

THURSDAY, AUGUST 23RD, 1883.

BY DEININGER & BUMILLER.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

Campmeeting is over.

P. H. Maser keeps a splendid line of watches and jewelry.

Smith's German Olio is meeting with phenomenal success.

Elias Lose and son have built an important addition to their planing mill.

Don't forget Mrs. Hannah Miller's sale next Saturday afternoon, at one o'clock.

A fine assortment of Photograph Albums just received at the JOURNAL STORE. Call and see them.

Our friend Joseph Swanger opened a new store on North street. (Texas.) Joe does business on the first floor.

The workmen at Hartman's foundry are busy as beavers turning out buzzing threshing machines. Let them buzz.

Hoffer's Time, Wages & Expense Book, the best thing out in its line, indispensable to workmen, for sale at the JOURNAL STORE.

The big and little statesmen of the town are doing the level best to hatch out a young crop of grist-stones at the hardware corners.

Rev. I. P. Neff, of Shenandoah, Pa., has accepted a call from the Plain, Perry Co. Pa., charge, whether he expects to remove shortly.

The Albright brothers returned from their business tour on Friday, delighted with the trip and pockets well filled with spondoolics.

Mrs. Alice Tonner, Mrs. Aggie Nagle & Mrs. Laura House, stayed in town this week visiting their father and grandfather, Ex Sheriff Musser.

A lot of refuse boards and other lumber will be sold at the Lutheran church, next Friday evening, six o'clock. Terms—cash, and the highest bidder the buyer.

Mrs. John C. Wolf, of Watson town, spent a week right pleasantly among her old friends and acquaintances in Millheim, Aaronsburg and round about.

Beats the Dickens what a lot of agents come and go all the time. Millheim must be a good place to sell goods, or else our landlords give good grub and prime—cigars.

Mr. H. K. Luse presented us with some fine specimens of Lawton blackberries. He can not only build houses and printing offices but knows just how to raise fruit.

It is estimated that over 2000 people attended camp meeting on Sunday. It affords us great pleasure to add that good order prevailed throughout with slight exceptions.

Daniel Bressler brought a few plums to our sanctum the other day which beat all in the plum line we ever saw. Dan has no name for them but that makes no practical difference.

J. L. Spangler, Esq., and Dr. Geo. M. Swartz, of Bellefonte, and D. O. Bower, of Union county, were among the strangers brought here by the sale of the Keen estate, on Friday.

Little Johnny Zeigler, of Millmont, spent a few days here attending camp-meeting and shaking hands with friends. Johnny didn't grow much since we saw him last but can laugh as heartily as ever.

Mr. C. K. Fisher and lady, of Richmond, Indiana, are here visiting old friends. They left Aaronsburg seventeen years ago and have not been here since. They have not grown older in appearance.

Dr. H. B. Vanvalzah, gave us a call last Friday. Like all the rest of that name he is a full-sized doctor, successfully engaged in practice at Clearfield, but has not forgotten that Millheim is his native home.

Never saw landlord Musser look happier, nor position Mensch feel prouder, than last Thursday when they had their four beautiful bay horses hitched to the Millheim Hotel bus and drove to Coburn and back. Whee!

Lots of music all around and all over. Organs, pianos, melodeons, brass bands and Jewsharps—but Sam Weiser's Drehorgel, at the branch knobs the spots off them all. Really the others are all ashamed to play when Sam performs.

Cashier Walter is fixing up his RECEIPT BOOK will command itself to practical business men at sight. Its forms are so concise and plain that all may readily understand and use them. The Summary Index will show at a glance the increase or decrease of assessed valuation and taxes from year to year for a period of ten years.

Every taxable citizen, and especially every voter, should make it a rule to take receipts for all taxes paid. This is not only prudent on business principles, but actually necessary in order to enjoy the continued right to vote. It is also a matter of small consideration to have all tax receipts for a series of years together in convenient form for reference and comparison.

The indications are that this little book will have a very extensive sale. Every citizen needs one.

For sale at the JOURNAL STORE and by the trade generally. Price 40 cents.

Sheriff Dunkle showed his smiling countenance at several places in town last week. Our girls think he is real good-looking, for a sheriff, and we wouldn't like to swear by a stack of bibles as big as a house that all of them would resist being arrested by him.

Quite a number of our Millheimers have just discovered that it improves the general appearance of the town very much to have clean streets and the green swards in front free from noxious weeds and other rubbish. Better late than never—but we knew it these many years. Fact.

Rev. Z. A. Yearick writes us that he made a mistake in announcing his appointments at Millheim on Sunday evening and wishes to correct it as follows: Sunday Sept. 2nd, preaching at Aaronsburg at 7 A. M. Sunday Sept. 9th, Harvest Thanksgiving services at Aaronsburg at 10 A. M., German.

William Young, Esq., the former merchant prince of Millheim, now a resident of Philadelphia and president of a bank at Reading, was victimized at Waukesha, Wisconsin, on the 14th inst., to the tune of $1500 by a set of sharp confidence men. It is very surprising that a man of Mr. Young's age, experience and knowledge of the world could be caught in such a thin trap.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.—Whitmer, Culp & Co.'s steam saw mill (formerly Mueller & Gephart's) near Paddy Mountain tunnel, was totally destroyed by fire on Sunday morning. The fire was discovered at about two o'clock in the morning, but had made too much headway to be extinguished. The loss is estimated at about $6000, mostly covered by insurance. It is supposed the mill will rebuild without delay.

Mrs. Rowe, widow of the late Rev. A. D. Rowe, the lamented Missionary in India, makes her present stay with the parents of her departed husband, near Booneville, Clinton county. She will give a lecture in Booneville, in a few weeks at which time she will exhibit quite a number of articles of handwork which she brought with her from India.

A BLACKHEARTED VILLAIN.—Williamsport's latest sensation is an elopement in high life. J. O. Parker, Esq., who occupied a prominent place among the very creme de la creme of Williamsport society, has desecrated a beautiful, accomplished and high-bred wife and a son twelve years old, and has fled to Europe with Miss Harriet Tremaine, a pretty young lady of twenty years, who was also considered highly respectable. It is rumored that he took with him $40,000 belonging to other parties.

The Trustee's sale of the real estate of the late John Keen on Friday last was a success. The several properties were sold as follows: Five acres of land between Millheim and Aaronsburg at J. W. Snook, at $12.50 per acre. Five acres on the hill west of Millheim to J. H. Reifsnyder, at $105 per acre. Bank building to D. A. Musser, $1200. Dwelling house and shop next door to the Journal office, to W. J. Springer, $300. The farm was bid up to $54 per acre but not knocked off, and the sale adjourned to Saturday next, 12th P. M., sharp.

On Monday we were very agreeably surprised by a visit from Mr. Hugh Osman, a companion of our boyhood years. Mr. Osman left Millheim thirty-five years ago and has not been here since. He was surprised beyond expression over the many changes wrought since the long, long ago, and particularly that so few of the people then here are left. Truly, 35 years make many changes.

Mr. Osman resides at Alleman, Clearfield Co., and we are glad to add, is well to do in the world. He brought his wife along to show her his native place, which was real nice in Hugh.

The several Sunday Schools of Aaronsburg will unite in holding a picnic on Saturday the 1st of Sept. in Mr. Coburn's woods a short distance east of town. All are cordially invited to attend. There will be as little formality on the occasion as possible. All are requested to meet on the ground at 10 o'clock. There will be no procession of schools, no tables erected and no speeches made. It is to be a day set apart purely for the innocent amusement of the young and old. Each family will provide its own lunch, and there need be no extravagant preparation made for the occasion. It is hoped that all the families of the several churches, though not attending any one of the schools will nevertheless be present.

Never saw landlord Musser look happier, nor position Mensch feel prouder, than last Thursday when they had their four beautiful bay horses hitched to the Millheim Hotel bus and drove to Coburn and back. Whee!

On the 17th inst., near Millheim, Mrs. Christina Kremer, widow of the late Daniel Kremer, deceased, aged 76 years, 6 months and 27 days.

On the 19th inst., in Penn township, of dropsy David Flory, aged 71 years, 10 months and 2 days.

Deceased became a pauper at the age of about 2 years in Haines township. When Haines township was divided in 1841 he became a charge on Penn and remained such up to the time of his death. He was a man of poor health and had a paralytic stroke before he was 2 years of age and was one of a thousand who attained such a great age without being able to walk a single step. His wife died in 1850, leaving two of their parents' while quite young, and they being in straitened circumstances David had to support them. The pauper was supported by the use of both legs and one arm, Mt. Flory during his lifetime constructed 3 bureaus, 5 chests and a number of smaller articles not in the hands of relatives and friends who had given them very kindly as presents to the deceased. One of the chests made by him remained in his possession up to the time of his death, and was constructed out of 114 pieces of wood. It is quite a specimen of mechanics, and would put to shame to some of our mechanics of the present day who have the use of their hands. In his will Mr. Flory made his entire property to his wife, and directed that she should sell the same and use the money to pay his debts and expenses. So long as she resided in Haines township she was to receive a pension of $100 per annum, and when she left the place of her residence she was to receive $50 per annum.

At the time of his death he had in his possession $30 in gold and $80 in silver, which he accumulated during his long lifetime by selling fish and making furniture. May he rest in peace.

THE READY REFERENCE TAX RECEIPT BOOK will command itself to practical business men at sight. Its forms are so concise and plain that all may readily understand and use them. The Summary Index will show at a glance the increase or decrease of assessed valuation and taxes from year to year for a period of ten years.

Every taxable citizen, and especially every voter, should make it a rule to take receipts for all taxes paid. This is not only prudent on business principles, but actually necessary in order to enjoy the continued right to vote. It is also a matter of small consideration to have all tax receipts for a series of years together in convenient form for reference and comparison.

The indications are that this little book will have a very extensive sale. Every citizen needs one.

For sale at the JOURNAL STORE and by the trade generally. Price 40 cents.

II. H. Tomlinson got himself a new telephone yesterday to connect his two stores. It is a neat instrument and works like a charm. Next?

The Reporter gives notice that a rail road meeting is to be held at Centre Hall, Thursday, Aug. 30th inst. The meeting is called at the instance of a number of the stockholders of the L. & T. R. R., to take some concerted action in reference to the extension and completion of the road. We sincerely hope the meeting may tend to bring the Penna. R. R. Co., to an active sense of justice in the matter. The people of the upper end of Penn's Valley have been kept out of their clear rights and it is high time that justice be done them. Let the road be completed right speedily.

A DISGUSTED SUBSCRIBER.—Rev. P. S. Davis, D. D., editor of the Reformed Messenger, published in Philadelphia, recently received the following emphatic notice to discontinue:

June 18
1883
1880

maister editor

I want you to stop mi bapper rite of as i dunt want it no mor aut dint do me no gut at tall if i want boletiks i kin git it in alek maklurs dins of all kinds

if i want sum bostry i kin goat earf in ini him buk aut to markit prizes i kin fin out wen i tab buter eks ant botatoe to filldify so i dunt want the mes-ungr no mor

a gurh paprer must not print nosing
but gorgh mens ant i tell yu wonce mor to stop mi bapper of

from your fren

T'other day editor Deininger, of the Millheim Journal, was seen with a large apron on mixing mortar for his new office building, which leads our informant to say that it proves one of two important facts to wit—that he wears too good a quality of clothing for his calling, or he is, like the common run of country quill drivers, too poor to hire a mortar mixer. Let our brother explain.—Millheim Telegraph.

Explain, did you say? Yes, if we had the kid-glove editor of the Telegraph and his dudie reporter within reach we could explain them the whys and wherefores of our business so emphatically that they wouldn't forget it till Judgement day! Blackguarding a decent man for being industrious and taking care of his clothes—then adding insult to injury by insinuating that he is poor! Ugh! But we will catch these tony, stuck up chaps some day and get even with them. Meanwhile they had better appoint their executors—if they have anything to execute—and make provision for Coroner's fees and monuments. (?)

Around Farmer's Mills.

Six hundred and fifty persons have visited Penn Cave since the first of May—and still they come from the four quarters of the earth.

Carpenters are busy at the Union church putting up the steeple, which is to be eighty feet high from the ground.

The Lutheran and Reformed congregations are about buying a piece of ground as an addition to the cemetery—a very proper and necessary step.

Mr. Fisher expects soon to make some important repairs to the well-known Farmers' Mills.

Samuel Lohr left for Iowa the other week.

SCHOOL BOY.

THE PENNSYLVANIA STATE AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY has decided to dispense with the announced to be held in exhibition Philadelphia in October for the reason that the buildings cannot be completed in that time. The work will be commenced at an early date so that the structures will be completed early next year. This will enable the society to adorn the grounds and make the site of the fair an attractive spot.

