Throughout the first call there was an unusual interest, the vote being very close. It stood at the close: Powell 132, MacReynolds 119, McCool 81 and Mackin 18. The second ballot decided the nomination, Mr. Mackin's name being withdrawn. The result was: Poweil 225, MacReynolds 89 and McCool 40. The cheering was very uprearious and lasted for some time. Captain Taggart and Mr. Powell both appeared before the convention and thanked the delegates for the honor conferred, promising to administer the trust, if confided to them, with fidelity and an eye single to the best interests of the public.

The platform, consisting of sixteen planks, is full and complete in all its parts-all that can be desired. Wewill lay it before the readers of the JOURNAL next week.

The work of the convention was well done and evidently augurs suc-

The telegraph operators' strike still continues.

A SOUTHERN OUTRAGE -The Georgia House of Lepresentatives unseated D. J. Proctor, a white representative thony Wilson, colored, in his place, by a vote of 87 to 61. Wilson has been in two previous Legislatures. There are two other negroes in the House.

A PROSPEROUS STATE. - Georgia, the Empire State of the South, is making rapid strides in material and moral improvement. Manufacturing, the mechanic arts and agriculture are all fiburishing as never before. Out of her fifty-two counties forty-eight have given majorities in favor of the local given majorities in favor of the local prohibition of the liquor traffic, which proves that sobriety and good morals keep full pace with material prosperity. It is a noteworthy fact, too, that Georgia is a staunch democratic state.

The stalwart senate still labors hard to prevent an apportionmentatten dollars a day.

His Name is Pike.
