

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

READ THIS.—Grand opening of a fine line of Holiday Goods at J. Eisenhuth's Drug Store, Millheim, on and after December 13th, where will always be found a full line of pure Drugs, Chemicals, and all the standard Patent Medicines of merit, which will be sold as cheap as the cheapest, for cash. Come, see, and be convinced.

—Lancaster Almanacs at the Journal Store, 5cts.

—A two-horse bob-sled with box for sale. Inquire at this office.

—Please bring us some, wood next week on your subscription accounts.

—Everybody buys the beautiful gilt edged paper and Envelopes to match at the new Journal Store.

—Mrs. David Ulrich's state of health is very bad and her physician considers her recovery improbable.

—The finest Luther Portrait in chromo imported from Europe, for sale at the Journal Store on Penn Street.

—Sheriff Dunkle publishes no of his unpleasant proclamations in this issue of the JOURNAL—the Sheriff's sales.

—As we go to press it is still snowing and the ground already covered with snow a foot deep.

—Miss Emma Springer, of New Berlin, a daughter of our townsman, W. J. Springer, is here on a visit to her father.

—A New Jasper parlor stove, having the "Duplex" grate and durable heater with russia pipes, complete, for sale. Inquire at this office.

—For fine Monuments and Headstones the Millheim Marble Works is the leading and best place in the county.

—Probably you need new Blank Books to begin new accounts with the new year. The new Journal Store is just the place to get them.

—Geo. W. Brown, executor will sell a valuable small home above Madisonburg at public sale, Jan. 23, 1884. See bills.

—Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Spigelmyer took a trip to Millinburg this week to attend the wedding of Mr. Spigelmyer's sister at that place.

—Wishing to "close out" my stock of musical instruments I offer organs at greatly reduced prices. Call and buy cheap of C. F. Gephart, millheim ra.

—Mr. Phil. D. Stover, a former proprietor of this office, was among our callers last week. Always glad to shake hands with a brother printer. Call again.

—The new Journal Store on Penn Street is Headquarters for Books, Stationery, Fancy goods and Notions. Don't forget it and give us a call.

—We see by the Reporter that Centre Hall is to have a musical convention under the directorship of Dr. W. O. Perkins of New York City, beginning Tuesday, Jan. 29th, 1884.

—Messrs. A. F. Kreamer and J. H. Kreamer are the executors of the estate of Jonathan Kreamer deceased. They publish their notice in another column. Read it.

—Mr. T. G. Erhard, of Haines township, will make sale of his live stock and farming implements on Tuesday, Feb. 12th, and expects to go west early in the Spring.

—Mr. J. Willis Musser has bought out the stage route from Woodward to Millheim, but also goes to Coburn every morning. He carries express and other goods from all points along the line at very moderate charges, and continues the calf and poultry business.

—A meeting of the "Pennsylvania Editorial Association" will be held in the Loehel Hotel, Harrisburg. By order of W. U. HENSEL, President.

R. S. MENAMIN, Sec'y and Treas.

—Mr. W. J. Springer sold the house on Main street, which he had bought some time ago at the executor's sale of John Keen's estate, to H. H. Weiser, last week.

—W. W. Neese, residing about 2 1/2 miles west of Coburn, advertises some of his live stock and farming implements at public sale on Wednesday Feb. 6th. See Bills.

—There is a rumor of a musical convention to be held in this town in the near future. Let it come, this is the season for conventions, and we ought to keep up with our neighboring towns.

—Benjamin and John J. Orndorf, administrators of John Orndorf's estate, will sell at public sale on Saturday, Jan. 19th, on the premises of decedent in Haines township a lot of household goods.

TAKE NOTICE.—Mr. H. K. Luse hereby respectfully informs the public that he has a large lot of seed potatoes known as the "White Elephant Potato" for sale at his residence at Millheim. We are in possession of a basket full of these potatoes and can give them a warm recommendation as the best yielding potato in the market. If you are in need of any seed potatoes do not fail to call on him.

—The Lewisburg Saturday News has been enlarged to a ten column paper and is still well filled with local news. It is one of the finest looking and spiciest exchanges on our table. Success to you, brother Foelt.

