O-H-I-O.

"OHIO O. K .- The Buckeye State goes democratic by 10,000 Majority .-- Patriot, 10th.

THE Northumberland County Democrat in a recent editorial gives some very strong reasons why the Hon. Samuel J. Randall should be re-elected Speaker of the next House of Representatives, every one of which the nent candidates, namely, Mr. Cox, of New York; Mr. Randall, of Pennsylvania, and Mr. John G. Carlisle, of Kentucky. They are all competent and respectable men, experienced in legislation, old members of the House. Any one of the three would make a good Speaker; and yet we earnestly advise that Samuel J. Randal! be elected. And why? First, because he has been trie I as a Speaker, and has evinced his ability to conduct the business of the House with wisdom, promptness and efficacy, so that the work of legislation is carried forward intelligently and rapidly. No time is wasted under him. Secondly, we are for Mr. Randall because he means economy in the public expenditures, and reform in every part of the Government; and not only does he stand for these things, but the public know it, and they confide in him accordingly. If he is chosen Speaker, the people at large will understand that the Democratic party means economy and reform; and many of them will adhere to the Democracy for that reason. Thirdly, we are for Mr. Randall because he is opposed to all those imwished. And what better preparation moval of the lobby, the banishment of every corrupt project of legislation, and the reduction of the public expendination of this question should be actures to a basis of economy and order? cepted with great seriousness.

A Strong Protest.

On Friday last the democratic members of the Pennsylvania Senate, through Senator Wallace, offered the following protest, which was placed upon record. It is an able state paper and portrays in clear, strong language the revolutionary course of the republican majority of the Senate on the question of apportionment, The protest deserves to be read and studied by

A PROTEST OF DEMOCRATIC SENATORS. A quorum of the senate being present, Tuesday, October 2, 1883, the minority thereof were in their seats and desirous of proceeding with the public business for which this extra session was called, when the majority in obedience to orders of a party caucus adjourned the senate, refused to allow us to be heard and forbade any action to be taken.

Against this proceeding and against similar action to be taken.

Against this proceeding and against similar adjournments from Tuesday until Friday and from Friday until Tuesday without the transaction of any business, we do solemnly protest as a violation as well of the rights of senators as of their constituents, and in disregard of the comity of intercourse that should exist between the We do most solemnly protest such action as revolutionary, for it defeats the orderly processes of government.

It is a flagrant neglect of our duty to transact the public business for which we were convened.

It closes the mouth of those chosen to seats in the senate and denies representation to those who selected them.
It refuses to permit discussion of the grave estion at issue, and substitutes caucus dieta ion for the forum of free speech.

It jeopardizes the entire delegation from the state in the next congress.

It tends to multiply the relations of the state to the federal government, and if carried to its logical sequence by a majority of the states would paralize if not destroy the government.

Their resolution to simply go through the motion of meeting twice a week and to refuse to consider any proposition is a distinct announcement that they will not do or make any further attempt to do their sworn duty. Having reached such a determination they should have adopted one more resolution—to resign their seats. They would appear in a better light if they assumed a virtue though they had it assumed a virtue though they had it

A Great Right in Danger.

From the Pittsburgh Post. It is stated that Hon. George A. Jenks, of Jefferson, after a thorough in vestigation of the constitution and legal questions involved has reached the conclusion of Senator Wallace that unless the state is reapportioned as the federal law commands, our delegation in the Forty-ninth congress, which will be elected next fall, will be jeopardproper schemes which are prepared and pushed by the power known as ized, and that if the clerk of the house the lobby. Judge Hoadley Prostrated.

SANDUSKY, Oct. 4 .- Judge Hoadley ad dressed a crowded house here last night. To day he was prostrated and decided not to address the Toledo meeting. He left for Cucinnati via Toledo this evening. He was very much broken down.

The Ultimatum Proofs Accumulate. From the Erie Herald.

Proofs accumulate that the real ultimatum of the machine is "no apportionment." It is stated on the authoriity of Chairman Hensel, who always "knows whereof he speaks," that Cooper "kicked like a steer" against reporting even the infamous McCracken bill lest the democrats should accept it and there he an apportionment made contrary to Cameron's wishes.

Hensel Wants the Fooling Stopped

From the Lancaster Intelligencer. The members who stand manfully by their posts fail to enforce the attendance of the others and thereby fall short of their full duty. Reform is necessary. Let them send the Sergeant-at-Arms for all the absent members and resolve to hold three sessions a day and to meet every day in the week. The cause they pretend to be staying there for is worth this. If they haven't the backbone to do this they need not expect the Democratic people to put faith in them, and they had better adjourn. We are not alone in this opinion. The Governor thinks so. Every Democratic newspaper of standing in the State indorses this position. Quit fooling. Do something. Quick.

THE feeling of dissatisfaction which exists among the republicans of Philadelphia over the nominations of E Harpers Jeffries for city controller, William E. Littleton for clerk of the sessions and Thomas J. Powers for coroner, manifested itself in a very lively way at a recent meeting of the Pennsylvania Clul, a republican organization of that city. Bitter speeches were made against these candidates by members of the club, in which the characters of Jeffries and Powers were severe ly arraigned. The result of the meeting was a refusal to endorse any of the candidates on the ticket. This does not betoken a surprising amount of republican harmony in the city of brotherly love. - Patriot.

Stronger than the Constitution.

From the Scranton Republican. The formidable growth of monopoly in the United States indicates that this is one of the great questions with which the people will have to deal in the near future. It is a mistake to confound corporation, every corporation is not a monopoly. Corporations are a necessity for carrying on great enterprises, and monopolies are an evil in preventing the people from reaping the benefits of legitmate enterprise and rivalship. The two great monopolies of this country at the present time are the Standard Oil Company and the Western Union. The former by a bold stroke, has taken posession of all the oil regions of Pennsylvania, crushed out the producers and made competition impossible, because of its great wealth, far-reaching influence, control of railroods, and powerful position in the market. The Western Union has crushed out rivalry in the telegraph business and is absolute master and owner of electric communication. In Pennsylvania both these monopolies have proved altogether stronger than the constitution:
