

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

SALE REGISTER.

Feb 5th, L. B. Stover, Haines township, stock and farming utensils.
Feb 6th, W. W. Nese, Gregg township, stock and farming utensils.

No wedding for the last week or more. The marrying season seems to have a vacation.

A good many of our citizens have been to Bellefonte last and this week attending court.

Northumberland has a new nail factory. It is expected to go into operation on March 1st.

The first fitting of the season passed our office on Thursday the 31st. It traveled southward.

Our hospitable neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Harter, entertained a sled load of visitors on Friday.

Our Evangelical friends hauled a large lot of sand from below Coburn, for the new church, last week.

J. H. Musser, of Aaronsburg has still a lot of excellent seed corn for sale. Apply soon.

For fine Monuments and Headstones the Millheim Marble Works is the leading and best place in the county.

L. B. Stover of Haines township will make sale of live stock and farm implements on Friday, February 8th, 1884.

If you want any sale bills printed come to this office. We will do your job quick, well and as cheap as any body else.

Never saw the like for sleighing and sledding that was done last week—both in the way of business and for pleasure.

The soft weather for the last week reduced the fine sleighing considerably, and yet people are making good use of what is left.

Mr. T. G. Erhard, of Haines township, will make sale of his live stock and farming implements on Tuesday, Feb. 12th.

The Centre County Pomona Grange will hold three sessions at Centre Hall on Feb. 12th, at 10 A. M., 1.30 P. M., and in the evening.

German Olio does not drive rheumatism from one part of the body to another, but thoroughly and effectively eliminates it from the system.

Mr. Z. D. Thomas gives notice that he has been appointed executor over the estate of Mrs. Rebecca Thomas, late of Aaronsburg, deceased.

We are informed that the Brush valley band got themselves fine uniforms. That shows that our neighbors are keeping step with the times, as it should be.

H. H. Tomlinson has removed the branch store into the main building. We understand that Samuel Weiser, Jr., is to retain charge of the grocery department.

Mr. J. Wilson Russell, of Aaronsburg, will make sale of his personal property, Monday Feb. 11th. Mr. Russell expects to move to Col. Eli Slifer's farm near Lewisburg.

In addition to the dedication services there will be a Children's meeting in the Lutheran church on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Everybody cordially invited to attend.

H. W. Kreamer's sale of personal property comes off, Tuesday March 11th. He has a splendid assortment of farming implements and most excellent live stock. Henry's sale should be a good one.

In closing out my stock of organs, I offer $140 Cymbella organs for $117; $125 Cymbella organs for $105; and $115 for $83, and $78. Terms easy. Call on C. F. Gephart and buy a good organ cheap.

Mr. Emanuel Brown, late of Madissonburg, well known by the people of these valleys, now keeps the Cummings House, Bellefonte. Mr. Brown is well liked as a landlord and does a good business, especially do his old friends and neighbors from the valleys like to stop with Man.

Mr. Wm. Kerstetter is making the necessary preparations to build himself a home on the premises he recently bought of Mr. A. B. Alexander, near Swartz's saw mill. William is a good carpenter and can help himself when he is ready for the woodwork on his home.

John Kerstetter, Jr., showed us the most complete farm gate, last week, we ever saw. It works up and down, back and forth, hither and thither, in fact every way desirable. We do not know who the inventor or patentee is, but the gate is certainly a very model of perfection.

Our friend Springer is busy as a beaver at remodelling his store, late Tomlinson's branch, preparatory for business.

Mr. J. W. Barges, of Penn Hall, gave us a short call the other day. John is traveling salesman for the Empire City Varnish Company of New York, and seems to adapt himself to the business quite naturally.

Mr. J. Willis Musser has bought out the stage route from Woodward to Millheim, but also goes to Coburn every morning. He carries express and other goods from all points along the line at very moderate charges, and continues the calf and poultry business.

