I wish now to tell you a wonderful story about a hog that lived without food for 6 months, Tanner out done in the matter of fasting. Whose hog can beat it? About the 4th of September last Mr. Geo. Burr, proprietor of the Burrwood and State Experimental farms, 21 miles north of Burbank, O, lost a yaluable Berkshire sow. He advertised his loss extensively, but never heard anything from the animal until last Friday March 21. While removing the bottom of a straw stack, made in September last he found the pig alive. The pig is nothing but skin and bones, and has been visited by a large number of people since the discovery. The pig had been without food or water for over six months. This is no fish story. but solid facts. The pig is most devoid of hair, but will survive and re-
