BLANKET LOST AND CALICO FOUND. -Dr. S. G. Gutelius took a buggy ride to Aaronsburg accompanied by his family, to make a business call at the Reformed parsonage and when arrived there he did not think it necessary to tie his gentle driving horse but only covered it with a blanket. After having stood there a while the horse got tired waiting and trotted home with out the doctor and his family. The blanket having been hung on loosely it was lost on the way to Millheim. When the doctor discovered the fix he was in and had procured another conveyance for his return, he went on a search -We have examined "Gems for the for his blanket but could not find it :

sual, ahead of all the lady's-books. Splendid as this magizine has been in the past, the present number quite outstrips itself. There are more than a hundred pages of reading-matter; wo superb steel-plates; a colored pattern costlier even than a chromo; a colored fashion-plate, half a hundred wood-cuts of fashions, work-ta ble patterns, ect., ect. The stories are, as always, exceptionally good: "Peterson" has long had the reputation of giving the best. It is a standing wonder to us how this magazine can be furnished at as low price: it can only be ex plained by the enormous circulation which "Peterson" has bad now for more than thirty years We really suppose there are few families, at al pretending to refinement, in which this magazine is not to be found. It claims, and not unthe estate of the late John D. Foote deservedly, to give more for the money-and of ber number ends the year. Now, therefore, is the time to subscribe for 1884, or to get up clubs notified that unless immediate payment | We advise our fair readers to subscribe for no magazine till they have seen a copy of this Specimens are sent gratis, if written for in good faith. The price is but Two DOLLARS a year to single subscribers. To clubs, it is cheaper still. viz: Four copies for six dollars and a half, with an extra copy of the Magazine as a premium to the person getting up the club. Or five copies for eight dollars, with both an extra copy of the Magazine for getting up the club, and also a su perb illustrated book of the poets, called "The Golden Gift," or a large size steel-engraving, for framing, "Tired Out," No other magazine gives such premiums. For larger clubs, the price is still lower, while even more premiums Mr. Bierly was taken down on or about are given. Address Peterson's Magazine, 309

WOMAN'S PROVINCE. The Duties of the Gentler Sex--How Best Fulfilled.

What a great task is assigned to woman, its dignity cannot be elevated. It is not her province to make laws, to lead armies, nor to be at the head of a great enterprise, but to her is given the ALLEGHENY ST., BELLEFONTE, PA power to form those by whom the laws are made, to teach the leaders of mighty armies, and the governors of vast empires. She is required to guard against having the slightest taint of bodily infirmity touch the frail creature, whose moral intellectual and physical being is derived from her. She must instill correct principles, in culcate right doc trines, and breathe into the soul of her offspring those pure sentiments which in time to come will be a part of themselves, and bless generations as yet unborn. Yes, to woman is given the ence. She smiles serenely at the chrisshe soothes the bereayed heart. This is her province and duty. Yet how can she fulfill ber mission unless she is possessed of a strong and healthy body? The preparation of Dr. S. B. Hartman, and known as PERUNA, is just the thing for all persons suffering from a majority of the compliants incident to this climate. It is invaluable to women, and Mrs. J. W. Reynolds of New Libson, Columbiana county is a noted example of what the medicine can do. She says she had suffered for years with congestion of the lungs, catarrh in the head, and was troubled with a bad cough. She had tried a number of physicians, but they all failed to cure her. She was induced to try PERUNA. and immediately a marked change took place. After using one bottle her cough ceased, and in a short time her other ailments were cured. She is now completely restored to health, and gives all the credit to PERUNA.
