

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

The Millheim and Coburn Pike Company are making improvements on their road here in town.

A lot of the celebrated Nelson stockings—the best in the world—just received at the Journal store.

Anno Domini 1883 will be known as the year without a spring. Old winter took up all the time until summer.

Mr. George P. Rahl, one of the solid farmers of Union county, was here last week visiting at A. J. Harter's.

Our friend W. H. B. Eisenhuth, of Carrington, Dakota, will please accept our thanks for a copy of the Carrington News. Good paper.

Mr. E. W. Mauck is doing some very neat papering in town. Edward makes that his special line and has become proficient in it.

Our school board organized last week by appointing A. Walter, President, D. L. Zerby, Secretary and Jacob Gephart, Treasurer.

Revs. Benj. Hengst and H. A. Doner left on Monday morning for New Berlin to attend the commencement of Union Seminary.

Rev. J. G. W. Herald will open a select school in Millheim on Monday, July 30th. Term, seven weeks. Tuition according to branches taught.

Mr. Andrew Ocker has sold out his stock of merchandise at Madisonburg to Bartges & Reber. The new firm takes possession of the business at once.

The improvement boom has at last hit the staid old town of Lewisburg right hard. The big flouring mill and the water works are both under contract.

It affords us pleasure to state that our friend Dr. John F. Alexander, of Centre Hall, has been appointed a Notary Public, by his Excellency, Gov. Pattison.

All the world and "the rest of mankind" in this section planted cabbage last Thursday morning. Providence willing there will be a good crop of souerkraut hereabouts.

Judge Whitmer, the lumber king, was here off and on several times last week. He does favor Barnum, now that's a mackerel fact—and is no doubt just as good a man any day.

One of the finest verandas in all this region has just been completed at the residence of Mr. Jos. K. Moyer, Centre Mills. Altogether Joseph has a home fit for a king to live in.

Mr. Joseph Kreamer is building a first class brick mansion at Kreamersville, a town projected and laid out by himself. If the beautiful little place is not marked on the map it certainly deserves to be.

Either the weather makers are grossly at fault or else folks are hard to satisfy, for the very people who a short time ago feared that we would have no summer now complain that it is most awful hot.

R. F. Vonada, of Coburn, has the agency for the sale of first class iron and galvanized water pipes. Parties furnished with any desired size pipe either plain iron or galvanized, at the most reasonable terms.

On Saturday the new railroad from West Milton via Lewisburg to Sunbury and Shamokin will be formally opened with an excursion to Philadelphia. The citizens of Lewisburg intend having a big jollification and dinner on that day.

ACCIDENT.—Oscar Duck, son of James Duck, residing in Brush valley, on Monday while sawing wood on a circular saw got his right thumb into the saw and had it lacerated so badly that amputation was necessary. Dr. Lee attended the case and the young man is getting along well.

CLOSING OUT AT COST.—Dry Goods, Boots & Shoes, Hats, Carpets, notions, Hardware, Canned Fruit, Stone Crockery, Lubricating Oil, and a large variety of general merchandise, all at closing out prices. Come and get big bargains. Produce taken in exchange.

Mr. Harvey Musser, son of our friend Dr. P. T. Musser, is now here to spend his summer vacation with the "old folks at home." Harvey is a rising young lawyer of Akron, Ohio, and we see no reason whatever why he should not some day represent the state so famous for great men—in the Senate of the United States.

Fine Family Bibles, Presentation Bibles, Teachers' Bibles, Pocket Bibles, S. S. Bibles, Photograph Albums, Autograph Albums, Fine Stationery, All kinds of Writing Paper & Envelopes, Blank Books of Every Description, School Books, and a general line of Stationer's Goods—at the JOURNAL STORE.

J. A. Linnert will carry express and freight goods from Coburn to any point along the route at the following rates: All packages weighing less than 100 pounds, to Millheim, 10 cts., to Aaronburg, 15 cts., to Woodward, 20 cts. For packages weighing over 100 pounds a proportionate charge will be made.

The Evangelical congregation held a meeting on Friday evening to take the matter of building a new church into consideration. The attendance was good and a hopeful spirit prevailed. A vote was taken and carried almost unanimously in favor of building. A subscription was circulated and a good beginning made in securing the necessary funds.

