

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

Potato planting is about over and next in order comes corn.

Rebersburg has a new Post Master - his name is John A. Miller.

Mr. Miller our cigar man, is doing a rushing business since the first of May.

The Selmsgrove Times has the first rake story of the season - and a tough one it is.

The May meeting of the Millheim B. & L. Association comes off next Monday evening.

An exchange says that the brown-ing of coffee in houses is an excellent disinfectant. Worth while trying.

Mr. Jasper W. Stover and lady are now snugly housed in Mr. Snook's mansion.

Mrs. John Keen is away visiting at her brother's, Mr. D. O. Bower Laurelton.

On a trip to Woodward the other day we noticed that the grain and grass fields never looked more promising.

The steam saw mill at Frank Weaver's was moved to near Capt. McCool's near Spring Mills, the other day.

The Penn street people have planted shade trees along their fronts, a work that deserves both praise and imitation.

Mr. T. G. Erhard and lady are off on a trip to Kansas. Hope they may enjoy themselves fully and return safely and well.

Mr. Jerome Spigelmyer has broken ground for his new house on Penn Street and expects to have it under roof in a short time.

A lot of beautiful Photograph and Autograph Albums, Fine Writing Paper and Stereoscopic Views, just received at the Journal Store.

Many people are just now in the agonies of house cleaning. It is the time emphatically that tries men's souls, but we hope they will all stand the test.

The series of sermons delivered once a week by Rev. Berj. Hengst for the special benefit of young folks are highly spoken of. May they be productive of much good.

Mrs. John H. Thomas and children, of York, spent several days here visiting at her sister's, Mrs. H. K. Luse and other places. They left us on Tuesday for New Berlin.

Mr. John C. Moltz & lady shortly expect to make an extended trip to the west, as far as Colorado, and purpose staying the greater part of the summer. We wish them much pleasure.

The Evangelical congregation at Woodward purpose to paper and paint their fine, neat church. A new fence is also talked of, all of which when completed will make it appear substantially new.

Look at Mrs. Weaver's Spring Announcement in another column, and do not fail to heed her invitation to call at her shops on Penn street. She has the best Millinery establishment in this valley and don't you forget it.

The Lutherans of Aaronsburg have decided to enclose the church and cemetery with a new substantial fence and have planted maple shade trees on the east, front and west sides. This is commendable and should be more generally imitated.

J. A. Lambert is really one of the most accommodating and reliable fellows that ever drove a stage. Throughout the year he carries a very large amount of express goods all along the route, and delivers them in person. Everything is always right, and his charges are really moderate. You can safely entrust our business to him.

The laying of the corner stone at Coburn on Sunday was attended by a large number of people. The weather was delightful which no doubt helped the attendance materially. The sermon was instructive, the exercises interesting and the collection satisfactory.

The Lutheran Ladies' Mite Society will have a special meeting this (Thursday) evening to talk over the matter of holding a strawberry festival. We happen to know - and surely mean no disrespect - that they are equal to both emergencies. They can do lots of talking and hold a first class festival too.

Last Thursday and Friday summer came down upon us like a flood. The thermometer flattered away up in the eighties and everybody thought it was awful hot. Friday afternoon the heat was broken by a thunder shower. On Saturday it was quite cool and rainy, while Sunday was as mild and bright a day as anybody could wish.

Mr. W. L. Bright, of Aaronsburg, has been engaged in buying cattle since January. In this time he has bought and shipped 211 head to the eastern markets. The cattle were all bought in this and neighboring valleys, 49 head in Haines township alone. Mr. Bright seems to understand the business of buying cattle and proposes to continue in it.

H. H. Tomlinson followed suit by putting up a street lamp at his store. Next?

The new verandas built by Wm. Mauck and John Breon respectively look just splendid. It seems that about everybody has caught the improvement spirit.

Jacob W. Snook is about the busiest man in town. Early and late he can be seen cleaning up and trimming, improving and beautifying around his fine new mansion on Penn street.

Mr. C. A. Sturgis, of Lewisburg, was here last week visiting. Charley seems strongly attached to Millheim and manifests his feelings by frequent visits. He is welcome every time.

The new street lamps at the Millheim Hotel were lighted for the first time on Thursday evening and the effect was most pleasing. It reminded one very much of an evening in the city.

Samuel Weiser, Jr., who had his left hand lacerated by a circular saw the other week, was obliged to submit to the amputation of the third finger. The operation was performed on Tuesday.

