-The glorious millennium is most certainly dawning down at Lewisburg. red hot democratic editor of the Journal, a fine lot of cherries the other day.

-We call the special attention of our readers to the fact that Prof. W. T. Meyer, sells Pianos and Organs for the enterprising firm of Bunnell & Aiken, of Bellefonte. Mr. Meyer is not only an expert in the use of musical instruments but understands their construction and value thoroughly, and is therefore a safe man to buy from.

-The enterprising firm of Dinges, Vonada & Co., at Coburn, have procured a stylish new delivery wagon. We have not seen a finer wagon this long time. The lettering is especially good and reads as follows:

"DINGES, VONADA & CO., PENN'S VALLEY BARGAIN STORE, GENERAL MERCHANDISE GOODS DELIVERED

-J. A. LIMBERT will carry express and freight goods from Coburn to any point along the route at the following rates : All packages weighing less than 100 pounds, to Millheim, 10 cts., to Aaronsburg, 13 cts., to Woodward, 25 cts. For packages weighing over 100 pounds a proportionate charge will be

-Our farmers have been very busy for the last week in cutting the rich harvest which Providence has mercifully bestowed upon the people of these fair valleys. We hear but one report, had these many years. Hay is over abundant and corn promises well. There is every prospect for an exceptionally prolific year.

-A stroke of lightning struck the house of Mr. D. H. Rote, in Aaronsburg, on Friday afternoon, shattered the chimney, tore some of the stove pipe, broke a lamp that was standing on a table in the room, ran across the -Rev. John Kreamer, of Jewel City, floor cutting the carpet, desended into Kansas, gave us a call last week. He the cellar by a nail in the floor, struck speaks in glowing terms of that part of and melted a mouse trap and was finally lost among some brick work. Mr. Rote was in the room at the time and few berries! was so shocked by the stroke that he felt the effects of it for several days.

MUSICAL INSTRUCTION .- The under -Dr. Geo. S. Frank of Spring Mills, signed will begin a term of musical inilluminated our dingy sanctum the oth- structions on the plane or organ, commencing July 30th, 1883, and continuing ten weeks. Classes will be organized at Aaronsburg, Millheim and vicin-Hetzel & Miss Nellie Kaufman, of Lew- ities. Arrangements have been made isburg, are here on a visit to Rev. Benj. at Aaronsburg to accommodate pupils from a distance who are desirous of receiving musical instructions. Terms are moderate. Good boarding can be had at reasonable rates. Persons expecting to take lessons should apply immediately, so that the necessary arrangements may be effected.

WM. T. MEYER, Aaronsburg,

-Our Mifflinburg friends held a meeting one evening last week to make arrangements for a grand Harvest Home Basket Picuic to be held near that place, Thursday, August 23rd. Judging from the formidable array of committees it is to be a big affair, but what pleases us most is the following item in the proceedings :

"Also moved and carried that the Secretary be instructed to add names of mittee of araangements that may be given him."

This indicates plainly that Centre county will be invited to take part in the great thanksgiving feast, and we assure our brethern down the road that their kind feelings will be fully recipro-

-The following sensible item from an exchange expresses our sentiments

We are willing to give place in our local columns to mention of any visitors, the absence of any citizen, his wife or his daughter, but at the same time we would be glad to have the item written out and handed in, or mention made of it at this office. People are always much interested in knowing the absence of friends, and equally glad to know the presence of any visitor upon whom they wish to call. Some very sensible people say they don't want their names in the papers. This may he true as to a puff or bit of evident flattery; but it can hardly be true of the simple announcement of a visitor's name or the temporary absence of a gentleman or lady. So bring in the items, we are always glad to get them. No visitor is more welcome to our sanctum than one who brings in an item.

