P. Gray Meek,

UNDER republican rule the government has almost become a selfrunning and self-regulating machine The President is off to the Yellowstone Park, Scretaries Lincoln and Folger and Post Master General Gresham are with bim, Brewster is at Long Branch, Frelinghuysen. somewhere in New Jersey, Teller in Golorado and Chandler in New * Hanshire-but they all draw their salaries just as if they were on active duty.

What a grand, glorious country

LAST Wednesday Gov. Pattison sent a bill to the house stating that he had approved the judicial apportionment bill and it is now the law. The other week the JOURNAL stated upon what we believed good authority President Judge and Orvis as additional Law Judge. Last week's Clinton Democrat publishes a list of districts and has Centre and Huntdington as the 49th with Orvis as President and an Additional Law Judge to be elected, while the list of districts given by the Centre Hall Reporter of last week omits Centre county altogether. Have we a district and what is it?

THE Harrisburg Patriot which stuck do under the circumstamces. Chairman Hensel's Lineaster Intelligencer is of the same opinion. The Journal is ahead of both and has advised adconstitution, violated duty and the denial of the same enter the Crombination is allowance and confirmation:

They Should Adjourn.

For some weeks it has been painfully session of the legislature. The of ject for which the session was called will not be reached and the costly session itself is relieved from utter failure only by the passage of a very unsatisfactory judicial apportionment law.

Gov. Pattison did all he can lawfully do in the premises by calling the extra session, and his skirts are clear. The democratic house did its duty fullyand long ago, by passing very fair apportionments, and later by appointing conference committees, but the blind and stubborn party bigots of the senate, who regard party fealty higher than constitutional duty and solemn oath of office, stand in the way. They have issued their ultimatum, the infamous McCracken bill--or nothing. It is but too apparent that they intended to prevent all apportionment from the beginning, and thus compels the voters of the state to elect representatives under the present outrageous gerrymander. Their course is but little short of revolution, and yet it is within the form of law.

What can be done? The legislature can adjourn. It will be none too soon. The people of the state are thoroughly tired of paying $3000 a day for the farce that is daily enacted at our state capital. Patience is fast ceasing to be a virtue. Let the democrats act in concert. Let the House place itself on record in a sett of resolution so umistakably plain that he who runneth may read, fix an early day for fina! adjournment, send it to the mulish senate, and go home. The people will settle the matter themselves most effectually with those particular senators and members who are disgracing themselves and our fair commonwealth by their stubborn refusal to perform a plain, constitutional duty. A democratic congress will teach the stalwart bosses of our ring-ridden state that if they choose to violate the plain mandates of the constitution, Pennsylvania must shift along without representation in the national legislature.

Hon. Proctor Knott, the democratic candidate for Governor of Kentucky, was elected by a majority ranging almost anywhere between 40,000 and 60,-600, which is about all any reasonable man should ask.

PLATFORM

ADOPTED BY THE DEMOCRATIC STATE

> fundamental faith of their party, reassert their belief in a strict construction and rigid enforcement of the federal constitution; they uphold the sanctity of personal liberty and the rights of local self-government; they believe in that genuine and deep reaching civil service reform which consists in the election to office of honest, intelligent, capable and courageous public servants, who will faithfully adminster their trust and who will be held to strict accountability for such a discharge of it, and who will redeem and purge the departments of the general Government from that corruption and fraul with which they have been permeated under the Republican rule, and which that party has shown itself unable and unwilling to cradicate; they believe in such taxation of the people as is requisite for the necessities of the Government economically administered, and that import duties should be so adjusted in their application as the kepublican party that the people should be taxed to raise a surplus fund for the federal gov. ernment to distribute among the States; the people should only be taxed so much as is absolutely indispensable for the frugal conduct of their affairs-not one cent for surplus and no unnecessary taxat ion. The existing surplus in the treasury should be faithfully applied to the payme nt of the public debt. The money not needed for the expences of the Government should remain in the peckets of the people. To this end we favor the entire abolition of the present system of internal taxation as a measure of relief demanded by the people from an unnecessary and unequal burden; they demanded that the Government should redeem all its express and implied obligations as to the coinage; that it shall maintain and defend the dignity of American labor and the rights of American citizens at home and abroad; they in sist on reserving the public lands for actual settiers-not another acre for corporation; and they further declare that,

1. The administration of Governor Pattison has vindicated the pledges of reform upon which he was elected; and his upright, intelligent and courageous exercise of the executive power deserves the unqualified approbation of his party and of the people of the common-

2. The economies enforced by the Democratic House of Representatives and in the department of State Government which have passed under Democratic control, and the abolition of useless officers that were a burden to the people, give assurance that the extension of the contract to other departments of the State Governthe extravagance and irregularities which have prevailed under the Republican Administration. 3. Public moneys are for public uses ; and all appropriations should be the subjects of rigid scrutiny, to the end that these uses may be served without personal or local favoritism.

4. The long continued abuses and spoilation of the State Treasury, and the defiance of the that Centre, Union and Snyder were law by its management make essential a radijoined in one district with Bucher as cal reform, so that large funds shall not be accumulated by taxation of the people, to be distributed among the favored depositories of State officials, but that all surplus in excess of the immediate necessities of the State Government shall be invested in interests bearing State or federal securities until it may be apphed to the extinguishment of the State debt.

THE GOVERNOR ENDORSED.

5. The demand of the Democratic Senators and Representatives for an honest, just and true apportionment, is in accord with the rights and interests of every section, and of all the people of the State. The shameless determination of the Republicans of the Legislature to naintain the present dishonest, unjust and untrue apportionment of the State, by their refusal to accede to any fair proposition, is a denial out against adjournment until now, to the people of their right to fair and equal repbegins to see that it is the only ration- resentation, which is the foundation of free al and proper thing the democrats can government. We commend the Governor for convening the extra session to enforce obedience to the law. We counsel the Democratic

6. The long-continued immunity from punishment for political and other crimes which offenders enjoy under Republican control of the Pardon Board has been terminated by the scapparent that no apportionment bills lection to that body of Democrats who have rewould be passed by the present extra gardefor their oaths and duties and who exercise their responsible office without fear; favor or affection.

7. The 16th and 17th articles of the State con stitution, regulating private corporations, railroads and canals, are the supreme law of the commonwealth governing them, and these provisions of the law should be enforced in their full vigor and meaning by appropriate legislation. Extortions and fraudulent discriminations are crimes and should be punished as

LAWS FOR THE WORKINGMEN. 8. That the action of the legislature in passng laws to protect honest workingmen from being brought into competition with convict laborers is to be recommended, and the Democratic House of Representatives is deserving of especial approval for originating the measares looking to that end.

9. Every legitimate effort of labor to better its condition, enhance its rewards and protect its rights, commands the sympathy and support of the Democratic party, which is the natural foe of monepoly, and the natural friend of the workingman. The present unprecedented and unsatisfactory condition of the relations of labor and capital demands the careful thought of legislators. Due regard should be had to the vested right of capital and claims of private enterprise. Legal arbitration is a proper and commendable means of settling dis utes between employers and employes.

10. The tax laws of the State should be carefully revised and so changed as to make them more equal and more just, and bear equally upon all classes of property. Resolved, That the rules of the party be so amended as to fix the time of the annual meeting of the State committee at 4 p. m., on the

Wednesday after the third Monday of January,

instead of the third Monday as now provided.
