It is possible, though not at all probable, that Congress will adjourn in the early part of July. Should the House at once take up the business that the Senate has prepared for it, and which has been on the Speaker's table for six weeks, it can rush it through and adjourn by that time. But there seems to be a disposition on the part of both Senators and Representatives to await the action of the coming Democratic Convention, in order to inject a few hundred campaign speeches into the Record and have them printed and circulated at Government expense.

THE newspaper opposition to Blain becomes more portentous every day. The list of the Independent and Republicnn journals which are openly committed against him stands now. New York Times, New York Herald, Harper's Weekly, Puck, Evening Telegram,, Brooklyn Union, Rochester Post Express, Rochester Herald, Syracuse Herald, Flushing Times, Boston Advertiser, Boston Transcript, Boston Herald, Springfield Republican, Philadelphia Record, Philadelphia Times, Chicago News, Chicago Times, New Haven News, and the New York Evening Post. In addition to these the Chicago Inter-Ocean, the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, the Buffalo Express, the Buffalo Commercial Advertiser, the Philadelphia Telegraph, the Boston Journal, the Worcester Spy, and many other Republican party journals consent to support the ticket, but admit that they have small hope of seeing it elected. We do not believe any candidate of any party ever entered upon a Presidential canvass with such tremendous odds as these against him. In this city the Tribune is the only paper which supports Blaine squarely. The Commercial Advertiser has not defined its course clearly, but it evidently has no intention of advocating Blaine, for it says that his nomination was a "glorious victory" won by the "Star-route gang, the cow-boys, and and Express is doubtful also, saying
