

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

—Mr. John W. Foote left us on Monday for Joliet, Ill. Hope he may do well.

—Our townsman Henry Miller has resumed his old position as foreman in the Logansville Foundry.

—Money sold for 16 percent premium at the meeting of the B. & L. Association on Monday evening.

—Union county already has two candidates for Prothonotary—W. O. Shaffer and Joseph A. Kreamer.

—Eight prisoners in the Bellefonte jail—but not one from this part of the county as far as we know.

—Splendid Marriage Certificates, Confirmation Certificates, Baptismal Certificates, at the Journal Store.

—Bellefonte expects to have a big Fourth of July celebration under the auspices of the Union Fire Company.

—The "Meyer Philharmonic Society" will meet for rehearsal in the M. E. church, Millheim, on Saturday evening.

—Eastern Kansas had a fearful storm on Monday attended with considerable loss of life and destruction of property.

—We learn with regret that Mr. Philip Stover, who lives with Mr. Snook, his son-in-law, is confined to his bed by sickness.

—The corner stone for a new church to supersede the old Ray's church between Hartleton and Millburg, is to be laid next Sunday.

—A lot of beautiful Photograph and Autograph Albums, Fine Writing Paper and Stereoscopic Views, just received at the Journal Store.

—Mr. Felix Burkholder, an old and prominent citizen of Potter township, residing at Centre Hill, departed this life on Monday the 7th instant.

—Our friends J. S. McCarger and John H. Kreamer are actively engaged in the tree business with headquarters for the present at Nittany Hill.

—Since landlord Musser made the start, Mr. Tomlinson and Mr. Campbell have also put up street lamps. This shows the power of good example.

—While attempting to mount a wagon the other day Squire Reifsnider sprained his knee pretty severely. He suffers considerable pain and some lameness.

—Jeweller P. H. Musser has changed, rearranged and improved the interior of his Jewelry Store, to keep pace with the progress of things in general.

—There will be a meeting of the Centre County Pomona Grange, at Centre Hill, Tuesday, May 29th instant.

James A. Keller, Sec.

—The name of John Kline was added to the list of Bellefonte lawyers at last court. It is a plain substantial name and the owner is said to be no less so.

—Dr. W. P. Ard has located at Woodward to engage in the practice of medicine. He is highly spoken of as a physician and has already secured a fair practice.

—The Pennsylvania senate passed a bill to forbid minors visiting billiard saloons. The senate might have gone a step further and made the law to apply to majors also.

—On Saturday morning we had a rather heavy frost, and very cool weather all the time since, yet it seems that fruit trees now in very prolific bloom were not much injured.

—Miss Jennie E. Bright, of Aaronsburg, was elected Treasurer of the Women's Missionary Society of the Synod of Central Pennsylvania, at its recent annual meeting at Lock Haven.

—Mr. H. J. Boyer, the wide awake agent for the White Sewing Machine Company, was in town last week. Jim is a capital agent, clever, social fellow and always in the best of humor.

—The appraised value of Centre county is nearly $11,000,000, but the real value is at least $25,000,000. If one fellow had it all he ought to be able to live and help the poor besides.

—The annual meeting of the State Constitutional Temperance Association will be held in Bellefonte next Wednesday. Will the valleys send delegates or is the cause either sleeping or dead?

—Israel Erb is dissatisfied with the action of the Board of Pardons. He wanted a clear, entire pardon and nothing else. But Israel should consider that the board is probably dissatisfied with him also.

—Yes, yes—Yaw, yaw, brother Schoch we understand about the "copying." But we are ashamed of your "Deitch." Don't write "fersthey" but versteh, then we versteh exactly what you want. Understand?

—Mr. Edward Kreamer, of Boalsburg, was here last week to visit the friends and scenes of his youth. Of the former he found but few, and in the latter many changes have taken place since the time we used to play together as boys. Yes truly, everything is changing, and people themselves are passing away. Life is but a shadow.

—A man named Thomas Stafford thinks he has discovered a silver, gold and zinc mine, as well as an extensive cave, near Lock Haven. A joint stock company are already talked of. Hope there may be millions in it.

—Look at Mrs. Weaver's Spring Announcement in another column, and do not fail to heed her invitation to call at her shops on Penn street. She has the best Millinery establishment in this valley and don't you forget it.

—Don't get excited about the new road—the symptoms are not so dangerous just yet. Don't talk about fancy prices for property, high rents and big factories—please don't. 'Tis not good for health, either individual or general.

—Brother VanOrmer, of the Democrat, gave us a short call—too short to do either of us much practical good—on Friday. We want it distinctly understood that from this time on we will not put up with any such visits. Understand?

—The big steam flouring mill at Lewisburg is now under contract. It is to be 100 by 50 feet in size, four stories high, first class in all respects and to have a capacity of 200 barrels a day. The company expect to have it completed and running by Sept. 1st.

—Prof. Meyer is awakening interest among the Centre county singers in furtherance of the musical jubilee, to be held in Selinsgrove—Millburg Telegraph.

Yes, brother Schoch, that's exactly what Prof. Meyer is doing and doing well.

CLOSING OUT AT COST.—Dry Goods, Notions, Hats, Shoes, Boots, Carpets, Tinware, Hardware, Canned Fruit, Lubricating Oil, Stone Crockery, and a large variety of general merchandise—all at closing out prices. Produce taken in exchange.

J. W. STAM.

—The ladies of the Evangelical congregation will meet on Friday evening for the purpose of organizing a mite society. Such auxiliary societies are important helps to congregations, not only in a financial way but in many respects, and they should be more generally established.

—J. A. Lambert is really one of the most accommodating and reliable fellows that ever drove a stage. Throughout the year he carries a very large amount of express goods all along the route, and delivers them in person.

Everything is always right and his charges are really moderate. You can safely entrust our business to him.

DEININGER & MUSSEY now have the largest stock of marble work and the fullest assortment of monuments and headstones ever displayed in Centre county. They keep the best stock, make the most tasty designs and sell at the lowest prices. Facts are facts.

NOTICE.—The subscriptions taken at the dedication of the Lutheran church at Millheim are now due and payable. The committee is in need of funds to complete the church. Subscribers are kindly solicited to come to their help. Finance Committee.

—On Tuesday the sad news reached here that Judge Runkle had suddenly died on Monday night. The judge had been engaged in planting corn on Monday but began to feel unwell and had to quit work before evening. He took to bed and grew worse and before morning the vital spark had fled. Further particulars relating to the Judge's death we did not learn.

—Don't fail to read J. R. Smith & Co's readjusted advertisement in another column. This firm has a widely spread reputation as enterprising business men, and their large trade is constantly on the increase. They have the largest business house in Milton and their stock of house furnishing goods is hardly exceeded this side of Philadelphia. Whether in the line of Furniture, Carpets, Pianos, Organs, Sewing Machines, China and Silverware, they can suit all classes of customers, because they have all grades and kinds of goods. Doing business on so large a scale their prices are of course low beyond competition in this part of the state. Our readers who need anything in the several lines kept by this large house will do well to call and examine their stock before purchasing elsewhere.

—Our singers of Aaronsburg, Reberburg, Millheim and the several vicinities held their second meeting at Aaronsburg on Saturday evening and organized into an association called the MEYER PHILHARMONIC SOCIETY. The following officers were elected: President—Rev. Z. A. Yearick; Vice President—H. J. G. Meyer; Secretary—R. A. Bumiller; Treasurer—Dr. John F. Harter; Conductor—Prof. W. T. Meyer. The President on taking the chair made a few well-chosen remarks.

It was agreed to have rehearsals on Thursday and Saturday evenings of each week alternately at Aaronsburg and Millheim.

It is the purpose of the society to attend in a body the Grand Musical Jubilee at Selinsgrove, June 12th to 15th, and the secretary was instructed to correspond with Chairman Potter, in reference to boarding for the members of the society.

The music books and one singer's ticket good for the entire week of the Jubilee can be had from the secretary, R. A. Bumiller, upon the payment of $1.00.

—Dr. Wm. F. Hengst, of Baltimore, son of Rev. B. Hengst, of this place, paid his father a visit last week and the two gentlemen called at the JOURNAL office. The doctor is a regular practitioner in said city, a man of fine social and conversational qualities and altogether a thoroughbred gentleman. Hope he may soon come again.

—At the annual election held on the 7th inst., the following were the officers and directors elected for the Lewisburg and Tyrone R. R. Co.: President, Strickland Kneass; directors, G. B. Roberts, Edmund Smith, Wistar Morris, Eli Sifer, Jas. P. Coburn, S. C. Stewart; secretary and treasurer, James R. McClure.

—We call the attention of our readers to the new advertisement of Harris' Millinery, Notion and Variety Store at Lewisburg. It is a just splendid place to buy especially for ladies. If any one understands to suit ladies in the line of hats and furnishing goods generally, Mrs. Harris does, and you will find prices probably lower than at any other similar establishment in this part of the state. If you go to Lewisburg by all means visit Harris' store.

