

LOCAL DEPARTMENT. SALE REGISTER.

Jan 25th, estate of Henry Musser, Woodward, household goods. Feb 6th W. W. Neese, Gregg township, stock and farming utensils.

—Lancaster Almanacs at the Journal Store, 5cts.

—Another cold snap this week—10 degrees below.

—A goodly number of our town folks were over to Madisonburg last week to attend the concerts there.

—Mr. Geo. Cummings and wife left for Dayton Ohio, last week, where they expect to make their home.

—Everybody buys the beautiful gilt-edged paper and Envelopes to match at the new Journal Store.

—Cam Williams skated from Milton to Lewisburg a distance of four miles in nineteen minutes.

—Sale of the personal property of Henry Musser, late of Woodward, deceased, Saturday, Jan. 26th inst.

—For fine Monuments and Headstones the Millheim Marble Works is the leading and best place in the county.

—L. B. Stover of Haines township will make sale of live stock and farm implements on Friday, February 8th, 1884.

—A New Jasper parlor stove, having the "duplex" grate and durable heater with Russian pipes, complete, for sale. Inquire at this office.

—Probably you need new Blank Books to begin new accounts with the new year. The new Journal Store is just the place to get them.

—Wishing to "close out" my stock of musical instruments I offer organs at greatly reduced prices. Call and buy cheap of C. F. Gephart, Millheim Pa.

—If you want any sale bills printed come to this office. We will do your job quick, well and as cheap as any body else.

—Among many other good, clever fellows, Mr. Jos. K. Moyer, of Centre Mills showed his pleasant face in our office last week.

—Mrs. Brewer, of Lewisburg, aged ninety years, still makes her own calico dresses. Very few of that age can do any kind of work.

—An immense amount of rail road ties are constantly passing our office on their way to Coburn. This looks as if the road was to be extended.

—James C. Smith gives notice that he is the administrator of the estate of Hon. John Smith. James is entirely competent to do the business.

—WANTED, some ten to fifteen bushels of potatoes on subscription, as well as five to ten cords of wood will be received on subscription at this office.

—The cards are out for another wedding of two of the most worthy young people in town—but of course printers are not permitted to say who the parties are. Time will tell.

—W. W. Neese, residing about 2 1/2 miles west of Coburn, advertises some of his live stock and farming implements at public sale on Wednesday Feb. 6th. See Bills.

—Mr. T. G. Erhard, of Haines township, will make sale of his live stock and farming implements on Tuesday, Feb. 12th, and expects to go west early in the Spring.

—"A stitch in time saves nine." If you feel faint twinges of rheumatism take a few doses of Smith's German Oil, and you may head off a prolonged attack of the dread disease.

—Mr. L. B. Stover bought the farm as well as the town property in Madisonburg, of the late Samuel Shafer, deceased, for $6100. Lather goes north instead of west.

—Benjamin and John J. Orndorf, administrators of John Orndorf's estate, will sell at public sale on Saturday, Jan. 19th, on the premises of decedent in Haines township a lot of household goods.

—Mr. J. Willis Musser has bought out the stage route from Woodward to Millheim, but also goes to Coburn every morning. He carries express and other goods from all points along the line at very moderate charges, and continues the calf and poultry business.

TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.—We call the attention of our readers who may be in want of engineers', architectural and carpenter work, to the fact that Mr. John Kerstetter, Jr., of Millheim is master of these trades and is in possession of the best recommendations to this effect. Give him a trial by all means.

—In closing out my stock of organs, I offer $140 Cymbella organs for $117; $128 Cymbella organs for $105; and $115 for $83, and $78. Terms easy. Call on C. F. Gephart and buy a good organ cheap.

—We are sorry to learn of Mrs. J. W. Stover's illness. Hope it will not turn out to be a protracted case as she would be very much missed in the social circles of town.

—Our friend, Mr. B. F. Miller is again confined to the house, his disease having taken a new form. We very much wish to see him out again and assure him of our heartfelt sympathies.

