

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

Ascension Day. Thanks for the "corn cobs" Lizzie. Hear the musical treat next Saturday. The trees throughout town present a lovely sight. A feast for lovers of music—the coming concert. Do not forget the concert next Saturday evening. A Miss Eisenhower is visiting at Mr. Jacob Gephart's. Candidates are not plentiful at this end of Penns Valley. Potatoes sell from 30 to 40 cents a bushel in this county. J. W. Snook is at Philadelphia buying his spring goods. Mrs. Michael Lamey, after a spell of sickness, is better again. Mrs. Etta Tomlinson is off visiting her parents at Hartleton. A number of children in town had been afflicted with the mumps. Landlord Frain drives a new and elegant bus to and from the depot. The season for traveling sharpers has come. Keep a look out for them. Miss Hosterman of Centre Hill, is a guest of Mrs. B. O. Deininger this week. Girls, was that a Fedora hat, that Prof. K. wore on Sunday? Isn't it a daisy! Rev. Sarvis treated his hearers to a fine sermon last Sunday in the M. E. church. We are glad to report Harvey Hauck's partial recovery from his late sickness. Some splendid gold watches just received by Jeweler Musser. Go and see them. W. T. Auman has returned from his trip to Philadelphia and other places in the East. Dinges, Vonada & Co., at Coburn, are opening new bargains this week. Go and see. Mr. Kaufman, Sr., is off to the eastern cities purchasing a large stock of spring goods. Mr. A. Bartholomew, of Salona, is the guest of his nephew, E. Bartholomew, this week. Mr. Miles Walker's announcement as a candidate for sheriff appears in this week's JOURNAL. Our street commissioner, Mr. A. B. Harter, is busy engaging tax payers to work on the roads. Miss Lily Shadle from Logansville spent a few days with Miss Minnie Hartman last week. On Monday this region was visited by heavy thunder showers, which wakened up vegetation. Baus' Orchestral Grand Piano, brand-new, will be used at the concert next Saturday evening. Mr. E. H. Long, of the firm of D. S. Kaufman & Co., of this place, paid us a pleasant call on Monday. Read the programme for the entertainment to be held in the M. E. church next Saturday evening. The Hazleton Plain Speaker says the forests fire destroyed thousands of trout in the mountain streams. A new sign has been put up in front of D. S. Kaufman & Co's, store, on Main Street. J. W. Lose's job. FOR SALE.—About one thousand feet of Dry Linn Boards. Inquire at this office. W. H. The population of Millheim is steadily on the increase. Every now and then new comers can be heard from. The Womelsdorf News, one of our exchanges, has been enlarged to a five column paper and looks greatly improved. Hoop nets are used rather freely in this section of the country. It is dangerous to violate the fish law. Stick a pin there! Our neighbor, Mr. Jonathan Harter, crowned his residence on Penn Street, with two new and good-sized chimneys. Mr. Byron Houtz from Coburn, "counter hopper" at Grennenger's, showed his smiling face on our streets on Sunday. J. Spigelmyer has mechanics at work, erecting a portico in front of his house, occupied by Dr. A. W. Hafer, on Penn street. Secure your reserved seats for next Saturday's concert at once, if you would prefer sitting to standing. For sale at Musser's Jewelry Store. Willis Musser, of Woodward, wishes to inform the lovers of canines that he has two fine grey hound pups for sale at a reasonable price. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Stover, Mrs. Charles Stover and Mrs. Cyrus Bright, all of Aaronsburg, were visitors at the JOURNAL office last week.