—On the 26th ult., Thompson's Woolen Factory at Milroy, was destroyed by fire. This was the principal industrial establishment of that village, and it will be greatly felt in the locality. Loss, about $15,000.—Lewisburg Chronicle.

—Read the advertisement of the Pennsylvania State College in another column. This is one of the best institutions of the kind in the state and can not fail to be successful under the able superintendency of Prof. Geo. W. Atherton, President.

—Some of our pedestrians prefer the pike to the slippery sidewalks. Well, we don't blame them. It's not a pleasant sensation to be left down to a low position in an unexpected way and hard enough to knock all the good will out of a man.

—Our ice houses are being filled rapidly. Some say the ice is good, others condemn it and say it is too slushy, too soft, &c. But then some folks are harder to please than others. Be satisfied and consider that it is better than none at all.

—Landlord Musser has no rest as long as there is any room for improvement in his hotel. He adorned his bar room the other day by two revolving pyramids on which he keeps his best wines and liquors displayed in a tasty style. He runs about the best equipped public house this side of Bellefonte.

TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.—We call the attention of our readers who may be in want of engineer's, architectural and carpenter work, to the fact that Mr. John Kerstetter, Jr., of Millheim is master of these trades and is in possession of the best recommendations to this effect. Give him a trial by all means.

—Our weather prophets who predicted an open winter have hit the nail on the head. On Monday morning mercury was open all the way down to six degrees below zero, at some places in town at nine degrees, while at Madisonburg the thermometer indicated twelve below.

—Mrs. Rebecca Musser and her daughter, Mrs. John Toner, accompanied by other ladies, with whom we are not acquainted honored the JOURNAL office by a call last week. They looked at our printing machines and were especially pleased with our new power press. Call again ladies, you are always welcome.

—The semi-annual election of officers of the U. B. Sunday school of Millheim was held last Sunday, Jan. 6th, with the following result: Superintendent, Rev. J. G. W. Herald; Assistant Superintendent, F. D. Luse; Sec. retary, G. W. Harter; Librarians, Miss Carrie Lyter and Wm. Miller; Treasurer, Miss Mary Straw.

—The other evening a screech owl was shot in the middle of town at W. S. Musser's hotel by Mr. E. I. Musser. For several evenings the owl had attempted to get at the Canary bird hanging in Mr. Musser's bar-room window, even breaking the glass in its strong desire for prey. No more prey.

—Mr. Wm. T. Auman was awarded a fine large cake at the Evangelical festival at Madisonburg, on New Year's evening, for reciting a piece called, "I'll be better in the morning." Mr. Auman possesses some fine elocutionary powers and has the faculty to please and delight an audience. Naturally he feels himself highly honored by this mark of respect.

—We received a circular announcing the fourth annual convention of the Selingsgrove Musical association to be held in the Town Hall at Selingsgrove, Pa., commencing Monday evening, January 14th, 1884 and winding up with three concerts on Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings following. The convention will be conducted by Dr. W. O. Perkins of New York City, assisted by eminent artists from distant cities.

—Saturday was a lively day again for Millheim. Lots of business and a little more whiskey than necessary. It kept some fellows busy to keep the road and if it had not been for barber Springer J. Eisenhuth's office might have become a sad picture of destruction. But Jake's soldier blood was aroused and he handled the case before him with remarkable ease and dexterity, thereby greatly assisting the squire to restore order. Of course the spectators were plenty and the excitement ran high for awhile.

—The extension of our railroad from Spring Mills to Bellefonte is now a settled matter, the Penna. R. R. Company having rescinded the $25,000 demand and passed the following resolution:

Resolved, That if the committee of citizens of Pennsylvania will secure to the Lewisburg and Tyrone Railroad Company the settlements of the right of way from Spring Mills to Lemont and such reasonable grounds for station purposes at points where stations would be required, taking stock of the said Lewisburg and Tyrone Railroad Company in payment; therefore, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will advance to the Lewisburg and Tyrone Railroad Company the amount necessary, being about $145,000, to complete their road between the points named.

—Orders for sale bills are rolling in lively at this office. But there is still enough time, paper and ink left to fill as many more orders. Come and have your bills printed at the JOURNAL office on Penn Street and make sure of a good job.

—Our old friend and neighbor, Hon. John Smith departed this life at his home in Penn township, Monday the 7th instant. Mr. Smith came to Penn Valley many years ago, with his brothers Robert, Francis and Joseph, and settled at his present place of residence.

All his brothers and one sister, Mrs. John Straw, preceded him into eternity. John was the youngest, as far as we know. He was a man of untiring industry, both as regards his chosen business, that of a mason as well as in the improvement of his leisure hours in the pursuit of knowledge.

In 1856 Mr. Smith was nominated and elected by his fellow Democrats to the legislature, and served one session with much credit and honor to himself. He left Harrisburg without a stain upon his character, and continued to hold the confidence of the community to the day of his death.

Funeral takes place to-day. Interment in the Reformed cemetery Aaronsburg.

A WARNING FOR BOYS.—On Saturday last Rev. Benj. Hengst of this place came well-nigh having a serious accident through the carelessness of some boys. He was on his road to George's Valley church to fill his appointment there and passing around a curve in the road this side of Penn Hall his horse was scared by the sleds of boys who came down the hill at a lively rate, using the fence at the roadside as their short stop. The frightened animal made a jump, upset the sleigh, spilled the Rev. gentleman head foremost down over the bank and then took a run through Penn Hall. He was caught by the workmen of J. C. Condo's blacksmith shop and taken care of until Mr. Hengst came up from the place of the accident, fortunately not seriously injured. Boys ought not to be allowed to coast at places, where they may endanger the lives of travelers.

—The Zwingli Memorial Services in the M. E. Church on Sunday afternoon were very interesting and well attended, notwithstanding the cold weather. The musical and liturgical part of the exercises were well performed. Mrs. Dr. Stam presiding at the organ. Rev. Z. A. Yearick delivered the first address, which was mainly a personal history of the great Swiss Reformer—how Providence led and prepared him for the great work of reforming the church. Rev. N. J. Miller followed in a scholarly address on the real work of Zwingli and his relation to the reformation. Both addresses were highly interesting and received with marked attention. The utter fairness and christian spirit which the speakers manifested towards other branches of the christian church deserve especial praise.

Prof. Wolf had been expected, but was not present much to the disappointment of many.

—WE COME WITH SONG.—You are invited to attend the Musical Convention, to be held in the town hall at Madisonburg, commencing Monday evening, Jan. 14th, 1884 and closing Saturday evening, following with a Grand Concert of vocal and instrumental music. There will be two sessions each day, at 10 A. M. and 7 P. M. A large class will participate and will be assisted by talented musicians from Bellefonte, Zion, Rebersburg, Millheim, Jacksonvill and Lock Haven.

The convention will be conducted by Prof. G. C. Curns, of Lock Haven, assisted by Miss Annie E. Fiedler, of Madisonburg who will preside at the organ.

The Rebersburg Cornet Band will discourse music at the concert. The proceeds will be applied to the completion of the Lutheran church at Madisonburg. Come and help the cause along. Tickets for the course 50 cents, single session tickets, 10 cts. Concert tickets 25 cts.

SAD DEATH OF A LITTLE BOY.—Chester M. Davis, a little son of William C. Davis, of Philipsburg, formerly of Bellefonte, was killed by the locomotive of a coal train on Friday last, the 28th of December, about five o'clock in the afternoon. The poor little fellow was coasting on his sled and riding with him behind was another little boy by the name of McKinney. The latter threw himself off the sled on seeing the locomotive, but little Chester was too much frightened to do that and could not stop the sled, and so ran right under the engine. His left leg from the knee was crushed all to pieces and his skull broken. There was a cut four inches long on the left side of his head, a cut under his chin and five scars on his face. He would have been run over by the second car had not a boy pulled him out just in time. He was only seven years, 4 months and 15 days old and was a bright and attractive little fellow. After being taken home he lived about an hour. The Davis family visited their relatives in this place the week of November court and little Chester was remembered as being a very interesting and intelligent child. His sad death is a terrible blow to his parents and will excite a thrill of sympathy and regret in every community. The funeral took place on Sunday.—Democratic Watchman.

