Governor Pattison's Vetoes.

Up to this time Gov. Pattison has vetoed over thirty bills and will probably veto some more before he gets through.

The other veto relates to appropriations for private charitable institutions and is based more directly on constitutional objections.

The Republicans of the county held their convention last Tuesday the 3rd instant. The following is the ticket nominated: Associate Judge—Christian Dale, of Coleraine township.

Senator John Stewart, the Independent candidate for Governor last fall, who then so nobly fought boss and ring rule, is again the property of the firm of Cameron, Quay, Cooper and company.

Last Friday the legislature succeeded to have conference committees appointed on all the appropriation bills and both houses adjourned over until Tuesday the 10th.

The Governor has vetoed the bill abolishing the office of Jury Commissioner, and so the law will stand for the present.
