SUDDEN DEATH AT MADISONBURG.—Mr. Samuel Gardner, a gentleman from Lock Haven, died at Madisonburg, on Thursday afternoon, almost immediately after his arrival in that town. Having been subject to consumption, he was in the habit of frequently riding out on Mosher's beer wagon, with Mr. John Lose, also of Lock Haven, for the benefit of his health. He started away from Lock Haven that morning apparently in fair health and feeling quite well throughout the day. They reached Madisonburg at about 3 o'clock, p. m. Driving up in front of the hotel the subject of this notice jumped off the wagon, remarking that he was very hungry and ordered a speedy dinner. But landing on the ground he took to coughing and heavy hemorrhages and setting down on a chair on the porch of the hotel, he requested the landlord to immediately procure the help of a physician, as he had fears of his end. His wish was at once acted out, but before the doctor could reach the scene, the patient had expired, not more than fifteen minutes having passed from the time of his arrival. He was taken into the house, where his body received proper attention. His remains were placed into an ice box and taken to Lock Haven that night by John G. Shafer and George Kidder, of Madisonburg. The affair created an intense sensation in that quiet little village.

We are told the Mr. Moyer, the kind-hearted landlord of the Madisonburg hotel, proved himself a "Good Samaritan" by doing everything in his power to lend assistance on this sad occasion.

Deceased was twenty-four years of age and his parents and relations, residing at Lock Haven doubtless are sadly grieved at the untimely death of their son and brother.

—BOLLS, pimples, skin grubs, black magots, eruptions, scaly skin, &c., indicate poisoned blood, and besides being disagreeable to you, afflicted reader, they are unpleasant to your friends and those compelled to come in contact with you; you owe it as a duty to your health and your friends to take a bottle or two of McDonald's Great Blood Purifier or Sarsaparillian Alternative, and be more pleasant and agreeable to look at. Money refunded to dissatisfied purchasers.

—One of the finest lectures ever delivered in this neighborhood was the one by Gen. B. Frank Fisher of Philadelphia, in the Reformed church at Aaronsburg. That gentleman has a very pleasant and fascinating way of talking and handles the subject of his lecture with the warmth which only personal experience and feeling can lend to a speaker. He held his large audience spell-bound for nearly an hour and a half and every body seemed sorry when the speaker closed his remarks.

—A number of our town people went their way every morning to Coburn to take the early train for a black-berry excursion in the mountains. They generally return in the evening with buckets and baskets filled with that delicious fruit, which is said to be quite plenty.

On Tuesday morning 50 tickets were sold at Coburn station to berrying people.

Secondly, we want to make room for an immense fall stock. Thirdly, because we buy all our goods for cash, and consequently get our goods cheaper than parties who buy on credit. We give our customers the benefit of the discounts made by cash purchases and all this together enables us to consistently keep up the reputation of the BARGAIN STORE.

N. B. Our goods are always fresh as our drayage man takes them directly from the cars and at once delivers them at our store.
