

A Showman's Adventure.

An old showman tells the following exciting story of his experience when connected with a well known menagerie during an engagement at Smithland, Ky. "After the exhibition was over," he says, "I passed into the menagerie to talk to the watchman. From some cause he was absent from his post, and I walked across the amphitheatre toward my old friend the elephant to give him an apple, for we were the best of friends. He was one of the largest elephants I ever saw, and as good natured as large. I was about half across the ring when I heard a growl, and looking around I saw to my horror one of the lions out of his cage and approaching me in a crouching manner, ready for a spring. I thought of a thousand things in a moment, and among them I must have regretted perpetrating so many old worn out jokes at the performance that night. I had sufficient presence of mind to realize my dangerous situation and to know that it required the utmost caution to extricate myself from it. One hasty motion on my part and I would be in the jaws of the monster. I felt my only hope was the elephant, if I could reach him, but he was chained by the foot and could not reach me. Nearer and nearer came the lion, waving his tail in a manner that meant business. If I turned my back he would spring; if I took my eyes from him I was lost. It was a terrible moment. I glided backward swiftly as I dared. I had another fear. I reared stumbling backward and knew if I did fall I would never rise, but that where I fell would make a meal for that lion. As I neared the elephant I saw that the lion understood my movement and fearing he would be balked of his prey he prepared to bring the matter to the thriving center of rural Philadelphia, and he was hitting me on his head. I only knew that I was saved.

The Philadelphia Times, 1884.

THE TIMES will enter upon the new year stronger and more prosperous than ever before in its history—more widely read and quoted, more heartily commended, and more fiercely criticized with a more complete organization, and an able staff of contributors—and with the same independence and fearlessness that has made it successful and powerful in the past.

THE TIMES has no party to follow, on candidates to advance, but will follow every issue, and has ever done, with consistent devotion to the right, to honest government, had the public welfare. And, while maintaining its position as the leading paper of Philadelphia, it will aim to be continually in advance in all that can add value to a newspaper.

The value of a newspaper is not in its size or display, but in the intelligence and care, the conciseness and freshness with which it is edited. THE TIMES spends lavishly for news from all parts of the world, but all its dispatches are carefully edited and condensed, in order to give the complete news of the day in the most concise and attractive shape, and with it a large variety of entertaining and instructive reading. The best writers at home and abroad are employed to enrich its columns, and to make it a journal adapted both to the busy man and to the leisure of the home circle, a welcome visitor to intelligent and honest citizens of every political, religious, and social taste.

THE WEEKLY TIMES is altogether different from the weekly newspapers of twenty years ago. The telegraph and better local newspapers everywhere, especially in the thriving centers of rural population, have made the old weekly metropolitan newspaper unsatisfying. Those that cling to their ancient usages have lost their hold on our forward-moving people; they are but shadows of their former greatness, and they have but a shadow of their former power. Those papers have had their usefulness, but it is passing, and with it, they are going, too. It was not the fault of papers; it was the improvement of the country that brought about the change. Men and women, wherever they live, now require fresher news, and they require more than news.

THE WEEKLY TIMES gathers off the types of every passing week whatever has lasting interests to people at large, and sets it before them in such generosity of paper and print as would have astonished us all twenty years ago.

DAILY—Twelve cents a week, fifty cents a month, $1 a year, two cents a copy.

SUNDAY—Four cents a copy, $2 a year.

WEEKLY—One copy, $2 a year; five copies, $8 a year; ten copies, $15 a year; twenty copies, $25 a year, with one copy free to the getter-up of every club.

THE TIMES, Philadelphia.

DID YOU

ever read a patent medicine advertisement? Yes, say you; one can't pick up a paper now-a-days that is not one-half medicine advertisements. No doubt of it. Column after column of most wonderful cures performed on Jones and Brown away off somewhere.

But did you ever read of a manufacturer of a medicine who had the courage, or had sufficient confidence in his medicine himself to say, "if you are not cured or benefited go to where you bought the medicine and demand your money and it will be given to you." You didn't? Well, neither did we; but there are such remedies nevertheless.

Are you troubled with torpid or diseased Liver, inactive Kidneys, Biliousness, Constipation, &c., &c., use McDonald's improved Liver Pills—money refunded to dissatisfied purchasers.

Do you inherit Scrofula or Erysipelas? If so, try McDonald's Great Blood Purifier—money refunded to dissatisfied purchasers.

Do you want to feel secure from those frightful and oftentimes fatal visitors, Croup and Whooping Cough, as well as having in the family the one incomparable cough medicine for colds and lung troubles. Then buy Dr. Kessler's famous cough medicine—money refunded to all dissatisfied purchasers.

Do you want a whole Drug store in a little glass bottle: then secure at once, Curtis' Carmelite Cordial; the greatest medicine ever devised for Cholera, Dys-

Have you reason, from symptoms exhibited, to suspect that any of your children are troubled with worms? If so, let me say to you, for smallness of dose, easiness to take, effectiveness, as a worm destroyer, McDonald's Celebrated Worm Powders have no equal on earth—money refunded to dissatisfied purchasers.

Have you a valuable horse for which you want a medicine to enrich the blood, improve the appetite and digestion, make his coat glossy, eye bright and step elastic? Give him McDonald's Tonic and Blood Purifying Horse and Cattle Powder. We don't think it possible to produce a better medicine for stock.

Don't use it unless your animal is sick and needs a medicine. If you want to use a stock powder for toning, buy something else. Money refunded to dissatisfied purchasers.

J. Eisenhuth at his Drug Store, in Millheim Centre county, Penna., keeps these remedies for sale and is authorized to refund the money to any dissatisfied buyer. Now ask yourself the question, can I afford to place a hump on my back under the name of J. DR. JOHN BULL'S
Smith's Tonic Syrup

FEVER and ACUE
Or CHILLS and FEVER,
AND ALL MALARIAL DISEASES.

The proprietor of this celebrated medicine justly claims for it a superiority over all remedies ever offered to the public for the SAFE, CERTAIN, SPEEDY and PERMANENT cure of Ague and Fever, or Chills and Fever, whether of short or long standing. He refers to the entire Western and Southern country to bear him testimony to the truth of the assertion that in no case whatever will it fail to cure if the directions are strictly followed and carried out. In a great many cases a single dose has been sufficient for a cure, and whole families have been cured by a single bottle, with a perfect restoration of the general health. It is, however, prudent, and in every case more certain to cure, if its use is continued in smaller doses for a week or two after the disease has been checked, more especially in difficult and long-standing cases. Usually this medicine will not require any aid to keep the bowels in good order. Should the patient, however, require a cathartic medicine, after having taken three or four doses of the Tonic, a single dose of BULL'S VEGETABLE FAMILY PILLS will be sufficient.

BULL'S SARSAPARILLA is the old and reliable remedy for impurities of the blood and Scrofulous affections—the King of Blood Purifiers.

DR. JOHN BULL'S VEGETABLE WORM DESTROYER is prepared in the form of candy drops, attractive to the sight and pleasant to the taste.