—There will be an exhibition held in the town hall on Washington's birthday in which our three schools will participate. So same rumor says and for particulars we must wait a few weeks longer.

—Mr. S. R. Kamp, of Milton, has disposed of his jewelry store and entered into partnership with J. R. Smith & Co., the proprietors of the widely-known furniture establishment at that place.

AN OLD VETERAN GONE.—Johnny Barnes, the venerable toll keeper at Pleasant Gap departed this life at his residence on Thursday morning last. He was very old, probably 85 years, and was widely known and universally respected.

—The great revival meeting in the Evangelical church is still going on and is as successful as it possibly could be. No less than fifty persons have been converted so far and there are still a number seeking.

—A Mr. Barker, of Rebersburg, bought the house of Benj. Kerstetter, opposite the depot at Coburn and expects to start up a restaurant in Spring. There is a want of this kind in our rising neighboring town.

BETTER LATE THAN NEVER.—Mr. J. R. VanOrmer of Philadelphia has our thanks for that neatly and welcome Christmas present. Reese seems to know our weak points and remembers the poor printer by timely presents.

—Mr. Geo. Buck, who lately opened a photograph gallery in Millheim, spent Sunday last with his parents. He learned the art with Mr. J. W. Cornely which is the best evidence that he thoroughly understands the "profession."—Lewisburg Saturday News.

—Mr. E. W. Mauck showed us some very fine samples of wall paper. Edward has a large line of samples on hand and at the lowest prices. Parties who contemplate having work of this kind done will do well to call on him and examine his stock.

—Our Coburn correspondent was again too late last week which we much regret. Communications should reach us Monday, but must be in by Tuesday in order to secure insertion the same week. Sometimes no doubt the mails are at fault.

—On a visit to Coburn last week we dropped in to see Dinges, Vonada & Co's new store and were surprised at the general appearance of it. A splendid stock of goods in a spacious, orderly storeroom and three salesmen busy as beavers accommodating customers were the facts we noticed and that tells at once that they mean and do business.

TAKE NOTICE.—Mr. H. K. Luse hereby respectfully informs the public that he has a large lot of seed potatoes known as the "White Elephant Potato" for sale at his residence at Millheim. We are in possession of a basket full of these potatoes and can give them a warm recommendation as the best yielding potato in the market. If you are in need of any seed potatoes do not fail to call on him.

—Col. Jas. P. Coburn informs us that the Boards of the Penna. R. R. Co. and of the Lewisburg & Tyrone Co. held a joint meeting at Philadelphia on last Wednesday and that the right of way as well as grounds for depots have now been absolutely secured. Col. Coburn attended the meeting of the boards in person and does what in his power lays to further the interests of the road, for which he deserves the thanks of the people of the valleys.

RAID ROAD MATTERS.—It is said that track laying on the Bellefonte and Lemont road will begin as soon as spring opens. Both this road and the Lewisburg & Tyrone road are advertising for ties, which seems to indicate that both roads are to be pushed to completion.

—The Millheim Building & Loan Association closed its ninth year on Monday evening the 13th inst. Nominations were made for new officers and an auditing committee was appointed. The annual report will be distributed at the next monthly meeting, Feb. 11th when the election will also be held. It is thought the first series will nearly, if not altogether have matured, and a new series of stock will be issued. Subscriptions for stock can be made at any time to the President, Secretary, Treasurer, or to any one of the Directors—J. W. Snook, S. K. Faust, S. D. Musser, J. O. Deininger, H. E. Duck or J. B. Kreamer.

For nine years the Association has now been in successful operation and has more than met the expectations of its projectors and friends. It is an excellent institution for men of small means to buy or build homes on easy terms of payment and deserves to be well patronized.

—The trial of James Nutt ended at Pittsburg on Tuesday in the acquittal of the prisoner.

—J. W. Bartges of Penn Hall, has been presented with a handsome gold watch by a New York firm, for which he is traveling on business.

—Mr. J. A. Lambert of Aaronsburg will make sale of live stock and household goods on Saturday Feb. 16th, 1884 and expects to go west in the spring. Ho, for the West!

