Result of the Vermont Election.

The Republican majority for Gov. Pingree on last Tuesday suffered a considerable reduction from the vote in the state election in 1880.

The letter of protest of Ex-Governor Pound, of Wisconsin, a life-long and influential republican, appearing in one of our columns, will be of much importance to our democratic readers.

That monstrous mass meeting, held at New York last week, by the Irish Democrats was addressed by the most eminent speakers of that state.

A number of prominent capitalists, among them W. H. Vanderbilt of New York and Robert Garrett of Baltimore are making arrangements to start a telephone company.

"No money" to run the campaign and buy voters—is one of the calamities in Republican ranks this fall.

MARK M. POMEROY in last week's United States Democrat, which he publishes at New York, gives Rev. Ball, the Buffalo liar, a thorough overhauling.

There have been so many conflicting statements relative to the condition of Secretary Folger, that the acting secretary, Mr. Coon, obtained from his attending physician the following statement.

WASHINGTON LETTER. From our regular correspondent. WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 1, 1884.

The recruits to the Democracy in all parts of the country are daily multiplying. Mr. Post, the Secretary at the Democratic headquarters here, declares that the exodus from the "Republicans" now amounts to an actual stampede.

Next Monday the state election of Maine will take place and will of course result in the re-election of Governor Robie, Republican, and the four republican candidates for congress.

Seventy-seven young Pueblo Indians arrived at Carlisle on Monday to attend the Indian training school.

The running down and sinking of the war vessel Tallapoosa by an ordinary freight vessel, was the hair that broke the back of our navy, and demonstrates with fearful certainty what would become of her and her crew in a contest with any third-rate vessel belonging to a fourth-rate power.

PHONO. A REPUBLICAN PROTEST. Ex-Governor Pound's Pointed Reasons for Rejecting Blaine for President.

A letter from Ex-Congressman Pound, of Chippewa Falls, Wis., in which the writer says he will oppose Mr. Blaine and support Governor Cleveland for the Presidency is made public in his letter Mr. Pound says:

After much earnest and soliloquous deliberation I deem it to be my duty, while abating naught of loyalty to the Republican party, but rather to promote its true purpose and strengthen it for future good work to support the Democratic nominee, Governor Cleveland, for President at the approaching Presidential election.

Being a life-long Republican and with-out dissenting with, and my conscience rebels against, the action of the Republican Convention in the nomination of Mr. Blaine, and with-out arrogating for myself wisdom superior to a majority of representative Republicans convened to vote the determination of my party, I am compelled to obey my own best judgment and sense of duty in this single and extraordinary instance.

Mr. Blaine, in my opinion, embodies most in American politics that is menacing to public morals and integrity in government. With a long public career, marked for a sort of declamatory and pugilistic statecraft, he is not the inspiration of a single valuable policy or the author of an important statute, but, on the contrary, has often suggested and supported unwise and bad and opposed good legislation.

With a record clouded by suspicion and accusation of jobbery and corruption undefended, he brings to us personal antagonisms which have torn and weakened the party, and which, in the administration of the lamented Garfield, with demands of personal vengeance so virtuous as to inflame the spirit of assassination and culminating in the defeat of Judge Folger and consequent election of Grover Cleveland Governor of the Empire State.

But returning to the candidate. Himself a speculator, enjoying a fortune too great to have been acquired by honest industry, legitimate business enterprise or his country's service at $3,000 a year, he sympathizes with and profits by speculative stock jobbing and establishing methods of acquiring wealth—methods which have wrought ruin, and made a miserly miser beyond computation, schooled youth and persuaded middle age to avoid honest and useful industry, made use and misuse of common-places, untested values, placed the fruits of honest toil in the power of the gougers and Artisans to bear up all up in the markets as whim or interest may dictate; methods which recently gave an exaggerated illustration of their mischievous consequences in the Grant & Ward $15,000,000 failure and robbery.

