

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.
SALE REGISTER.

Feb. 24th, L. B. Stover, Haines township, stock and farming utensils.
Feb. 24th, W. W. Neese, Gregg township, stock and farming utensils.
Feb. 24th, Jonathan Kreamer's estate, stock and farm implements, Millheim Pa.
Feb. 11th, J. W. Russell, Aaronsburg, stock, farming implements and household goods.
Feb. 24th, T. G. Erhard, Haines township, stock, farming implements and household goods.
March 8th, Joseph A. Holloway, Aaronsburg, stock and house hold goods.
March 11th, H. W. Kreamer, Millheim township, live stock and farming utensils.

—Mrs. G. W. Stover, Jr., is at present housed up with sickness.

—Smith's German Ohio don't fool with rheumatism; it cures it.

—Mrs. Sallie Moore is confined to bed by a serious spell of sickness.

—Over fifty people will leave Union county for the west, next spring.

—We learn that Mr. A. King bought the house now occupied by B. F. Miller.

—Everybody buys the beautiful gilt-edged paper and envelopes to match the new Journal Store.

—A sleighing party consisting of thirteen persons from Bellefonte, were in Millheim over Sunday.

—For some reason which we are unable to explain, there will be no musical convention held here this winter.

—The Webster Society of W. F. Musser's school at Aaronsburg, will give an entertainment to morrow evening.

—For fine Monuments and Headstones the Millheim Marble Works is the leading and best place in the county.

—L. B. Stover of Haines township will make sale of live stock and farm implements on Friday, February 8th, 1884.

—The two banks in Lewisburg have nearly half a million dollars in their vaults. That is quite a respectable sum.

—A correspondent in the Bellefonte Republican recommends S. D. Gray, as a proper candidate for President Judge.

—If you want any sale bills printed come to this office. We will do your job quick, well and as cheap as any body else.

—Mr. T. G. Erhard, of Haines township, will make sale of live stock and farming implements on Tuesday, Feb. 12th.

—Candidates are coming to the front in Union county. Republicans, of course, as that is the ruling persuasion down there.

—The Centre Hall musical convention begins Monday, Feb. 11th. Dr. W. O. Perkins, of New York, will be the director.

—A New Jasper parlor stove, having the "duplex" grate and durable heater with Russian pipe, complete, for sale. Inquire at this office.

—Saturday was a fine sunny winter day, although rather cold, and people made good use of the splendid sleighing that now covers the roads.

—The Methodists of Lewisburg are talking some of building a new and larger church, but there seems to be a difficulty in procuring a proper site.

—Our band boys abandoned their intention of holding a musical convention, but expect to give a concert instead, sometime within a few weeks.

—Thomas Miller and wife, of Bellefonte, have recently received $1800 pension money and expect some thirty hundred dollars more. Lucky couple.

—Mrs. Jared Harper, of Bellefonte, and Mrs. D. H. Rote, of Aaronsburg, visited their Millheim friends on Monday. Finest kind of ladies and always welcome.

—We regret very much that by wrong information we made a mistake with regard to Mr. B. F. Miller's case. It affords us pleasure to say that is he steadily improving.

—W. W. Neese, residing about 2½ miles west of Coburn, advertises some of his live stock and farming implements at public sale on Wednesday Feb. 6th. See Bills.

—Mr. J. Wilson Russell, of Aaronsburg, will make sale of his personal property, Monday Feb. 11th. Mr. Russell expects to move to Col. Eli Slifer's farm near Lewisburg.

—Tuesday, Feb. 18th the spring elections take place. Justice of the Peace is about the highest office to fill here and yet we have not heard of a single candidate for the place.

—Mr. J. Willis Musser has bought out the stage route from Woodward to Millheim, but also goes to Coburn every morning. He carries express and other goods from all points along the line at very moderate charges, and continues the calf and poultry business.

—In closing out my stock of organs, I offer $140 Cymbella organs for $117; $123 Cymbella organs for $105; and $115 for $88, and $78. Terms easy. Call on C. F. Gephart and buy a good organ cheap.