Mrs. Rachel Kreamer of Aaronsburg, departed this life on Sunday. Her remains were interred in the Reformed Cemetery yesterday. Ground has been broken for the foundation walls of the new Evangelical church on Penn street, and work seems to be progressing finely. Our correspondents should send their communications in time to reach us not later than Tuesday afternoon, if they would have them inserted. R. H. R. Harter, a native of Millheim and a brother of Dr. J. F. Harter, has moved from Joliet to Chicago, where he is engaged in house painting. Last Thursday was a day of excitement for Millheim. Merchants, traveling men and lawyers by the dozen, attending the sale of Tomlinson's store. FOR SALE.—Two new Keystone Cultivators at a reasonable price. Apply to JACOB SANKEY, Millheim, Pa. Rev. Zimmerman, of Rebersburg, filled Rev. Tomlinson's pulpit last Sunday, the latter being absent. An excellent discourse was enjoyed by a fair audience. Mr. L. J. Noll built a new bridge across the race, adjoining his farm, south of town. He don't believe in having things neglected around his premises. A large lot of circulars have been struck at this office for Dinges, Vonada & Co., Coburn's enterprising merchants. They appreciate the value of printers' ink. Remember, the money you spend for a pleasant evening next Saturday, will at the same time help to swell the funds of our Sunday schools. Don't hesitate to go. Our town council makes inspection tours through the borough frequently. They seem to be aware of the duties resting on their shoulders and willing to fulfill them too. Charles Smith, Esq., of Bellefonte, announces himself in this issue of the JOURNAL as a candidate for county treasurer subject to the decision of the democratic county convention. The final rehearsal of the entertainment of the Musical Association will be to-morrow evening, in the M. E. church with closed doors. A full turn out of the class is expected. Lewisburg Saturday News: Mr. George Buck, the Millheim photographer, was in town this week visiting his parents and looking around. When is it to come off George? Many of our people felt disappointed last Saturday about the non-appearance of the band. Brace up, boys. The citizens have been helping you again and you owe them a serenade. A new boardwalk was built along Mrs. A. Alexander's property on Main street last week. C. Alexander and H. Miller were the mechanics and a remarkable good job they made of it. P. S. Meyer, of the Pine Creek Mills, may have his equals in manufacturing good flour, but he can not be beat by any of them. We know what we speak of and advise our readers to try him. We learn that two gutters will be built on Main street in the centre of the town, one from Musser's hotel and one from the pump to Alexander's corner. A decided and long-needed improvement. Lewisburg presented a booming eight last Thursday. They are rail-roading, building, manufacturing and doing a brisk business in general down there, which makes it a town of much stir and get-up. Michael Lamey changed his former gunsmithshop to a summerhouse, having moved it back of his dwelling house on Penn Street for that purpose. Other changes and improvements around the premises are to follow. The trimmings which were put on the two entrances of the Luth. church by Mr. R. D. Beirly, the boss carpenter, are a splendid piece of workmanship, and put the finishing touch to the general appearance of that fine structure. Mr. G. W. Harter, the gentlemanly proprietor of the Main street grocery treated us to a fine lot of full-grown lettuce last Saturday. He frequently remembers the poor printer and is therefore sure to prosper. Many thanks, Wash. Mr. Samuel Otto, who for eighteen months had been staying with his daughter, Mrs. G. W. Holloway at Burbank, Ohio, has returned to this, his native place. He dropped in to see us and the tenor of his conversation tells the old but true story that "there is no place like home." The jewelry store of our clever friend, C. A. Sturgis, of Lewisburg, is a fine establishment, filled with a complete stock of Clocks, Watches, Jewelry, Silverware, &c. He does a paying business and gives general satisfaction to his many patrons. Sorry we did not find him at home. Mrs. P. H. Musser, having come in contact with plants, commonly called "wild poison," while cleaning up around the premises recently, was confined to the house a few days last week on account of the sore inflicted by said poison. She is improving as rapidly as can be expected, and is able to be out again.

The rope jumping season has opened, and the first disastrous result comes from Ashland, this State, where a little girl has lost the use of her legs from excessive jumping. Parents should be careful in regard to allowing the children to use the rope to excess. Read the new advertisement of D. S. Kaufman & Co. in another column. They will receive a large stock of new goods by the time this paper reaches its readers, and everybody ought to stop in at their place and examine their new supply. They propose to do a cash business and thereby be enabled to sell their goods at rock bottom prices. H. H. Tomlinson's store was sold to Mr. D. S. Kaufman of Fisher's Ferry, about two miles east of Selmsgrove Junction, on last Thursday. The business will be carried on by his son, Mr. Daniel Kaufman and his son-in-law, Mr. Isaac Long, under the firm name of D. S. Kaufman & Co. Mr. Kaufman, Sr. is a gentleman of considerable means, while his sons are experienced and obliging business men which put together gives the enterprise a substantial and secure basis, as well as fair prospects of continued success. A CALL TO PRAYER. Issued by the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union in View of the pending Presidential Conventions and Campaign. Headquarters N. W. C. T. U., 16 East 14th St., N. Y. To all Christian People: "Righteousness exalteth a nation, but sin is a reproach to any people." Our nation is to-day a legal partner in the business of selling intoxicating liquors as a drink. This fact defines the greatest, most immediate, most vital issue in National politics. Government of the people cannot successfully co-exist side by side with a traffic protected by law, whose result is to render the individual incapable of self-government. The homes of America are imperilled by the saloons whose patronage is recruited from the fireside and the cradle. We therefore, mothers and sisters, wives and daughters, beseech all who believe in God, to join with us in solemn, earnest and importunate prayer that the hearts of the people may be so turned unto Him upon whose shoulder the government shall be, that by some party such principles may be declared, and such candidates chosen, that Christian men can conscientiously cast their ballots for the same, being assured that they have thus struck a blow for the National Prohibition of the traffic in strong drink. We name Tuesday, May 27th, as this Day of Prayer and urge all our local Unions to observe this date, enlisting all pastors and churches to co-operate, so far as possible, with us, and respectfully requesting pastors to preach on the subject of God in Government, on the Sunday preceding or following this day of prayer. We suggest the following PROGRAMME: TUESDAY, MAY 27th, 10 to 11 A. M. Subject: For the Lovers of the W. C. T. U.: That they may be wise as serpents and harmless as doves in this great controversy; that they may have the courage of their convictions, and be true to the National motto, "For God and Home and Native Land;" that a divine charity may pervade all their utterances, that they may meet argument with argument, misjudgment with patience, and all their difficulties and dangers with prayer. 11 to 12 A. M. For Christian Pastors and Editors: That their trumpets may give no uncertain sound; that they may so speak and write as those who shall give account to God; that as leaders in our Christian civilization they may demand the outlawing of the liquor traffic. 1 to 2 P. M. For the Platforms of Parties: That they may not seek to revive sectional issues, or glitter with old-time generalities, or conceal thought under subtleties of expression, but that they may pointedly declare that THE SALOON MUST GO. 2 to 3 P. M. For the Presidential Candidates: That they may be men of such personal habits as the mothers of this nation might safely hold up as models for their sons; men committed by character and public pledge to National Prohibition; men who fear God and work righteousness. 3 to 4 P. M. For the Christian Voters of the Republic, with whom rests the balance of power: That their spiritual insight may be greatly quickened; that their consciences may be alarmed; that the cry from broken hearts, defenceless homes and ruined souls may stir their whole being to its noblest possibilities; that they may see that there is no postponement of duty which does not involve irremediable loss; that they may be convinced that THE RIGHT IS ALWAYS EXPEDIENT, and resolve to walk worthy of their high calling, and to make no compromise with wrong; that they may be inspired to see their duty to their Home Constituency, and to represent the women whom they love and honor by outlawing the Saloon and protecting the Home. Let the leaders be—one for each hour—duly chosen and announced. Bible texts, illustrating and enforcing the five general topics here given, may be readily collected. Yours for a Republic whose rulers shall be men of God. FRANCES E. WILLARD, Illinois, CAROLINE B. BUELL, Conn., MARY A. WOODBRIDGE, Ohio, ESTHER PUGH, Ohio, L. M. N. STEVENS, Maine, General Officers National W. C. T. U.

Mr. W. H. Mingle, of Centre Hall, is a candidate for Prothonotary. His announcement will be found in another column. New Berlin's correspondent to the Millheim Telegraph has the following: Superintendent Shortess says that he furnishes bread, beef, &c., for only 51 boarders. He says Union Seminary is roomy enough to accommodate all who apply for rooms, hence many students must seek homes or places in the town boarding-houses until the addition is built to the Seminary. During our short stay at Lewisburg last week we visited Harris' Millinery Store and were astonished at their immense stock of goods as well as at the rushing business they do at their store. From 25 to 30 hats and bonnets were sold in an hour's time, not to mention all the other innumerable things of fashion, which were taken away by eager customers. Mr. Harris informed us that their sale of hats the other Saturday amounted to the fair figure of 106. But then Mr. and Mrs. Harris just know how to make their patrons feel at home and the ladies would rather linger an hour to be waited on, than go anywhere else for their goods. Patronize all home industries and enterprises. If you buy of your neighbor they will buy of you, and all will prosper. If the men who deal in boots and shoes or hardware send away for dry goods and groceries for their families because they can save a little thereby, they break down the business of their neighbors who deal in their articles. They get even, they send for what they don't keep and you do, and destroy your trade. So, too, with professional men and mechanics. In order to prosper they must help each other. Every member of the community must do this or those who find business unremunerative will leave and go elsewhere. Every man who works produces something, and his neighbors should patronize his industry to retain him among them. If he and his family go to another place, every kind of business loses his custom and its profits. Contribute to all public enterprises that look to the general good. If a new public building or new manufactory is to be built, contribute by subscribing, or at least say a good word for them. If you have a business, advertise it, and people will know what it is, and will patronize you. You cannot hide your light under a bushel and then expect people to see it; if you attempt it you will be the loser, and ought to suffer. Madisonburg Items. The mosquitoes have presented their bills. Benjamin Roush sold his horse to a New York drover. Ira E. Shafer left our burg last week, expecting to locate at Lewistown. The street bumner got his potatoes planted at last. Ida Ocker and Alice Wise started for Lock Haven on Tuesday. They will work for a Mrs. Shoemaker at that place. Alice's departure lets Clarence out in the shade. Miss Lizzie Shull of Texas is staying at Albert Kluefelter's. The members of the Ev. congregation have repaired the fence in front of their church. Miss Annie Bierly came home on Saturday to see her parents. Left again on Sunday afternoon. The tobacco agent F. O. H. came to town last Friday afternoon and took away with him one of our young ladies. T. Wolf came home on Saturday. Mr. Sagner of Nittany Valley near Washington furnace had the misfortune of severely injuring his hand in the planing mill. Amputation was necessary. Noah and his ark came to town on Saturday and stayed till Tuesday morning. Andrew Ocker has contracted to build Dr. Smith's house in Nittany Valley. SHIN BONE.

PROGRAMME FOR THE CONCERT.—The Millheim Musical Association, under the direction of Prof. H. J. Kurzenknebe, will give its first entertainment next Saturday evening in the M. E. church of this place. The chorus numbers about sixty voices, male and female, and the following excellent and attractive programme has been arranged for the occasion: 1. March of the Men of Harloch, chorus; 2. Sleep my Child, solo with violin accompaniment, Mrs. Hengst; 3. Luna, quartette, Mrs. R. A. Bumiller, Mrs. P. H. Musser, A. R. Alexander, and J. H. B. Hartman; 4. Wait and Murmur Not, chorus; 5. Moonlight on the Rhine, duet, Dr. J. F. Harter and Mrs. J. W. Stover; 6. Jack and Jill, quartette, Mrs. J. F. Harter, Mrs. Dem. Tomlinson, R. A. Bumiller and H. J. Kurzenknebe; 7. Hark! Apollo strikes the lyre, chorus; 8. Legend of the Cross Bill, solo, Mrs. F. Colyer; 9. Soldiers' chorus, male quartette, Reed Alexander, Dr. J. F. Harter, R. A. Bumiller and H. J. Kurzenknebe; 10. Star Spangled Banner, chorus; 11. Beautiful Moonlight, duet, Miss Maggie Alexander and Mrs. P. H. Musser; 12. Trust her not, quartette Miss Emma Eisenhuth, Mrs. A. A. Frank, Reed Alexander and H. J. Kurzenknebe; 13. Hail! Smiling Morn, chorus; 14. Come Ye Disconsolate, solo and chorus, Miss Cora Kreamer and Society; 15. Love's Sunshine, solo, Miss Jennie Deininger; 16. Holy Mother Guide his footsteps, duet, Mrs. J. F. Harter and R. A. Bumiller; 17. Spring is Coming, chorus; 18. Sing Birdie Sing, solo, Miss Minnie Hartman; 19. Moonlight on the Lake, quartette, Mrs. A. J. Harter, Mrs. A. A. Frank, Reed Alexander and C. W. Albright; 20. Hark! I hear the Angels Calling, chorus; 21. Forsaken, male quartette, Dr. J. F. Harter, R. A. Bumiller, F. C. Colyer and C. W. Albright; 25. Fairest Daughter of the Year; chorus. Several fine instrumental pieces will be rendered by J. E. Kurzenknebe and G. J. Kurzenknebe of Harrisburg. COBURN BRIEFS. The next to build a new fence is our friend John Stonebreaker. The heavy rains on Monday made fresh fish plenty on Tuesday. Our neighbor Bob Vonada across the bridge has bought a horse and went to huckstering. Our town was very lively on Saturday the stores being the attraction. Andy Vonada is quite busy sawing and planing for the new houses to be built. Rev. Fox preached to a large congregation on Sunday evening. The fellow whom the breakman prohibited from getting on the train last week because he was unable to stand said, "I wonder what is wrong with me" and then fell across the track for an all day nap. Of course he knew he had been promoted after sobering up. Strong drink can not help but promote all who drink it. We can boast of a good hotel at Coburn and ask you to put up there to convince yourself. Dinges, Vonada & Co., have a very fine delivery wagon. John Seriff's house is under roof. Z. MARRIED. On the 17th inst., by Rev. J. G. W. Herald, Mr. John Rote and Miss Christie Fisher, both of Penn township, Centre Co., Pa. P. H. MUSSER, JEWELER. Watches, Clocks, Jewelry, &c. All work neatly and promptly Executed. Shop on Main Street, Millheim, Pa. DR. A. W. HAFER, Surgeon & Dentist. Office on Penn Street, South of Luth. church. MILLHEIM, PA.
