LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

-A quiet Decoration Day in Mill-

-Mr. P. H. Meyer has returned from his western trip.

-Mr. John Dutweiler, one of our venerable old men, is down with sick-

-The quoiting bussiness is booming in Millheim. Other lines of trade are a little dull.

-The pleasant contenance of H. Gross Yearick, of Pailadelphia, sho wed itself in town last week.

-Splendid Marriage Certificates, Confirmation Certificates, Baptismal Certificates, at the Journal Store.

-Mr. Jacob F. Stover, Haines township, has a lot of excellent lime for sale, in any quantity at the lowest ruling

-The variations in the weather are from cool to rainy and from rainy to cool, with just a little sunshine occasioually.

The town seems to be thoroughly a wakened.

-A lot of beautiful Photograph and Autograph Albums, Fine Writing Paper and Stereoscopic Views, just received at the Journal Store.

-- Mr. John Stover, of Painter, Mifflin, was here with his family, this week, to visit relatives and friends. John reports matters fairly prosperous over the mountains.

-Yony Harter had a gang of men and teams at work on Tuesday filling and grading around the new church, after which a neat fence and good stone crossing will be in order.

-Our Methodist friends will hold Spring Mills. Presiding Elder McGarrah is expected to be present. It is worth going five miles to hear him.

-The Missionary Institute at Selinsgrove celebrated its 25th annual commencement exercises last week. Rev. W. C. McCool delivered the Alumi address. The institute is in a flourishing condition.

-Our old friend Mr. Anthony Albert, of Wheaton, Ill, writes us that they have cold and raw spring weather and even some snow on the 21st of May. Otherwise our old neighbor is getting along well.

-The Bellefonte Democrat asks christian people to believe that Michael Cooney, of that place catches an average of 33 trout daily and that he is too dignified to accept anything in the trout line under 17 or 18 inches long.

-Those who are good judges in such matters say that the exredises and rehearsals of the Meyer Philharmonic Society are of a high order. We predict that the society will do itself honor at the coming Grand Jubilee at Selins-

-The Lutheran Ladies' Mite Society have concluded to postpone their intended festival to the Fourth of July. Of course strawberrys will be out of season then but we risk nothing by predicting that something equally delicious will be

Penn Township. LETTER FROM FREEPORT.

Freeport, Ill., May 25th, 1883. Editors Journal:

I will endeavor to redeem my promise to you and give a brief account of our journey to this place. Monday the 21st instant we left Woodward at 3 o'clock, P. M., in a drenching rain, for Millmont, where we took the train next morning. Here we met your young townsman, Mr. W. T. Auman, on his way to St. Louis, via Chicago. At Montandon Mr. Benjamin Smith, of the Broadway House, Milton, and Miss Jennie Smith, of Freeport, joined our company which was now augmented to seven-and a pleasant, social party we had. In passing through Ohio we noticed the streams much swollen by recent rains and snow. In fact there was yet much snow on the ground, and this gave the country a somewhat dreary aspect at this season of the year. We arrived at Chicago, Wednesday evening, 4 P. M., without any special incident, except a detention of a few hours near Fort Wayne, Indiana, caused by the giving out of our engine. -Mr Samuel P. Kerstetter, a promi- Chicago is truly a grand city. How Billy Edwards Circumvented a Bear.

Billy was out hunting a horse last week and when in a canyon near Ross' Hole his dog treed a black bear. He was in a quandry, as he had no gun. If he left and went home for his gun his dog would follow and thus leave bruin to go in peace. So he took his halter rope, tied the dog to the tree, rode hastily home several miles, got his gun and

As far as heard from a dozen farms in the neighborhood of Iberia were ruined and a school house torn to pieces.

A Duck's Ruse Against a Dog. From the Detroit Free Press.

While hunting above the Grand river dam a man shot, but did not kill one of two ducks which were mates. He sent his dog into the river after it and as the Lebanon county, was sold recently for injured one could not swim very fast he dog was likely to get it. Seeing this, the other one, which had swam quite aways ahead, turned about and came near the dog, which immediately left the other and chased this. The duck now just kept out of reach of the dog and led it down towards the dam and just before reaching it dove under. The dog failed to get it and, being so near the dam, he went over and came very near drowning:
