

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

Garden stuff is plenty. Cool mornings—hot noons. SUBSCRIBE for the JOURNAL. Mr. A. O. Deininger was home on Sunday to see his family.

Miss Caldwell, from Clearfield, is the guest of Mrs. A. Alexander. ATTENTION, Voters—the last day for registration is Sept. 5, 1884.

Squirrel shooting will commence next Monday. We pity the squirrels. Read Cleveland's letter of acceptance on the outside of the JOURNAL.

Since the dog days are coming to an end, the weather is more delightful. Travel over the Pennsylvania railroad is reported to be very brisk at present.

The apple crop does not seem to amount to much in this section of the country. Clevean Hookman is spending several weeks in town among friends and relatives.

E. E. Bressler has returned from the West and seems to be well pleased with his trip. Rev. C. F. Gephart and wife, of New Berlin, are among the visitors to this week.

H. H. Weiser is working at his trade (hitting) with his brother Samuel, at Millfinburg. We noticed the smiling phiz of Mr. Geo. Swartz, of Lewistown, on our streets, this week.

The coming corn crop is estimated at 1,297,000,000 bushels, fifty per cent. greater than last year. Rev. E. D. Keen and lady, of Thompsonstown, is at home on a visit to his parents and friends.

M-O-R-T is the battlerey on the walls of the rapidly growing church building on Penn street. Our neighbor, E. W. Maaack, left for Copenhagen, N. Y., again, to be gone an indefinite time.

Mr. Henry Breen, the North street miller, looks a few shades happier since the arrival of that new boy. Rev. C. F. Deininger, and daughter, Lillie, of New Berlin, are sojourning in Millheim, at present.

A slight frost visited this section on Sunday night but did no damage. The first frost of the season. Enchanting music was rendered by the band on Monday evening for Mr. Geo. Buck and his amiable bride.

Roller skating is becoming one of the most popular amusements and rinks are being opened everywhere. Mr. Lemuel Shipman, the contractor for the railroad beyond Spring Mills, advertises for 100 workmen.

Sam Weiser is digging—not for gold but for pure fresh water, which is as good as gold when you are well dry. For SALE—A good dwelling house in Millheim, centrally located.

Last week has been the warmest of the season. The thermometer registered from 90° to 100° above zero in the shade. By all means call at G. W. Harter's grocery. You will be treated right every time and get the full worth of your money.

A detailed account of the G. A. R. encampment at Bellefonte last week will be found on the first page of this paper. Business men in this and neighboring towns will find it to their advantage to get their job printing done at this office.

Mrs. Nogle, of Philadelphia, and Mrs. Toner, of Eagleville, are at home on a visit to their parents, Mr. W. L. Musser's. Many of our small boys in town are now wearing campaign caps, bearing the name of one of the Presidential candidates.

Mr. Lincoln Musser, a young gentleman, attending school at Spring Mills, was to attend the festival last Saturday. Miss Ida Musser, the amiable young daughter of Mr. Ilgen Musser, is spending a few days in town on a visit to her parents.

There is a hell. It is when a loafer in the editorial sanctum reads the exchanges aloud for the benefit of the busy editor.—Ez. Mr. J. H. B. Hartman's residence on Penn street is being greatly improved by weather boarding and paint. John is a pushing fellow.

The Juniata Valley Editorial Association will have an excursion to Cape May on Sept. 17 and remain till Sept. 19. Work is progressing finely on the Evangelical church and everybody admires the workmanship of the skilled mechanics erecting the edifice.

W. A. Tobias showed us a curiosity in the shape of four apples grown in to each other. The fruit has four distinct cores, but the whole combination is attached to only one stem. According to a recent decision all judicial officers over seventy years of age are disqualified, and by this ruling it is said two hundred justices of the peace in Pennsylvania will be thrown out.

