Hundreds of new cases are reported daily, almost half of which result in death. The temperature in this section of the country registered from 90 to 95 degrees the last few days. It left the dog days entirely in the shade. Katie, the oldest daughter of Mr. E. Bartholomew, who has been spending her vacation at home, went back to Philadelphia to attend school. The magic lantern man met with poor success on Friday, his house being hardly large enough to pay his limited expenses. It's getting too old. In the coming election it will be of some importance to be in possession of your tax receipts. The JOURNAL store has the handiest and neatest tax receipt book for sale. Come and get one. The changed and attractive advertisement of Bunnell & Aikens, of Bellefonte, the popular dealers of musical instruments appears in this week's issue. Reserve your orders for them—no better firm to deal with in the state. Jas. B. IRWIN, druggist, Curwsville, Pa., writes: "J. A. McDonald, Dear Sir.—Send up a gross of your Worm Powders, they give good satisfaction to our trade. Professionally, I always recommend them, as I consider they embody to the utmost the principal and most desirable points in vermifuge—smallness of dose, easiness to take, compactness and elegance, while our steadily increasing sales attest their value as a worm destroyer and the satisfaction they give our trade." Dissatisfied purchasers can have their money refunded. JOHNSTON, HOLLOWAY & CO., Philadelphia Agents. Sold by J. Eisenhuth, Millheim, Pa.

He calls it the "Cleveland and Hendricks" potato, a very appropriate name, because they will be victorious with a large-sized majority. STILL LATER.—C. Alexander sends us a two pounds and one ounce potato of the "White Elephant" kind. Of course, another "Cleveland & Hendricks" potato. —Wm. H. Corman, Esq., agent for the estate of Dr. D. J. Hillbish, called on us on Monday and ordered bills for the sale of the real estate of the decedent to take place Sept. 20th. —Mr. E. Long, of the firm of D. S. Kauffman & Co., changed places of residence last Tuesday. He moved into the rooms above their store in Alexander's building on Main street. —Mr. A. J. Heckman, from Ohio, has been in Penn's valley for several weeks past, visiting his numerous friends. He called at our office and renewed his subscription to the JOURNAL. —Mr. F. O. He purchased it from Bunnell & Aikens, of Bellefonte, who are the sole agents for that celebrated piano in the county. —Mr. John Kerstetter, Jr., still makes a business of doing special jobs at carpentry. John is really an expert at the business and has large experience, both in making out plans, specifications and drawings, as well as a practical workman. People who entrust their work into his hands can safely rely on having it done in best style at the lowest prices. —Democrats in the county should waken up and show their determination to do their duty by thorough organization in all localities. Nothing should hinder any democratic voter to help to advance the success of the whole ticket. —We omitted to mention in last week's JOURNAL, that one of Rev. Tomlinson's hearers of his farewell sermon in the Aaronsburg Luth. church on Sunday a week ago was H. Y. Stitzer, Esq., and wife of Bellefonte, who were down on a visit to friends. —H. H. Tomlinson in a letter to W. A. Tobias states that he has entered upon his duties as book keeper and general manager of one of the largest business houses in Ellsworth, Kansas, and by the tenor of his writing he is well pleased with his position and the place. —An exchange says that the crazy quilt originated with a country editor's wife, who got the idea from the patches on her husband's clothes. Yes, and like as not, the cake called "poverty cake" was invented by the same woman, when she looked at his pocket book. He and wife expect to move to Spring Mills where they will reside with their son, Mr. Henry Shafer, the landlord of the Spring Mills hotel. —Mr. W. A. Tobias takes the cake for growing curiosities. The other day he brought two samples of snake cucumbers to our sanctum, of which the largest measures 38 inches in length. They are turned in spiral curves, snake fashion, and at the first glance bear a close resemblance to a green snake. —Large posters have been printed at this office, advertising the public sale of the late Adam Fisher estate, in Gregg township by the executors, J. B. Fisher and Polly Fisher, on Friday, the 26th inst. Forty-five acres of land, flouring mill, saw mill, dwelling house and two ten tenant houses are the properties for sale. —Dr. Geo. S. Kemble, a distinguished physician of Mill inburg, died at his residence at that place, on Tuesday, September 2nd. Many of our readers, were no doubt personally acquainted with the deceased, as he was in town several years ago as one of the attending physicians of John D. Foote, dec'd. His remains were interred at Harrisburg, last Friday. —See the advertisement of D. S. Kauffman & Co. in this paper. Many eminent physicians use them in their daily practice. Money refunded to dissatisfied purchasers. JOHNSTON HOLLOWAY & CO., Philadelphia Agents. Sold by J. Eisenhuth, Millheim, Pa. —The Union picnic in Alexander's grove last Saturday could not well have been a better success, as far as the attendance was concerned. The forenoon at the grove was devoted to exercises at the speaker's stand, opening with prayer by Rev. B. Hengst, followed by two addresses by Revs. Herald and Hengst, when Supt. Duak dismissed the assemblage to partake of the delicious dinner concealed in the baskets. Pleasing airs were wafted by the Land through the woods, which mingled with the hum of voices of about 600 people. As the day was exceedingly warm, the afternoon was mainly spent in quiet conversation by the older folks and the little folks amused themselves on the swings. There was no lack of hucksters, who were anxious to supply the public with the delicacies of the market. A general complaint expressed was about the utter absence of games, which made it somewhat monotonous for the young people. This feature of picnics, we think, ought never be neglected. SHIN BONE.

The Harrisburg Daily Patriot came to us in an enlarged and greatly improved shape last week. It appeared as an eight-page paper, thereby doubling its reading matter. The Patriot ranks among the best dailies in the state, being prompt and strictly reliable in all its news—in fact a paper that can hardly be dispensed with. No doubt future success will crown that enterprising sheet. —The members of the U. Furey, Ass. editor of the Watchman, all of Bellefonte paid this town and Aaronsburg a visit on Friday evening. They were out for a pleasure trip and were well pleased with their ride. The band serenaded Ex. Gov. Curtin, in front of Musser's hotel, and he replied by such remarks as only our Andy can make. As an orator the Governor has not his equal and our people will never tire to listen to him. The party left town on Saturday forenoon to visit Sugarvalley, before returning home. —At the last meeting of the Centre Co. Medical Society a committee was appointed to pay a fitting tribute of respect to the memory of Dr. G. W. Kline, dec'd, late of Potter's Mills, which submitted the following report: Resolved, That by the death of Dr. G. W. Coburn Briefs. Rumor says regular trains will run to Oak Hall by October 1st, on this road. Our neighbor, Jacob Moyer and Mr. Musser, of Millheim, are now getting in a supply of plaster. John Sheriff has moved into his new house and is happy. Andrew Stover's new house is now ready and he will soon occupy it. The talk of a permanent camp ground near Coburn is one of the things we hope will become a reality. We certainly have all the advantages for such an enterprise—spring water, railroad facilities, fine grove, easy access and near to the village. Andy Venada and Henry Kling have plastered their houses and prepared them for occupancy, since you last heard from us. Our friend Parker, the restaurant man, has moved his family from Rebersburg to this place. D. T. Raymond and family, from near Centre Hill, have joined us as citizens. Our merchants are still busy supplying their trade, which, judging from the general appearance of things, is steadily increasing. We can boast of three fortune tellers among our population. Another carload of peaches expected here next week. MUXLEM IN PARVO.—McDonald's Great Blood Purifier or Sarsaparillian Alternative is the most highly concentrated, most harmonizing and skillfully combined of all the blood medicines offered the public. Many certificates from well-known and worthy persons could be furnished to substantiate the virtues claimed for this great medicine, but the manufacturer prefers simply to say any purchaser feeling the benefit derived from the use of a bottle not equivalent to the seventy-five cents invested in the purchase can have their money returned.
