WHAT has become of the law which was to crush out polygamy and make the Mormon mourn? Never in the history of their church have the Latter Day Saints prosperous as they do now. Their missignaries are not only more active in this country than ever before but they are making converts abroad by the thousand. Nearly seven hundred Mormon recruits landed in New York last Sunday a week, and they are all representated to be thrifty and wellto do emigrants. It really looks as if the Government is not in earnest in its effort to eradicate the twin relic.