—The executors' sale of the estate of Jonathan Kreamer, deceased, on Saturday, Feb. 9th will probably be a big affair, as there is a large lot of goods to be sold. Sale begins at nine o'clock.

—People all seem to have lost confidence in the weather prophets. They all missed it by much, except probably Mr. Noll, the snow prophet of Union county. He seems to be entirely reliable.

—We met Prof. Wolf, in Bellefonte last week, and he showed us the new gold watch presented to him by the teachers of the county at the recent session of the county institute. It is a real fine one.

—The Selinsgrove Tribune says that a gentleman who recently visited the eastern penitentiary and who seen Israel Erb, says that the old man is at work on the shoemaker's bench and looks quite natural.

—The open winter still continues. On Friday morning mercury was down to 8 degrees below zero, and on Saturday morning down to 18. Since then the weather was a little more moderate with some snow every day.

ANNOUNCEMENT.—Mr. Philip C. Frank, residing above Madisonburg, in Brush Valley, wishes to announce to the voters of Gregg township that he is a candidate for the office of constable, at the coming election.

—Prof. Hamilton, of State College has invented what is considered a very good Drill, known as Hamilton's Seed Drill and Regulator. An effort is now being made to form a stock company for the manufacture of these drills at Bellefonte.

—Mr. Olie Meek, for many years the foreman of the Waterman office, has recently been appointed to a clerkship at Washington. Mr. Meek is one of the best printers in the state, a gentleman of the first order, and is both competent and deserving of promotion.

—Mr. Emanuel Brown, late of Madisonburg, well known by the people of these valleys, now keeps the Cummings House, Bellefonte. Mr. Brown is well liked as a landlord and does a good business, especially do his old friends and neighbors from the valleys like to stop with Man.

—Mr. J. R. Smith of Milton, was in town last week looking up business interests and gave the JOURNAL office a call. He reports their furniture establishment at Milton in a booming condition, which we do not doubt, because we know that they always carry a very large and fine stock of furniture and sell at very reasonable figures.

—The Harrisburg Patriot in its new dress looks fresh and clean like a new pin. But this is only a small part of its merit. It is ably conducted, full of the latest news, and is altogether the best and most reliable paper we know of. The Patriot is always a day ahead of Philadelphia papers in the news.

—The Sunbury Democrat speaks of a law that was passed last winter to the effect that councilmen this spring will be elected for one, two and three years. The Democrat does not say whether this law is local or general. Who can tell what it is? If it applies to all boroughs Millheim would this year elect two councilmen for three years, two for two years and two for one year, and this is the way it should be.

—A part of the building committee of the Evangelical church, consisting of Mr. C. Alexander, W. R. Henney and Jacob Gephart, accompanied by Samuel and Elias Lose, visited Milton last week to take a view of the several churches there. These gentlemen all agree that the Methodist church is the best arranged and best adapted church in Milton, and they expect as we learn to model after it to some extent.

—On one thing at least, all the papers of the county seem to be agreed, and that is the efficiency of our present board of county commissioners, John Wolf, A. J. Griest and H. C. Campbell. They have managed the county finances most excellently in all particulars, and have largely reduced the county debt, as will be seen when the forth coming county statement comes out.

Not as a mere matter of empty praise and flattery, but in justice and candor it must be said that our commissioners deserve the thanks of the people of all parties and classes for the manner in which they performed their duties.

LARGE YIELD.—The Bellefonte papers are giving the large yields of wheat on the farms of some of our best farmers in the county, among which are the following: Mr. Isaac Frain, Marion township, 35 bushels to the acre, Mr. Fred Decker, College township, 37 bushels to the acre. Mr. John B. Matern, of Patton township, 40 bushels to the acre, and John W. Wilson, in Half Moon township, 35 to 42 bushels to the acre for the last four years. Now it must be admitted that these are heavy crops, and we would like to hear from some of our farmers in this neighborhood how their crops compare with the above. We know of one case at least in Penns Valley that beats them all, but that was many years ago. A particular acre, measured by a surveyor, on the farm now occupied by Mr. Absalom Musser, in Haines township, produced forty-six bushels, some pecks and quarts of best cleaned wheat. A wafer was made lost that it would reach fifty bushels.

