In looking over our city exchanges we find here and there items that are indicative of a democratic victory in November and for the benefit of our many democratic readers we copy below a few of them. This kind of literature is full of encouragement to the faithful democrat and we will try to furnish items of such a nature every week until the election of Grover Cleveland and Thomas A. Hendricks: Hundreds of laboring men in South

Prior to the meeting of the National Democrat-Mr. Speed, which will appear in to-mor-

of his in this city: LOUISVILLE, Ky., June 19. MY DEAR SIR: I received your esteemed letter by due course of mail. The action of the Chicago Republican Convention has greatly distressed me. I am not at all puzzled as to yoting, but grieved to be under the necessity of failing to yote for the nominee of the Republican party. It is shocking to think such a party could put forth such a platform. No more of that. But I and dashed through the windows on cannot vote for Blaine and could not yote for him on any platform.

The foreign relations of this country are pretty much in the hands of the President. During the short time Mr. Blaine acted as Secretary of State he exhibited such a yiew of international law as makes me believe that, should he be elected President, if he would not plunge us into needless foreign difficulties he would bring our diplomacy into disrepute and make us the laughingstock of the civilized world. No personal magnetism or brilliant sentences can compensate for such a blunder. To vote for him would be like voting against the peace and honor of my country. I cannot do that at the bidding of the Republican party.

Then his letter about the surplus revenue is monstrous. It shows him to be as unsafe in his view of the frame work of our government as he is in regard to international law. It is charitable to say the letter is the child of ignorance, for if not it is the child of de-

Now what can I do? May I fold my arms and let the world wag? Must vote the Democratic ticket? Must I join a third party? As for a third party it is too late to organize one for putting out an independent ticket. The purpose of a third party organized now would be to defeat Blaine. It would of necessity perish, whether Blaine is elected or defeated and its members be like loose cogs in a machine, able to do no good, but capable of doing great

Should the Democrats give the counry a statesman and a gentleman as their candidate I think we had better the less liquor and bad language were vote for him. So you see, my dear sir, of holding the general election for their I cannot say what I may do, but am positive as to what I will not do. I am most truly your friend. JAMES SPEED.

> WE received the prospectus of a new Democratic weekly newspaper, called "THE Post" to be published in 1884, by W. U. Hensel, of Lancaster, Pa. The publication will have for its object the promotion of the electy in electing their Electoral, Congressional, Legislative and local tickets in the state. W. U. Hensel, its chief editor, is well-known as one of the most able journalists in the state, and the interests of the democratic party will be thoroughly and efficiently represented in the "Post." We advise Democrats, who desire to be informed upon the issues and news of the present campaign, to send the low price of subscription, 30 cents to W. U. Hensel, Lock Box "R," Lancaster, and thereby secure a copy of this promising sheet.

The day opened with an overhanging sky, wind and clouds indicating rain, and eveybody, we might say, prayed that it would come in teeming showers, as the drought was beginning to tell seriously on vegetation. But notwithstanding the threatening aspect of the weather the people began to gather in from far and near and by 10 o'clock, a. m. the old church was filled to its utmost seating capacity. Bishop J. J. Esher from Chicago, Ill. then preached a deep and highly interesting sermon in the German language and in the afternoon at 21 o'clock he delivered a sermon of equal edification in the English language to a large congregation which had assembled in spite of the heavy rain falling at the time. After this discourse preachers and people repaired to the corner of the new wall where the stone was to be laid. The bishop deposited into the repository prepared for this purpose a copy of the Holy Scriptures, the Church Hymnal, Book of Disciplin, a copy of the "Christliche Botschafter," (the German organ of the church and the Largest German religious Weekly in the World) a copy of the "Evangelical Messenger," a copy of the "Living E-pistle," the Evangelical Almanac for 1884, the Central Penna.
