

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

The days are shortening at both ends.

Lock Haven had a rousing Fourth of July celebration.

The burning question of last week was—How to keep cool.

Mr. Wm. Manek is busy building a full-sized chair and paint shop.

The net proceeds of the Ladies' ice cream festival amounted to over $60.

Edward Messer has returned from Barbark, Ohio, whence he went in the spring.

We understand that Ludlow Frain thinks of getting up a harvest home picnic.

Mr. James Schoch and family, of New Berlin, visited at Mr. Jacob Gephart's last week.

B. F. Kister, of the Milton Economist, and family, were visiting at A. C. Musser's this week.

We are indebted to Rev. J. A. Bright, of Ellsworth, Kansas, for copies of Kansas papers.

Hay is very plenty here and sells at $10 for a fair four horse load—about two pounds for a penny.

Squire Smith, of Pine Grove, called to see us last week. He is a candidate for Associate Judge.

The new fence and Boardwalk around the Lutheran church are complete and look just splendid.

The executors of John Dutweiler will make sale of the personal effects of the estate, August 11th next.

Adam Boyer will offer his farm near Howard at public sale, August 10th. Adam thinks of going West.

Yoney Dinges is the first man to cut grain in this section. He actually shocked some of his wheat on Saturday.

Rev. A. J. Irey & lady, of Chester county, are spending their summer vacation at Dr. P. T. Musser's, Aaronsburg.

Harry Tomlinson has rigged up his old headquarters and put a store into it, and has both stores connected by telephone.

Mrs. Clara Mercier, of Philadelphia was here visiting at Jacob Keen's, D. L. Zerby's and others of the friends.

Mr. James M. Gephart, a student at Dickinson College, Carlisle, Pa., is spending vacation with "the old folks at home."

Charley Sturgis was here again this week to see Dessie. Now if Charley is not deeply in love with Bessie we are no judges of small matters. That's all.

Bellefonte, it is said, has the oldest Catholic church building in the state, and the congregation is about making arrangements to build a new one.

Brother Tuten, of the Republican, is hereby tendered our best thanks for his special mention of our projected new building. The sarcasm is just too lovely for anything.

The celebrated Millheim Cement, the best in the market, always on hand. Manufactured by F. P. Musser, Millheim, Pa.

ANNOUNCEMENT.—We are authorized to announce that Dr. J. R. Smith, of Ferguson township is a candidate for the office of Associate Judge subject to rules of the party.

ACCIDENT.—Chas. R. Burd had the misfortune to break his arm while at work at the Evangelical church at Coburn, on Saturday. Just how the accident happened we did not learn.

Mr. H. F. Donshower, an expert fresco painter of Lewisburg, is now painting the audience chamber of the Lutheran church. It promises to be a very neat, artistic and chaste piece of work.

Our old friend Joseph Lose writes us from Adamsville, Mich., that they have heavy wheat and grass crops in that section and that even corn promises well. The fruit however is a total failure.

CARD.—The ladies of the Lutheran Mite Society of Millheim return their sincere thanks to a generous public for a very liberal patronage during their recent festival.

The Ladies.

R. F. Vonada, of Coburn, has the agency for the sale of first class iron, and galvanized water pipes. Parties furnished with any desired size pipe either plain iron or galvanized, at the most reasonable terms.

We tender our thanks to those of our friends who so promptly responded to our call for help. That's business on the first floor, friends. The printer needs money as well as other people and earns it about as hard as any. Those who are still a little backward are most kindly reminded that we still have lots of blank receipts on hand, splendid pens and the best of ink—to fill them out.

Trains on the Reading R. R. pass Lewisburg going east at 4.14 A. M., 11 A. M. and 1.33 P. M. Going north, at 4.47 and 11.41 P. M. So says the News. But how is it that three trains go east and but two north? Does the third train never return.

Deininger & Musser erected a fine massive monument at the grave of Mr. John Keen, deceased, on the Reformed Cemetery, Aaronsburg, the other week. It reflects credit on the surviving friends of Mr. Keen as well as on the enterprising makers.