ANNOUNCEMENT.—Mr. Philip C. Frank, residing above Mad'sonburg, in Brush Valley, wishes to announce to the voters of Gregg township that he is a candidate for the office of constable, at the coming election.

Mr. E. W. Mauck showed us some very fine samples of wall paper. Edward has a large line of samples on hand and at the lowest prices. Parties who contemplate having work of this kind done will do well to call on him and examine his stock.

Mr. Cyrus B. Stover, and family of Lincoln county, Kansas, are here visiting relatives and friends. They expect to stay a short time and then return to their western home. Cyrus speaks highly of the improvement its going on in the enterprising young state.

The Methodist congregation have concluded to remodel their church throughout and are making arrangements to go to work as soon as the building season opens. The noble work should receive all proper encouragement by the community.

James C. Smith, administrator of John Smith, deceased, will make sale of the valuable personal property of the decedent, Thursday, February 28th. The list embraces a large amount and variety of household goods, grain, lumber, provision, &c. In fact it will be a chance to buy almost anything.

ELECTION NOTICE.—And election for officers of the Millheim, Building & Loan Association will be held in the School house, Millheim, Monday evening Feb. 11th. A full turn out is requested.

By the board. A. WALTER, Sec.

Last Friday afternoon the barn on the lot of Miss Katie Dinges, near E. Luse & Son's Planing Mill, was utterly crushed to the earth by the heavy load of snow on the roof. The wreck is complete and the barn needs to be rebuilt entire. The report of the "crash" was heard nearly over the whole town.

James Nutt is about the best advertised young man in the United States. Everybody knows by this time that he shot the betrayer Dukes, that he was insane at that particular moment, but that his insanity lasted only a moment, and that he is pronounced as sane as any other men for all practical purposes.

We call the attention of our readers to the new advertisement of D. I. Brown. Mr. Brown is an expert mechanic at his business and keeps a full and select line of goods in his branch of trade. Our readers who deal with him will find that David is square, every inch of him.

Mr. Harry J. Kurzenknebe, oldest son of Prof. J. H. Kurzenknebe of Harrisburg, and a "chip of the old block" in everything that pertains to music expects to come to Millheim and will reside at the organ during the dedication services in the Lutheran church next Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. B. F. Kister, our expert shoemaker showed us a pair of gaiters which he made for a party away out in Kansas. The gaiters are a splendid piece of workmanship, and his customers seem to be aware of the fact that he is able to do just such work, else they would not send in their orders from the far West. Frank certainly deserves a good support.

Last week we should have mentioned the visit of the newly-married couple, Mr. & Mrs. Hoover, at Mr. J. W. Adams. Mrs. Hoover is the second daughter, Mary Ellen, of Mr. Adams, and is a most estimable lady, while Mr. Hoover made a favorable impression upon all that met him. Our band serenaded the couple and the proper responses followed by the groom.

TAKE NOTICE.—Mr. H. K. Luse hereby respectfully informs the public that he has a large lot of seed potatoes known as the "White Elephant Potato" for sale at his residence at Millheim. We are in possession of a basket full of these potatoes and can give them a warm recommendation as the best yielding potato in the market. If you are in need of any seed potatoes do not fail to call on him.

ALMOST AN ACCIDENT.—On Sa'ur day two sleds collided just on the east side of the bridge in town, which came very near being a serious accident. The one sled was driven by Ilgen Musser and was heavily loaded with plaster. The other was occupied by Mr. L. B. Stover and wife and was slightly loaded. Mr. and Mrs. Stover were both thrown out. Mrs. Stover escaped with a few slight bruises, but Mr. Stover fell on the pole with his breast and was at first thought to be seriously hurt, however he soon recovered.

Only a few organs left of the several styles of cases and actions, which will be sold at "Selling out" price, (cheap) by C. F. Gephart. Terms, time given with security, installments, or cash.

Cashier Walter had the honor to act as foreman of the grand jury last week, and no doubt he did it with tact and ability. But how is it that every paper in Bellefonte gives his name A. L. Walter? It is simply A. Walter.

