

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

READ THIS.—Grand opening of a fine line of Holiday Goods at J. Eisenmuth's Drug Store, Millheim, on and after December 13th, where will always be found a full line of pure Drugs, Chemicals, and all the standard Patent Medicines of merit, which will be sold as cheap as the cheapest, for cash. Come, see, and be convinced.

—Lancaster Almanacs at the Journal Store, 5cts.

—Sled soles, 24 cts. per pound, plow shears 25 cts. each, at Knarr & Lose's Foundry.

—The Scrap Pictures at the new Journal Store are just "too lovely for anything."

—Miss Lizzie Harter is off this week to Harrisburg visiting friends and acquaintances.

—Two men were badly hurt last Thursday at Weiker run station, while raising a bridge.

—Since Bellefonte has a Board of Trade, could not Millheim at least have a shingle of trade?

—Everybody buys the beautiful gilt edged paper and Envelopes to match at the new Journal Store.

—Mr. B. F. Miller is still on the sick list. Our sincere wish and prayer is that he may soon recover.

—The finest Luther Portrait in chromo imported from Europe, for sale at the Journal Store on Penn Street.

—When you come to Millheim don't miss the new JOURNAL STORE. If we can't suit you we are mistaken, that's all.

—Mr. John Orndorf, an old and highly esteemed citizen of Haines township, died last Thursday the 13th instant, at his home.

—For fine Monuments and Headstones the Millheim Marble Works is the leading and best place in the county.

—Probably you need new Blank Books to begin new accounts with the new year. The new Journal Store is just the place to get them.

—It affords us pleasure to state that Miss Rosie Kreider, who was very sick recently, has much improved and is on a good way to recover fully.

—A beautiful snow, white as innocence itself, greeted mankind in this part on Monday morning, and it has snowed some every day since.

—Although butchering is over a number of families are still unsupplied with the usual supply of meat. There is a real scarcity of pork here.

—Smith's German Olio will not cure every disease that "flesh is heir to," but it most emphatically will cure rheumatism in all its forms.

—The farm of Samuel Shafer, deceased, near Madisonburg, will be offered for sale by Samuel Gramley, Trustee, on Monday, December 31st, 1883.

—Our different stores, big and little, are full to overflowing of goods with special reference to the holiday trade. Hope all may do a thriving trade.

—We were misinformed as to Dr. Stam's purchase at Spring Mills. He only bought the Krumrine homestead property and not the grain elevator.

—At Hartman's Foundry is the place to get the worth of your money. He sells Sled Soles at 3 cts. per lb., and pays 1 1/2 cts. per lb., for old metal.

—Every man should take receipts when he pays his taxes, and to do this with system and order a Ready Reference Tax Receipt Book is indispensable.

—If you are bilious, don't wait until you are down with a fever or with the rheumatism, but cleanse your liver and system generally with Smith's German Olio.

—On Tuesday Mr. Frank Weiser moved into the house of the late Nathan Korman, at Elkton. Frank also takes charge of the smithy. Much success to him.

—Fine Christmas Cards, New Year's Cards, Birthday Cards, Sunday School Cards—Cards for every person and occasion in great variety, at the Journal Store.

—If you want something neat, tasty and brilliant in the shape of a Holiday or Sunday School Cards, the new Journal Store is your place to get them. The supply is immense.

—Esquire Duck informs us that the several schools of Penn township are in excellent working condition. It is with unfeigned pleasure that we make a note of such facts.

—Motz & Snook will offer the Pine Creek mill property at public sale on Friday, December 28th, 1883. Persons wishing to buy a Grist & Saw Mill with dwelling houses and 16 acres of land as well as a fine orchard of choice fruit attached to it, should attend this sale, as the premises are in first-class condition.

—Prof. J. H. Kurzenkabe of Harrisburg has been engaged to superintend the musical department at the Institute to be held at Lock Haven during the Holidays.

—The weather tried hard during the last week to suit everybody, but whether it fully succeeded we have not heard. The variety embraced beautiful, sunny days, rains, storms and snow squalls.

—The painters are at work on the inside of the Lutheran church. The work is approaching completion and the church will be ready for dedication before long. Due notice will be given in season.

—The Pennsylvania Central Musical Association will hold its eleventh annual festival in the Musical College, Freeburg, Pa., beginning on Monday, Jan. 7th, 1884. Prof. Gomer Thomas will conduct the convention.

—The Reporter has been misled to state that scarlet fever prevails here. We have made inquiry and find that there is not a single case. It is a piece of mischief bordering on malice misinform editors in this particular way.

—Mr. J. Willis Musser has bought out the stage route from Woodward to Millheim, but also goes to Coburn every morning. He carries express and other goods from all points along the line at very moderate charges, and continues the calf and poultry business.

APPOINTMENT BY THE GOVERNOR.—Governor Pattison appointed Leonard Rhone, esq., of Centre Hall, commissioner of the Huntingdon Reformatory. Mr. Rhone is the master of the Pennsylvania state grange, Patrons of Husbandry.

—A book and stationery store has been a want in this end of the county which for the past few years we have been trying to supply. With enlarged facilities we will continue to develop in this line of trade, relying on a generous public for support.

BIG CALF.—Don't laugh over the heading—'tis a fact that our friend Geo. W. Stover, Esq., has a short horn calf that beats all in the calf line we ever heard of. It weighed 123 pounds twenty hours after it was born. Mr. Stover knows how to raise excellent stock.

—Last Sabbath a Sunday School was organized in the Evangelical church at Coburn, with seventy members present. This is a praiseworthy step and will give many persons, especially children, an opportunity to attend who before were deprived of the privilege. We did not learn who the officers are.

ACCIDENT.—On Friday evening while Mr. Wm. H. Smith and family were returning from Coburn, where they had been attending a religious meeting, the horses made a sudden jerk which threw Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Harvey Lamey, who occupied the rear seat, violently out of the wagon. Both were considerably but not dangerously hurt.

—The National Woman's Christian Temperance Union will celebrate its Tenth Anniversary Sabbath, December 23d.

The officers of the Penna. W. C. T. U. earnestly urge the general observance of the occasion, not only by the local Unions, but also by the churches and Sunday schools, with mass meetings, temperance sermons and children's meetings.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winstow's SOOTHING SYRUP FOR CHILDREN TEETHING. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhoea, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winstow's SOOTHING SYRUP FOR CHILDREN TEETHING is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle.

—No paper will be issued from this office next week. This is the old custom and a good custom it is—to have two short vacations, July 4th and Christmas weeks, for the printers. As a rule they richly deserve it. In our case this year a little rest will be gratifying. We had a long, hard siege of it and will try to enjoy our Holidays at home, measurably free from work and worry.

—A very interesting union children's meeting was held in the Evangelical church on Sunday. The church was well filled, the music was excellent and so were the addresses. What pleased us especially was that home talent was utilized in Speakers. Rev. N. Shannon was the first one, A. R. Alexander the second, Hon. W. K. Alexander the third, and Presiding Elder Swengle closed. We repeat that the addresses were good, appropriate, and well received by the children and audience.

THEY WANT $25,000.—The Hon. Samuel Gilliland, of the committee to confer with the Penna. R. R. Co., in reference to the completion of the L. & T. Road, sent the following telegram to the Centre Democrat of last week.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 11, 1883. CENTRE DEMOCRAT:—The P. R. R. Co. want $25,000. Then they will finish the road to Lemont.

S. GILLILAND To us this reads downright cruel—very much like the death-knell of the extension. Where will the $25,000 come from? Will the people of the upper end pay that large sum in addition to what they have already done? It is not probable.

—A good bob-sled for sale cheap. Inquire at this office.

—Don't forget the Musical Convention at Rebersburg and make up your mind to go. It will be a successful and pleasant affair, judging by the efforts the committee and people of that town are making in their preparatory arrangements.

—Last week we chanced to meet our old time friend, Mr. Samuel J. Weiser of Millheim, on the train. Samuel is one of the substantial citizens of the staid old 'burg' and does a thriving business in the stove and tin-ware business.

—The St. Elmo Hotel, is one of the best places in Philadelphia to stay while in the city. The accommodations are strictly first class, the charges are moderate and the place is centrally located. We can safely advise our readers to patronize the St. Elmo.

—It will afford us much pleasure to receive calls from our patrons and friends, during the present holiday season—or for that matter—at any time during the entire year. If you come to town, as of course you will, don't forget to call around at the New Journal Office. We can have a little social talk and a little business all in a short time.