Our farmers had a trying time of it last week in making hay. It rained more or less every day, and no doubt considerable hay was ruined. Yet there is enough and to spare. This week the weather has been fair and much cooler and the hay crop is mostly housed—rather burned.

The subscription lists for the new Evangelical church are progressing right fairly and the congregation has formally decided to build. A building committee was elected consisting of Rev. B. Hengst, John Stoner, C. Alexander, W. R. Heaney, Jacob Gephart and Jacob Eisenhuth.

CLOSING OUT AT COST.—Dry Goods, Boots & Shoes, Hats, Carpets, Notions, Hardware, Canned Fruit, Stone Crockery, Lubricating Oil, and a large variety of general merchandise, all at closing out prices. Come and get big bargains. Produce taken in exchange. J. W. STAM

Union county is getting in earnest to erect a soldiers' monument and a suitable site in Lewisburg is being sought after. But how is it that Centre county moves so slowly—or rather does no more at all in this matter? Do not our fallen heroes deserve a monument as much as those of any county in the state?

We call the special attention of our readers to the fact that Prof. W. T. Meyer, sells Pianos and Organs for the enterprising firm of Bunnell & Aiken, of Bellefonte. Mr. Meyer is not only an expert in the use of musical instruments but understands their construction and value thoroughly, and is therefore a safe man to buy from.

LOST.—On Wednesday evening the subscriber lost his pocket book somewhere in Millheim, containing a little money and some valuable papers. The finder would confer a favor and receive a fair reward by returning it to the subscriber or leaving it at the JOURNAL office.

Our band held their annual election for officers on Monday last with the following result: Samuel Weiser, Jr., President; J. H. B. Hartman, Secretary; R. A. Bumiller, Treasurer. They also filled several vacant horns and are now industriously engaged in brushing up for the summer and fall campaign. Go in boys and do your best!

The Lewisburg Chronicle advises its readers not to drink whiskey during hot weather. This is entirely contrary to the faith and practice of those who ought to understand the matter best. They say that in hot weather whiskey cools off, while in cool weather it warms up, and that it has numerous other good qualities besides. Of course we are no judge in the premises.

TO SUNDAY SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENTS AND TEACHERS.—THE JOURNAL STORE is a regular depository of the American Sunday School Union and sells all its publications, including library books and other supplies at regular Philadelphia prices. A fine line of reward cards and books just received which will be sold to Sunday Schools at special prices.

The undersigned hereby gratefully acknowledges the reception of a nice present from her friends in the Penn's Creek (Lutheran) Congregation. Accept the hearty thanks for this kind remembrance of one who highly appreciates and sincerely reciprocates the kind feeling which prompted this token of love and esteem.

C. TOMLINSON, Aaronsburg, Pa.

Andy Immel did a slashing business selling meat on Monday morning. Seemed as if everybody was just out of meat and wanted some of Andy's best. Andy was in a rosy humor, happy as a bird. Telling his good luck to some of his neighbors he was asked to show his money, when he and beh I it turned out that about all his customers had shoved their trade dollars on Andy. He was at first disposed to get mad but concluded to laugh off his sorrow, in which his company heartily joined.

MUSICAL INSTRUCTION.—The undersigned will begin a term of musical instruction on the piano or organ, commencing July 30th, 1883, and continuing ten weeks. Classes will be organized at Aaronsburg, Millheim and vicinities. Arrangements have been made at Aaronsburg to accommodate pupils from a distance who are desirous of receiving musical instructions. Terms are moderate. Good boarding can be had at reasonable rates. Persons expecting to take lessons should apply immediately, so that the necessary arrangements may be effected.

For further particulars apply in person or address Wm. T. MEYER, Aaronsburg, Pa.

The glass ball shooting on the 4th was a new and interesting amusement in Millheim, and was witnessed with close attention by a large crowd of people.

The following is the score: C. K. Sober broke 23 balls out of 25; P. H. Stover, 4 out of 6; F. P. Musser none out of 7; John Kerstetter, 4 out of 6; Clymer Musser, 1 out of 9. At a second round Mr. Sober broke 20 out of 22, having his back turned toward the trap that threw the balls into the air, so that he had to turn every time before shooting.

