

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

Yes, Charley Sturgis was here again last week—just as we expected. Welcome every time.

Splendid Marriage Certificates, Confirmation Certificates, Baptismal Certificates, at the Journal Store.

Mr. Jacob F. Stover, Haines township, has a lot of excellent lime for sale, in any quantity at the lowest ruling price.

Quite a number of shad were caught at Siamokin dam the other week. Can't they be coaxed to come up Penn's Creek?

We had a gentle and almost continuous rainfall from Sunday afternoon until Monday evening. The weather continues cool.

We see by the union county papers that our friend Mr. Geo. W. Foote is to deliver the oration on Decoration Day at Ray's Church.

A lot of beautiful Photographs and Autograph Albums, Fine Writing Paper and Stereoscopic Views, just received at the Journal Store.

Our neighbor D. A. Musser is now busily engaged in re-building the interior of the brickmill. Everything is to be made strictly first class.

The Lutheran and Reformed Church at Logansville has been thoroughly improved and renewed and will here be dedicated Sunday, June 10th.

Mr. Wm. T. Anman, another one of our young men, left on Tuesday morning for St. Louis, where he expects to secure a situation in a railroad office.

There will be a meeting of the Centre County Pomona Grange, at Centre Hill, Tuesday, May 29th instant.

James A. Keller, Sec.

Mr. Reuben Grimm called the other day to have the notice of the Madisonburg corner stone laying published. Mr. Grimm is one of the building committee and manifests much interest in the good work.

Mr. John Kerstetter, the boss mason of Booneville—or for that matter a boss anywhere—was here last week and built the stone steps at the new church. John made a substantial, neat and complete job of it.

The smiling face of Johnny Grove illuminated our sanctum on Saturday. We didn't see Johnny this long time—and he didn't grow a bit since, but just as pleasant and social as ever. May his shadow never grow less.

Mr. B. F. Klepper, of Booneville, attended the recent sessions of the Grand Lodge of Pa., I. O. O. F., at Harrisburg, as the representative of Sugar Valley Lodge, No. 823. Ben is not only a good old fellow but a good fellow throughout.

No less than four butcher wagons now make their weekly and semi-weekly rounds through town with beef—C. W. Hosterman, Andrew Immel, Joseph H. Smith and David Ulrich. A fellow need not suffer for meat—provided he has cash plenty.

Mr. J. R. Wolfe, administrator of the late Thomas Wolfe, of Miles township, deceased, will again offer the valuable property of said estate at public sale on Tuesday, June 19th next. A capital chance for a good investment. See notice in another column.

NOTICE.—The subscriptions taken at the dedication of the Lutheran church at Millheim are now due and payable. The committee is in need of funds to complete the church. Subscribers are kindly solicited to come to their help. Finance Committee.

The Meyer Philharmonic Society will meet for rehearsal next Saturday evening in the chapel of the Lutheran Church, unless the weather is unfavorable in which case the rehearsal will be held at the Reformed Church, Aaronsburg. All lovers of song are cordially invited to come. Doors open to all!

DEININGER & MUSSER now have the largest stock of marble work and the fullest assortment of monuments and headstones ever displayed in Centre county. They keep the best stock, make the most tasty designs and sell at the lowest prices. Facts are facts. 2t

We are not quite sure whether Mrs. Jasper W. Stover, over the way makes such fine music solely for our benefit, but we enjoy it all the same. Mrs. S. is a skillful performer on the organ and a delightful singer. The JOURNAL chaps can not get too much of it.

J. A. Lambert is really one of the most accommodating and reliable fellows that ever drove a stage. Throughout the year he carries a very large amount of express goods all along the route, and delivers them in person. Everything is always right, and his charges are really moderate. You can safely entrust our business to him.

CLOSING OUT AT COST.—Dry Goods, Notions, Hats, Shoes, Boots, Carpets, Tinware, Hardware, Canned Fruit, Lubricating Oil, Stone Crockery, and a large variety of general merchandise—all at closing out prices. Produce taken in exchange. J. W. STAM.

CORNER STONE LAYING.—The corner stone of the Evangelical Lutheran Church at Snydstown, Centre Co., Pa., will be laid next Sabbath the 27th instant. Revs. W. H. Diven, J. K. Miller and A. K. Zimmerman will officiate on the occasion. Services to begin at 10 A. M. C. W. SEIGIST, Pastor.

The ladies of the Evangelical congregation held a meeting in the church on Friday evening and organized an Aid Society. A constitution was adopted and the following officers were elected: President—Mrs. Sarah J. Campbell; Vice President—Mrs. Sarah Sankey; Secretary—Mrs. Hengst; Treasurer—Mrs. Rebecca Nese. The society meets monthly.