NOTICE TO FARMERS.—We wish to inform the farmers of Penn's and adjoining valleys that we are prepared to repair all kinds of farm machinery, such as Reapers, Mower, &c., on short notice. Having competent workmen in our employ we feel confident of giving entire satisfaction to those who will entrust their work to us.

S. K. SANKEY & CO., Foote's old stand, MILLHEIM, PA. ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Are you distressed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once a bottle of Mrs. WISLAW'S SOOTHING SYRUP FOR CHILDREN TEETHING. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, here is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhoea, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. WISLAW'S SOOTHING SYRUP FOR CHILDREN TEETHING is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle.

ICE CREAM FESTIVAL.—The Ladies of the Lutheran Mite Society will hold a festival in the front yard of the public school building on Penn Street, at Millheim on the fourth of July next, beginning in the morning and continuing throughout the day and evening. Ice Cream, Cakes, Lemonade, and other delicacies will be served on the well-decorated grounds. The Millheim Cornet Band has consented to enliven the occasion with music in the evening. A fine selection of fireworks will be displayed near the grounds at half past 8 o'clock, P. M. The proceeds of this festival will be applied to furnishing the new church and the ladies of the society respectfully solicit the patronage of the public.

By order of the Committee. St. Timo Hotel, Nos. 317 & 319 ARCH ST., PHILADELPHIA.

RATES REDUCED TO $2.00 PER DAY. The traveling public will still find at this Hotel the same liberal provision for their comfort. It is located in the immediate centres of business and places of amusement and the different Rail-Road depots, as well as all parts of the city, are easily accessible by Street Cars constantly passing the doors. It offers special inducements to those visiting the city for business or pleasure.

Your patronage respectfully solicited. Jos. M. Feger, Proprietor.

We regret to learn from the Girard (Kansas) Press of the 7th instant that Mr. Alfred V. Wolf, formerly of Aaronburg, was the victim of a daring robbery, recently. The following is the Press' account of the matter: ROBBED.—A. V. Wolf, mail agent on the Arcadia and Cherravale route, was robbed last Saturday evening. He had that day received his pay, and soon after going to bed heard the window crash. On getting up he discovered that a thief had grabbed his clothes and ran. Attached to his pantaloons was the government mail key, the loss of which disturbed his peace of mind considerably. This he found, however, toward daylight in a vacant lot some distance from his house. His clothes were not found until shortly before reaching the train. His loss was something over $100 in money and his watch.

As near as we could learn the following is Centre county's contingent of singers to the Grand Jubilee at Sellersgrove this week. No doubt many others are going as visitors:

- Aaronburg. Mr. & Mrs. W. T. Meyer, Hon. J. G. Meyer, Rev. Z. A. Yearick, Mr. & Mrs. B. F. Edmunds, " " L. E. Stover, Miss Maggie Lenker, " Sue E. Lenker, " Lizzie Shafer, " Emma R. Jordan, Mr. H. Death has been reaping a rich harvest in our midst for some time past. Almost every week one or another of our neighbors and friends is called to the eternal home.

Again it becomes our sad duty to chronicle the demise of two of our well-known citizens with whom we had familiar intercourse these many years. Mr. John Dutweiler, a venerable man, full of years and fully satisfied with life, like a ripened sheaf, was gathered to the fathers on Wednesday night. After a long and active life may his rest be sweet!

On Thursday night Mr. William Miller, another one of our citizens, departed this life in the very prime of years. For about a year past his health began to fail, gradually but surely, until at last the strong, robust man was laid cold in death.

And thus they go: "Friend after friend departs—Who has not lost a friend?" Your time, dear reader, and ours, is coming too. It may be here soon—who knows? What are our prospects for the celestial city? Have we our "titles clear" to a blissful home beyond?

Miscellaneous. About a thousand and Dickinsons will hold a family reunion at Amherst, Mass., on August 9th. There will be no camp meeting at Wayne station this year. The board of directors have concluded.

A dispatch from London to the Boston Herald gives a very unfavorable report of the Queen's state of health.

J. C. Fletcher, eldest son of the Rev. R. H. Fletcher, of Lock Haven, was shot and killed by a Spaniard in the office of the Times, at Tipton, Mo., a few days ago.