Ed Mauck, in his brand new drum major's uniform cut about the widest swathe of any fellow here on the Glorious Fourth. The fire red unmentionables, the beautiful blue coat with gilt buttons, the five-story hat, cap, or whatever the indescribable thing made of bear's robe is called—but more than all the elegant Beif's shaberstob set out our friend Ed like a French Field Marshal. It is truly a wonder that not all the girls along the entire route of march were smitten with Edward—but perhaps they were for aught we know.

Our neighboring village, Coburn is looming up bravely. Jacob Kerstetter's house is approaching completion and so is Mr. Greeninger's. A new store building is begun, we are not quite sure by whom, but strongly suspect that Bob Vonada is concerned and that Cleve Dinges, the enterprising chap of Centre Hall is at the bottom of it all. But that's only our guess.

LATER. Sure enough, we had guessed rightly. On Monday morning bright and early Mr. Dinges called to engage some advertising, which appears in another column. Cleve understands the value of printer's ink much better than many older business men. We wish the new firm much success.

THE GLORIOUS FOURTH IN MILLHEIM.—Millheim had a full, life-sized Fourth of July celebration this year, the biggest and best public demonstration it ever had on an anniversary of our national independence.

For several days before some of our people were busily engaged in putting the town in best trim. A beautiful cross arch, profusely decorated with evergreens and flags, spanned the street in front of the First National Hotel. The entire front of the hotel was also tastefully adorned in like manner, and in the evening the whole scene was beautifully illuminated with Chinese lanterns.

People began to flock into town at an early hour. In the afternoon and more particularly in the evening large crowds had assembled. The sidewalks and even the streets were filled with people.

Late in the afternoon a grand parade took place under the direction of S. T. Frain as Chief Marshal and J. H. Miller, Assistant. The procession was headed by the Millheim Cornet Band, followed by veterans of the war and citizens generally. The parade was an entire success.

The spacious yard in front of the school house presented a lively scene. Here the ladies of the Lutheran Mite Society held their ice cream festival and they did a brisk business. The grounds were attractively decorated and nicely illuminated in the evening. Crowd after crowd came to refresh themselves with delicious ice cream, queenly cakes and Artic lemonade. The pyrotechnic display in the rear of the school house was an extra treat by the ladies. It was a grand and rare sight such as but few of the vast crowd that witnessed it had ever seen before.

At nine o'clock, P. M., the Rev. Benj. Hengst delivered the oration of the day from an elevated platform in front of the National Hotel. We were otherwise engaged and had to deny ourselves the pleasure of hearing it, but many who heard him say that it was a masterly effort, dealing largely in history, and highly patriotic throughout. After the Speech Mr. Frain entertained the people by the finest exhibition of fire-works ever seen in the county. The sight was truly magnificent.

During the entire day the eye-present, ever-ready Millheim boy gave vent to his patriotic feelings by the explosion of myriads of fire-crackers and the sending up of small balloons. In the evening Mr. Frain sent up several balloons of larger dimensions. They rose to a great altitude and floated slowly and gracefully, like things of beauty, through the clear, starry sky, until lost to sight in boundless space above. Thus came and went the grand old national holiday A. D. 1883, in Millheim. It was a very enjoyable time and will be remembered with pleasure, and it affords us infinite satisfaction to state that excellent order and a general absence of drunkenness prevailed throughout. The lock-up was made use of in only a single instance.

MARRIED.

On the 2nd inst at New Berlin, by Rev. C. F. Deininger, Mr. Isaac Fisher, of Williamsport, and Miss Maggie Yoder, of New Berlin.

DIED.

On the 24th ult., at Aaronsburg, Mrs. Esther Frank, wife of John Frank, deceased, aged 87 years, 8 months and 20 days.

On the 25th ult., near Hebersburg, Mrs. Polly Boyer, wife of Col. Henry Boyer, aged 82 years, 6 months and 25 days.

Mother Boyer was blessed with a long life. Nearly sixty-two years she was permitted to live with her husband. Bodily afflictions of any consequence were unknown to her. Only a few days before she died she complained more than usual. This she passed away without any sufferings. She was satisfied with life and desired to depart and be at rest in a better world. Her funeral was largely attended. She was buried in the cemetery.
