—Ice hauling was about the biggest business during last week.

—A two-horse bob-sled with box for sale. Inquire at this office.

—Washington's birthday Feb. 22, will be the next legal holiday.

—The concerts at Madisonburg on Friday and Saturday evenings—don't forget them.

—Everybody buys the beautiful gilt-edged paper and envelopes to match at the new Journal Store.

—Sale of the personal property of Henry Musser, late of Woodward, deceased, Saturday, Jan. 26th inst.

—The finest Luther Portrait in chromo imported from Europe, for sale at the Journal Store on Penn Street.

—We heard something about a wedding to come of in town in the near future. Wonder who it is, dont you?

—Geo. W. Brown, executor will sell a valuable small home above Madisonburg at public sale, Jan. 23, 1884. See bills.

—For fine Monuments and Headstones the Millheim Marble Works is the leading and best place in the county.

—L. B. Stover of Haines township will make sale of live stock and farm implements on Friday, February 8th, 1884.

—Prof. J. H. Kurzenknebe, of Harrisburg has the best thanks of the junior editor of this paper for some fine musical presents.

—A New Jasper parlor stove, having the "duplex" grate and durable heater with russion pipes, complete, for sale. Inquire at this office.

—Probably you need new Blank Books to begin new accounts with the new year. The new Journal Store is just the place to get them.

—Our Farmers' Mills correspondent says that a protracted meeting has been started by Rev. Benj. Hengst in the Evangelical church of that place.

—Wishing to "close out" my stock of musical instruments I offer organs at greatly reduced prices. Call and buy cheap of C. F. Gephart, millheim ra.

—The shovel brigades in town are busy cleaning the ice and snow from the sidewalks. Only don't get tired too soon, there is lots more to work away.

—Several large sled loads of young people from the surrounding country come to town every evening to attend the protracted meeting in the Evangelical church.

—Smith's German Olio will not bring the dead to life, or cure everything from a bald head to delirium tremens, but nevertheless it "gets away" with rheumatism.

—All communications for the JOURNAL should reach us on Mondays, in order to insure insertion the same week. Please send them in friends—but in time.

—Miss Lizzie Harter has returned from her Harrisburg trip very much pleased with her journey. She speaks in high terms of the kind usage by friends down there.

—Smith's German Olio is no new experiment. It has been in use in Germany for ages, but the secret of its manufacture was jealously guarded and only known to a few.

—C. A. Sturgis was up from Lewisburg this week and called at our office to see how things look. He expressed himself pleased with everything he saw. Call again, Charley.

—Dobner—correspondent of Farmer's Mills:—Your items all but one are not interesting enough to insert in the JOURNAL and that accounts for their nonappearance. Try again and make it better.

—Our band has made arrangements to hold a musical convention in town to begin on Monday January 28th and to close with two concerts on Friday and Saturday evenings following. Prof. Geo. Curns of Lock Haven has been engaged as conductor and the proceeds go for the benefit of the band. For particulars see bills.

—Mr. and Mrs. Michael Hess of Boalsburg were in town last week attending the funeral of Hon. John Smith, deceased.

—Messrs. A. F. Kreamer and J. H. Kreamer are the executors of the estate of Jonathan Kreamer deceased. They publish their notice in another column. Read it.

—Mr. T. G. Ehard, of Haines township, will make sale of his live stock and farming implements on Tuesday, Feb. 12th, and expects to go west early in the Spring.

—W. W. Nease, residing about 2 1/2 miles west of Coburn, advertises some of his live stock and farming implements at public sale on Wednesday Feb. 6th. See Bills.

—Our thanks are hereby tendered to the Philadelphia Times for a copy of its excellent almanac. It is one of the best arranged and most valuable books of reference for country editors published.

—Mr. J. Willis Musser has bought out the stage route from Woodward to Millheim, but also goes to Coburn every morning. He carries express and other goods from all points along the line at very moderate charges, and continues the calf and poultry business.

—Our jolly friend Absalom Harter will soon be full of business again. The fact is Mr. Harter is well and widely known as a first class auctioneer. His services are entirely satisfactory wherever engaged.

—All the leading stores in Lewisburg have again made an agreement to close their stores and business places at 7 o'clock in the evening, except Saturdays. The plan seems to work well down there.

—Our nobby little friend Sammy Faust sold no less than 25 sleighs this season. Mr. Faust has an excellent reputation for good and neat work and is a first class salesman besides. May his shadow never grow less.

—A correspondent in the Millheim Telegraph wants to know who gave that young man the liquor that made him so drunk on New Year's night. Yes, that's the question in many cases—where do they get it.

TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.—We call the attention of our readers who may be in want of engineer's, architectural and carpenter work, to the fact that Mr. John Kerstetter, Jr., of Millheim is master of these trades and is in possession of the best recommendations to this effect. Give him a trial by all means.

—It is always well to say something favorable about a person instead of joining with a crowd in maligning him, because numerous enemies often show that there must be much good in the person abused. A man without enemies is a weak individual anyway.—Phillipsburg Journal.

—Madisonburg is alive with music this week. The convention is under the able management of Prof. G. C. Curns of Lock Haven, a gentleman thoroughly competent to manage an institution of this kind. We hope our Madisonburg friends will have a full turnout at their concerts on Friday and Saturday evenings.

—Mr. Daniel Noll, the acknowledged snow prophet of Union county says that we are to have 42 snows this winter, and that 7 of this number have already fallen, which leaves 35 yet to come. This will be good news for those having fine sleighs and horses, with lots of time and money, but hardly for the old and decrepit, the sick and the poor.

—The Evangelical church at this place has commenced operations in the job of building their new church edifice. The old fence was removed and many loads of stone for the ground work have been hauled this week and it looks now as though they were going to push the work as soon as the weather permits. We think with pleasure of the time when another fine church building will adorn Penn Street.

—From fifty to one hundred sleds pass through to and from their way to Coburn loaded with grain or lumber, besides a lot of small conveyances, which gives the road between this town and Coburn a lively and business-like aspect. Of course after the railroad is extended through to Bellefonte we look for an increase of travel and business in Millheim as well as at Coburn.

—Rev. S. L. Weist, Missionary Treasurer of the Evangelical Association, will preach on this and Rebersburg charges as follows:

Coburn, Jan. 17th, evening Paradise, " 18th, " Green Grove, " 19th, " Millheim, " 20th, morning Aaronburg, " " afternoon Woodward, " " evening Madisonburg, " 21th, " Rebersburg, " 22th, " Wolf's Store, " 22th, "

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.—At a special meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Evangelical Association of Millheim the following preamble and resolutions were passed:

WHEREAS, It has pleased our Heavenly Father to remove by death, our beloved sister, Mary Ulrich, an earnest member of our society; therefore we recognize his hand in her removal. Resolved, That we with the bereaved husband and children, bow in humble submission to the purposes of Him who died for our sins, and look from earth to the Blessed Christ, our Saviour, for consolation in this time of bereavement. Resolved, That we hereby assure the surviving husband and children of our deceased and most earnest sympathies and prayers in this their grief and tenderly commend them to Jesus, who will lighten their burden, for his angels are there: Blessed are they that mourn for they shall be comforted. Resolved, That these resolutions be published in the MILLHEIM JOURNAL, and a copy of it presented to the family. COMMITTEE.

—If you want any sale bills printed come to this office. We will do your job quick, well and as cheap as any body else.

—Did You? In the advertisement of J. A. McDonald, on our outside, please read "J. Eisenhuth, at his Drug Store, Millheim, instead of Dr. Barber, Middleburg, Pa. Correction next week.

—THE SICK. Mr. B. F. Miller is getting better, he has been out some. Peter Walisa is also improving. Clymer Musser is still confined to the house, but is also better, and so is Mrs. Walter, the wife of our excellent cashier. A number of children who had been down with a mild form of scarlet rash are all on the way of recovery as far as we have learned.

—A good question for debating clubs just now would be: Which is the most pleasant season of the year, winter or summer? Guess a majority would be on the summer side, the way old winter has handled himself the past few weeks. But then every season has its charms, its advantages and disadvantages—and it seems to be the disposition of us naughty mortals never to be entirely satisfied with matters as a benevolent Providence arranges them in this imperfect state of our being.