DEININGER & MUSSER now have the largest stock of marble work and the fullest assortment of monuments and headstones ever displayed in Centre county. They keep the best stock, make the most tasty designs and sell at the lowest prices. Facts are facts. 24

NOTICE.-The subscriptions taken at the dedication of the Lutheran church at Millheim are now due and payable. The committee is in need of funds to complete the church. Subscribers are kindly solicited to come to their help. Finance Committee.

Mountain fires raged this week in the Seven Mountains south of Greenbrier. A large area was burned over and much valuable timber destroyed. Mr. Jacob Snavely is a heavy sufferer. Such wanton destruction of property is truly a fiendish act, particularly as it does nobody any good whatever. It is the more pity that the villains who do it can not be caught and properly punished.

Our aged fathers are going one after another to their eternal home. The last one called away from our midst was Mr. Wm. Reifsnnyder, who was an honored and respected citizen in this community for many years. He departed last Sunday and his mortal remains were interred in Millheim Cemetery on Tuesday. His funeral was largely attended and the Rev. Z. A. Yearick preached an instructive sermon to the assembled relatives, neighbors and friends.

Our local society of singers expecting to participate in the great musical jubilee at Selmsgrove on the 12th of June, had their first meeting in the Reformed Church at Aaronsburg last Saturday evening and notwithstanding the unfavorable weather was attended by about thirty members. The number will increase to about fifty at the next meeting on the coming Saturday evening, when the necessary officers of the organization will be chosen. Singers wishing to take part in the coming musical feast should join the class without further delay.

John F. Duncan, Esq., of Lewisburg, paid his native town, Millheim, a short visit last week. He expressed himself surprised as well as gratified over the improvements which have been made here in recent years, both in new buildings and in general repairing. Mr. Duncan, we are happy to add, is a prominent and successful member of the Lewisburg bar and was last fall elected District attorney of Union county by a very flattering majority.

The Laurelton correspondent of the Millheim Telegraph wants a survey made through the Narrows and Penn's Valley, for a direct rail road to the west. He speaks as follows: Railroad is what engrosses the minds of quite a number of our citizens, and the query is: Why is it that some one of the different engineer corps now in the mountains do not make a survey through the Penn's Valley Narrows? The route is as good as the best elsewhere to be found and the shortest and most direct of any, and through as fine and productive a soil as there is in any State, besides the trade of adjoining valleys would naturally draw to such a road. Then, why not by actual survey ascertain the feasibility of the route? Were a road to be built through the Penn's Valley Narrows and through Centre, we are positive that the route would be found to be the most direct, besides being the outlet of Penns, Brush, Sugar, and part of Nittany Valleys.

Don't fail to read J. R. Smith & Co's readjusted advertisement in another column. This firm has a widely spread reputation as enterprising business men, and their large trade is constantly on the increase. They have the largest business house in Milton and their stock of house furnishing goods is hardly exceeded this side of Philadelphia. Whether in the line of Furniture, Carpets, Pianos, Organs, Sewing Machines, China and Silverware, they can suit all classes of customers, because they have all grades and kinds of goods. Doing business on so large a scale their prices are of course low beyond competition in this part of the state. Our readers who need any thing in the several lines kept by this large house will do well to call and examine their stock before purchasing elsewhere.

PEALER & LONG at Spring Mills are selling merchandise at the lowest prices. Their stock is new and fresh and was bought for cash, which certainly enables them to sell cheap. Give them a call and you will find it to your own advantage.

SPRING MILLS ITEMS.

The large Elm on Auchenforrie farm, near this place, to which you referred several weeks ago, measures 24 feet in circumference 1 foot above the ground. That sets the Lewisburg tree in the shade.

James N. Leitzell and Jacob Bame, two of our mechanics, have gone to Tyrone and Altoona for employment.

Each of the two Sabbath Schools has about the same attendance the one had before. So we have a marked improvement in this respect.

J. A. Grenoble is building a new house on Wallace street. Jacob McCool's house is also going up.

Our butcher, Mr. Decker, is doing a good business and fully deserves the patronage of the public.

The white-washing mania has struck Spring Mills and everybody is at work in giving fences and out-buildings a covering of pure, spotless white. This gives our otherwise beautiful town an additional air of enchantment. (Yes, particularly at a distance.) - Ed.)

Miscellaneous.

Presiding Elder Hinkle, of the Juniata district, Methodist Episcopal Church, is to receive a yearly salary of $2000.

Col. Levi Tate proprietor of the Lycoming Chronicle, Williamsport, died on Monday evening, April 30th. Aged seventy-three years.

It is reported that Mrs. Jack Kehoe, the widow of the notorious chief of the Mollie Maguires, has, by the death of a relative in Indiana, fallen heir to $25,000.

At a public sale in Selmsgrove recently, Gov. Snyder's cradle, a piece of home made soap 93 years old, and a chair 130 years old, were among the things sold.

The servant girl who murderously attacked Mrs. May (sister-in-law of Mrs. B. Harris, Lewisburg.) in Phila., recently, was sentenced to twelve years imprisonment in the penitentiary.

A number of cases of undoubted leprosy have been discovered in New York; and it is feared that the disease, by its dread contagion, may become troublesome and dangerous.

A fun-loving wretch at Richmond, Va. took a twelve year old boy to a low grogery and gave him nearly a pint of whisky to drink. The boy died, and his murderer was sentenced to twelve years imprisonment.

By a new order of the Post-office Department postmasters are only required to keep letters for seven days before sending them to the dead-letter office. Heretofore the law compelled them to keep such letters thirty days.

A general scalp bill, introduced at this session of the Legislature by Representative Burchfield, passed the House finally last week. The bill provides $20 for a wolf scalp, $1 for wild cat, foxes, and 50 cents for minks, weasels, skunks, hawks and owls.

The horses in Upper Bern township, Berks county, are afflicted with a strange disease, which commences at the fetlock with a virulent sore, gradually extending over the greater part of the animal. Veterinary surgeons are unable to either cure the disease or to prevent it from spreading.

SOME of the gangs of murderers and desperadoes who infest various regions in the West spread more terror than the Apaches on the war-path. Just now the Barlow brothers, four in number, are on a raid among the villages of Kansas, and the inhabitants are arming for self-protection. A singular fact about these Western outlaws is that their bands are often composed of whole families. The Young brothers, the James brothers, the Shepherd brothers, the Miller brothers, and others have in turn made their names notorious throughout the West. It is hardly to be wondered at the foreigners, hearing of the exploits of so many murderous gangs, sometimes get very erroneous ideas concerning the general condition of things in America. - Ex.

Persons who receive by mistake or otherwise letters not intended for them should take a second thought before breaking them open, and read section 1,225 of the postal laws and regulations of 1876, wherein is prescribed that the penalty attached to the act of opening by any person, of a letter received from a post office and not addressed to such person, to be a fine not over $500, or imprisonment at hard labor for not more than one year, or both.

Nihilists' Preparations for the Coronation.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 7.-The authorities believe that the Nihilists are making preparation for simultaneous disturbances in various portions of the Empire during the period of the Czar's coronation.

Killed by a Careless Boy.

PINE GROVE, Pa., April 29.-This morning several boys were examining an old gun at John Lehman's house, two miles from town, and while in the hands of Harrison Greely it was accidentally discharged, the contents entering the temple of John Badford, aged twenty years, inflicting fatal injuries. The Coroner's jury rendered a verdict in accordance with the above facts.

Phipps Convicted of Forgery.

PHILADELPHIA, May 6.-The jury in the case of Ellis P. Phipps, ex-almhouse superintendent, charged with forgery, after being out all night returned a verdict of guilty yesterday morning. Phipps' counsel asked for an arrest of judgment and requested to be allowed four days to prepare a motion for a new trial. The court granted the request.

A Big Fee for Trifling Service.

From the Atlanta Constitution. There was once in Gainesville a physician who was noted for his exorbitant charges. A little son of a wealthy citizen one day had the misfortune to stick quite a large splinter into his foot and was taken to this physician to have it extracted. After the work was done, in a half dozen minutes, he was asked about his fee and that it was one hundred dollars. He insisted and it was actually collected.

Old England in a Bad Way.

Rufus Hatch in the Chicago Tribune. In looking over the condition of affairs in England I find that it is the same old story again, of too many people to the acreage. England has 116,000 square miles of territory and 34,000,000 of people. The land is owned by a very few proprietors and they too own the people. This land has to support the royal family - always largely on the increase - all the nobles, and the church with its train of archbishops and bishops, many of whom receive salaries of from $50,000 to $75,000 a year. And so the rent, the tithes and the taxes run up as high as $30 the acre on the land. One year of such expenditure on one hundred acres of land would buy a freehold of the best lands in the great Northwest. Can any country on earth stand this? Something has got to bend or break.
