Mr. Samuel Winters is lying dangerously ill at the residence of Mr. Michael Ulrich, his son-in-law.
Mr. D. F. Taylor of College township is a candidate for assembly. See announcement in this paper.
Attractive circulars are being distributed by D. S. Kauffman & Co., today. Keep a lookout for them.
They will be here—the fathers, mothers, brothers, sisters, uncles, aunts & cousins—to take in the show.
We are glad to hear that Mr. B. F. Miller has been taking a short walk for the first time in about three months, last Monday.

—Mr. Jacob Wolf is absent on a visit to Mrs. Mary Neff, one of his daughters, residing at Blain, Perry Co., Pa.

FOR SALE.—A good dwelling house in Millheim, centrally located. For particulars inquire at this office.

—James C. Smith and family have been away over Sunday on a visit to Mrs. Smith's parents, near Lock Haven.

FOR SALE.—About one thousand feet of Dry Linn Boards. Inquire at this office.

—Mr. — Buck, a brother of Geo. Buck is at present staying in town, assisting him in the photographing business.

—G. W. Harter made his grocery more attractive by putting up a new and bright sign—painted by C. W. Albright.

—John Miller, at the Meat Market, is busy from morning till night, supplying his many customers with first-class meat.

—The time for spirited political arguments in our stores and on the streets corners will soon be here. Only keep cool, gentlemen.

—Three prominent farmers were killed at Laverpool, Pa., in a row, which originated in a dispute over the nomination of Blaine and Logan.

—Mr. John Coldren of Gregg township, a solid and tried Democrat, announces himself as a candidate for sheriff in this week's JOURNAL.

—C. W. Albright reports that they have as much work at their shops as they can attend to. The effects of giving satisfaction to all customers.

—Mr. L. A. Shaffer of Bellefonte called on us on Monday. He is a candidate for the office of Prothonotary and announces himself as such in this paper.

—Read the Sale Notice of D. P. Heckman's property near Penn Hall. If you are in need of a good and desirable home you would better purchase from him.

—Our enterprising grocery man, G. W. Harter, has his say in an advertisement appearing in the first column. Read it and take the contents to heart. Give him a call.

—Mr. Elias Luse's and F. D. Luse's residence on Penn street has been repainted in bright colors. The work of improving properties seems to be all the go in Millheim.

—E. W. Mauck hereby informs the public that he has a nice stock of wall-papers on hand, which he will sell at and below cost, wishing to go out of the business for the time being.

—A new and fine looking picket fence has been erected by Mr. Jacob Keen in front of his house on Penn street. Weather boarding and a few coats of paint would improve his residence still more.

—Another store has been opened by Messrs. Jonathan and A. J. Harter, on Main street, formerly Mrs. Sallie Alexander's Millinery shop. They keep the finest harnesses on hand there, selling them at very reasonable prices.

—The masons have commenced work on the foundation walls of the new Reformed church at Aaronburg. If they continue to make as rapid progress they may complete their job in about two weeks.

—Our druggist, Jacob Eisenhuth, runs a refreshment stand, in connection with the drug business. Lemonade, Soda Water mixed with the best flavors in market, &c, can be had there at any time. Call and taste.

—A good amount of space is devoted by nearly all the papers over the state to base ball news. Millheim is contented with the quiet game of quoit pitching, this summer. It does not require so much exertion, you know.

—Gypsies were around town this week trying to beg anything and everything people would give them. They departed empty-handed, however. Right, they are an imposing and arrogant set of folks, and should be made to work for their living.

—Mr. D. A. Musser brought two mammoth strawberries to the JOURNAL office the other day. They are about the size of a full-grown walnut and have a delicious flavor. He says their strawberry bed is just full of the like and they expect to have a splendid crop.

—The residence and the storehouse of Mrs. A. Alexander on corner of Main and Penn streets were repainted in the last few days. That will cast the neighboring buildings in the shade. Better follow suit, and give the whole centre square of town an overhauling.