—Mr. Samuel Hengst, the father of our friend, Rev. Benj. Hengst, died at his home, about six miles east from York, Pa., in the beginning of the week, in the 84th year of his age. Rev. Hengst left home yesterday to attend the funeral to-day.

ELECTION NOTICE.—And election for officers of the Millheim, Building & Loan Association will be held in the School house, Millheim, Monday evening Feb. 11th. A full turn out is requested.

By the board,
A. WALTER, Sec.

—Mr. E. W. Mauck showed us some very fine samples of wall paper. Edward has a large line of samples on hand and at the lowest prices. Parties who contemplate having work of this kind done will do well to call on him and examine his stock.

—On Saturday the 9th of February the public sale of the personal property of Jonathan Kreamer, late of Millheim, deceased, will take place in town. There will be sold some fine live stock, good farming implements, household goods and several shares of stock in different companies.

TAKE NOTICE.—Mr. H. K. Lase hereby respectfully informs the public that he has a large lot of seed potatoes known as the "White Elephant Potato" for sale at his residence at Millheim. We are in possession of a basket full of these potatoes and can give them a warm recommendation as the best yielding potatoe in the market. If you are in need of any seed potatoes do not fail to call on him.

—It appears that some people along the western end of our rail road want too much damages for their lands, and this is a hindrance for the local committee who have charge of the matter in getting things into proper shape to begin work. President Du Barry sent the following telegram to the committee:

"Will you please say to the people that no work will be done till the bond is executed; if they want the work to go on promptly they must have it executed at once. Please advise the Committee of this fact."

Signed,
J. DU BARRY.

DEDICATION OF THE ST. JOHN'S EV. LUTH. CHURCH AT MILLHEIM.—The dedication of the Lutheran church of this town will take place on Sunday, February 10th, inst. Rev. F. W. CONRAD, D. D., editor of the Lutheran Observer, Philadelphia, REV. J. W. GOODLIN, Salona, Clinton Co., Pa., and REV. W. H. SCHUCH, Jersey Shore Lycoming Co., Pa., will be present to deliver appropriate addresses. Services will be held Saturday evening, Feb. 9th and Sunday morning and evening, Feb. 10th.

A cordial invitation to attend these services is extended to neighboring ministers as well as to the public in general.

JOHN TOMLINSON,
Pastor.

Echoes from Coburn.

Monday to day; but it is a snowday again.

Wheat down to ninety five cents at this writing.

Dr. W. P. Ard was around here examining patients.

Dinges Vonada & Co., had an unusual crowd of customers on last Saturday.

Miss Mazie Smull of Centre Mills was here a few days last week visiting Mr. R. F. Vonada and other friends.

P. H. Stover Esq., is hauling material for building, as he expects to put up four or five houses on the lots he recently bought.

Mr. Harvey Bowersox one of our old friends dropped in to see us the other day, as he was awaiting the train, for a visiting trip down the country. He was in Ohio last summer and just returned a few weeks ago. He expects going to Kansas before long.

SPRING MILLS ITEMS.

Our town has fallen into the insurance business—office in Ream's building.

J. D. Homan will be the butcher next summer.

Our Mr. Philips has also engaged in the clock fixing business, with H. Koush as assistant.

A singing master tried to raise a music school, but failed. Town too poor to pay for music.

Mr. J. M. Hubler bought a farm in College township for $4500. Sorry to see him leave us.

Mr. E. Fetterhoff sold his farm to David Bartges, at $90 an acre. Good price.

Bitner, the huckster is our funny man here. He can entertain a crowd better than any man we know of. Always chuck full of good stories.

BROAD AXE.

"THE BEE HIVE."—The mercantile business has of late years been brought to a system that lacks but little of perfection. The buying and selling is so well understood by our leading merchants as to insure the best results to the public, the most and best goods for the least money.

