B. Stover, of Haines township, called on us last week. Always glad to see our patrons. —Next Monday evening the Building & Loan Association will have its regular monthly meeting. —The report of the State College reached us late for publication. Will go in type next week. —Druggist Eisenhuth reports a rapidly growing demand for McDonald's Celebrated Worm Powders. —Mrs. Jonathan Royer from Tusseyville was here over Sunday on a visit to her sister, Mrs. H. H. Weiser. —Mrs. Meek and Mrs. Hosterman, two ladies from Altoona, were visitors at Dr. J. F. Harter's last week. —In addition to his meat market John Miller has of the best made flour in sacks for sale. Give him a call. —We are reliably informed that some of our Thaxtons have little wars of their own—nobody killed so far. —Mrs. John Toner, of Eagleville, spent several days in town visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Musser. —Mr. D. C. Keller, our efficient county treasurer, advertises his sale of unseated lands in this week's JOURNAL. —For want of space B. Harris' large advertisement was crowded out this week. Will be inserted in our next issue. —From the Bellefonte Watchman: The electric light, Edison system, has been put into the Court House offices and hall. —Mrs. A. J. Grove from Centre Hall, who was visiting her parents for the past two weeks has again returned to her home. —Horace Hering, who has been spending the winter months at his father's home at Penn Hall, returned to the West. —Messrs. Jonathan & A. J. Harter received three large boxes of new harnesses yesterday. They are ready for business now. —D. I. Brown, our tinner, sports a new sign in front of his shop. J. W. Lose painted it and, as usual made a good job of it. —Some remarkable cures in this vicinity of long continued and obstinate deafness are attributed to McDonald's Blood Purifier. —Mr. W. T. Auman left on Saturday afternoon for Philadelphia where he intends to look up a situation for himself. Wish him success. —Jacob Dutweiler and family left on Tuesday morning for their western home, Jewel City, Kansas. May they be successful in the new country. —We publish the sale notice of Henry Keen, trustee of John Keen's estate, dec'd. A valuable farm and building lot will be sold on the 24th of April.

—Mr. Wm Miller, who has been in the mercantile business at Pleasant Gap, Pa. moved to Millheim, and occupies a part of Dr. Harter's house on Main Street. —John Page, who had been in Sugar Valley the last few years, has come back to this neighborhood and resides with Mr. Baily, on whose farm he works as hired man. —To reduce expenses the number of professors at the State College has been cut down from sixteen to fourteen and the salaries from $20,000 to $16,700 per year. —Main street was lined with conveyances on Saturday and crowds of people were moving to and fro. Weiser's sale was well attended and his goods sold at fair prices. —Mr. Samuel Van Ormer, the venerable father of Mr. James N. Van Ormer, of Bellefonte, died at McVeytown, Millin county on the 21st ult., in his eighty third year. —J. W. Adams and Adam Kreamer, two of our Millheim boys are working at the painter's trade at Aurora, Ill. They make their home with Mr. Daniel Harter, at that place. —Some papers already talk of organ grinders. Why it was cold enough last week to freeze all the music they grind out before it reached the ears of listening young America. —The Lutherans have ordered new music books for their Sunday School, expecting them by Friday. The name of the book is "Spiritual Songs," one of the best books published. —Thos. Hoekman runs a delivery wagon for the brick mill, drives a good horse and flourishes chiming bells sounding loudly in the streets and announcing that the mill wagon is on the road. —We understand that the borough council will agitate the street lamp question in one of its meetings this summer. We hope they will decide definitely on the procurement of lamps. —On Tuesday Mr. L. B. Stover left for his western home, Lincoln Centre, Kansas, after a prolonged visit to his friends and relations in this valley. He subscribed for the JOURNAL before he left. A wise plan. —Mr. J. W. Snook is still more improving his premises on Pens street by weatherboarding his extensive out-buildings. We presume several coats of paint will be applied as soon as the weather permits. —Landlord Frain informs us that Messrs. J. M. McClellan and Felling, of Armstrong county, will come to Millheim end of this week with 10 or 12 head of fine horses which they will offer for sale at reasonable prices. —Mr. Joseph Shafer, of Nittany Hall, spent several days in town last week visiting his daughter, Mrs. E. He gave the JOURNAL a call on Wednesday afternoon and witnessed the process of rolling out the paper. —Cal Weaver popped into the JOURNAL office the other day on his way to the station, having just time enough to subscribe and pay for the JOURNAL before catching the train for Shamokin, Pa., his future place of residence. Wish you success, Cal. —Mr. F. P. Barker's confectionery store at Coburn is said to have a good sum of custom. He keeps a splendid lot of oranges and lemons, sells everything at reasonable figures and is a pleasant and obliging merchant. Good reasons for a thriving business. —Fourteen large volumes of congressional records, containing all the proceedings of the 47th congress have been sent to this office through Ex-Gov. Curtin, for which we are under many obligations to him. They are well-bound and valuable books. —Several premises on Penn street received their spring cleaning this week. The time is here that this good example ought to be followed by everybody. —An earnest application of the rake and broom makes a wonderful change for the better in the looks of our yards. —Millheim Lodge of the I. O. O. F. recently elected the following officers for the ensuing term: N. G., E. W. Mauck; V. G., T. B. Jamison; Ass. Secretary, David Burrell; Treasurer, John Long; Secretary, C. W. Hartman. They were installed last Saturday evening. —The following persons left Millheim on Tuesday's morning train for Bridgewater, Dakota: H. H. Weiser, E. Brungard, E. Frank, H. K. Luse and Wilson Bollinger and wife. The band was out on Monday night to give the western emigrants a farewell serenade. —Our young and newly-married jeweler, Mr. P. H. Musser & lady, started housekeeping last week, having moved into Mrs. Wm Miller's house on North street. Being a small couple, they can have things on a small scale—which is an advantage in many respects. Hope he and his young wife will spend many happy days in their home. —MUSIC SCHOOL.—The 24th session of the Musical College at Freeburgh, Pa. will begin on Tuesday morning, April 29th, and will continue six weeks. For circular address F. C. MOYER, Musical Director.

—Mr. J. C. Harper in company with Mr. R. M. Magee, both of Bellefonte, were in town last week to pay a visit to Mrs. G. W. Stover, who is a sister of the former and a niece of the latter gentleman. Both honored the JOURNAL with a friendly call. Mr. Harper expects to be a candidate for Prothonotary. —On the 1st of April last Mr. P. S. Meyer, who is an experienced miller, took charge of the Pine Creek Mill, Motz & Snook, proprietors. We can assure our readers that he will always be prepared to supply their wants in the line of flour, feed, etc. He makes it a special point to furnish the best article and it will therefore be to your advantage to give him a call. —J. R. Smith & Co's new advertisement appears in another column of this week's JOURNAL. Their furniture establishment at Milton is one of the largest in Central Pennsylvania and always carries a very large and fine stock. We advise our readers who may visit Milton to call at their store on Front street. —A man by the name of Barner very suddenly died in Sugar Valley. He and his wife had been getting ready to take a trip to Nittany Valley. The lady had some business in the cellar and coming back to the room, told her husband that she was ready to leave. When she received no answer she discovered that he had died suddenly in his chair. —Simon Bro's and Simon & Sons, the live clothiers and grocers of Lock Haven call the attention of the public to the fact that they are still doing a thriving business at their stores, offering the best goods at the best bargains and thereby always pleasing their customers. They will move into their new rooms in a short time. —Our musical association is growing from week to week and so is the interest which the members take in the work. Prof. H. J. Kurzenkabe, its excellent conductor meets with splendid success in his efforts to educate the vocal talents represented in the society and we look with pleasure for a first-class entertainment in about 6 weeks. The next meeting will be in the M. E. Church, when a lot of new music will be on hand. —AARONSBURG ACADEMY.—The undersigned will open a select school at Aaronsburg on the 14th inst., and continue twenty weeks, with a vacation during harvest. Tuition for a term of ten weeks; primary studies $3; advanced $5; languages $2 extra. The patronage of the community is respectfully solicited. U. W. D. YEARICK. —The president of our town council at their meeting on Monday evening appointed the following standing committees for the year: Finance: John Stoner, E. C. Campbell, J. H. Maize, Streets & Alleys: W. R. Henney, John Stoner, F. F. Wetzel, Naisum: F. F. Wetzel, J. H. Maize, E. C. Campbell. Mr. A. Walter was elected treasurer for the borough funds—a wise selection. High Constable Abs Harter was appointed Street Commissioner. —The undersigned hereby notifies his friends and patrons that he has removed his dental office to the eastern part of Main street, opposite the M. E. church, where he is prepared to accommodate all persons wishing any work done in his line. Thanking the public for their past patronage he respectfully requests a continuance of the same in his new quarters. J. F. HARTER, Dentist. —I caught a severe cold, and remembering you told me to use "Downs' Elixir," I bought a bottle and in less than three days my cough and sore throat had vanished! It's good. PUBLISHER New Market, N. H., Advertiser. Please send me six bottles Dr. Baxter's Mandrake Bitters. I never used a medicine that did me so much good as this. INA TAYLOR, Rolland, Mich. Henry & Johnson's Arnica and Oil Liniment is the best family liniment made. Sold by H. H. Tomlinson, Millheim, Pa. —Mr. Simon Rote of Aaronsburg departed this life on the 1st inst, having arrived at the age of 67 years, 5 months and 12 days. On the 3rd of March, he was stricken with paralysis whilst on the mountain, in company with a small boy, chopping wood. For some time he lay in the snow exposed to the cold, in a helpless condition. As soon as help could reach him he was brought to his home and tenderly cared for by his family and sympathizing friends. He had lost his speech and the use of his right limbs. From the start his condition seemed to be hopeless. He gradually grew weaker until the day of his peaceful death. During all the time of his affliction, except at intervals near the close of his life, he remained perfectly rational. He fully realized his condition and patiently awaited the end. At times he suffered intense pain in the paralyzed parts, but he bore it all without a murmur, and constantly gave evidence of a triumphant faith in Christ. A peaceful trust in God possessed his soul. The deceased was a good, peace-abiding citizen, a loving husband and kind father. He possessed a cheerful, happy disposition. When first he became a citizen of this valley, as a young man, he followed the trade of blacksmith at Woodward, and later in life, for many years, at Aaronsburg. Along with his trade he was a popular auctioneer, and in this capacity his services were always in great demand, so much so, that the necessary exertion wrought in him an injury that followed him through life. He was a consistent member of the Reformed church at Aaronsburg for the period of 43 years. During a large part of this time he served his Master in the office of Deacon. He possessed peculiar fitness for the duties of this office. In it he was a willing and faithful servant of the church. He will be greatly missed in the congregation as one of its strong, active members. He has gone to his reward! The funeral services on 4th inst, were attended by a large concourse of people. The pastor, who was assisted by the Rev. John Tomlinson, preached on Nehemiah 7:2, "He was a faithful man, and feared God above many." Z. A. Y. —SPRING MILLS ITEMS. New goods daily at I. J. Grenoble's. Rev. Sarvis preached a very able sermon to a large congregation in the M. E. church on Sabbath evening. Mr. Geo. Korman is improving in health, but not able to leave his bed. Sol Snyder has opened up his shop in Hubler's old stand. He is a good blacksmith and ought to be patronized. That boss of contractors, John Col-dren has the contract to build the R. R. bridge across Sinking Creek above the station. Messrs. Vandyke & Wilson know their man, as he has contracted some five or six bridges for them before. On last Sabbath the M. E. Sunday school elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Charles Miller, Superintendent; Geo. P. Ream, Ass. Supt; W. H. Bartholemeu, Secretary; J. I. Condo, Ass. Sec., J. B. Foster, Librarian; A. Kennedy, Ass. Librarian; David Burrell, Treasurer; G. P. Ream, Chorister; J. M. Alters, Ass. Chorister. The average attendance for last year was 88, which was exceedingly good. BROAD AVE. —WOODWARD CHIPS. The Woodward people can boast of sawdust sidewalks. Good job, boys. There was a surprise party at Dr. Ard's on Tuesday evening to celebrate his fitting. Eight couples were present and Mrs. Ard got up a very nice supper for them. All seemed to enjoy themselves. Rev. Fox preached here on Sunday evening for the first time, delivering an able sermon. Our folks are very much pleased with him. J. C. Motz is going to build a new dam at the grist mill. It needed repairing this good while. News are scarce this week—more anon. —Madisonburg Splinters. Our young lady friend, Miss Ida Ocker left for Lock Haven last week and intends to stay all summer. Fairy Shafer has made a quilt containing 4918 patches. Fairy has quilted a diamond in every patch. It is a beauty. —Ed Shafer has an attack of homesickness. We hear of a double-wedding which is to take place at Madisonburg in the near future. Our schools are now closed, but a summer school will be started by Lewis Wolfe in a few weeks. ANON. —George's Valley Items. Our people are getting tired of bad weather and bad roads. The carpenters are at work on P. H. Harshbaeger's new house. It will be a fine building. The masons are building the wall for Samuel Harter's new residence. James Hannah retired from farming and moved into his new house. Messrs. Grove and Wolf are busy filling the bill for the new railroad bridge across Sinking Creek. J. Weaver has moved to our valley. Several of our young men went West within the last few weeks. * * * —Miscellaneous. A Vermont farmer has a hen 99 years old. An old hen. There are 3754 post offices in the state of Pennsylvania. The Phila. post office is one-half larger than New York's. Leah Hector, colored inmate Mount gomery Co. almshouse, is 114 years old. Five thousand dollars' worth of fancy pigeons were recently destroyed by fire at Melrose, Mass. It is a curious fact that wasps' nests often take fire, as is supposed, by the chemical action of the wax upon the material of which the nest is composed. Many of the fires of unknown origin in haystacks and farm buildings may thus be accounted for. A Lady Deputy Sheriff. The youngest daughter of a Franklin county sheriff, Miss Ada Kurtz, was recently sworn in as deputy sheriff of Franklin county. Her first work was the serving of some writs in Green-castle which, it is said, she did as well as a man. She passed through Harrisburg the other week, with a handcuffed prisoner for the Eastern penitentiary.

Farms divided by county lines shall hereafter be assessed in the county wherein the mansion house is located. An exchange says, "a superstitious subscriber who found a spider in a copy of his paper writes to know if we consider it a bad omen. Nothing of the kind. The spider was merely looking over the columns of the paper to see what merchant was not advertising, so that he could spin his web across the store door and be free from disturbance." —DIED. On the 1st inst, at Aaronsburg, Mr. Simon Rote, aged 67 years, 5 months and 12 days. —PENNSYLVANIA STATE COLLEGE. Winter Term begins Jan. 4, 1884.