Young ladies in Chambersburg have fun making cotton cakes and feeding the young men with them. This is not a new joke, but it is perfectly hilarious till some one gets choked to death. Then the fun ends. Last Monday, one of John Keen's daughters, of Penn township, while playing on the roof of one of the outbuildings, had a fall, by which she bruised her arm. A physician was summoned to relieve the sufferer. She is doing well.

Mr. II. U. Tomlinson left Monday morning for Ellsworth, Kansas, where he has accepted a lucrative mercantile position. He will be followed by his family in a few days, as also by Mr. A. Harter. We wish them all a safe journey and abundant luck. Mr. Tomlinson is an experienced and wide-awake business man and we think his chances for success in the Western countries are of the brightest.

Strong and persistent efforts are made by our Evangelical friends to raise the necessary funds to procure a town clock to be placed on the main tower of their new church. We hope they will be successful, as a town clock would be a very valuable and useful improvement for their church and for Millheim. Let everybody take an interest in this matter and liberally contribute to it.

LADIES' MEDICAL ADVISER.—A complete Medical Work for Women, handsomely bound in cloth and illustrated; postpaid for 10 two-cent stamps. Tells how to prevent and cure all diseases of the sex, by a treatise at home. Worth its weight in gold to every lady suffering from any of these diseases. Over 10,000 sold already. Address NUNDA PUBLISHING CO., Nunda, N. Y. 28-3m.

Mr. F. P. Ott, after several years absence paid this, his native town, a visit, to the delight of his many friends and relations. He also showed that he is still the same lover of music as well as an expert player on the cornet by assisting our band last Saturday while playing for the festival. Frank, during his travels, did not lose his genial and pleasant disposition and we bid him a hearty welcome home with the wish that he may tarry in our midst for some time.

Rev. Tomlinson preached his farewell sermon at this place on last Sunday forenoon. The majority of his hearers were deeply touched and many a tear of regret was seen trickling over their faces. Next Sunday forenoon he will preach in the Penns Creek church and in the evening at Aaronsburg for the last time.

On Sunday, Sept. 7th, Prof. Edmund J. Wolf, D.D. of Gettysburg will fill the pulpits of the Aaronsburg Luth. charge. The members of the Aid Society of the Evangelical congregation of Millheim, hereby return thanks to the people of Millheim and vicinity, for their liberal donations to, and kind patronage at their Festival. We take pride in saying that the success has been all that could be desired, and the amount realized exceeds our expectations, netting the snug sum of $116.81. Again we would say unto all, thank you.

Mrs. SARAH J. CAMPBELL, Pres. Mrs. KATE P. HENGST, Secy. BOILS, pimples, skin grubs, black maggotz, eruptions, scaly skin, &c., indicate poisoned blood, and besides being disagreeable to you, afflicted reader, they are unpleasant to your friends and those compelled to come in contact with you; you owe it as a duty to your health and your friends to take a bottle or two of McDonald's Great Blood Purifier or Sarsaparillian Alternative, and be more pleasant and agreeable to look at. Money refunded to dissatisfied purchasers.

WOODWARD'S SHIRTS. C. W. Hosterman's house is ready to be occupied by Mr. Van Valin. J. C. Motz is getting along fast with his new saw mill. Woodward girls wear green spectacles when at campmeetings. Some of our republicans are dissatisfied with the nominations. Our jolly friend Mesh Williams took it in the encampment last week. One hundred and ten conveyances went through the Narrows on Sunday on their way to the Union county campmeeting.

Returning from the Union county campmeeting a drunken fellow ran into Isaac Orndorf's buggy, damaging the same to the amount of $20.00, which of course had to be paid by the culprit. GULOVER. TESTIMONIALS many times are cut from the whole cloth, and for every one voluntarily given in praise of a meritorious article an unscrupulous and dishonest manufacturer can write up a dozen for his worthless products; but the following card from the traveler of Sower, Potts & Co., a publishing house known in almost every state in the Union, is so emphatic and to the point that we cannot refrain from giving it in evidence:

“Georgetown, Pa. J. A. McDonald, Dear Sir:—Please forward by express at once one bottle Curtis' Carmelite Cordial to C. F. Camp, Esq., Stroudsburg, Monroe Co., Pa. It cured me so quickly and completely last summer that I recommend it highly to all my friends.” Single bottle guaranteed to cure any case cholera, dysentery, diarrhoea, cholera morbus, summer complaint, cramps or any intestinal irritation whatever, or money refunded in every instance. Should have a place in every household and every traveller's satchel. JOHNSTON, HOLLOWAY & CO., Philadelphia Agents, Sold by J. Eisenhuth, Millheim, Pa.