—Spring Mills has a new mercantile firm—Grenoble & Bartholomew. We congratulate our friend William and wish him abundant success in his new position. Grenoble & Bartholomew make a popular firm, both being merchants of much experience and business tact.

—DRUGGISTS as a rule are extremely jealous and careful of the honor of their profession, and are loth to praise a medicine which they do not from personal knowledge know to be a meritorious article. They all agree, however, that for smallness of dose, easiness to take, and effectiveness as a worm destroyer, McDonald's Celebrated Worm Powders are the best and most desirable vermifuge in their stock, and do not hesitate to recommend them. Dissatisfied buyers can have their money refunded.

JOHNSON, HOLLOWAY & CO., Philadelphia Agents.
Sold by J. Eisenhuth, Millheim, Pa.

—D. S. Kauffman & Co., have just received a large stock of ready made clothing, consisting of the finest selections the market affords. Will be sold at rock bottom prices. Call and examine our new goods.

—Solomon Kleckner, a resident of Brush Valley, died at his home last Thursday afternoon. He was prostrated by a type of melancholy some weeks ago and gradually sank away. He attained an age of 61 years, 10 months and 21 days. The interment took place last Sunday afternoon, pastor N. J. Miller officiating.

—The Millheim Musical Association has entered upon its second quarter by a meeting held in the U. B. church last Saturday evening. Owing to the absence of several of the members the attendance was not as large as would have been desirable. They will meet in the M. E. church next Saturday evening.

—Music Students from ten counties and the state of Connecticut are now attending the 24th session of the Musical College at Freeburgh, Pa., under the care and management of F. C. Moyer, Director. Three eminent teachers are engaged, having in use six pianos and seven organs. Next session will begin July 29th.

—"An editor," says an exchange, "is a man who is liable to grammatical blunders, toothache, typographical errors, and lapse of memory; and usually he has ninety-seven thousand people watching to catch him tripping. He is a man of sorrow, acquainted with grief and poverty, and frequently liable to be ragged, hungry and dry for a very long period."

—Abs. Harter is busy hauling up Perry Spring Harrows from the station. He uses a fine, new wagon, with gilt letters, and has his place of business on Main street, formerly D. I. Brown's tin shop, packed full with the celebrated Harrows. Farmers, when you come to town, call at Harter's implement store.

A. CROWNOVER, Saulsbury, Pa., writes:

"J. A. McDonald, your 'Your Liver Pills' are giving good satisfaction here, and there is quite a demand springing up for them. Please send me three dozen boxes at once, as I am out and some of my customers won't have any other."

Comment needless. Dissatisfied buyers can have their money refunded.

—Charles Smith, Esq., of Bellefonte, gave us a call on Saturday. He gave this part of the country an introductory canvass, being candidate for county treasurer without any opposition. We think it is agreeable all around, to see him the only candidate as he is a prominent and active democrat and a bout as good a man as could be picked for the office.

Communicated.

MR. EDITOR:

Permit me through the columns of the JOURNAL to call the attention of our citizens—and particularly of our borough officers—to the shameful conduct that prevailed in front of the Evangelical church on Thursday evening when the Harry sisters gave their concert. The behavior of our young bloods of both sexes was so outrageous that I was ashamed of them, ashamed of the town on their account. The Millheim boy is not noted for extra good manners at best, but on this occasion he exceeded himself beyond anything he ever before accomplished.

But where were our peace officers, and how about those resolutions passed by the town council at one of its first meetings in the spring? But no matter, the worst of these young sports who so utterly disgraced themselves, their parents and the town, are known and spotted. They will be attended to the first time they again give reason for it.

CITIZEN.

—The announcements of James A. McClain for Register and Frank E. Bible, for Recorder, both gentlemen of Bellefonte, appear in this issue. Both are looked on as able and efficient officers, who performed the duties of their respective offices conscientiously for the last three years and are active and honest Democrats. There are no other candidates for said offices and the voters of Centre county will show their appreciation of well-rendered services by willingly nominating Mr. McClain and Mr. Bible at the coming county convention.

—The four greatest and most desirable properties of a successful medicine are perfectly combined in McDonald's Blood Purifier or Sarsaparillian Alternative. In malingerous cases of food and dyspepsia its effects are speedy and happy. For disfiguring humors of scrofula and tetter, the loathsome sores of venereal diseases, the burning tortures of erysipelas, no other medicine can possibly equal it. As a spring medicine, perfect blood purifier, efficient and safe diuretic and aperient, it meets with gratifying favor from the medical profession and the people. Dissatisfied buyers can have their money refunded.

TAKE NOTICE.—The READY-MADE CLOTHING, formerly kept in stock by H. H. Tomlinson, has been removed to Jacob Sankey's dwelling house on Main Street, and will be sold at a sacrifice in order to pay a debt resting on the same. The goods are nearly all new, having only been bought a short time ago. Everybody is invited to come and secure the best bargains ever offered in this vicinity. Don't forget the place—Sankey's residence, Main Street, Millheim Pa., two doors east of Bank.

—Prof. Harry's educated little girls of 12, 9 and 6 years respectively, who gave an entertainment in the Ev. church of this place last Thursday evening, made friends and admirers of every person who witnessed their wonderful exhibition of literary and musical accomplishments. They are three winning children and involuntarily lay hold upon your special favor. We are only sorry to say, that, instead of a full house, but a small audience was in attendance and we ardently hope that on their next appearance in our town the public will be more generous in their patronage. They furnish a rich treat to all intelligent hearers and we would say that we were very much gratified by their excellent performance.

DEATH OF AN OLD WESTERN SETTLER.—Mrs. Samuel Runkle, a native of Centre county, Pa., and a sister of Jacob Keen of this town, departed this life at her residence, near Oneco, Stephenson Co., Ill., on May 31st, 1884, after suffering from cancer for several years. Mrs. Runkle was born in Centre county, January 15th, 1814, where she spent the early portion of her life. Over fifty years ago she was married to Mr. Runkle and in 1845 they went West. They settled at Rock Grove and lived there for fifteen years, when they moved to near Oneco, where they resided up to Mrs. Runkle's death. Deceased was a daughter of George & Sarah Keen of Centre county, where she has brothers and one sister and many relations. She leaves a husband and seven children, besides many grand children to mourn her loss.

—The other day landlord Musser of the Millheim Hotel took us through his renovated house and we must say that it is now the best arranged and most improved hotel on this side of the mountain. Everything from one end to the other is changed and enlarged. The dining room on the first story is made almost twice its former size and is an airy and pleasant hall, which at all times is filled with tables groaning under the load of the best victuals to be had in the market. The bar right in front of the dining room is one of the finest to be seen anywhere. Refrigerators are used to keep everything fresh and cool. The guest rooms on the first story have been multiplied and repainted and repapered, and look very clean and cozy. A double porch runs all along the back of the house, affording a shady retreat for the boarders and travelers. Well-furnished wash-rooms, water closets and clothes presses may be found upstairs as well as downstairs. The stairs are roomy and cleanly and horses are always promptly and carefully attended to. In short our town can justly be proud of such a public house and Mr. Musser and his hospitable lady deserve great credit and praise for their enterprise. We could name no better place for strangers to stop at than the Millheim Hotel.

COBURN BRIEFS.

Great excitement prevails here on account of precious minerals, which are claimed to have been found in great quantities. The finder is reported to be worth $100,000 already. Bring it out and let us see it.

First grand excursion from Centre Hall to Spring Mills on the new railroad is to take place next Wednesday, as follows: Train leaves C. H. for S. M. at 5 p. m., S. M. for C. H. at 6:30 p. m., C. H. for S. M. at 11:00 p. m. Tickets for the round trip 30cts. As it connects with the regular evening train quite a number of our citizens expect to take a ride.

The circusman occasioned quite a stir the other day among the boys and Millheim can expect a full delegation from Coburn on Thursday.

Saturday our stores did a big trade and our town is becoming more popular.

Coburn is to have a large hotel as a summer resort and certainly they cannot find a more delightful spot in this county. Will give particulars later.

Some of our young folks enjoy moonlight excursions on the water. No doubt they have nice times and we older folks almost envy them.

A number of prominent ladies and gentlemen from the coal regions have been spending a week here.

WASHBURN & HUNTING'S UNITED SHOWS.—The great shows of L. W. Washburn & Robert Hunting having been consolidated for this season, thus making one of the largest and grandest shows in America, as their shows before united were two of the leading shows of America. This great consolidation will be in this borough Thursday June 12th. The menagerie contains numerous cages of rare animals. The great black elephant being a great feature which is by far a greater curiosity than a white elephant.

The museum contains many curiosities, and Sergt. John Mason the would be slayer of the assassin of our great martyred President, Garfield, will hold receptions in his tent. In the circus, although large enough for three rings contains but one, as a person can only look at one ring at a time. In this large ring will be seen the best performance ever given by any show. Among the performers are M. Robert Whittaker, the champion bare back rider of the world, who was with Forepaugh last year. Also the daring equestrienne, Miss Lizzie Keys, The Huntling's, Robert and Clarice, the finest trapeze performers in the world. Roemer and Lerouk, Barnum's $5,000 challenge horizontal bar performers, and fifty other performers, the best in the circus profession. In speaking of this show, the Keystone Courier, of Connelsville, Pa. says:

"Nearly five thousand people were agreeably surprised last Friday, by the performance of the Washburn & Hunting circus. The circus performance was the best ever seen in this city, and we have had Forepaugh and Barnum. Roemer and Lerouk came in for the greatest applause, they being the favorites. We hope Messrs. Washburn & Hunting success, as they deserve it."

Don't forget the date, Thursday, June 12th. Grand street parade at 11 o'clock, on day of show. Usual price of admission.

—OH! OH! This howling, jumping raging toothache! I would give anything for relief. Well; it won't cost you much. 15 cents will get you a bottle of the Great Zingari Toothache Drops, Guaranteed. For toothache and neuralgia the Great Zingari have no equal. Keep them in the house, they may save you hours of agony. Sold by Jacob Eisenhuth, Millheim, Pa.

MADISONBURG SCRAPES.

Andrew Ocker of this place has contracted to build Dr. Huston's house in Nittany valley.

Daniel Roush scalped a fox on the mountain above H. R. Fiedler's on Monday forenoon.

Levi Fullmer and George Miller put up forty-three panels of post fence in one day. Anybody to beat that?

Benjamin Roush purchased a very fine horse from a Clarion county drover the other day.

Mrs. Charlotte Smith, of Tusseyville, paid her father, Mr. Michael Bierly, a short visit last Friday.

Miss Mazie Reber has gone to Millflint to visit her parents.

Luther Stover is giving the store house a coat of paint. Nevau, the clerk, feels proud of the improvement.

Mrs. Gramley, of Adamsburg, Snyder county, is visiting her father, Jeremiah Hoy.

John Bron, while working on Geo. Vonada's steam saw mill below Hebersburg was caught by a large belt and had his face badly bruised.

Levi Fullmer has built a porch to his house.

Reuben Grimm has bought himself an organ.

Clarence Moyer sold his horse to D. Moyer of Centre Hall.

John Fullmer came home on Saturday. He had been in Snyder county for some time.

Prof. J. B. Harry's educated children exhibited in the Ev. church of this place on Saturday evening. Their performances were good, but the audience small, we are sorry to say.

—A BOTTLE of Curtis' Carmelite Corral should occupy the handy corner of every traveller's satchel. No prudent person will think of undertaking a journey involving changes of climate diet and water, without first procuring a bottle. It never fails! It never disappoints! Money refunded in every case when a single bottle, as directed, fails to cure any case of cholera, dysentery, cholera morbus, diarrhoea, cramps, pains in the bowels, or any intestinal irritation.