—The Susquehanna Classis (Reformed Church) met in annual session at Centre Hill yesterday evening to continue over Sunday. The body consists of sixteen ministers and as many delegate elders. Subjects relating to the interest of the church in general and to missionary and Sunday School work in particular, will be largely discussed. The sessions are of course open to all and are usually very interesting to all who desire the progress and prosperity of the church.

—The "Centre Building and Loan Association of Bellefonte" is fully organized on Friday the 4th inst. The following are the officers: James A. Beaver, President, L. L. Brown, Vice President, Geo. L. Potter, Secretary and J. P. Harris, Treasurer. Adam Hoy, A. J. Cook, Chas. Smith, Geo. Valentine, J. A. McClain and E. S. Dorworth are the directors and E. M. Blanchard Solicitor. The Secretary gets a salary of $150, Solicitor, $120, Treasurer, $40. The Association has 1070 shares of stock subscribed and starts under favorable auspices.

THE SLEEPERS IN OUR SILENT CITY.

—Mr. Wm. T. Auman the other day took the census of Millheim Cemetery with the following result: Number of graves with monuments or headstones—119.

(NOTE)—There may be nearly as many more without any mark to identify them.—Ed.

Number of deaths under ten years 59
" between ten and twenty " 9
" twenty and thirty " 5
" thirty and forty " 6
" forty and fifty " 8
" fifty and sixty " 5
" sixty and seventy " 10
" seventy and eighty " 13
" eighty and ninety " 4

Average age of each, 28 years 8 months and 7 days.

Truly—"Life is but a narrow span."

—We learn from the Milton Economist that Governor Pattison has consented to deliver the opening address at the Central Pennsylvania Musical Jubilee to be held in Selinsgrove June 12, 13, 14 and 15. Extensive preparations are being made for the entertainment of the large concourse of people who are expected to be present. The site has been selected for the "Jubilee Tabernacle," and work on it will soon commence. It will be a large building with seating capacity for a chorus of 1,000 persons on the stage and an audience of 3,000 or 4,000. Societies are being organized all over this part of the state to rehearse jubilee music and to take part in the great choruses to be rendered on that occasion.

HOW PEOPLE LOVE TO BE SWINDLED.—Last week a scamp went through this portion of the county taking orders for fine dress goods and carpets, which he offered at ridiculously low prices. For instance he promised to furnish 24 yds. of good carpet for $1.00 cash and $1.50 more when the goods were delivered; a good dress was the same price. He showed no samples, but freely used the names of all the well known persons in the neighborhood, as having given him orders. Strange to say we have heard of several instances where he "took orders" and the dollar. It seems almost incredible that any one should be taken in by any of these swindles, but this is the most ridiculous, we have yet recorded. The "ordered goods" have not yet been received.—Bloomfield Times.

NEW RAIL ROAD.—Calvin M. Hayes has been appointed by the people of Hartleton to look out the route for the new railroad and report to the company. The probabilities are that the road will run directly through Hartleton and on through the narrows. This will be a loss thing for this valley and we think that the route will be as good a one as can be had. Keep the ball rolling.—Telegraph.

Mr. Hayes passed through Millheim on Friday and in conversation with some of our citizens assured them that if the old Shunk route through the narrows and along the base of Brush Mountain north of Aaronsburg, Millheim, Penn Hall, Spring, on to Lemont would prove to be the shortest route it would certainly be adopted by the "company." Mr. Hayes' special business was to see whether an outlet could be had from Lemont to Martha Furnace and on to DuBois, and Punxatawney. Well—we will see what we will see.

—Hon. James Macmanus, the father of the Centre county bar, died at his home, Bellefonte, Saturday the 5th inst., in the 79th year of his age.

In his younger years Mr. Macmanus was a prominent and successful lawyer and politician. In 1826 he was appointed District Attorney for Clearfield county and later also for Centre county, which office he held for many years finally declining a reappointment. In 1841 he was elected to the Legislature and took a prominent part in the tariff resolutions of 1842. In 1842 Mr. Macmanus declined a re-election, but was nominated and elected again in 1843. In '44 he again declined a re-nomination and retired from public life, but continued to manifest great interest in public affairs.

Mr. Macmanus was a member and regular attendant of the Presbyterian church until old age and frailty prevented him from going.

SPRING MILLS ITEMS.

Cold and inclement weather.

Rev. Furman Adams will preach in the M. E. Church Sunday morning.

Prof. Smith's Academy and Miss Clara Guise's school are both well attended.

Mr. C. F. Hennich & wife and Mr. J. A. Haines left for Illinois to visit "the children" and probably to look out for homes for themselves.

What are our veterans going to do about decorating the graves of our fallen heroes? The day is fast approaching. Items are scarce. SAM PATCH.
