of the district convention. Hon. A. G. CURTIN, subject to the decision of the congressional district

In last week's Journal we published a complete report of the proceedings of the Democratic county Convention, giving the names of the nominees for the various offices. For want of time and space we then failed to make editorial mention of the can-

Hon. Adam Hoy was nominated by acclamation for President Judge of the 49th Judicial District. Mr. Hoy is well known in his district, as well as throughout the greater part of the state. He is at present serving that office under an appointment by the Governor, and since on the bench has proyed himself fully able, impartial, courageous and fearless. As a jurist his record is irreproachable. His friendly disposition has endeared him to all with whom he has ome in contact, and if the District nomination be awarded him, his popularity will be exhibited in the fact that he is stronger than his party throughout the District.

Hon. A. G. Curtin, present member of Congress was also nominated by acclamation and in such a spirit as to show the respect and confidence that the people of Centre county have for him. Words fail us to express what in justice is due to the great war Governor. Suffice to say that in looking over the list of great men in our congressional District, and seeking a candidate to fill that office according to the general requirements we always find Hon. A. G. Curtin at the head. His record as a public servant, is pure and untarnished, and his nomination (which means his election) will give general satisfaction.

Hon. Chester Munson at present associate Judge, by appointment by Gov. Pattison, is a citizen of Philipsburg and while on the bench has rendered satisfaction. His appearance him a very fit Judge.

John A. Woodward, of Howard township is one of the nominees for assembly. Mr. Woodward is a farm er by occupation, a gentleman of education and experience. He has the qualifications and ability for a good representative and will make an hon-is well known in Centre county as also over the entire state. Being likewise a farmer by occupation, a friend of the workingman, and a man of education and ability. He has since his connection with the Democratic party acted honestly and openly with the same, and will make one of the best representatives that Centre coun ty has had at Harrisburg for a number of years. His canvass for the delhonorable ever made in this county.

Miles Walker from Ferguson township, the present clerk of the commissioners' office is the nominee for Sheriff. Mr. Walker is a young man of good character, fine intellectual qualifications, genial disposition and good business tact. In the position he has held as clerk to the commissioners he by showing and reheving what has been has had intercourse with a large por- wrong at home, but by meddling with tion of the voters of the county, and the business of others, gratifying the by his gentle manners and prompt at- grean, the curiosity and the spirit of fidence of the people, hence his deserv-ship received the nomination for Prothonotary. Important as that nomination may be, the convention could not have found a better man that is better qualified in every respect for the position. Mr. Brett is a farmer by occupation, a gentleman fully qualified for the important position, possessing a good character, courteous disposition and a spirit af true democ-

James A. McClain present Register and Frank P. Bible Recorder have both been renominated by acclamation. Both these gentlemen have been good and faithful officials, and according to party rules will again be triumphantly elected.

Charles Smith of Bellefonte received the nomination for county Treasurer on the first ballot. Mr. Smith has been a soldier during the late war and has lost an arm in the cause of his country. He has been a faithful worker in the democratic party, and the nomination was justly due to him. He will fill the office with credit to himself and the people.

A. J. Greist and John Wolf present democratic Commissianers have been renominated. Concerning these two it is needless to say much. They have been tried, and found faithful and just in managing the finances of the county. Their renomination on first ballot has proved that their by the people of the county. They will poll a full vote. Solomon Peck of Walker and Mr. Dinges from Boalsburg are the nominees for Auditors, both are fully qualified to fill the position and will without doubt be vigilant in the discharge of the duties of that important office.

THE ticket has been honestly, and fairly nominated. The candidates are all good men, honest democrats, and fully qualified for the various offices, and it now becomes the duty of every democrat in the country to allow personal disappointments and petty differences to pass away wth the smoke of the convention and all join in and roll up such a majority for the county, state and national ticket that will manifest the true democratic spirt of old Cen-

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP FOR CHILDREN TEETHING. Its value is there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhoea, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bettle.

Tights of citizenship.

Vouchers. On applying for final papers one voucher, who must be a citizen of the United States, is required.

None is required on declaration of intention.

Terms of Sale:—One half of purchase money on confirmation of sale, the balance in one year with interest to be secured by bond and mortgage on the premises.

The American Policy.

is likely to confuse some. Interpreted by the light of certain facts in our political history it would mean a policy by which those born in other countries should be virtually proscribed, that is, not admitted to equal participation in public affairs under any circumstances. t might even be construed to go beyond that and extend the proscription to men on account of their religion, as in the case of the Madigan circular which, we believe, had Mr. Blame's unqualified approval. But when we see the cordial reception that the idea of this American policy gets in certain quarters, we are puzzled to reconcile it with the American policy of a quarter of a century or more ago. When in a dynamiter's Congress James G. Blaine is taken and character are such as to make up and approved because he will inaugurate an American policy, we are safe in concluding that a radically different idea has displaced the one that used to wear this name and title. We get a little light by hearing others say that Mr. Blaine would give us an aggressive policy, a vigorous policy. There is a certain kind of aggressive policy that we would like to see instituted, but this is not the kind that is expected from the plumed knight. We would dearly like Leonard Rhone of Potter township to see four years of aggression against is the other nominee for assembly, and the rings and corrupt combinations with which our public service is honeycombed, but judging the future by the past we are fifty-fold, at least, more likely to get that wholesome and beneficent aggression from Grover Cleveland than from James G. Blaine. It should not be the policy of the American peopleto stir up strife with foreign powers, and we know very well that at the present time it is not. Anything of that sort would be more distinctively a European than an American policy. It nas been a well-known device of rulers egates of the various townships and in the Old World, when they found boroughs has been one of the most | their subjects growing discontented under their tyrannies and exactions, to quarrel with neighboring powers upon ome petty pretexts, and by arousing National sentiment cause the people to forget their grievances. We are unable to see much difference between this policy and that to which it is proclaimed Mr. Blaine will give his early attention if elected President. In other words he is going to stir things up, not ntion to business has won the con adventure which it is easy to make an active force under a spirited Jingo policy. He would turn the thought of American citizens away from the de-Robert G. Brett of Ferguson town- bauchery by which their public service is now tainted, to preparing debauchery of a new and seductive kind. He made ome progress in this direction when President for six months before, and the smell of guano, still lingers about our state-craft for that brief record. What would he do if given the other

OCTOBER 4th will be the LAST DAY to be naturalized in time for elec-

Bear in mind that five years' residence in this country is in all cases required of foreign born citizens to be naturalized. One year's residence in the State of Pennsylvania immediately preceding the application is required. (The one year's residence in the State will be included in the five years' residence in the United Slates.)

Declaration of intention may be made any time aft er arrival in this country; but at least two years must have elapsed between the time of declaration, and the application for final papers. It must be borne in mind that naturalization alone is not sufficient to qualify one to vote; although one can be naturalized up to within one month of the election; yet he must be registered at least two months before the election, and have paid a State or county tax at least one month before the election. Registrat ion is an absolute prerequisite to the payment of tax, without which no one can vote.

To those about to be naturalized: (1.) Be sure you are registered not later than September 4. (2.) Be sure you have paid a State or county tax not efficient service has been appreciated later than October 4. (3.) Be sure to procure your naturalization papers not later than October 4.

There is nothing to prevent one, who nas complied with the law as to residence, from being naturalized at any time in the year, but to qualify one to vote on Noyember 4, it is absolutely necessary that he be naturalized not later then October 4. later than October 4.

MINOR PAPERS. When the applicant resided in the country at least three years next preceding his arrival at the age of twenty-one he is entitled to naturalization without a previous declaration of intentions: Provided, he has resided in the United States five years, and in the State of Pennsylvania one year immediately preceding his ap-

Chronic Ulcers and Catarrh. Mrs. Christian Zelle, aged sixty-three years, of Carondelet, St. Louis, Missouri, had a chronic ulcer on her leg which had been running for forty-three years. To use her own language, she had "tried all the doctors," but without perceptible benefit. Two of the most noted of this city advised her, as the only alternative from death, to have the leg amputated below the knee. She was troubled with an intolerable itching sensation, which only gave way to a distracting pain, which made death her daily wish. She could not sleep or rest. On March 21, this year, she commenced using Dr. Hartman's PERUNA, and to-day the leg is entirely healed, and the thankful old lady says she has slept more during the last three months than she did in the previous forty-three years.

Miss Alice Brady, of East St. Louis, Illinois, suffered from catarrh ophthalmia for five years. On April 27 she began treatment under Dr. Hartman. For a year before she was a patient of two of the best known oculists of this city, but they signally failed to help her. After one month under Dr. Hartman and his PERUNA, her eyes have almost entirely healed, and, according to her own statement, he has done more for her in this short space of time than the oculists did in the previous whole year. PERUNA, of course, did it. Miss Annie Baker, First Avenue, Mil-waukee, writes: "I take great pleasure in recommending PERUNA. For years I have suffered from Asthma. I was induced to try PERUNA. It promptly relieved the paroxysms, and its continu use renders their recurrence less and less frequent. I am confident it will cure me

The patient had consulted every physician far and near. I persuaded her to try your PERUNA and MANALIN. She had been having spasms every three or. four days, and the fifth dose kept them off, and they have not returned since." W. M. Griffith, Ashland, Ky., writes: "The large chronic ulcers of fifteen months' standing, are entirely healed. The swelling, pain and itching have all subsided, the leg is healed, and I am perfectly well. PERUNA is a wonderful rem-