Reference to Blaine's Congressional record relating to subsidies, class legislation, corporate exactions, etc., will readily satisfy the honest inquirer of his uniform support of monopolies and indifference to the common weal. Little wonder that he omits in his letter to refer to or explain the cause of the great disparity in the distribution of this marvelous increase of wealth accumulated during the period he chooses for comparison; that he fails to note the fact that the one three hundredth part of the $41,000,000 is held by one man, while others rank little below and his own palatial residence commanding a rental of $10,000 a year, suggesting more than an average per capita of wealth. Little wonder that he is silent on the subject of later State commerce, the regulation of which is demanded by all producers and legitimate traders. Great corporate interests command non-interference.

The difference between the significant silence touching the events of the past three years. Bringing down to his present views, would have noted the downfall of business prosperity and business morals and would have pictured as few can do so graphically, the furnace fires dying out, the wheels of factories standing still, vast reduced beggary usurping the place of labor, bank and business failures, creditors and depositors wantonly defrauded, homes lost and crookedness in public affairs. Mr. Blaine is objectionable furthermore for the "Republican" he keeps, for the friends he has made. Will chief promoters of his nomination be his chief advisers if elected? This is the rub.

Will no pronounced issues between the two great parties, we can safely afford to yield temporary executive control to him as an honest man, though he be a Democrat. And if grave questions of public policy were at issue they cannot be determined by the Executive. This is the prerogative of Congress, the lawmaking branch, heretofore for a time and now under Democratic control. It is vastly more important to good government that the Republican party be restored to supremacy in Congress than that the administration be entrusted to an unworthy partisan surrounded by bad counsel. While Mr. Blaine is known to be unworthy, Governor Cleveland has demonstrated his fitness and worthiness for the position by his fidelity, ability and integrity in the discharge of his executive duties as Mayor of Buffalo and Governor of the great State of New York, and, in my opinion a very large majority of intelligent and unprejudiced voters believe he should be elected. If one-half of the Republican voters who agree in this opinion have the courage of their convictions and vote conscientiously he will be triumphantly elected. The scandals affecting the domestic lives of all candidates should be committed to the political shambles and byes.

While it is my fixed purpose to support Cleveland and Hendricks, it is no less my determination to support all fit and worthy nominees of the Republican party for county, State and Congressional positions.

Miscellaneous. Post Office Robbed at Williamsport. WILLIAMSPORT, Aug. 31. The fact was made public to-day that the post office in this city was robbed yesterday of stamps amounting to $3,500 in value.

The chief clerk, who was in the private office, the post master being at dinner, was called to the door to see a man in a buggy. He was not out three minutes, but during that time four packages of stamps were taken from the safe and four packages similar in appearance left instead. The substitute packages contained brown paper. The buggy had been hired at a livery stable near the post office. No trace of the robbers has yet been obtained.

Seventy-seven young Pueblo Indians arrived at Carlisle on Monday to attend the Indian training school. They are all from New Mexico, from nine to twenty years old, are from tribes that are, to some extent, engaged in agriculture and of industrious habits.

Miss Shields, one of the teachers, of the school, went west in the early part of the summer with the intention of obtaining recruits for the institution. With the assistance of some former pupils she succeeded in gathering this instalment, and when ready to come, Capt. Pratt, the superintendent, and Dr. Agnew, of New York, recently appointed an Indian commissioner, went out and brought on the party. The school will open on Sept. 1st, its fall term with 400 pupils upon its roll.

A Severe Storm in the State.

Vivid Flashes of Lightning and a Torrent of Rain—Considerable Damage Done. Special Dispatch to the Times. POTTSVILLE, August, 30.

One of the severest storms experienced here for years swept through this region this afternoon about three o'clock. Loud peals of thunder were accompanied by vivid flashes of lightning, followed by a rain-storm such as is seldom seen in this vicinity.

The rain fell in torrents for two hours and in the northern section of the county did considerable damage. At Shenandoah a large frame dwelling, in which fifteen or twenty Polish miners sat smoking, was blown down, seriously injured the entire party, who thought an earthquake had come upon them.

A large slaughter house was also blown down. Reports from all points within an area of forty miles show considerable damage, especially in the farming districts.

LYKENS, August 30.—[Special.]—A severe storm passed over the Williams-town Valley this afternoon, felling huge trees, fences, etc. The rain came down in torrents for an hour, accompanied with thunder, lightning and high wind.
