

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

ASSOCIATE JUDGE. We are authorized to announce that J. B. Smith, of Pine Grove Mills, will be a candidate for the office of Associate Judge, subject to the decision of the Democratic County Convention.

We are authorized to announce that John Smith, of Pine Grove Mills, will be a candidate for the office of Associate Justice, subject to the decision of the Democratic County Convention.

Tramps are still willing to take the trade dollar at face value.

Neighbor B. F. Miller last week moved into the suburb called Lewisville.

A number of Aaronburg's best looking lads and lasses are attending Rev. Herald's select school here.

Mrs. Hannah Miller will make sale of the personal effects of the late William Miller, deceased, August 25 h. See bills.

Trade Dollars will be received at the JOURNAL OFFICE at 100 cents on the dollar on arrears of subscription.

Whortleberries are only five cents and blackberries but four cents a quart, at Middleburg. Can't you send some up this way, Tom?

The season is here when the little urchin tries ever so hard by means of green apples to make a doctor bill for his daddy to pay.

There is no purifier like fresh air; and the whole house, every room in it, whether it has been used or not, should be opened every day.

Mr. C. A. Ressum is hereby tendered the thanks of the senior editor and family for a fine "mess" of fish. They were simply herrick.

A few days of good, dry weather has enabled our farmers to house their grain safely in the barns. Some of it is a little sprouted but not materially damaged.

Do not forget Dr. P. T. Muser's sale of real estate of the late John D. Foote, de'd, next Tuesday. Some first class properties can be obtained at reasonable prices.

Mr. Edward H. Frank has returned from the west and is now engaged as salesman in Tomlinson's store. Edward is an efficient clerk and a most exemplary young man.

Chairman Heine gives notice that the Democratic delegate elections will be held, Saturday, Aug. 11th, and that the county convention will meet next Tuesday following, the 14th.

NOTICE.—A large number of borough orders are in my possession. Persons entitled to them are requested to call and lift them.

R. A. BUMILLER, Clerk of Council.

Little Laurelton is to have a spacious new brick school house with two rooms below and a town hall above. The primary department will be for the children of the district and the others for the advanced pupils of the whole township.

Mr. T. G. Erhard and lady returned from their extended Kansas trip on Saturday evening "safe and sound." They did not however get through Millheim as easily as they may have expected, for every man, woman and child wanted to see the prairie dog they had along.

Our young friend, E. W. Mauck, is by many odds the best painter and paperhanger in this vicinity. He has just finished a job for us and we must say that his graining and decorating is simply splendid. We advise our readers to employ him if they wish to have a first-class job in all respects.

J. H. Reifnyder, Esq., is off to Harrisburg attending the Democratic State Convention as one of the delegates of the county. He is able flanked by the following gentlemen as substitutes: Hon. W. K. Alexander, Councilman Springer, Sheriff Eoust, P. H. Stover, Esq., and Mr. A. J. Immel.

A very fine monument, to be placed at the grave of the late John Shannon, Esq., at Centre Hall, can now be seen at the Millheim Marble Works. It is a fitting and creditable tribute to the memory of an esteemed citizen and beloved father, by his only surviving child, Mrs. Rev. T. F. Dornblaser, of Topeka, Kansas.

STRAYED OR STOLEN, from the residence of the subscriber in Aaronburg, on the 31st of May last, a dark red cow, with a little white along the belly and from rump to tail, medium size, heavy set and short legged, and heavy with calf at the time. Any information that leads to the recovery of the cow will be liberally rewarded by CHARLES C. BELL.

A BIT OF DOG LAW.—If anybody is attacked on the highway by a dog the party has a right to kill the dog and the owner can be held accountable for any injury inflicted by the animal. Even on his own premises the owner of a dog can be held responsible for injuries done by the animal, provided it can be shown that the person injured was there for proper purposes. If a dog by barking at passing horses or vehicles occasions any damage, its owner is liable for the loss sustained. Thus the law very plainly affords ample protection for loss or injury caused by dogs.

—Mr. John Rishel, of Potter township, gave us a friendly call last week. Mr. Rishel is a candidate for Associate Judge and is out slaking hands with friends. He is one of the most intelligent farmers in Centre county and possesses all the qualifications for the office. If we mistake not he was born in the county and spent all his life time here.