-A special from Lewistown to the larrisburg Patriot states that on Monday morning Samuel Longwell killed Reed Alexander, near Milroy. From points gleaned it appears that Alexander asked Mr. Longwell, sr., the owner of the farm, for the privilege of picking a bucket of raspberries off the bushes on the land. Permission was granted him. It happened that the farm was tenanted by his son, Samuel Longwell. He was not aware of the favor granted Alexander and when he saw him with and that is that the grain is well filled his bucket he at once ordered him off and that it stands thickly on the ground the place. Alexander refused to obey. -in fact the best harvest the valleys | Sharp language was used between them when Longwell picked up a piece of fence rail and struck Alexander across the head. He fell to the ground and Buckwheat. Long well fled. The injured man was discovered by another gentleman to whom he was just able to tell who his assailant was. A few moments later he

LETTER FORM COLORADO.

Leadville, Col., July 10th, 1883

Editor Journal :-I came to Leadville a few days ago from Denver, via the Denver & Rio Grand R. R., up the Arkansas River The scenery through the canon is truly grand. The waters come rolling and tumbling down over the rocks at a rate terrible to behold, and the walls of solid rock, alomst perpendicular, and from two to three thousand feet high, make a fellow 's head swim to look at. The snow cap ped mountain peaks are almost continually in sight and afford a novel and grand view to an eastern Leadville has lost much of its former business and population, but it is still considered a good town. It is 260 miles from Denver City. I went to see Thomas Weaver and Thomas Motz, who are engaged in the prop timber business for the mines. I went with them to their lamber camp. We loaded a wagon with props, took our dinner grub, stuck fast in the mud several times, but got through all safe and returned home in the evening all O. K.

Philip Weaver returned from his trip to Twin Lakes. He is in the trout business and gets 50 cents a pound for the speckled beauties here in Leadpersons from Centre county to the com- | ville. Philip is an old boss at the business and does well. He is here since 1866, when he crossed overland from Denver, in ox teams, in company with Mr. Geo. P. Weaver, a Mr. Daugherty from Lebenon, Pa., and my departed sister Lydia. Prices are very high here, excepting dry goods, which are comparatively reasonable. A laborer gets $3 a day and must pay $1 for board. A twohorse team earns $6 a day. Provisions must all be brought here by rail and are of course high. Good heavy horses sell for $600 to $800. There is much hauling done here. I am told that a four-horse team hauled from the mine to the smelting furnace nearly nine tons of ore, at one load. What do our Penn's Valley farmers think of such

To-morrow I expect to leave Leadville for Twin Lakes to visit Mr. Weaver and spend a day with him catching trout. If I can't catch any I know that he can, and you bet I will help to eat them.

There are plenty of chances here to buy interests in mines. These offers are generally from prospectors who have no means to develope their claims and are seeking partners to aid them. Facilities for mining and hauling are increasing, and many of the mines are now considered paying which formerly were worth but little, if anything. The costs of reducing raw ore has come down considerable and will still get lower. Hauling, labor and everything else will get lower in course of time, so that many hundreds of tons of ore may in future become valuable that are now worthless. I am of the opinion that there is a vast wealth buried never be exhausted, but will feed and erations to come. More anon

Truly Yours, J. C. MOTZ. The Next State Fair.

Secretary D. W. Seiler and Major Elbridge McConkey, of the State Agricultural Society, have returned home from Philadelphia where they had been making arrangements for the next annual exhibition of the State Fair. Thirty acres of ground have been secured at Broad street and Germantown junctions, a lease being made for ten years from Mr. Weightman, of the firm of Powers & Weightman. The officers will immediately fence in the ground and rapidly put up substantial buildings. For exhibits a building 1,000 feet long and 75 feet wide will be erected, besides stalls for cattle, horses, sheep, swine and poultry and other sheds. The premium list this year will be very liberal.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Southing Syrup for Children Terring. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhoea, regulates the stumpel, and und diarrhoea, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colle, softens the gums, re-duces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs Winslow's Sooth-TNG SYRUP FOR CHILDREN TEETHING IS pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurs es in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world.