Col. Fredrick E. Goodrich's admirable "life" of Grover Cleveland is now ready; it is handsomely bound and printed, and contains upwards of 500 pages; it is illustrated by first-class artists; it is from the press of Messrs. H. Hallett & Co., of Portland, Maine. As a rapid biographer, Col. Goodrich doubtless stands without a rival in America, and the volume has the impress of the broadest information and most careful attention on every page. This is the biography that received the inestimable benefit of the active co-operation and assistance of Mr. Cleveland, his relatives and friends; this is the volume that is recommended by the friends and private Secretary of the distinguished candidate; it is a true picture, drawn by a master hand, of the life of the Statesman from the humble cradle to the present day, and presents a striking contrast to the score of so-called "lives" which are to a large extent filled with irrelevant matter made up from the newspapers of the day; those who are wise will subscribe only for the authentic Portland edition—the largest, cheapest, handsomest and best. The steel-plate portraits of Cleveland and Hendricks were engraved for the volume and are a standing rebuke to the caricatures which appear in the so-called "lives" with big pretensions.

Understand that this Authentic Standard edition is outselling all others, more than ten to one, and that its agents are meeting with the most phenomenal success. A few more agents are wanted by the publishers; the most liberal terms are offered. It is a splendid chance for beginners, as with this grand book no one can fail to do a great business. The volume also contains a biography of Thomas A. Hendricks.

ANY HOUSEKEEPER who sends at once the names of five married ladies, at same address, and 12 two-cent stamps for postage, will receive free for one entire year, a handsome, entertaining and instructive Domestic Journal, devoted to Fashions, Fancy Work, Decorating, Shopping, Cooking, and Household matters. Best Paper published for Ladies. Every Housekeeper wants it. Regular price, $1.00. Must send now! Address DOMESTIC JOURNAL, 28-3m Nunda, N. Y.

Miscellaneous. A Great Musical Event. NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—Some 30,000 people attended the opening performance of Musical Director Gilmore's jubilee at Manhattan Beach yesterday, which included "Old Hundred" and "Nearer My God to Thee," with artillery accompaniment.

The Tallapoosa Sank. COTTAGE CITY, Mass., Aug. 22.—The United States steamship Tallapoosa sank off here last night. The survivors had landed at Wood's Hole. She collided with a large three-masted schooner. She lies with her mainmast and top of her smoke stack out of the water. The Tallapoosa, with 140 men and officers, was bound to Newport to take on board Secretary Chandler. At eleven o'clock last night, during a thick fog, when three miles Northeast of Oak Bluffs, Martha's Vineyard, she was struck bow on by the schooner James S. Lowell, of Bath, Captain Reed, from Baltimore for Portland, with a cargo of coal. Her side was crushed in and she sank in five minutes in about five fathoms of water.

Four persons of the Tallapoosa were drowned. Their bodies were recovered. Storm in Lancaster County. LANCASTER, Aug. 22.—A heavy storm of wind and rain swept over the northeastern end of the county on Thursday afternoon. At Mount Joy borough the rain came down for an hour. North of that borough in Mount Joy township the storm was accompanied by hail. On Martin H. Risser's farm, north of Elizabethtown in Mount Joy township, a farm hand named Hessler was plowing with two horses and a mule. The sky was almost cloudless when lightning struck the animals killing all three of them. The handles were knocked off the plough. Strange as it may seem the young man was not killed, and was not more than slightly stunned.
