

Our Baby.

We've got a baby down to our house, a real bona fide blinking baby; that is, if the pimpled, wrinkled, squinting piece of aquaria hidden away beneath those pillows of lace and flannel can be called a baby against the supposition of which I should be inclined to file an objection.

Of course I subscribed for the goodness part, sadly remembering the time when our down east babies were gotten up upon a similar lofty scale, and tying my bonnet, hastened home to welcome the little stranger, that had so cavalierly stepped in during my absence.

A bran new baby! Do you know what its advent is into the heart and home of a happy family? The mother laying in that bed of suffering which reduces all women, from the queen to the beggar, to the common level of humanity, which sees the baby till this morning, in the following glowing terms: 'Oh! Aunt Maria, we've got a baby down t'our house. Papa says the doctor saw its little legs hanging through the limbs of the great tree on the common, and picked it off for mamma! Wasn't he good?'

'Thomas, I have always placed the greatest confidence in you. Now tell me, Thomas, how is it that my butcher's bill is so large, and that I have always had such bad dinners?'

BERYL GILHOOLY.

"Will he bite?"

The humming of the bees as they sped from flower to flower and sipped the honeyed treasures of petal and calyx, and the low murmur of the summer breeze sighing among the locust tree, were the only sounds that broke the St. Louis silence of a beautiful afternoon in September.

"Let us think only of the future, Rupert," said Beryl Gilhooly, to the strong-limbed, all-on-account-of-Eliza young man who stood by her side, looking down into the hazel depths of her eyes in a wistful, will-the-old-man-ever-go-to-bed expression that sat so strangely upon the Chicago outlines of his pure young face.

"No, no, not that—some other future," cried Rupert McIntosh, a look of haunting horror coming into his face. "I cannot free my mind from this dread suspicion."

"When are you coming back, sweetheart?"

"Next August."

"Why do you wait so long, darling?"

DOWN'S' ELIXIR. N. H. DOWN'S' Vegetable Balsamic ELIXIR

For the cure of Consumption, Coughs, Colds, Catarrh, Croup, Asthma, Pleurisy, Hoarseness, Influenza, Spitting Blood, Bronchitis, and all diseases of the Throat, Chest, and Lungs.

In all cases where this Elixir is used its efficacy is at once manifested, convincing the most incredulous that it is not incurable, if properly attended to.

At its commencement it is but a slight irritation of the membrane which covers the Lungs, then an inflammation, when the cough is rather dry, local fever, and the pulse more frequent, the cheeks flushed and chills more common. This Elixir in curing the above complaints, operates so as to remove all morbid irritations and inflammation from the lungs to the surface, and finally expel them from the system. It facilitates expectoration.

It heals the ulcerated surfaces and relieves the cough and makes the breathing easy. It supports the strength and at the same time reduces the fever. It is free from strong opiate and strychnine articles, which are so drying a nature as to be a great danger of destroying the patient, whereas this medicine never dries or stops the cough, but, by removing the cause, whereas when the cough is cured the patient is well. Send address for pamphlet giving full directions, free. Price 30 cts., 50 cts., and $1.00 per bottle. SOLD EVERYWHERE.

DR. JOHN BULL'S Smith's Tonic Syrup FOR THE CURE OF FEVER and ACUE Or CHILLS and FEVER, AND ALL MALARIAL DISEASES.

The proprietor of this celebrated medicine justly claims for it a superiority over all remedies ever offered to the public for the SAFE, CERTAIN, SPEEDY and PERMANENT cure of Ague and Fever, or Chills and Fever, whether of short or long standing. He refers to the entire Western and Southern country to bear him testimony to the truth of the assertion that in no case whatever will it fail to cure if the directions are strictly followed and carried out.

In a great many cases a single dose has been sufficient for a cure, and whole families have been cured by a single bottle, with a perfect restoration of the general health. It is, however, prudent, and in every case more certain to cure, if its use is continued in smaller doses for a week or two after the disease has been checked, more especially in difficult and long-standing cases. Usually this medicine will not require any aid to keep the bowels in good order. Should the patient, however, require a cathartic medicine, after having taken three or four doses of the Tonic, a single dose of BULL'S VEGETABLE FAMILY PILLS will be sufficient.

BULL'S SARSAPARILLA is the old and reliable remedy for impurities of the blood and Scrofulous affections—the King of Blood Purifiers.

DR. JOHN BULL'S VEGETABLE WORM DESTROYER is prepared in the form of candy drops, attractive to the sight and pleasant to the taste.