On Tuesday J. C. Motz, Esq., and family left for an extended tour throughout the west, expecting to be gone all summer. Mrs. Motz will remain with her friends in Freeport, Ill., while Mr. Motz goes on to Denver, Colorado, and other parts, expecting also to pass through Kansas and Missouri on his return. The JOURNAL wishes them all good health, much enjoyment and a safe return.

NOTICE TO FARMERS.—We wish to inform the farmers of Penn's and adjoining valleys that we are prepared to repair all kinds of farm machinery, such as Reapers, Mower, &c., on short notice. Having competent workmen in our employ we feel confident of giving entire satisfaction to those who will entrust their work to us. S. K. SANKEY & CO., Foote's old stand, MILLHEIM, PA.

We call the attention of our readers to the new advertisement of Harris' Millinery, Notion and Variety Store at Lewisburg. It is a just splendid place to buy especially for ladies. If any one understands to suit ladies in the line of hats and furnishing goods generally, Mrs. Harris does, and you will find prices probably lower than at any other similar establishment in this part of the state. If you go to Lewisburg by all means visit Harris' store. 2t

Prof. I. C. Yeakel, of Union Seminary, New Berlin, Pa., gave us a call on Saturday. The Professor has been engaged in the Seminary for some years and sustains a first class reputation both as a teacher and gentleman. At present he is engaged in collecting funds for repairs and additions to the Seminary building. We are happy to state that he meets with encouraging success and that the institution he represents is in a flourishing condition.

And now that Centre county has proven that she has a bigger tree than the big elm recently cut down in Lewisburg, brother Whitman of the Journal claims that theirs was the oldest and actually demands that our giant be cut down just to show that he is right. Not a bit of it, brother W. We have too much veneration for the grand old landmark. But let your scientific Societies come up and "calculate" the age of the old boss, in order to settle the matter. If they can't do that like to know what they "professors" for. At all events the common voice here is— "Woodman, spare that tree."

CORNER STONE LAYING.—The corner stone of the new Zion Evangelical Lutheran Church at Madisonburg, Centre county, Pa., will be laid, D. V., with appropriate services on Sunday June 3rd. Rev. W. E. Fisher, of Centre Hill, will officiate. The public is cordially invited to attend.

REUBEN GRIMM, SAMUEL SHAFER, ANDREW OCKER, Building Committee.

According to the Lewisburg papers the pinkest man of the day now resides in that model town. His name is John Showers. And wherein do you think his exemplary piety consists? In the fact that he made application for license for a beer saloon and after meeting much opposition, withdrew the application. By implication a man who never applied for license and never will; who was a strict abstainer from intoxicating drinks all his life time, is nobody and nowhere, compared to the man who makes the application and then withdraws it. Stuff and nonsense! It simply nauseates a common christian man to read it, either as editorial or communication.

ACCIDENT.—Last Thursday a very singular and well nigh fatal accident happened right in the centre of town. Mr. H. H. Tomlinson and Mr. A. A. Miller were coming from Coburn with a load of goods on a one horse spring wagon. They had placed the seat on top of the boxes and were sitting on it. Mr. Tomlinson who acted driver made the turn at Alexander's corner a little too fast and short which had the effect to throw the men violently to the ground. The matter looked badly and it was at first feared by those who saw it that both men might be killed. Help was soon at hand and the sufferers were carried away. Mr. Tomlinson was not much hurt and was out again next morning; but Mr. Miller's injuries were more serious and his case seemed rather doubtful for a while. He was unconscious for some hours and bled profusely from the ear, indicating internal injuries in the head. He is better however and at this writing considered pretty well out of danger.

Eight hundred and sixty-seven emigrants passed through Altoona in one day recently.

COBURN, our neighboring village, is booming up—a little slowly, perhaps, but none the less surely. It has already several fine residences and several more are being erected. A good hotel, two grain houses and two stores are each doing a flourishing business. A planing mill we learn is soon to be put in operation. The church is under roof and will be completed during the summer, while other improvements will no doubt follow.

The situation of the young town is most delightful, at the confluence of Penns and Pine creeks—the old, historic "Porks," with the Seven Mountains as a back-ground. It is a real pity however that the excellent water power is not utilized for some manufacturing purpose. There is no spot we know of that has more natural elements favorable for a woolen mill, axe factory or something in that line. Water power in abundance, lumber and other building material as well as lots plenty and cheap, with the L. & T. R. R. right at the place. Coburn surely has a hopeful future before it, but why is not something done now to make use of the facilities which nature has so abundantly provided?

Our board of County Commissioners are taking a new departure and have decided to hold the appeals for the entire county in Bellefonte, presumably on the plea of economy. We have no disposition to criticize the action of the board, but only reflect the nearly unanimous sentiment of our people in stating that this arrangement is very unsatisfactory to the taxpayers. Triennial appeals have always been held in the respective boroughs and townships and ought to be. It gives all concerned a fair and equal chance to examine their assessments and valuation, whereas if the appeals be held in Bellefonte a majority of the people residing at any considerable distance are practically barred from this privilege. Nor do we see that anything will be saved in expense. If an average of but five men—a very small number—from each township would attend appeals in Bellefonte their expenses would be much more than that of the board in going from place to place. Other good reasons might be urged why the old custom should be followed and the JOURNAL respectfully suggest to the board to reconsider its action and decide to hold their appeals in the boroughs and townships as before. Any other system will certainly cause much dissatisfaction.

—Again it becomes our sad duty to chronicle the death of one of our esteemed fathers. Mr. Philip Stover departed this life at the residence of his son-in-law, Mr. Jacob W. Snook, Millheim, on Wednesday morning, the 23rd inst., at 3 o'clock, in the 72nd year of his age. His sickness was caused by urinary troubles at first, but other complications were soon added and he suffered much during the one week he was confined to his bed. Before that time he had always enjoyed excellent health, being blessed with a strong and sound constitution. Mr. Stover was born in Haines township, February 1st, 1812, and spent his whole lifetime in his native township, excepting the few months he was permitted to live with his daughter, Mrs. Snook. He was the son of Adam Stover, and grandson of Jacob Stover, one of the first settlers of eastern Penn's Valley, locally known as the "Lower Valley." The elder Stovers were a hardy and industrious class of men. Their numerous progeny, as well as the entire generation of the present, owe them a debt of gratitude which can be paid only in part, by cherishing their memory in reverence and love. It was largely by their hard labor, their privations and endurance, that this part of Centre county was transformed from a wilderness into one of the most beautiful and productive parts of the state—a very garden spot of the earth. Mr. Stover was a man of a very kind and gentle disposition. This happy trait marked all his social intercourse with his friends. In business matters he was governed by those sterling principles of integrity so proverbial among the true Pennsylvania Germans. In youth Mr. Stover connected himself with the Lutheran Church and remained a faithful and consistent member to his end. His walk and conduct was that of a christian. He has gone to the better land, and his loss is deeply mourned by five sons, one daughter and a large number of relatives and friends.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS. Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP FOR CHILDREN TEETHING. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, here is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhea, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP FOR CHILDREN TEETHING is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle.

Trade Prospects.

The circular lately issued by Henry Clews & Co., says that the prospect of the general trade of the country must be regarded as, on the whole, satisfactory. It is not to be denied that failures have lately been frequent and that there is a somewhat unsettled state of feeling between employers and the wage class; and it would be unwise to ignore these symptoms. But whatever tendency these facts may indicate, it would be an extravagant interpretation to regard them as implying any serious unsoundness in the business of the country at large. There is far more reason for regarding the general condition of trade as healthy and prosperous. Taking the country as a whole, there perhaps never was a period at which more was being done in the way of healthy development of our resources than at the present time. The fact that prices are kept down to a moderate scale is an encouraging symptom; for it implies that in the fact of an unprecedented consumption, we are keeping up our production well and employing our capital to a good purpose.—Phillipsburg Journal.

The program for the opening celebration of the Brooklyn bridge is rapidly assuming shape. Mayor Low has hired the Brooklyn Academy of Music, and expects to give a reception to President Arthur and Governor Cleveland. Fireworks will be displayed from the tower on the Brooklyn side, and a general illumination of public and private buildings will be made.

DIED.

On the 14th inst., at Coburn, Mrs. Elizabeth Fryer, aged 81 years, 7 months, and 9 days. On the 15th inst., at his home in Potter township, Hon. John K. Runkle, aged 70 years, 1 month and 18 days. Mr. Runkle was an old, widely known and highly respected citizen of the county. An honest, industrious man all his life time. A kind, obliging neighbor, a friend to the poor and a consistent member of the Reformed Church. In 1852 he was nominated by the Democratic county convention for Associate Judge and was elected by a very large majority. Although a man of modest pretensions he filled the position creditably and to the entire satisfaction of the people. The funeral took place on Friday at the Loop Church, and was attended by a large concourse of people. Judges Orvis and Larimer and a number of the members of the Bellefonte bar honored the memory of the deceased judge by their presence. Rev. S. M. Reeder, of Centre Hill, preached a very interesting and instructive discourse suited to the mournful occasion. On the 16th inst., at his residence, Potter's Mills, of pneumonia, Dr. A. S. Weaver, aged 31 years, 3 months and 15 days.