—J. A. LEMBERT will carry express and freight goods from Coburn to any point along the route at the following rates: All packages weighing less than 100 pounds, to Millheim, 10 cts., to Aaronburg, 15 cts., to Woodward, 25 cts. For packages weighing over 100 pounds a proportionate charge will be made.

—The following is the Watchman's sure cure for diarrhoea: Take equal parts of tincture of rhubarb, essence of peppermint, and spirits of camphor. Mix well. Dose, fifteen to thirty drops in a wineglass of water, according to age and violence of the attack. Repeat every fifteen or twenty minutes until relief is obtained.

—J. K. Smith & Co., the popular house furnishing firm of Milton, last week delivered some very fine furniture and carpets for S. D. Muser, R. A. Bumiller and others. Mr. Smith, the head man of the enterprising firm was here himself and reports an increasing trade in this neighborhood, largely due to regular and liberal advertising in the JOURNAL.

—The Bellefonte papers have it that the Buffalo Run Rail Road is soon to pass into the hands of the Pennsylvania company, which circumstance is of interest to the people of this end of the county only so far as it may affect the extension of the L. & T. road to a connection with the Buffalo Run at Lemon. What is the company going to do about it?

DISTRESSING ACCIDENT.—Mrs. Hugh Martin, of Mount Eagle, near Milesburg, while on the mountain the other Friday had with her a son aged about 8 years, named Willie. The little fellow climbed on top of a rock, which weighed about a ton. The rock for some reason started to roll, threw him off and passed over his body, breaking both legs, and neck. The agonized mother carried the lifeless body to a neighboring colliery and from there it was taken home by Mr. Hugh Shultz.

—The Mountain Union Sunday Schools in Gregg township will hold its annual picnic in John Grove's woods near the residence of Benjamin Ripka, where it was last year, on Saturday August 25th. The George's Valley Union School, Leont Grove Evangelical School, Liberty Union School and Paradise Evangelical School are expected to be present. The Millheim Cornet Band has been engaged. Rev. Benj. Hengst will deliver the address.

The public is cordially invited to attend.

—When our business men get a letter or a bill from a foreign firm, with neither letter or bill-head printed, nor the envelope imprinted, the natural conclusion is that the firm sending it is a poor, one-horse concern. And again, that is just what other houses think of our business men when they correspond with them in that style. At this office you can get letter-heads, bill-heads, statements, envelopes, cards, etc., printed in the latest style, and at a little more than the cost of the blank stationery.

—There is not a man, woman or child in this entire region that did not at some time enjoy and admire the music rendered by the Millheim Cornet Band. Most of our people have had this pleasure very frequently. The boys now have everything necessary for successful work—a splendid wagon, fine uniforms, etc. A little debt however burdens them and this they propose to pay with the proceeds of their festival on Saturday. It will be but an act of justice if this community give them a liberal patronage, and we trust it may be done.

—A judicial apportionment bill has at last been passed by both houses of the legislature and only needs the Governor's signature to make it a law. Center county is joined to Union and Snyder into one district, which makes Judge Bueher the President Judge, while Judge Orvis status will be the same as before. The new district gave sixty-five republican majority last year—counting stalwarts and independents together. It is now just such a district as give the best man the best chance to win.

—Our valued friend, Mr. J. R. VanOrmer, of the Bellefonte Democrat, bids an affectionate farewell in last week's paper to the readers and patrons of the Democrat. He expects to enter another field of labor "less extensive but more congenial" as he aptly puts it in his neat valedictory.

We sincerely regret that Reese is going out of the profession, and much more that he expects to leave the county, as we hear from another source. Our acquaintance with him extends back over a number of years and has ripened into warm friendship. He has his own best wishes in all the walks of future life.

—The Democratic state convention met at Harrisburg yesterday at 10 o'clock, just a few hours before we go to press. Hope the convention will nominate good fit men and adopt a sound platform. With such premises success is all but certain.

A PLACE FOR TRADE DOLLARS.—If you have trade dollars on hand and are in need of clothing, hats, caps, boots and shoes, &c., just wend your way to Whiteomb's Mammoth store, Main street, Lock Haven, where you will be allowed in merchandise the face value of every trade dollar. Whiteomb is a square dealer and manages his business in such a way as to enable him to dispose of his goods at prices that cannot fail to please everybody. A visit to his store and a five minute talk with him will convince you of this fact. Main street, Lock Haven, Pa.—Jersey Shore Herald.

