—On last Thursday a distressing accident befell George Yearick, a son of Peter Yearick, of near Madisonburg. The young man was in the act of binding a load of hay with a spring pole and when he pulled the pole down at the rear end of the wagon, it broke, throwing him on the threshing floor with great force. His wrist was dislocated and his arm fractured about two inches above the broken wrist, besides receiving some other injuries of less consequence.

—Gen. B. Fisher, of Philadelphia, who is a son of Rev. Peter Fisher, well remembered by many of the older citizens of Penns Valley, will deliver a lecture in Aaronsburg on the evening of the 2nd of August for the benefit of the Ladies' Mite Society of the Reformed church of that place. The subject of his address will be "Life in Libby Prison and the escape there from."

CORNER STONE LAYING.—The corner stone of the new Evangelical church at Millheim will be laid with appropriate services on Sunday, July 27th. The officiating minister will be the Rev. Bishop J. J. Esler, from Chicago, Ill., who is likewise the senior bishop of the Evangelical Association, a man of deep piety and a theologian of high rank. He will preach at 10 A. M. in the German language and at 2 1/2 P. M. English. A cordial invitation is hereby extended to ministers and people of the adjacent charges.

BENJ. HENST, Preacher in charge.

—Mr. W. B. DeLong, of Jersey Shore, Pa., is at present stopping at the Millheim Hotel, and is taking orders for the fall delivery of the Rochester nursery stock. He delivers everything at the residence of the purchaser and also makes a specialty of flowers and ornamental trees. This being the first of a series of trips which he expects to continue for four years he wishes by honest dealing to merit a share of the public patronage.

—Col. D. H. Hastings and wife, Mr. H. K. Hicks and wife, of Bellefonte, and Mrs. Jas. Hastings of Philadelphia registered at the Millheim Hotel last Saturday evening. They started on the morning of said day for a pleasure trip to Penn's cave and after having explored that wonderful piece of nature concluded to give our burg a visit. They were pleased with Millheim and its people and spent the night in town, returning to Bellefonte on Sunday afternoon. A few minutes conversation with the party showed us that they were charmed with the beauty and sublimity of nature, upon which their eyes had been feasted on their drive through the valley. We hope the Col. and company will repeat their visit to Millheim frequently.

—IT WENT AROUND AMONG THE NEIGHBORS. Mr. Levi Stahl, merchant and postmaster at Fostoria, Pa., writes:

Mr. J. A. McDonald, Reedsville Pa. Dear Sir—Some time ago I had a severe attack of chronic diarrhoea. Could obtain no relief. A friend gave me a part of a bottle of your Curtis' Camelite Cordial, and a few doses entirely cured me. The balance of the bottle went around among the neighbors. Since that I have written to New York and Philadelphia for the medicine but could not procure it. I traced up the bottle we had and found it was purchased of Mr. Jacob Cowan, merchant in Altoona, and from him obtained your address. Please forward me one dozen bottles by express at once, as I do not wish to be without it in my family and wish to sell it in my store.

Single bottle Curtis' Camelite Cordial guaranteed to cure any case cholera, dysentery, diarrhoea, cramps, pains, and all irritation of the bowels incident to change of climate, diet or water.

JOHNSTON, HOLLOWAY & CO., Philadelphia Agents. Sold by J. Eisenhuth, Millheim, Pa.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—Mr. John Weight, an aged farmer, residing on a Mr. Gordon's farm, near Zion, this county, met with an accident last Monday afternoon which resulted in his untimely death. He had several horses on the threshing floor of his barn for the purpose of tramping out some rakes and when he gave of the younger horses a slight tap with a fork, the animal felt him a severe kick, the effects of which caused his death within two hours. Mr. Weight in former years was a resident of Penn township, and no doubt is well known by many of our readers.

—GOOD FOR MALARIA. E. James, Thompsontown, Pa., writes: Dear Sir—Send me two dozen of your Liver Pills at once. Some of our people say that they have cured them of chills and fever and they do not want to be without them.

JOHNSTON, HOLLOWAY & CO., Philadelphia Agents. Sold by J. Eisenhuth, Millheim, Pa.

OUR MAN ABOUT TOWN OBSERVES.—That the writer of the "Millheim News" in last week's Centre Democrat must have been blindfolded on the fourth of July, judging from his statement that only one house in town was decorated on that day.

That Cleveland and Hendricks will poll a bigger vote in this place, than ever the Democrats polled before and that they will triumphantly elect their ticket.

That while the citizens may not have given a cent for the celebration here on the Fourth, they patronize the JOURNAL, when they want any printing done.

That the Musser fishing excursion on last Thursday was rather a failure.

That the pleasant faces of several traveling men were seen at the Millheim Hotel where they registered last week.