On Saturday the 9th of February the public sale of the personal property of Jonathan Kremer, late of Millheim, deceased, will take place in town. There will be sold some fine live stock, good farming implements, household goods and several shares of stock in different companies.

DEDICATION OF THE ST. JOHN'S EV. LUTHER. CHURCH AT MILLHEIM.—The dedication of the Lutheran church of this town will take place on Sunday, February 10th, inst. Rev. F. W. CONRAD, D. D., editor of the Lutheran Observer, Philadelphia, Rev. J. W. GOODLIN, Salona, Clinton Co., Pa., and Rev. W. H. SCHOCH, Jersey Shore Lyeomng Co., Pa., will be present to deliver appropriate addresses. Services will be held Saturday evening, Feb. 9th and Sunday morning and evening, Feb. 10th.

A cordial invitation to attend these services is extended to neighboring ministers as well as to the public in general.

JOHN TOMLINSON, Pastor. WOODWARD CHIPS.

The doctor has lots of business. Abe was to Snyder county visiting, but was glad to get home again.

Isaac Orndorf is getting ready to go west in a few weeks. Is she going along, Isaac?

"Spigit" is rafting in the logs pretty lively. "Spirit Level" is his foreman in the woods.

C. W. Hosterman is going to break ground next week for his new house. Charley would better hurry up else Van can not move into it by the first of April.

The latest is the ghost business, but the ghost has been captured at last. Noah says he heard seventy-five different spook stories within the last week.

Benjamin believes in spooks but Pedro believes in nothing of the kind.

Cook Block sports one of the finest glass canes ever seen in these parts. He says it was blown at the Bellefonte Glass Work and was presented to him while in Bellefonte last week.

PENN HALL SHAVINGS. After a long silence—here we come. Mr. J. R. C. is sporting a spotted horse, and silk hat.

All the go—sleighing parties and oyster suppers.

Some of our young men think of taking Horace Greeley's advice—go West.

Mr. G. M. Musser is teaching a class in penmanship at this place.

Mr. John Haines, father of Mrs. F. D. Hosterman is seriously ill.

Mr. R. B. Barges, in company with his mother, is visiting relatives and friends in Sugar Valley.

Mr. Wm. Pealer, formerly of this place, but now of Spring Mills, has sold out his stock to J. D. Long and is now a retired merchant.

Mr. J. C. Condo has again made arrangements with that boss carriage smith, C. W. Wendell and the artistic painter Mr. C. Rooker, of Muncy, to trim out his first class work for 1884. James, try the virtue of the JOURNAL ink.

COMMUNICATED. The 24th of January was an exceedingly unpleasant day; but notwithstanding this the circumstances within doors, at the Reformed parsonage in Aaronsburg, were of a very pleasant and cheering nature.

By previous arrangement it was agreed, on the part of the people of the charge, to surprise the pastor and his family, in the way of a donation visit. The day however was unfavorable. A few from the country and most of those in Aaronsburg and Millheim, numbering about twenty families, were represented.

A few hours were pleasantly spent in social intercourse, after which our friends retired leaving behind them tangible evidence of their kindness and good will, in the shape of articles of clothing, groceries, butter, fruit, horse feed and a purse of silver for the pastor's wife.

We take pleasure in noticing the fact, that all the families in Aaronsburg, of the Presbyterian church, took a generous part in the act of kindness.

For several days others continued to report themselves at the parsonage, and on the 23rd several sleds arrived loaded with valuable tokens of regard from members of the Salem congregation. Besides this, box and package, prepared for the day first appointed, were here and there placed in the pastor's sleigh as he chanced to meet the kind donors whilst out in pursuit of his accustomed duties.

There are happy hearts at the parsonage, and it is hoped, that those who made them so are equally happy in the giving.

For these and other gifts frequently received from our kind people throughout the charge we return our sincere thanks and invoke upon them the blessing of Heaven.

Z. A. YEARICK, EMMA YEARICK.