—On Saturday the 9th of February the public sale of the personal property of Jonathan Kremer, late of Millheim, deceased, will take place in town. There will be sold some fine live stock, good farming implements, household goods and several shares of stock in different companies.

—Mr. Jacob Springer purchased the property on Main Street, occupied at present by H. H. Tomlinson's branch store of D. A. Musser for $900. That makes the third purchase for Springer; he seems to be of a speculating turn of mind.

ELECTION NOTICE.—And election for officers of the Millheim, Building & Loan Association will be held in the School house, Millheim, Monday evening Feb. 11th. A full turn out is requested.

By the board. A. WALTER, Sec.

DEDICATION OF THE ST. JOHN'S EV. LUTH. CHURCH AT MILLHEIM.—The dedication of the Lutheran church of this town will take place on Sunday, February 10th. inst. REV. F. W. CONRAD, D. D., editor of the Lutheran Observer, Philadelphia, REV. J. W. GOODLIN, Salona, Clinton Co., Pa., and REV. W. H. SCHOCH, Jersey Shore Lycoming Co., Pa., will be present to deliver appropriate addresses. Services will be held Saturday evening, Feb. 9th and Sunday morning and evening, Feb. 10th.

A cordial invitation to attend these services is extended to neighboring ministers as well as to the public in general. JOHN TOMLINSON, Pastor.

"THE BEE HIVE."—The mercantile business has of late years been brought to a system that lacks but little of perfection. The buying and selling is so well understood by our leading merchants as to insure the best results to the public, the most and best goods for the least money.

Among the best and most successful stores in this part of the state is the popular and widely-known BEE HIVE of Lock Haven, Everett & Co. proprietors. For many years this house has controlled the leading dry goods trade of Clinton county, as well as a large part of Centre county, and even does a large trade up the West Branch into Cameron county. The reasons that the Bee Hive does such a flourishing business is apparent. The proprietors keep a full line of all kinds and grades of goods and so are able to suit all classes of people. They have but one price for all and that is the very lowest. Their clerks and salesmen are always clever and obliging to customers, whether they buy large or small bills. We can cheerfully recommend our readers who visit Lock Haven to go to the Bee Hive in making purchases, for there they can always be suited.

Echoes from Coburn.

The stock of boards in front of the planing mill is nearly all removed and business there is slackening somewhat. Mr. Jacob Whitmeyer and Mr. Samuel Ulrich run opposition in hauling the largest and heaviest loads of penitents and converts to the protracted meeting in Millheim. We trust that the good fruits are in proportion to the loads.

Miss Lizzie Katherman, of Millinburg, book-keeper for Dinges, Vonada & Co., will attend Dr. Perkins' convention at Centre Hall next week.

Ice hauling is about done, but there is any amount of lumber and props being hauled to this place for shipment.

The topic of the day is a new paper mill to be erected at Coburn. But I am not able to give any particulars at this time.

A surprise party consisting of the following persons took possession of R. F. Vonada's premises on Friday evening: Mr. James Vonada and wife, Mr. William Walter, Mr. Wm. Benner, Miss Lydia Benner, Miss Sadie Katherman, Miss Addie Vonada, Mrs. Frank Yearick, Mrs. Jennie Yearick and Miss Reinhart, all of Woodward. We understand they had a very pleasant time and were nicely entertained by the host and his lady.

SPRING MILLS ITEMS.

Broad Axe was froze up, but by good care is now all right again.

I. J. Grenoble on last Thursday took in about 2100 Bushels Grain here.

P. D. Phillips is in the watch repairing business in Grenoble's Clothing Hall where he will be pleased to see his many friends.

Our Sabbath Schools are very well attended during the winter, considering the fact that we never had a school in the winter.

Mr. Luther Zeller who has been here visiting friends will go back to Ill. in a few weeks.

Madame Rumor says Jim—C—will get into himself a helpmate ere long. Well Jim that is right and we advise all good young men to follow suit.

BROAD AXE

WOODWARD CHIPS.

Mr. Editor:—I have noticed in the Centre Democrat a correspondence from this place signed Fritzzy. This brought me to the conclusion to send occasional items to the JOURNAL, of course subject to your better judgement. Should I send anything that may not suit drop it into the basket.

Dr. W. P. Ard has purchased the brick mansion now occupied by O. W. VanValin and expects to fit into it by the 1st of April, next. After that the doctor's shingle will hang out on Main street.

J. W. Musser has flitted back to Woodward again and is now snugly fixed in the house formerly occupied by Henry Musser. Give up George.

A party of twenty couples started from this place on Friday afternoon to an oyster supper at Geo. Winkleblich's. They had pleasant time there, but when they were ready to return one of their horses was found to be sick and had to be lifted up by means of a windlass. They succeeded to get home by Saturday morning about 8 o'clock. They all seemed to be pleased with their trip to Little Sugarvalley.

Our school teacher bought himself a skull cap after he had his ears frozen. Locking the stable after the horse is stolen.

Spirit Level can build a woodshed cheaper than any body else in town. He says it only cost him 75 cents in material and much less in trade.

Rev. Wiest of Cleveland, Ohio, lectured here on Sunday evening to a crowded house. He handled his subject "Love thy neighbor as thyself" so well that $53.50 were raised for the benefit of the heathens. PEDRO.

Chips from Madisonburg.

The convention is past and monotony reigns once more in our little burg.

Dr. Reber had quite a fall last Saturday night, which resulted in a black eye.

Half civilized people should not be allowed to attend concerts and disturb people of better breeding.

On Saturday night the peace of our quiet town was disturbed by the howlings of a drunken set of ruffians.

Prof. Riley of Jacksonville expects to start a writing school here in a few weeks. All persons deficient in the art should attend.

Miss Carrie Reber of Milton is here visiting friends and relations. Hope she may have a pleasant time.

The musical convention held in the town hall for the benefit of the Lutheran church of this place was indeed a success. A large number of talented singers from a distance were present and a large class of home talent participated in the exercises. The music throughout was good and well rendered. The concerts on Friday and Saturday evenings were well attended and all seemed highly pleased with the performances.

The Rebersburg Cornet Band was present on Saturday evening and discoursed some of their choice music.

Prof. George Curns of Lock Haven as conductor of the convention proved that he is naturally qualified to develop musical talent and the productions by his class speak highly in his favor and give him the reputation of a successful instructor. Miss Fiedler also filled her position as organist very creditably and she can heartily be recommended for all occasions of this kind as a first-class organist or pianist.

The number of persons who took an active part in the convention was 93 and a handsome sum was realized from the proceeds.

It was a pleasure to see so many Jacksonville folks present at our convention last week. The music rendered by them at our concerts was excellent. "The Italian band" was well received by the audience and the trio sung by Miss Shoemaker and the Beck brothers was highly appreciated. Should be pleased to have them call offener. ANON.

Trading His Child for Rum.

HUNTINGDON, Jan. 15.—Wm. Hykes, of this city, whose sole object in living seems to be to gratify his insatiable desire for liquor, sold his little daughter, aged about twelve years to a laborer at the reform asylum for the consideration of three drinks of whiskey. The child upon refusing to accede to the inhuman transaction when called for by the purchaser was mercilessly beaten by her brutal and drunken father. The community is greatly indignant over the fiendish and unprecedented act of a father who would make a commodity of his own flesh and blood.

MARRIED.

On the 13th inst. by Rev. W. K. Forster, Mr. E. Stuebel and Miss Jennie Crommiller, both of Aaronsburg.

DIED.

On the 7th inst. in Aaronsburg, Mrs. Rebecca Thomas, aged 72 years, 3 months and 23 days.

On the 11th inst. Penn township Mrs. Julian Mowery, aged 93 years, 10 months and 29 days.

On the 12th inst. in Haines township Mr. Samuel Yearick, 61 years, 10 months and 5 days.

(The above were received too late for last week's JOURNAL.)