That if the Dutch were to take Millheim, the author of the "Millheim News" would get badly left.

That we ought to have telephonic connection with our county seat.

That the farmers are all happy over a fruitful harvest.

That the band boys are improving finely.

That we ought to have an afternoon mail from Lewisburg.

That the people of Millheim are as generous as can be.

That the JOURNAL meets with favor wherever it is read.

That the Centre Democrat correspondent at this place thought he was getting a huge joke on somebody when he said that "The retired merchants are selling old clothes." Who does he mean? Certainly not Mr. Snook, nor Kauffmanns, nor Harter, nor H. H. Tomlinson, for he is in no business at all now. He can not mean Mr. Tobias for he is only managing the business for Hood, Bonbright & Co. of Philadelphia. Be more plain the next time.

Rebersburg Locals.

Rev. William Hoekman, a former resident of this place, now residing in Michigan, is here visiting his friends.

C. C. Zeigler, who lately graduated with honors at Harvard University, has again returned home for the summer, after which he proposes to make a prospecting tour in Germany.

Squire Carlin purchased a fine black horse from Daniel Gentzel of Penns Valley.

Cal. Harper was here shaking hands with his political friends.

Mr. Geo. Weaver killed a rattlesnake, with eleven rattles, on the mountain south of Wolfe's store.

The Rebersburg Normal School under the instructions of Prof. H. H. Weber commenced last Monday. Many students from a distance are expected. Prof. Weber is an experienced teacher.

Commissioner Daniel Morris, from Logansville, favored our town with a call.

Harry Conser is here on a visit. Our school directors procured patent desks for the school house occupied by Prof. Weber. A new building is next in order.

Our band will have a picnic and festival in Kreamer's grove, south of Rebersburg, on Saturday, July 26th. Several other bands will be present to enliven the occasion. All are invited to attend.

Madisonburg Scraps.

L. B. Shafer is making preparations to weatherboard his house and build a porch.

Miss Lizzie Shull and Miss Ellen Walizer, of Millheim, were the guests of Mrs. Sue Rishel on Saturday and Sunday.

Elias Miller improved his farm house, two miles east of this place with a coat of paint.

Michael Miller has used a self-binding reaper this season. It does the work very well, but most of his neighbors can't see any economy in it. Mr. Miller had five horses in his reaper every day he used it.

William N.—The next time be sure you are after your own cow and don't run David Ertel's all over town.

William W. had better get his new teeth. He could keep things in a better shape than.

BARGAIN STORE.—Just received a full supply of Green Groceries such as water melons, cucumbers, apples, tomatoes, cabbage, &c. Also a fine selection of Boots and Shoes. We are selling off prints at cost in order to make room for our fall stock.

Very respectfully Yours,
D. S. KAUFFMAN & Co.

The farmers around here are done harvesting and have all their grain safely housed. They have been blessed with a good crop.

We'll all go to the festival at Aaronsburg Saturday, for the benefit of the Reformed Church.

We had a little racket in town the other evening. A little of "Eby's Best" was connected with it. Wm. O. took the belt from our former Sullivan and now the laurels of prize fighter adorn his brow, while John B. takes the second place as Jim Mace.

On Sunday Mr. Benjamin Benner's house caught fire; but little damage was done, the excitement being greater than the fire.

The silver wedding, announced in last week's ITEMS, was not as tony as predicted. They took the back road along the mountains to avoid the rope which had been stretched for their benefit. BRACE up the next time and face the music.

About nine o'clock on Saturday morning the little folks of Woodward began to gather in the woods for a picnic. By all reports they had a jolly time, which will long be remembered.

I hear S. T. Fraim of Millheim is going to have a picnic of his own near Millheim. Don't know whether Woodward will turn out or not.

GULOVER.
Penn Hall Shavings.

The latest—ice cream on Sunday.

The farmers of this part have all their grain housed and report of not having had such a good crop for many years.

J. W. Bartges sold his beautiful bay horse to Mr. Holmes of Nittany for the snug sum of $250.

Miss Rosa Wendell, an accomplished young lady from Lewisburg is visiting her brother W. C. in this place.

There was quite a dog excitement in town last week, which caused hard feelings among some of the neighbors. Be more careful next time.

Candidates for various offices are around every day, setting them up for the boys.

Samuel Ripka, Maj. Fisher's hireling is off on a business trip.

Mr. J. P. Condo bought himself a cow and intends starting a dairy.

Mrs. Jonathan Condo is back from her visit to Nittany valley and Yoney is glad.

Prof. Gobble and wife of New Berlin are here on a visit to his parents. The Prof. is one of your kind, genial men, who always wear a smile, and is one of the Principals of the New Berlin Seminary.

JACK PLANE.