—Mr. John H. Musser of Aaronburg sold three of his lots on Water street, Millheim and is about closing the sale of a fourth one. Jesse Kreamer, Harvey Hawk and Samuel Weiser, Jr., are the purchasers of said three lots and expect to put up their buildings next summer. That opens a new street and will help to fill up the southern part of the town. Go ahead, there is a good space left to build on, lots are reasonable and the best thing a young man can do is to procure a home for himself.

TAKE NOTICE.—Mr. H. K. Luse hereby respectfully informs the public that he has a large lot of seed potatoes known as the "White Elephant Potato" for sale at his residence at Millheim. We are in possession of a basket full of these potatoes and can give them a warm recommendation as the best yielding potatoe in the market. If you are in need of any seed potatoe do not fail to call on him.

—Benjamin and John J. Orndorf, administrators of John Orndorf's estate, will sell at public sale on Saturday, Jan. 19th, on the premises of decedent in Haines township a lot of household goods.

—WE COME WITH SONG.—You are invited to attend the Musical Convention, to be held in the town hall at Madisonburg, commencing Monday evening, Jan. 14th, 1884 and closing Saturday evening following with a Grand Concert of vocal and instrumental music. There will be two sessions each day, at 10 A. M. and 7 P. M.

A large class will participate and will be assisted by talented musicians from Bellefonte, Zion, Rebersburg, Millheim, Jacksonville and Lock Haven. The convention will be conducted by Prof. G. C. Curns, of Lock Haven, assisted by Miss Annie E. Fiedler of Madisonburg who will preside at the organ.

The Rebersburg Cornet Band will discourse music at the concert. The proceeds will be applied to the completion of the Lutheran church at Madisonburg. Come and help the cause along. Tickets for the course 50 cents, single session tickets, 10 cts. Concert tickets 25 cts.

—Death was again busy in our midst during the past week. Mrs. Thomas, of Aaronburg, widow of Jacob Thomas, long since deceased. Mrs. Mowry, wife of James Mowry of Penn township, and Mrs. David Ulrich, near Millheim, have all been called to their eternal home. Mrs. Thomas always enjoyed excellent health and attained a good old age. Mrs. Mowry was sick for some weeks, but when we saw her, about a week before her demise, she did not seem so near the gates of death. Mrs. Ulrich was in feeble health for some weeks. She bore her affliction with resignation and christian fortitude.

Thus they go one after another, the fathers, the mothers, and we, who are younger move on to take their places. But our time is coming too when we will be called. Do we sometimes think of it? Chips from Madisonburg.

The topic for conversation at present is, convention.

Our new store is doing a thriving business.

A number of our young folks attended the musical convention at Jacksonville.

A free concert is held in the hotel almost every night after singing school.

All should attend the concert in the town-hall on Saturday evening. The programme for the evening will consist of solos, duets, quartettes, Anthems, comic songs, &c. It will undoubtedly prove a musical treat, and all lovers of music should attend.

Mr Editor, as the weather has been so extremely cold for the past week "C tips" were scarce, and consequent ly hard to pick, I suppose you will be able to get along with them for a week. You can look for another supply by next week from ANON.

Miscellaneous. Gen. Grant is slowly recovering from the effects of his recent fall. Can walk with the aid of crutches.

At a meeting of stockholders of the Sunbury Smelting Works at Sunbury, Manager Kidney made an official report that the company was financially embarrassed, and that $75,000 were needed to place it on a sound basis. Philadelphia capitalists are negotiating for the purchase of the lead mine and smelters.

Six thousand six hundred miles of new railroads have been built in the United States during the past year at an approximate cost of $165,000,000. Pennsylvania comes fifth in the list of those states and territories that lead in railway construction, 330 miles of road having been placed within its borders during the year that has just closed.

The mining inspector for the middle district of Luzerne county, Penn., reports that during 1883 there were 488 accidents in the mines, of which number 204 were slight, 196 serious and 88 attended by fatal results. As a result of the fatal accidents thirty-six women were widowed and ninety-five children made orphans.