A Bear Story for the Boys. From the Bangor Commercial. A Maine stage struck a perfect bonanza the other day, in the shape of a huge bear and two cubs that ambled across the road in the woods near Mattawankeag. The five passengers disembarked and took after the trio. The bear is said to have run away and the cubs climbed a tree, whence a long pole brought them down. They are about as big as wood chucks and are to be 'educated.'

How they Brought the Trouble On. From the Pittsburg Dispatch. The Dispatch some time ago pointed out to the stalwart republican senators that they could avoid the toil of an extra session, by agreeing to the Stewart measure. They were unable, however, to release themselves from the partisan rule of trying to force a gerrymander and as a consequence will sit through the summer until they can effect an apportionment satisfactory to both parties.

MORMONS IN THE SOUTH. How the Missionaries Are Making Converts. The Shotgun Policy. CHARLOTTE, N. C., June 8th.

The progress of Mormonism in North Carolina is causing much alarm. In the rural districts remote from towns wild missionaries are at work seducing the ignorant into their meshes. In Gaston and Rutherford counties especially is this work being carried on. There is a band of seventeen Mormon missionaries scattered around this section, who keep up no public intercourse, but meet quietly and compare notes of progress and give each other points. Their principal method is to tramp through the country and call at houses on the way for a drink of water. If they find at home women whose weakness they think they can impose upon they will strike up a conversation and gradually turn it into the channel they want. They appoint a meeting in the neighborhood, inviting only those whom they think will be easy subjects of conversion. Once in the meetings morbid feeling and curiosity lead them on until the work is done. Before being admitted the converts are baptized by immersion, and this fact finds success with votaries of Baptist tendencies. The baptisms are always in the nighttime, and dupes are required to be in a state of nudity.

The half-dozen counties adjoining Rutherford are the special fields of those imposters. Among the more prominent of these preachers are William Dorton and Jabez Brentwell. They have converted thirty-seven, fifteen of whom they have already sent to Utah. Not long ago two apostles, passing a field in which two white women were plowing, hailed them, had a short conversation, and within a half an hour took them to a pond near by and baptized them, when they returned to their plowing, and the next day they were on their way to Utah. This only shows how easily these ignorant creatures are duped, and as the field of operations is becoming one of grave interest, which the Legislature will be called upon to settle.

The emigration to Utah does not represent the full extent of the evil done. Whole communities give up other church relations and become what may be called semi-Mormons, laying the groundwork for more pronounced Mormonism hereafter. It is from this demoralized element which remains at home that the trouble will come. The Journal-Observer, the leading paper of the State, says on this subject this morning: "It is a shame to our civilization that such things are permitted in our midst, and missionaries are needed. The sort of missionary, however, and the one to suit the case best, is in the household of nearly every man in the country, or it can be procured at any hardware store. It is a shotgun. Introduce a few of these priests to these missionaries and our country will soon be effectively rid of them."

The following article from the Harrisburg Patriot relates to a subject that deserves the serious reflection of parents. The warning is direct and positive and should go squarely to the conscience and heart. Moreover it deserves a wider application than the latitude of Harrisburg:

Young Girls on the Street. The fact that too many young girls are permitted to appear on the streets at night has often been called to the attention of the public before, but it cannot be referred to too often as all previous warnings have proved unavailing. The number of young girls on the streets at night is increasing instead of diminishing.

Any man who has occasion to pass along the principal streets at night, if he takes the trouble to look about him with observing eye, witnesses some remarkable scenes. He sees scores of prettily attired and rosy faced misses parading up and down the various streets. At various points, on hotel steps, in front of store windows and on street corners stand small gatherings of men, who watch the goings and comings of the young women. The answers, mixed in with the passing crowd that contain professional street walkers and the demi monde, cast sheep's eyes at the men and in their silliness are vain of admiration and bold complimentary remarks they excite.

The world does not care when a woman falls. Such cases are too common. Her own sex put their sharp fashionable heels on her neck to keep her down. The question then comes, whence come so many fallen angels, so many soiled doves? The answers, mixed in with the passing crowd that contain professional street walkers and the demi monde, cast sheep's eyes at the men and in their silliness are vain of admiration and bold complimentary remarks they excite.
