We can also accommodate customers with good Country Lard, Sugar Oured Hams and splendid Shoulders. Pure Apple Juice Vinegar just received from New York. The best made. Remember-Country Produce buys goods just as cheap as cash and we always pay the highest home market prices for produce. The question arises, "Why we are selling goods so low?" We answer-First, because we bought the stock at a figure which enables us to sell low and still have a reasonable profit. Secondly, we want to make room for an immense fall stoch. Thirdly, because we quently get our goods cheaper than par ties who buy on credit. We give our customers the benefit of the discounts made by cash purchases and all this together enables us to consistently keep up the reputation of the BARGAIN

N. B. Our goods are always fresh, as our drayage man takes them directly from the cars and at once delivers them at our store.

Mr. J. A. McDonald, Reedsville Pa. Dear Sir :- Some time ago I had a seyere attack of chronic diarrhea. Could obtain no relief. A friend gave me a part of a bottle of your Curtis' Camelite Cordial, and a few doses entirely cured me. The balance of the haul. bottle went around among the neighbors. Since that I have written to New York and Philadelphia for the medicine but could not procure it. I traced up the bottle we had and found it was purchased of Mr. Jacob Ccwan, merchant in Altoona, and from him obtained your address. Please forward me one dozen bottles by express at once, as I do not wish to be without it in my family and wish to sell it in my store." Coburn Briefs.

We heard some one say that Noah Weaver hauled 4775 weight of lumber through the mud from Woodward to Coburn, with two horses last Monday. A new firm took possession of Smith & Co's grainhouse. Mr. Henry Whitmer, of Spring Mills, and Mr. Lincoln, of Union county, are the parties who have leased the establishment for three years, and as they are well known as first-class business men, we predict success for them.

W. H. Kreamer has returned from his trip and is delighted with it.