St. Elmo Hotel,

Nos. 317 & 319 ARCH ST.,

PHILADELPHIA.

RATES REDUCED TO $2.00 PER DAY.

The traveling public will still find at this hotel the same liberal provision for their comfort. It is located in the immediate centre of business and places of amusement and the different Hall-Road depots, as well as all parts of the city are easily accessible by Street Cars constantly passing the doors. It offers special inducements to those visiting the city for business or pleasure.

Your patronage respectfully solicited.

Jos. M. Feger, Proprietor.

DIED.

On the 17th inst., near Millheim, Mrs. Christina Kremer, widow of the late Daniel Kremer, deceased, aged 76 years, 6 months and 27 days.

On the 19th inst., in Penn township, of dropsy David Flory, aged 71 years, 10 months and 2 days.

Deceased became a pauper at the age of about 2 years in Haines township. When Haines township was divided in 1841 he became a charge on Penn and remained such up to the time of his death. He was a man of poor health and had a paralytic stroke before he was 2 years of age and was one of a thousand who attained such a great age without being able to walk a single step. His wife died in 1850, leaving two of their parents' while quite young, and they being in straitened circumstances David had to support them. The pauper was supported by the use of both legs and one arm, Mt. Flory during his lifetime constructed 3 bureaus, 5 chests and a number of smaller articles not in the hands of relatives and friends who had given them very kindly as presents to the deceased. One of the chests made by him remained in his possession up to the time of his death, and was constructed out of 114 pieces of wood. It is quite a specimen of mechanics, and would put to shame to some of our mechanics of the present day who have the use of their hands. In his will Mr. Flory made his entire property to his wife, and directed that she should sell the same and use the money to pay his debts and expenses. So long as she resided in Haines township she was to receive a pension of $100 per annum, and when she left the place of her residence she was to receive $50 per annum.

At the time of his death he had in his possession $30 in gold and $80 in silver, which he accumulated during his long lifetime by selling fish and making furniture. May he rest in peace.

THE READY REFERENCE TAX RECEIPT BOOK will command itself to practical business men at sight. Its forms are so concise and plain that all may readily understand and use them. The Summary Index will show at a glance the increase or decrease of assessed valuation and taxes from year to year for a period of ten years.

Every taxable citizen, and especially every voter, should make it a rule to take receipts for all taxes paid. This is not only prudent on business principles, but actually necessary in order to enjoy the continued right to vote. It is also a matter of small consideration to have all tax receipts for a series of years together in convenient form for reference and comparison.

The indications are that this little book will have a very extensive sale. Every citizen needs one.

For sale at the JOURNAL STORE and by the trade generally. Price 40 cents.

J. A. LIMBERT will carry express and freight goods from Coburn to any point along the route at the following rates: All packages weighing less than 100 pounds, 10c. per lb.; 100 to 200 lbs., 15c. per lb.; 200 to 300 lbs., 20c. per lb.; 300 to 400 lbs., 25c. per lb.; 400 to 500 lbs., 30c. per lb.; 500 to 600 lbs., 35c. per lb.; 600 to 700 lbs., 40c. per lb.; 700 to 800 lbs., 45c. per lb.; 800 to 900 lbs., 50c. per lb.; 900 to 1000 lbs., 55c. per lb.; 1000 to 1100 lbs., 60c. per lb.; 1100 to 1200 lbs., 65c. per lb.; 1200 to 1300 lbs., 70c. per lb.; 1300 to 1400 lbs., 75c. per lb.; 1400 to 1500 lbs., 80c. per lb.; 1500 to 1600 lbs., 85c. per lb.; 1600 to 1700 lbs., 90c. per lb.; 1700 to 1800 lbs., 95c. per lb.; 1800 to 1900 lbs., 100c. per lb.; 1900 to 2000 lbs., 105c. per lb.; 2000 to 2100 lbs., 110c. per lb.; 2100 to 2200 lbs., 115c. per lb.; 2200 to 2300 lbs., 120c. per lb.; 2300 to 2400 lbs., 125c. per lb.; 2400 to 2500 lbs., 130c. per lb.; 2500 to 2600 lbs., 135c. per lb.; 2600 to 2700 lbs., 140c. per lb.; 270