The Republican State Convention.

The republicans of the state had their convention at Harrisburg last Wednesday. The managers had everything in splendid working order and the whole My dear sir : business of nominating candidates, constructing a platform and appointing a It was a love feast between the stalwarts and independents and all is again lovely between the two wings of of the party so recently engaged in a William Livesey, of Alleghany county, which will accomplish that purpose. for State Tresurer, on the sixth ballot. Both are men of good repute and fitness personally.

The platform consists of eleven planks, one "whereas" and one resolution. It is truly a strange mixture of truth, falsehood and duplicity.

The first plank demands a continuance of a system of protection that will develope our industrial pursuits and secure adequate wages to labor, and protariff below a level that will accomplish these results. This is eminently right and proper-just what every American citizen not tinctured with the baneful heresay of free trade will Congress. squarely endorse.

The other planks are nearly all in the threadbare regulation style of platitudes and contradictions which will deceive nobody. The twaddle about civil service reform and economy in the administration of the state and national governments is the same hollow, insincere stuff that the people are used to hearing these many years. It is the same cheap talk over and over again. The same professions and the same lack of practice that has marked repub lican administrations for several deto apportion the state into legislative, senatorial, congressional and judicial districts, on the democrats of the house, is shameful in the extreme, in the light of the action of the stalwart senate. It is the old stop-thief game of a set of men who wish to cover their own un rightous acts by laving the blame on those who faithfully tried to do their duty. The attempt will fail utterly and ignobly.

No Apportionment.

The last lingering hope that the legslature will pass reasonably fair apportionment bills is fast vanishing. It seems in fact as if our law makers at Harrisburg would adjourn without havng done a single act for which they were called in extra session, and simply because the stalwart majority of the sena'e, under the leadership of Cooper, Revburn and others, are lost to all sense of fairness and justice in adjusting congressiona l, senatorial and legisla tive districts so as to give each party an equitable representation according to the relative vote cast for President

The democratic house has done its duty fully. It has conceded all it can concede-even more than it should have conceded, and has already appointed a second conference committe, to meet a similar committee of the senate. But the senate refuses to appoint a second committee-refuses to fulfill its sworn constitutional duty. Refuses anything and everything except the infamous Mc-Cracken gerrymander. This the demo. cratic Louse cannot and will not accept. It would be false to its high trust it it did.

If the stalwarts will not listen to reason a democratic congress may refuse admission to the entire Pennsylvania delegation. It would be entirely justifiable to do so on strictly constitutional grounds, else plain English means noth-

The Turning Point for '84.

If the Democrats can carry New York, New Jersey and Obio this year, the result will be generally regarded as a decision of the Presidential contest in their favor. If they should also capture Pennsylvan ia this would end the

What is the onilook for the year in these four States? The New York Republicans are trying to compromise their long standing controversies, but a united Democracy, with a good ticket, would undoubtedly be successful. The election of a Democratic Governor in New Jersey by a handsome majority is conceded by candid Republicans.

In Ohio the tide is setting in favor of the Democrats; indeed, with their excellent ticket and platform, their success is pretty certain. If Ohio goes Democratic in October, New York and New Jersey will follow in its wake with large majorities in November, while the Republicans of Pennsylvania, weakened by dissensions, may perhaps share the fate of their brethren in O-

These are victories worth fighting for. The Democrats of these four States have an opportunity this fall to determine the great national struggle of 1884.-N. Y. Sun.

Ex-Gov. Curtin on Trade Dollars.

From the Lewisburg Journal. The following letter received last week by Mr. I. C. Harvey, of our borough, from Ex-Governor Curtin shows that our member of Congress is right on the trade dollar question :

BELLEFONTE, Pa, July 4, 1883.

I received your letter this morning. If the Secretary of the Treasury has state committee was all done in a day. the authority he will, I hope, exercise it and exchange the legal silver dollar for the trade dollar. If he has not the authority, I have no doubt Congress will promptly give it to him and thus fierce warfare. Jerome B. The banks will hold the trade dollars in their vaults until Congress meets and so indeed will persons of large means and able to hold and await governmental action; but most unhappily the loss will fall upon the poor that are not able to hold the trade dollars in their possession, and that condition invites speculation.

If it were possible to have the trade dollar taken by railroad companies, tests against all attempts to reduce the banks and persons in large business by by a general understanding to hold the money until Congress can act, it would relieve the people, arrest individual speculation and hasten the action of

> Yours truly, A. G. CURTIN.

A severe storm again swept over large portions of Kansas, Missouri, Illinois and Iowa, last Saturday, doing vast damages to property, but happily only a few lives were lost. Near Browning, Mo., a train was blown off the track. At Windsor, Mo., a circus and menagerie was torn to pieces and some of the animals escaped. Lengthy accounts The attempt of the convention to are given of damages to churches saddle the responsibility of the failure and other buildings, crops, fences, trees and railroads in many sections of the states named as well as Nebraska and Indiana,