Echoes from Coburn.

Six building lots have been sold within the last week and the same number of buildings are to be put up between this and April 1st, 1884. There are still more lots left to build on.

Coburn is in need of a good shoemaker, a mason, a blacksmith and a good physician.

Quite a number of our young folks think of attending Dr. Perkins' musical convention at Centre Hall, the latter part of January.

The following is a list of clerks employed by the several firms at Coburn: A. Grow of Millinburg and Geo. Storer of Rebersburg in the R. R. station; Sam'l. Ard in Dinges, Vonada & Co's store; John Shreckengast of Lock Haven in Greninger's store; Andy Campbell, agent for P. H. Stover's grain and coal business; Andrew J. Rishel, Geo. Leitzell and Jacob Kerstetter, agents for I. J. Grenble, grain dealer.

Chips from Madisonburg.

Jingle, jingle, clear the way. 'Tis the merry, merry sleigh; As it swiftly scuds along, Hear the burst of happy song. Jingle, jingle, bells so bright, Flashing o'er the pathway white.

Our public schools were closed during the holidays.

The plasterers are busy plastering Mr. John Ocker's new house.

Prof. George Curns, of Lock Haven, is teaching a singing class here and has about forty pupils.

The A. C. M. Literary Society has postponed its meetings until after the musical convention to be held in this place.

The teachers of our public schools were much surprised and pleased in receiving some beautiful decorations for their school rooms from some of their friends.

The Sunday school entertainment which was held in the Evangelical church on New year's evening was a very pleasant affair. The programme for the evening consisted in Music by the choir, reading of a scripture lesson, a recitation by Mr. W. T. Auman and addresses by Rev. Weidemeyer and Prof. Curns. The distribution of presents then took place and many a heart was made glad by these. All wended their way home with the feeling that it was good to have been there.

The report of our Primary school taught by Mr. W. T. Auman, for the second month ending Dec. 20th is as follows: Number of pupils enrolled—Males 24; Females, 21, Total 45; daily attendance—Males 21, Females 19, Total 40. Average per cent, of attendance—Males 87, Female 90, Total 88. Names of pupil present every day during the month: Lizzie Hazel, Ada Hockman, Willie Weidemeyer and Herbert Smull.

A POLAR WAVE.

The Cold Weather in the Northwest and West Yesterday.

CHICAGO, Jan. 4.—The extreme cold weather yesterday and last night delayed all the trains, and the mails from all parts of the country arrived to-day from three to sixteen hours late. Eleven miles southwest of the stock yards on the Wabash railroad stands a train of twenty cars of famishing and freezing live stock. The train was snowed under on Tuesday night, since which time it is believed the animals have been without food or water. Although several engines were sent down the train could not be reached and the party returned, several of them being badly frost-bitten. It is believed that the stock perished to-day.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Jan. 4.—The weather is intensely cold. The thermometer at noon to-day registered thirty degrees below zero, the lowest point at that hour for twenty-five years.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 4.—This has been the coldest day of the season here, the mercury marking from two degrees above to four degrees below zero, according to locality. The railroad traffic was somewhat impeded. The river is full of heavy floating ice, and if the weather does not moderate materially within twenty-four or thirty-six hours gorges will be formed below the city and navigation suspended indefinitely.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Jan. 4.—Specials confirm the reports that this has been the coldest weather for years. At Braunier at six o'clock this morning the thermometer registered forty-two degrees below zero. At Fondulac it was thirty-two degrees below. In this city to-night it registered twenty-five degrees below and the temperature was falling last night. It ranged from thirty to thirty-five below.

ROCKFORD, Ill., Jan. 4.—To-day was the coldest known here for 40 years, the thermometer standing at about 25 degrees below zero all day. At 8 o'clock to-night the thermometer registered 32 degrees below.