President Roberts, of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, issued strict orders on the first of January regarding the issuing of passes this year. The number of passes is to be greatly reduced, and upon no conditions will they be issued except for the companies business.—Lewisburg Saturday News.

The tramp is improving in his profession. Their latest racket to obtain a square meal is as follows: He calls at the residence of a preacher and engages the minister to do some marrying for a sister. He has come some distance and is quite hungry and would like the preacher to give him some supper. The minister, calculating upon a good matrimonial fee for the next day, dines him. The preacher goes out the day next to attend to the matrimonial business and finds out that he has been humbugged and likewise made a fool of.

A few weeks ago, Mr. Villard, the President of the North Pacific Railroad and two or three other great companies, was regarded as one of the successful millionaires of the country. He has resigned the Presidency of all the companies, and it is said that he is financially ruined, having sunk his entire private fortune in his effort to support the Northern Pacific stock. Very rich men have their trials and burdens frequently that brings them extreme mental suffering.

"If every one's internal care were written on his brow, How many would our pity share who have our envy now!"

We are now the third country in the world for aggregate beer drinking. Germany leads with a production of 1,041,278,000 gallons. England follows with 996,985,000, and we come next, a bad or good third, with 376,775,000. The per capita thirst of our people is, however, small as compared with that of several countries. In Germany the consumption per head is 134.40 quarts a year, or, as there are four or five glasses in a quart, about two glasses a day for every man woman and child in the country. The rate for Belgium, however, is even higher, the consumption there being 163.25 quarts per head. England is third, with a rate of 125.10, and then there is a drop to 63.60, the rate in Denmark. Our average consumption is only 20.15 quarts per year.

PETERSON'S MAGAZINE for February opens with one of the most charming steel engravings we have ever seen, called "Two Little Customers." Besides this, however, are several other beautiful embellishments, among them a splendid colored pattern. There is also another engraving—"Homeless and blind"—illustrating a pathetic little story. The double-sized colored fashion-plate—a specialty of this magazine—is even more beautiful than usual. A s for the stories, though always good, they are this month unusually so. Mrs. Ann S. Stephens continues "Her Season in Washington," a novelet that promises to be the best she has ever written. There is also a powerful story called "Jule." Altogether this is a very superior number. We do not see how any lady can get along without "Peterson." The terms are but Two DOLLARS a year. Great deductions are made for clubs, and elegant premiums given for getting up clubs. Now is the time to get up clubs for 1884. Specimens are sent gratis, if written for, to persons wishing to subscribe or get up clubs. Address PETERSON'S MAGAZINE, 306 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

A Rooster that Fasted Six Weeks.

A remarkable case of fowl fasting came to light on the premises of Solomon Winder, tanner, at Emaus. It appears that some of his chickens were in the habit of laying their eggs in the open space under the pig pen, and that with a view of preventing this, because of the difficulty in getting at the nests, he boarded up the space, so as to keep the fowls out. Six weeks afterward, while feeding his pigs, he thought he heard a chicken under the pen, and on opening the place out hobbled a rooster so weak that he was almost dead, having been confined in his narrow cell without light, food or water for a month and a half. He was carefully nursed back to health, and now crows louder than any of the rest.

An Old Couple Assaulted. NEW YORK, Jan. 8.—At about 8 o'clock this morning James C. Townsend, aged 75, and his wife aged 70, living in Oyster Bay, were found by a hired man lying on their kitchen floor unconscious, having been assaulted with a mason's hammer. The house had been robbed. Simon Rapplyea, colored, has been arrested. Mr. Townsend is still unconscious. Mrs. Townsend rallied during the morning, but has since become unconscious.

DIED. At his residence in Penn township, on the 7th inst. Hon. John Smith, aged 75 years, 3 months and 11 days.

On the 9th inst. at Millheim Mary wife of David Ulrich aged 53 years, 1 month and 13 days.

Mrs. Ulrich was a christian lady, a faithful member of the Evangelical Association, a good true wife and kind, devoted mother.
