The Times has a lengthy account, probably sensational, that a strong movement is under way to elevate Hon. Henry B. Payne, the new Unit. ed States Sanator from Ohio, to the Presidency of the United States. But wether sensational or not Mr. Payne would be a good man for the

Mr. Charles H. Shriner, now of Dixon, Ill. but for many years a prominent citizen and politician of Union county, is out in the papers in a letter giving the tariff history of the state during the memorable period of 1842, and down to the present time. It affords interesting reading to those who enjoy it.

While the possibility of Andrew Curtin getting the democratic presidential nomination this year was doubtdidacy still continues in Washington. A correspondent of the Wheeling Intelligencer says that the Tariff Democrats in the East may take him up as their candidate in opposition to Me-Donald, the representative of the Free trade Demcrats in the West .- Philadelphia Press.

"Randolph Tucker, of the Judiciary Committee, impresses you as one of the ablest men on the Democratic side. He is sixty years old, tall, straight, good-looking, a fine lawyer, a brilliant orator, and a good story-teller, a gentleman, wears good clothes and goldbowed specs, and is a credit as well as an ornament to his side of the house."

The Memphis Avalanche stops to remark that "Democratic Presidential candidates come and go, but Hancock will go all summer. A score or more like Cleveland, Pattison, Butler, Hol- seem to be tenable. He suggested the creation of a board of pardons, the establishment of a graded license system and the regulation and equalization of the fee system for county officers. In these suggestions the new governor demonstrates that he has decided views on questions of local government and will not hesitate to give them utterauce. He is a democrat and will guard the rights of the the people of his state zealously, according to the creed of his party. With the inauguration of Governor Hoadly public profligacy will cease in Onio, and that fact is not the least of the happy incidents which wili distinguish his administration.

A Presidential Cabinet Album.

The bureau of engraving and printing is just completing its addition to the cabinet album for the present administration. It is a custom for the bureau to prepare fine steel engravings of each president and his cabinet. These engravings are the highest style of art, and when bound in corresponding style make a handsome and unique volume. The book thus made contains the portraits of each president and his cabinet from Washington down, also views of the White House, capitol, etc. Only a sufficient number of copies are made to present the president and members of the cabinet with one each and retain one copy at the bureau of printing and engraving. The volume is a very interesting one, and of course | Ohio quite rare, for, although there have been 21 presidents and 212 cabinet officers since the beginning of presidents and cabinets in 1789, the number is very small in a nation of 50,000,000, and the habit of printing these books only dates back half that time. -0.0

No Reason for Slashing Things.

Fair trade and revenue reform are what the democrats contend for. They mean to be just to capital as well as to labor. We have needlessly increased taxation and disastrously stimulated industrial production by perpetuating the war tariff. We should, therefore, carefully revise and reduce it, but that obligation does not imply that we should go blindly to work with sledge and axe. It is not necessary to cut off a man's head in order to cure the toothache.

Congress and the Mormons.

The discussion of the Mormon quesion has already begun in the Senate at Washington, the basis of the discussion being the bill introduced by Senator Cullom, of Illinois. The utter collapse and failure of all the reforms proposed firmed by the Senate.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan.24, 1884. Somebody has called attention to the curious fact that it is unlucky for aspiring statesmen to build big houses in Washington, and the recent defeat of Mr. Pendleton seems to be a fresh illustration of this peculiar truth. In nearly every case, even as far back as Douglass and Breckinbridge, the public men who have attempted a fine permanent residence here have found it the erection of a mausoleum for their political hopes instead of a palace. Neither Sprague nor his father-in-law long enjoyed the stately mansion with its large grounds, at the corner of Sixth sold for less than twice our price. The fastest was one of the first to build a fine resipied it for a short time lately. General Butler erected the well-known granite mansion on Capital Hill, which could cost no less than $100,000, just before he went out of national politics apparently "for good." Even the leasing of it seemed likely to prove almost equally fatal to the prosperity of Senator Jones, of Nevada. "Boss" Shepherd only completed his fine house about the time the return wave came in his fortunes and sent him to the Mexican mines and his house into the names of a receiver. Mr. Robeson has not lived in his house; Mr. Blaine only a short time in his; Mr. Windom's was directly used as a campagne card against him; Senator Cameron has gone a road from his immense but somewhat gloomy pile, and his State has reared and kicked up against him; and now the near neighbor of those last mentioned has ruefully walked the plank in The investigation being conducted by Mr. Springer's committee into the affairs of the Department of Justice is developing a very interesting state of facts concerning various United States marshals. It appears that nearly every marshal has taken care to get a good deal of Government money in the way of fees, and that numbers of them are short in their accounts. Ex-Marshal Hall, of Pittsburg, it is said, made $i50,000 uulawfully, and about a dozen others owe the Government from $10, 000 upward. This is a nice state of facts which were not suspected outside of the Attorney General's office, and the curious part of it is in the indifference shown there and the utter lack of accountability or responsibility exacted by that department. It is said there will be some loud music when the investigation gets down to the Star-route trial and kindred matters. Phono.
