Business cards for various professionals including Harter, Dentist, Surgeon, Barber, and Attorneys-at-Law.

MY FAIR ROAD COMPANION.

To all in any degree familiar with the history of Mexico, it is well known that a regular system of highway robbery exists in every section of that miserably governed country...

robbed by any one party more than another.

"If I had the means, senior," "I have two pistols," said I; "if you will accept one of them, it is at your service!"

The Literature of Advertising.

Business men find it very hard sometimes to write even a simple three-line advertisement in the strict technical phraseology, which is the only style allowable in the newspaper columns...

Baby on the Cars.

There was a baby on a car of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad the other afternoon. It—a baby in long clothes is always at it—was loaded to the muzzle with cry.

BET RUE.

There are persons whom you can always believe, because they have the habit of telling the truth. They do not "color" or enlarge a bit of news in order to make it sound fine or remarkable.

Show Your Hands.

Entering an Austin watchmaker's establishment, a country negro produced the hands of a clock, and observed to the astonished watchmaker: "Boss, I wants yer to fix up dese han's. Yeh jest don't keep kere' time for moah den six mon's."
