back to congress as a measure of precaution. The country seems to be getting along reasonable well without them. Some day they will have to be dispensed with altegether. There is no man, in or out of the public service, who is absolutely indispensable to the in buying him a small house and lot in country; and sending Conkling and the suburbs of London be would have Blaine back to public life would be settled down and long ere this he would merely a "measure of precaution" against their falling into political disuse needs to be given work and a license to and of scurity.

A LONG STANDING LIE NAILED.

Senator Wallace Corrects an Ancient Libel Recently Revamped.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE PHILADEL-PHIA EVENING TELEGRAPH: In a leading editorial in your paper of Thursday, April 19, the crimes of ferging naturalization papers and tax receipts, and of their use for political purpose, are charged upon me, as they repeatedly have been by other newspapers.

I have borne these libellous charges in silence as long as my duty to myself and to those who are to come after me permits. I deny all complicity with.or responsibility for, any such action by any one. At no time in either my professional or political life have I ever aided, abetted, or knowingly permitted the crimes thus charged upon me. If they were committed during my chair. manship of the democratic state committee of Pennsylvania, it was without my knowledge and in violation of my plainly defined policy as the head of my party. There are yet living plenty of witnesses who can affirmatively prove my innocence of these oft-repeated

In being silent hitherto, I have acted on the belief that the people among whom I live were the best judges of their truth or falsity. Since their origin in a heated political campaign, by a personal enemy, fifteen years ago, I have been four times chosen to the state senate, each time leading my party, and three times nominated and once elected to the United States senate. I refer to these as evidences of the opinions of my personal record.

Screly, if I were a forger and a politme, these things could not have

If the public man, whom you say has been an "active, able and industrious legislator," remains longer silent under these baseless charges, they will become crystallized into political history, false and unfounded though they be.

Under our political system the public man has much to bear, of criticism and injustice from the political press; but I trust that the press will not deny He told me once, says a well-known western to one of them who seeks to do his duisl meeting in the office of the secre- ty, as he sees it, to the people of his natary of internal affairs yesterday tive state, the publication of this ematternoon. Socialism in This Country.

The New York Times has been making a careful study of the Socialist and Communist elements in that city. I fluds that both organizations-date their existence from the Franco-Prussian war, the former being the froth of Ger many and the latter from France. Whe first collected together the members of both organizations were very fierce i their denunciation of government, soci ety and capital. They demanded th leveling of everything, displayed th most bloodthirsty mottoes and applaud ed the bitterest denunciations of all es tablished things.

Their membership included many skilled laborers who were able to obtain work at remunerative wages. Grada ally these men, with the frugal instinct of their nations, saved money which was invested in homes and business As they secured this start in life their socialistic views underwent a marked change. They were not to enthusiastic in their demand for the leveling process. They dropped out of the societies for agitation or they were changed into organizations for pleasure or mutual improvement. The result is that there are not more than two hundred Socialists and Comunists of the bloodthirsty order remaining in New York, and not to exceed a thousand of all kinds and degrees.

The same is true, in even a greater degree, of the entire country, as New York has always had a larger proportion of this class than could be found in any other community. It is simply the conserving influence of a house and lot. The rewards of labor are both sure and swift and the educating influence of free speech so potent that any other result would be unnatural. When these people have just come out of the cave of Adullam the prospect appears dark and unpromising, but when they discover that all wealth has been created by labor and that they have only to sell this commodity to enjoy its fruits them selves, revolutionary ideas and Utopian dreams are alike dis-

Such figures ought to reassure those people who are in mortal dread of free speech and who lament the fearful license which is indulged under it. Human nature may be trusted to take care of it. It can lest be repressed by letting it severely alone. If the English Government had been wise enough to use the money spent in detecting, convicting and imprisoning Herr Most have become one of the mildest and most harmless of men. Socialism only talk and it will effect its own cure .-Philadelphia Times.

Washington Letter.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 30th, 1883. While discussing the speakership of the next ouse of representatives the other day somebody asked why Frank Hurd, of Ohio, had not been brought out. Undoubtedly he would make a good speaker, but he is not a candidate the people among whom I dwell as to and notwithstanding his popularity there are reasons why his candidacy would not be wise or successful. But this reminds me of a circumstance connected with the electoral count ical leper, as some newspapers declare of 1876-7. Mr. Hurd was a member of congress then, and one of the ninety democrats who stood out to the last against the outrage of counting in Hayes. He had in his possession facts which would have enabled him to defeat the count had not his high sense of honor prevented his using them. His room at Wormey's hotel was next to the one in which the famous conference of republican leaders was held, and he overheard, by accident, some of the strategic schemes for deceiving the demo crats and propositions made to certain southern members in order to gain their acquiescence to the work of commission. Yet Hurd never made any use of his knowledge. Neither has he since ever given any account of what he heard an involuntary eavesdropper, and when I asked him what he heard, he replied, "Enough to have defeated the counting in of Hayes beyond a peradventure, but I could better have afforded to have him counted in than to have used illegitimate means to defeat that end. I eavesdropper, and so I held my tongue, not STEREOSCOPES AND LARGE VARIEeven telling any of my associates until the fight
