DEDICATION AT MILLHEIM. - Saturday, Feb. 9th at 7 o'clock, P. M., according to previous appointment, Rev. W. Shoch of Jersey Shore preached an and it keeps our friend Abs. Harter edifying sermon from Sol. V. 16. His busy to cry nearly all of them. theme was : Christ is my friend. He treated his subject methodically and masterly. This was the first sermon preached in the audience chamber of the new Lutheran church to on attentive and large number of people. The speaker made some suitable allusion to this fact and as he himself had once resided in Millheim, he was fully prepared to do so.

Sunday morning the clouds had broken, the gloom of the preceding week had disappeared and the prospect for a fair day was brightening. The atmosphere was bracing and invigorating and everybody seemed to be anxious to witness the dedication as they wended their way to the church. By 10 o'clock the main building was filled to its utmost capacity and the services were opened according to the Liturgy of the General Synod. The choir sung an appropriate anthem. The pastor then proceeded with the dedicatory service, assisted by the brethren present and the new church under the name of St. John's Ev. Lutheran Church was sol emnly dedicated to the worship of the Triune God. After the consecration Dr. Conrad, of Philadelphia, the able editor of the Lutheran Observer, preached the dedicatory sermon to a large and appreciative congregation. His theme was: The church through her ministers promulgating the law of man's highest welfare. By way of introduction he drew a comparison between the natural and moral world and referred particularly to utility, adaptation and taste in the erection of churches. He emphasized the truth that in a house of God there stones the Millheim Marble Works is should be a church of Christ, an effithe leading and best place in the coun- cient ministry, active church officers and faithful church members. He affirmed that the law of man's highest welfare was published through the family, in the sphere of civilization and and moral reform. He asserted that Christianity was the only principle of reform and that without the church neither property nor person would be safe and homes and lands would be valueless. After some pertinent reflections, he closed his discourse and stated the fact that a debt of $1200 rested on the church, to be liquidated on this occasion. There had been a good deal of preconcertion and in less than an hour the sum of $1352,50 was raised after which all present united in singing the long metre doxologyflow,' , &c.

At 3 P. M. a children's meeting was held at which time the church was again crowded. Superintendent H. E. Duck conducted the exercises Dr. and life's labor Conrad and Rey. W. Shoch addressed the children to very good purpose. The singers interspersed the programme by some soulstirring Sunday School hymns and all were pleased.

At 7 o'clock, P. M. another service was held which was opened according to the order of worship adopted in Lutheran churches. Dr. Conrad then again preached. His subject was Luther and the Reformers as Confessers of the Truth. The Confession and the Confessors, Luther and the Lutheran Church were magnified and the impression made that the Lutheran Church is known by her doctrinal system rather than by any other marks. Sufficient stress was also laid on her Liturgy and Festivals. The speaker talked one hour and a half and though 68 years of age did not seem much tired when done. The Doctor gives no uncertain sound. He has extended his acquaintance and endeared himself to those who want to hear more of him and from him can be gratified through the Observer which every good Lutheran who is able to do so, ought to take. During the whole feast of dedication the choir discoursed excellent music. Mr. Kurzenknabe, Jr., of Harrisburg, presided at the organ with great skill, which contributed much to the interest of the occasion. His services are hereby gratefully acknowledged. The 10th of February will be long remem. bered in Millheim. St. John's Ev. LUTHERAN CHURCH IS AN ACTUALI-TY. Gott sei Dank!

-Mr. E. W. Mauck showed us some very fine samples of wall paper. Edward has a large line of samples on hand and at the lowest prices. Perties who contemplate having work of this kind done will do well to call on him and examine his stock.

-Rev. J. A. Sites, agent of the Reformed College, at Dakota, Stephenson county, Illinois, was canvassing this section in the interests of that institution. He preached at Rebersburg the other Sunday afternoon and assisted Rev. Miller in the forenoon services at Madisonburg. The fact that our community is bound by the ties of relationship to the Pennsylvania element of Stephenson county, Illinois, will account to some extent for the interest which our people manifest in the enterprise of establishing a College at Dako-

-James C. Smith, administrator of John Smith, deceased, will make sale of the valuable personal property of the decedent, Thursday, February 28th. The list embraces a large amount and variety of household goods, grain, lumber, provision, &c. In fact it will be a chance to buy almost anything.

TAKE NOTICE.-Mr. H. K. Luse hereby respectfully informs the public that he has a large lot of seed potatoes known as the "White Elephant Potato" for sale at his residence at Millheim. We are in possession of a basket full of these potatoes and can give them a warm recommendation as the best yielding potatoe in the market. If you are in need of any seed potatoes do not fail to call on him.

-Saturday was a day for Penn street. From 9 o'clock in the forenoon when Kreamer's sale commenced until late in the afternoon there was a continual throng of people on this street and it was at times a difficult task to pass ed and the articles fetched fair prices and attend to business. About the all through.

DEATH OF A VENERABLE CITIZEN.-It becomes our sad duty to record the death of the oldest citizen of this community, Mr. John Harter of Millheim. Early on Monday morning after a long illness he was called to his eternal home. Deceased was born in Lebanon township, Dauphin Co., Pa. Nov. 16th, 1792, learned the trade of wagonmaker, with Mr. Philip Grove in Bellefonte and settled in Millheim over fifty-seven years ago. He carried on his business in town for twenty-six years, and retired thirty-one years ago. Mr. Harter attained the high age of over 91 years and was the father of nine children, three of whom have preceded him into eternity. The funeral took place vesterday forenoon and was attended by a large concourse of relatives and friends

the stern messenger—Death. After "May he rest in peace."

CARD OF THANKS .- In behalf of the Soliciting Committee of the St. John's Lutheran Church of Millheim, Pa., I wish to tender our heartfelt thanks to the many citizens of Penn and Brush Valleys, as well as the surrounding country, for the liberal manner in which they responded to our call for help, during the dedicatory services on last Sunday morning, thereby enabling us to entirely liquidate the debt on our new church building. I feel that we owe them respect and honor, as they subscribed unsolicited and largely. May the Lord through his bountiful kindness, prosper and repay them ten-

FATAL ACCIDENT. - Laurelton, Feb 5th. On Wednesday last a fatal accidept, which sent a thrill to the hearts of the inhabitants of this neighborhood, occurred on the Pardee timber job near this place. A man named William Pursley, Jr., while bringing load of timber down the tramway, the truck jumped the track, and hurled the unfortunate young man down the embankment, breaking his neck, causing almost instantaneous death. It is said that the truck was running at the rate of a mile a minute. The decease leaves a wife and two small children to mourn his untimely death. They have the sympathy of the whole community -Lewisburg Saturday News.