Among the best and most successful stores in this part of the state is the popular and widely-known BEE HIVE of Lock Haven, Everett & Co. proprietors. For many years this house has controlled the leading dry goods trade of Clinton county, as well as a large part of Centre county, and even does a large trade up the West Branch into Cameron county. The reasons that the Bee Hive does such a flourishing business is apparent. The proprietors keep a full line of all kinds and grades of goods and so are able to suit all classes of people. They have but one price for all and that is the very lowest. Their clerks and salesmen are always clever and obliging to customers, whether they buy large or small bills.

We can cheerfully recommend our readers who visit Lock Haven to go to the Bee Hive in making purchases, for there they can always be suited.

NEWSPAPER DUNS.—The Harrisburg Patriot makes the following sensible comments on an old subject: We presume that some people think that newspaper men are persistent duns; let a farmer place himself in a similar position and see if he would not do the same. Suppose that he raises one thousand bushels of corn and his neighbor should come and buy a bushel and the price was only the small sum of one dollar, or less—and the neighbor says "I will pay you the amount in a few days." As the farmer does not want to be small about the matter he says, "all right." Another comes in the same way until the whole of one thousand bushels are trusted to one thousand different persons, and not one of the purchasers concerns himself about it for it is a small amount they owe the farmer, and of course that will not help him any. He does not realize that the farmer has frittered away his large crop of corn, and that his value is due in a thousand little dribbles, and that he is seriously embarrassed in his business because his debtors treat it as a little matter. Just so with the newspaper business.

A $20 Bible Prize.

The publishers of Rutledge's Monthly offer twelve valuable rewards in their Monthly for February, among which is the following:

We will give $20.00 to the person telling us which is the longest verse in the Old Testament Scriptures by February 10th, 1884. Should two or more correct answers be received, the reward will be divided. The money will be forwarded to the winner February 15, 1884. Persons trying for the reward must send 20 cent in silver (no postage stamps taken) with their answer, for which they will receive the March Monthly, in which the name and address of the winner of the reward and the correct answer will be published, and in which several more valuable rewards will be offered. Address RUTLEDGE PUBLISHING COMPANY, Easton, Pa.

A sacrilegious, dastardly and villainous act was committed at Arendsville, Adams county, in the old grave yard bordering on the square, on Thursday night, the 13th ult. Some person or persons displaced nearly all the tombstones, breaking a number off at the ground, others were broken into pieces. Two heavy posts were used in the destruction, as could be plainly seen. Those which were pulled out were carried away and set up against the fences, thus rendering it almost impossible to replace many of them. This act of vandalism meets with the just condemnation of the citizens and others. Quite a number of persons heard the noise; the time was about two o'clock in the night.—Gettysburg Compiler.

They Don't Know Everything.

Scientists tell us that this earth was peopled 50,000,000 years before Adam was born, and yet they won't let us know what caused the red sunsets.

MARRIED.

On the 6th inst., at Coburn, by Rev. E. Stam bach, Mr. Thomas H. Eisenhuth, and Miss Sarah A. Kerstetter, daughter of Benjamin Kerstetter.

On the 24th inst., at the Lutheran parsonage, Aaronsburg, by Rev. J. Tomlinson, Mr. Levi K. Stover and Miss Catharine J. Stover, both of Haines township.

On the 24th inst., at the Evangelical parsonage in Thompsonstown, by Rev. E. D. Keen, Mr. Nelson G. Smith, of Thompsonstown, and Miss Emma C. Ritzman, of Port Royal, both of Juniata county.

On the 24th inst., at the residence of the bride's parents, by Rev. Benj. Hengst, Mr. P. H. Musser, and Miss Ada E. Eisenhuth, daughter of Jacob Eisenhuth, Esq., of Millheim, Pa. This couple has our best wishes in their new state. We know them well and give cheerful testimony to their excellent qualities and worth. The groom has always maintained a good reputation for industry and sobriety, while the happy bride is one of the most young ladies of the town. Our thanks are specially tendered to her for the delicious wedding cake sent the printers.

The following is a list of the presents with the names of the donors:
