Act of March 31, 1880." FESTIVAL ON THE FOURTH.-The ladies of the "All Workers' Society" of the U. B. Church of Millheim will hold a festival in the town hall on the afternoon and evening of the Fourth of July. Refreshments of all kinds such as ICE CREAM, CAKES and LEMONADE will be served. The proceeds of this festival will be applied to the repairing and painting of their Church building on Main street. The public is respectfully invited to attend this occasion and is requested to contribute to the good work by a liberal patronage of the refreshment stands. FOURTH OF JULY CELEBRATION AT REBERSBURG.-The citizens of Rebersburg and vicinity, under the auspices of Post 298, G. A. R., will have a grand celebration of the Fourth in that town. Presentation of a flag to Post 298, Ice Cream Festival at the G. A. R. hall, and a Balloon Ascension and magnificent display of Fire Works in the evening will be some of the main features of the programme. Prominent speakers have been procured for the occasion. All are invited to come and have a pleasant time. -The following proclamation, issued by our chief Burgess has been posted up at all conspicuous places in town: NOTICE FOR THE FOURTH OF JULY, 1884: -Whereas miniature balloon ascensions with fire, and the shooting of glass balls with shot within or upon the streets within the built-up portions of the borough of Millheim are considered highly dangerous to life and property, therefore, the undersigned, by virtue of his office and the existing statutes of the state, strictly prohibits any of the aforesaid performances within prescribed limits and demands the arrest of all or any of the violators of the above laws. R. B. HARTMAN, Chief Burgess, Millheim, June 19th, 1884.

-Help the ladies of the U. B. church on the Fourth by liberally patronizing their festival. -Mr. Brooks, the gentlemanly collector and solicitor of the Bellefonte Zepublican gave us a short call yesterday. -Katie Bartholomew, of Philadelphia, will spend the Fourth at Millheim with her parents. She is expected to arrive to-morrow. -Do not fail to call around at the town hall on the fourth. The ladies of the U. B. church will serve you with first-class ice cream, &c. -Mr. J. L. Kreamer, of Woodward, administrator of the estate of J. H. Musser, late of Haines township, dec'd, advertises the real estate of the decedent at Orphans' Court sale, in another column. -Mr. A. J. Griest, of Unionville, announces for County commissioner in this week's JOURNAL. Messrs. Griest, Wolf & Campbell, having done their duties very creditably during their term of office as commissioners, should be re-elected. The tax-payers of the county are under obligations to them for the reduction of the heavy county debt and another three years of their work would certainly be beneficial to the financial affairs of old Centre. -A BOTTLE of Curtis' Carmelite Cordial should occupy the handy corner of every traveller's satchel. No prudent person will think of undertaking a journey involving changes of climate diet and water, without first procuring a bottle. It never fails. It never disappoints! Money refunded in every case when a single bottle, as directed, fails to cure any case of cholera, dysentery, cholera morbus, diarrhoea, cramps, pains in the bowels, or any intestinal irritation. JOHNSTON, HOLLOWAY & CO., Philadelphia Agents. Sold by J. Eisenhuth, Millheim, Pa. -As customary the JOURNAL will take a week's vacation over the Fourth of July. Our typos are anxious for a little rest from their continuous and confining labors and next week is their time to take it. After that they will feel like "coming up to the rack" again and the JOURNAL will come to its readers as newsy as ever, greeting them with the names and portraits of the Democratic nominees for President and Vice President. In the meantime we shall be pleased to have our patrons call at the office, where we will gladly receive orders for advertising or job work, names of new subscribers and last but not least moneys on outstanding accounts. -The ice cream party which came off at Wm. P. Catherman's residence on North street, last Friday, proved a very pleasant occasion to all who were present. Three different flavors were used in the elegant ice cream and some of the finest and richest cakes adorned the large table and were hugely enjoyed by everybody. About thirty persons were in attendance and did full justice to the delicacies being dished up through the evening, departing for their homes at a late hour, feeling satisfied that they had spent a delightful evening. -CAMPMEETING.-The campmeeting for Centre charge will be held in Mr. Jacob Gephart's Grove, north of Millheim, commencing about the middle of August and will continue about one week. To this religious and social feast we would most cordially invite all christians of whatever denomination to erect their tent and spend a week with us in the service of our common Master. For information apply to the undersigned committee. REV. BENJ. HENGST "J. B. FOX EM'L KERSTETTER W. J. KRAPE W. R. WEISER REUBEN HARTER D. L. ZERBY -The four greatest and most desirable properties of a successful medicine, are perfectly combined in McDonald's Blood Purifier or Sarsaparillian Alternative. In malassimilation of food and dyspepsia its effects are speedy and happy. For disfiguring humors of scrofula and other the loathsome sores of venereal diseases, the burning tortures of erysipelas, no other medicine can possibly equal it. As a spring medicine, perfect blood purifier, efficient and safe diuretic and aperient, it meets with gratifying favor from the medical profession and the people. Dissatisfied buyers can have the money refunded. JOHNSTON, HOLLOWAY & CO., Philadelphia Agents. Sold by J. Eisenhuth, Millheim, Pa. -On Wednesday of last week Mr. John B. Harter, a son of Mr. Daniel Harter, residing near Rebersburg, was called to his eternal home by the merciles reaper death. Deceased sustained severe injuries in falling from a fruit tree several years ago. Under the skill of physicians he for a while improved in mind and body; but afterward, his condition growing worse, he was moved to the asylum at Danville. A few months ago he returned to his home in a fair way of entire recovery. But the sudden change of temperature in the weather brought on a relapse which eventuated in his death. Mr. Ohl, a skillful attendant from the institution at Danville, had charge of the patient after his return to Brushvalley. The future of John Harter was very promising before the accident occurred, which ended in his early death. The subject of this article attained the age of eighteen years and some months. J. J. Gramley for County Treasurer.

material, and we have that in Walker township, in the person of J. J. Gramley, who is a farmer by occupation, a hard-working man and in the ranks of Democracy. We know him to be well qualified to fill the office of Treasurer, from the fact, that he has filled nearly all our township offices to the satisfaction of his constituents, by an honest and square performance of duty. We hope that all fair means may be employed in convention to make him the nominee for treasurer. M. Corman, Zion, Elias Vonada, Thomas Lesh, J. M. Garbrick, Zion, M. Shaffer, J. Swartz, C. S. Beck, S. H. Goodhart, John Miller, A. A. Fletcher, Nittany, J. H. Beck, J. A. Emerick, Sol. Peck, J. B. Crawford, B. S. Winkleman, and many other citizens of Walker. Woodward Items. J. C. Motz is nursing a sore finger. "Warren," how is it about that fishing party? The corn at this end of the valley looks well. "Mukle" has struck a vein of what is supposed to be soft coal, on the old Haines farm. Our singing school has closed until after harvest. J. Willis Musser has started a menagerie. He has a tame crow-that is, he is trying to tame it. William Geistweide has built a new barn. Boss carpenter Geo. Stover and his crew did the work. Gregg Kenney gives free lectures every Saturday evening. Al. Deininger, from New Berlin, is sporting around our town. Miss Laura Ettlinger, who has been staying at Poduka, Ky., for the last three years is home visiting her parents and friends. Emanuel Ungard's house is ready for occupation. Aaronsburg boys are frequent visitors of our little village. Twenty six persons assembled at Mr. Sol. Ettlinger's residence at this place last Friday night and gave a pleasant surprise party to the host and his family. Every participant in the party was provided with splendid cakes and innumerable delicacies, and when the tables were spread and arranged it presented a sight that made the heart of the hungry laugh. The writer is only sorry he couldn't raise the snitz, or there would have been some pies there for Sol. Will do better the next time. A splendid evening was spent, Mr. Ettlinger, the jolly host never being at a loss to pleasantly entertain a company of friends. FRITZY. Madisonburg Scraps. Andrew Ocker has the carpenters at work building a piece to his barn. Geo. Reber swapped a horse on a phaeton the other day. Alice Wise returned home from Lock Haven. Mrs. Chesty Smull is suffering from a severe attack of bilious fever. Candidates are very plenty and very pleasant, repeating the old campaign story-"My neighbors and friends wanted me to come out for the office, &c." J. L. Roush returned from Lancaster last Friday, where he had been attending school. J. L. expects to go to Clearfield to canvass books. Geo. Limbert and Wm. Bierly also came home on Friday and intend to spend their vacation in the harvest field. Lewis Wolf has taken two pleasure trips since his school closed. One to Millheim to enjoy the show and another to Lock Haven. Oscar Gramley, of near Rebersburg, lost a valuable horse the other day, this being the second one for this spring. Dr. Lee received a swollen eye by coming in too close contact with a bee. DIED. On the 13th inst., at Rebersburg, Pa. Miss Leah Leitzel aged 64 years and 6 months. On the 18th inst., at the residence of his parents near Rebersburg, Pa. John E. Harter, son of Daniel Harter, aged 18 years, 6 months and 28 days.