—THE HARVEST HOME PICNIC on Friday was well attended considering the fact that most of the grain in this section was yet standing on stocks. The Millheim and Brush Valley bands were on the grounds and both did their parts well. The refreshment stand did a thriving business, the amusements were well patronized and the day was spent pleasantly. Base ball and glass ball shooting were the principle features of attraction. The following are the scores of each as taken by the respective umpires, R. A. Bumiller and A. J. Campbell:

I. J. Grenoble received the contract for building the bridge abutments, for $600. He will make a good job of it.

St. Elmo Hotel. Nos. 317 & 319 ARCH ST., PHILADELPHIA.

RATES REDUCED TO $2.00 PER DAY. The traveling public will still find at this Hotel the same liberal provision for their comfort. It is located in the immediate centres of business and places of amusement and the different Rail-Road depots, as well as all parts of the city, are easily accessible by street cars constantly passing the doors. It offers special inducements to those visiting the city for business or pleasure.

Your patronage respectfully solicited. Jos. M. Feger, Proprietor.

A Terrible Calamity. Over Sixty People Drowned Near Baltimore.

Baltimore, July 24. Black craps hangs from the door of many a house throughout Baltimore today. Upwards of sixty dead bodies, the result of an accident at the Tivoli picnic grounds, are awaiting burial. Tivoli is not far from North Point, on the Patapsco river, about ten miles from this city. It was formally known as Holly Grove and was the first regular excursion place fitted up near the city about fifteen years ago. At that time it was a popular place, but of late has lost considerable of its prestige.

Yesterday there was an immense excursion to Tivoli, under the auspices of the Mount Royal Beneficial Society of the Catholic Church of Corpus Christi, of which Father Starr is pastor. The excursionists went down on the barge Cockade City, which was towed by the tug Amanda Powell. The barge was formerly an old canal boat, which had been fitted up with several decks for excursion purposes and used as such for several years. She made three trips to Tivoli yesterday, carrying down several hundred passengers altogether, who were gathered from all parts of the city.

ON THE RICKETY WHARF. There is a long wharf at Tivoli, probably a thousand feet long. When the Cockade City reached the picnic grounds on the last trip down it was 10 o'clock at night. She was very late and the great body of excursionists were tired or waiting. Between 150 and 200 of them pressed upon the wharf before the gate which guards the entrance to the wharf had been closed against them. The wharf was old and rickety and could not stand the weight of so many impatient people. Near the boat-end of the wharf is another gate. This was locked before more than a few people could get through and thus most of the excursionists on the wharf were between the two gates. The Cockade City drew up to the pier and the gang plank was thrown across. Just then there was a crash, followed by loud shrieks and cries for help. Just where the great body of excursionists had been standing there was a great yawning hole. The wharf had given way and scores of excursionists were struggling in the water.

STRUGGLING IN THE WATER. The scene beggars description. The cries of the drowning men, women and children were heartrending. The moon had gone down and the only light was that shed by two feeble coal oil lamps. Some of the rescuers took the barge lanterns and set them on the wharf. Two of them exploded and added fresh terror to the scene. Those on the decks of the barge threw off preservers, stools and benches into the water. These struck a great many on the head and knocked them senseless. Others fell down planks and fences. A indescribable hopeless and terror-stricken shrieks, curses, groans mingled with cries of "God save us!" In the midst of the awful confusion strong men fought their way out of the clutches of drowning women and children in their mad efforts to save their lives, only to be clutched again and again by some other unfortunate, and finally through sheer exhaustion going down with those who impeded their efforts in their attempts to save themselves by clinging to them. In this way many persons who could swim perished with those who could not. Two on the shore were panic-stricken. They could be seen tearing up and down the river bank, wringing their hands and almost frantic in their effort to find missing ones. It was an awful scene. There were but half a dozen cool heads in the lot. Those who kept their presence of mind aided in saving the struggling ones in the water and many were helped ashore. As soon as possible the Cockade City got off to the city with a number of the dead bodies, leaving hundreds of excursionists to spend the night on the river banks, searching for others of the dead.