—C. F. Gephart offers three, more piano or chime organs for sale on easy terms, cash or instalment plan, at $75 to $185.

—Now that we are comfortably fixed in our new quarters we kindly ask our friends to call and see us. The building suits us well. It is not large, not imposing, but spacious, neat, airy and well adapted to its several purposes.

Yes, friends call to see us—it is encouraging. But don't forget to bring your subscription dues along, for that is encouraging too, and we so much need those individual dollars to square off some "balances" which our building, press, &c., left against us.

But perhaps you owe us nothing. Possibly you are not even a subscriber. If the former is true we are under obligations to you for having paid up to time, or probably in advance, and hereby express our thankfulness. But if the latter is the case it will take but a few moments to enter your names on our books and fill out a receipt for a year's payment, if you wish.

Before you come just please read our advertisement in another column. You may strike something that you exactly need—a family bible, a dictionary, album or stereoscope, stockings or mittens, the best you ever saw, toys or toy books for the little ones—anything. We feel quite sure that we can suit every age and taste with something proper for a Christmas present—and shall be very happy to serve you when you come.

SPRING MILLS ITEMS.

Both Sabbath Schools will treat their children of their schools on Monday evening, Dec. 24th. A good time is expected.

Folks are on the look out for ice to store up for next summer.

The Evangelical parsonage has been much improved by being weather boarded.

The teachers and pupils of the public schools have decorated their school rooms very beautifully.

Mr. Clarence Moyer is off to Milton on a visit. Hope he may have a pleasant time.

Many of our young folks expect to attend the musical convention at Rebersburg during the holidays.

Mr. Wm. Bierly has again returned to Madisonburg his native town, after a stay in Indiana of two years.

The Acme Literary Society, recently organized, meets in the school house every Thursday evening. All are cordially invited to attend and take part in the exercises.

And how do you like the chips, Mr. Editor—and do you want any more from ANON?

[The "chips" are very well picked and prepared, and we shall be glad to receive them regularly. Ed.]

Echoes from Coburn.

Protracted meeting still in progress. Miss Lizzie Catherman of Millheim is visiting at W. H. Kremer's.

Mr. Clevan Dinges is going to New York in a few days.

Our dealers are doing a big business in grain and pork. Opposition is the life of trade.

A Sunday School was organized last Sunday. The indications are that it will be a success. Miss Cora Ard is the organist.

Dinges, Vonada & Co. already speak of enlarging their store early next summer, to accommodate their increasing trade.

MARRIED.—On the evening of Dec. 13th instant, at the residence of Mr. Wm. Bear, near Rebersburg, by Rev. A. K. Zimmerman, Mr. Hiram F. Wert, of Dauphin Co. Pa., and Miss Della J. Bear, of Rebersburg Centre Co. Pa.

On the 18th ult. at the residence of Ira Gramly, near Rebersburg, by Rev. A. K. Zimmerman, Mr. Adam D. Aman, and Miss Alice Gramly, both of Rebersburg.

DOWN'S ELIXIR. N. H. DOWN'S Vegetable Balsam. ELIXIR

For the cure of Consumption, Coughs, Colds, Catarrh, Croup, Asthma, Pleurisy, Hoarseness, Influenza, Spitting Blood, Bronchitis, and all diseases of the Throat, Chest, and Lungs. In all cases where this Elixir is used its efficacy is at once manifested, convincing the most incredulous that CONSUMPTION is not incurable, if properly attended to.

At its commencement it is but a slight irritation of the membrane which covers the Lungs; then an inflammation, when the cough is rather dry, local fever, and the pulse more frequent, the cheeks flushed and chills more common. This Elixir in curing the above complaints, operates so as to remove all morbid irritations and inflammation from the lungs to the surface, and finally expel them from the system. It facilitates expectoration.

It heals the ulcerated surfaces and relieves the cough and makes the breathing easy. It expels the strength and at the same time reduces the fever. It is free from strong opiate and astringent articles, which are of drying a nature as to be of great danger of destroying the patient; whereas this medicine never dries or stops the cough, but, by removing the cause, consequently when the cough is cured the patient is well. Send address for pamphlet giving full particulars. Free. Price 25 cts., 50 cts., and $1.00 per bottle. SOLD EVERYWHERE.
