

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

New goods at Kauffman's. SUBSCRIBE for the JOURNAL. Small prospects for fruit this fall. The oyster season is opening in earnest. Union county fair week after next. Going? Everybody is looking and wishing for rain. Bargains at Kauffman's store on Main street. Attend to paying your taxes, before it is too late. Extremely quiet in town for the last few days. Tax Receipt Books for sale at the JOURNAL store. Luth. Synod at Lock Haven convened last evening. Millheim appears to be blessed with agents and peddlers. Merchants, advertise if you want to catch the fall trade. A good plan—to lay in your winter's supply of coal now. Boys, how about a base ball club for this fall? What say ye? The workmen on the Ev. church seem to take a rest at present. Mr. M. L. Wagenseller, of Selinsgrove, was in town last week. The awful dust on our roads makes it unpleasant to be out at present. John Kerstetter, Jr., is digging a well on his premises on Penn street. The cool waves made their appearance and were followed by Jack Frost. Attention is directed to M. L. Shannon's caution notice in another column. Mrs. Scholl, of Haines township, died at her residence on Thursday, Sept. 11th. Three buggies were disposed of at S. K. Faust's public sale, last Saturday afternoon. Mrs. A. Walter left for Philadelphia on Monday morning to remain a few weeks. Our present County Treasurer, Mr. D. C. Keller, moved from Bellefonte to Centre Hall. Don't forget—October 4th, two weeks from next Saturday is the last day to pay taxes. Miss Annie Peters has returned to Potters Mills after a short visit home to parents and friends. Kauffman's store on Main street is full of over-flowing with their splendid fall and winter goods. The Cameron House, one of Lewisburg's largest hotels, is offered for sale at a price of $22,000. Mr. Michael Lamey went to Lewisburg yesterday to appear as a witness in the Musser—Albright case. Mrs. Van Ormer, of Bellefonte, is spending a few days with her daughter Mrs. J. H. Kreamer, in town. The army of party leaders are concentrating their efforts on Ohio. Blaine will have to set 'em up, there. J. H. B. Hartman has worked engaged in painting his residence on Penn street. It presents a fine appearance. Everybody is pleased with the potato crop as well as other crops. The season has indeed been most bountiful one. Mr. Frank Knarr left for Lewisburg on Tuesday afternoon, to attend court as a witness in a suit of Musser vs. Albright. Hon. John M. Baily is the candidate of the Huntingdon county democrats for President Judge in this judicial district. Mr. William Shafer, of Aaronsburg, will make sale of most of his personal property on Saturday afternoon, October 4th. Rev. J. G. Anspach, one of the oldest Luth. ministers conducted the communion services in the Luth. church at New Berlin last Sunday. The nearest approach to an Indian warwhoop is the yelling of the small Millheim boy when he announces an auction in the streets of town. Sunday was not a very good day for bushmeating. The evening services had to be held in the M. E. church on account of the cool weather. Mr. Kauffman, Sr., of Fisher's Ferry, Pa., is here, helping the boys to unpack the new goods and get things in order for an increasing fall trade. Mrs. Rita Tomlinson left Hartleton on Monday morning to join her husband at Ellsworth, Kansas, and was accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Fors- ter. Rev. Wm. Landis, of Adamsburg, Snyder Co., is visiting old friends in Brush Valley, where he was formerly located as pastor of the Rebersburg Reformed church.

A large number of people attended children's meeting, under the auspices of the U. B. church of this place, in Alexander's grove last Sunday afternoon. From time to time this office is receiving new job type and our equipment for that kind of work is full and tasty. Bring your orders and we insure good work. We understand that Miss Rose Hatter is an applicant for the Primary school on Penn street. In our judgement the lady's application deserves to meet with favor. We are informed that Mr. C. G. Bright of Aaronsburg, and Mr. A. F. Harter of this place, who have been visiting in Kansas, expect to return home in a few weeks. In the coming election it will be of some importance to be in possession of your tax receipts. The JOURNAL store has the handiest and neatest tax receipt book for sale. Come and get one. Rev. E. J. Wolf, of Gettysburg preached an edifying sermon in the Lutheran church of this place on Sunday. The reverend gentleman is one of the ablest clergymen in the Lutheran ministry. Mr. F. O. Hosterman, our gentlemanly Sewing Machine agent, inserts his new advertisement in this week's JOURNAL. Read it and give him a call. Office on Main street, opposite Campbell's store. Mr. E. Bartholomew showed us a large and splendid lithograph of the Philadelphia Institute for the Deaf and Dumb, of which one of his daughters is an inmate. He naturally prices the picture very much. The Pennsylvania railroad is now built as far as Lemont, and a heavy force of men are working on the piece between Lemont and Bellefonte. It is thought that the whole distance will be completed by the first of January. Mr. J. W. Cornelius, the expert photographer from Lewisburg, was in town to visit his former pupil, Mr. Geo. Buck. Both gentlemen called on us on Tuesday afternoon. Always glad to have a chat with you. Come again. We learn that E. K., while helping to paint the ceiling of the U. B. church, put on some heavy touches. At least it loosened some of the plastering; but no paint was spilt. Were you hunting ghosts up there, Mr. H-a-a-s? Mrs. Jacob Frank, of Madisonburg, while crossing a bridge near her premises, stepped on a loose plank and was thrown into the small stream. She received injuries in her head and caught a heavy cold, which confined her to bed ever since. Rev. M. A. Sloat, pastor of the Evangelical church at New Kingston, Cumberland county, Pa. died on Wednesday, September 10th, having reached the age of sixty years. Rev. Sloat, some eight years ago, preached on this circuit and was well-known to many of our readers. The annual reunion of the Gast family is being held in Wolf's grove, Miles township, to-day. There will be speeches, vocal and instrumental music and other exercises. The family being widely connected, a large number of people will be present and an enjoyable time is expected. D. M. Rockey, Administrator of the estate of Solomon Kleckner, late of Miles township, deceased, will make public sale of the real estate of the deceased, on Saturday, Oct. 11th. At the same time Mrs. Catherine Kleckner the widow of decedent, will offer for sale her personal property. Mr. John Kerstetter, Jr., still makes a business of doing special jobs at carpentry. John is really an expert at the business and has large experience, both in making out plans, specifications and drawings, as well as a practical workman. People who entrust their work into his hands can safely rely on having it done in best style at the lowest prices. The Harvest Home Thanksgiving services which were held in the Madisonburg Reformed church, on the 10th instant, were well attended, although the heat was intense. Rev. Wm. Landis assisted pastor N. J. Miller on this occasion. Services were also held on the day following at Tylersville. The band treated the town to an open air concert last Thursday evening from a very elevated point. They took possession of the top scaffolds of the new church, a height of 50 feet and gave their sweet strains to the brisk air, which carried them to every part of town. The boys go in for anything that is novel. FIRE.—On Monday morning the house and all the smaller outbuildings of Mrs. John Emerick, located in Nittany valley, two miles east of Hubersburg, were totally destroyed by fire. All the contents of the house with the exception of a piano and a trunk, were consumed by the flames. The lady is unable to account for the fire. ANOTHER FIRE.—On Tuesday afternoon, shortly after dinner, the house and barn of Aaron Auman, about 1 1/2 miles southwest of Aaron Zerby's, behind the first mountain burned to the ground. The buildings are supposed to have caught fire from sparks from the fire, while the family were in the field. When the fire was discovered, nothing could be saved from the flames except a few chairs and buckets. All the crops which were housed were destroyed.

TIME.—A festival will be held in the town hall at Millheim in the afternoon and evening of Saturday, September 20th, 1884. The refreshments will be Ice Cream, Cakes, Lemonade and Oysters. Proceeds to be applied to purchasing a Town Clock. All are invited to come. By order of Committee. PROHIBITION CONVENTION.—A Prohibition County Convention will be held in the hall of the Y. M. C. A., Bellefonte Pa. Thursday Sept. 25th, at 10 o'clock, a. m., with a view of nominating a County ticket. All who intend supporting the Prohibition Candidates with their votes are earnestly requested to be present. THOS. J. TAYLOR, REV. W. W. REESE, President, Secretary. A full line of Fall Goods just received at D. S. Kauffman & Co's. Bargain Store. A complete line of Clothing. Suits from $2.50 to $25.00. Overcoats of all descriptions and qualities. Ladies' Coats a specialty—prices from $5.00 to 25.00. All goods sold at exceedingly low figures. Come and see our goods. Very truly Yours, D. S. KAUFFMAN & CO. Jonathan Harter's "John horse" is no more. The animal took sick several days ago, it is thought of the intense heat and all the medical treatment failed to restore him to health. The horse was raised by Mr. Harter, had been used by him and his family for 16 years, and was highly valued by them. The people will naturally expect to get a good deal of politics in their papers until after the election, and the JOURNAL, like its contemporaries, will be compelled to devote considerable space each week to political topics. Nevertheless we shall try to keep our readers posted on all the events of interest transpiring in this neighborhood, and give as much matter of a miscellaneous nature as possible. Next Saturday the township election will take place at Musser's hotel, at which it will be decided whether or not the place of election for Penn township shall be changed to Coburn. A warm time is looked for. For our part we certainly do not like to see the change go into effect, and we presume many of our citizens share our feelings in this matter. Sixty thousand copies of Ex-Gov. Curtin's famous speech in Congress against Monopoly and for Labor were ordered by the Democratic National Committee for circulation in the county. Talk about sending some other man to Congress, when this district has one of the best orators and finest statesmen in the person of Hon. A. G. Curtin, who is the nominee of this county for that position. It would be a great blunder. Teacher's examination for Penn township and Millheim borough was held yesterday in the grammar school room on Penn street. Supt. Wolf examined a class of 5 teachers, and the required certificates enabling them to secure schools this winter were granted. We were unable to witness proceedings, but it is a foregone conclusion with us, that Prof. Wolf with his well-known ability made the examination very interesting to the participants. The work on the interior of the U. B. church is nearing completion, and the room presents a very much improved appearance. The walls are nicely painted and ornamented, the pulpit has been re-arranged to more advantage, a side-door has been inserted in the eastern wall in the front part of the audience chamber, and the seats have been touched up by a coat of paint. The whole job reflects credit on the contractor, Mr. John Lose. The outside of the building will be painted as soon as cooler weather prevails. GAME LAWS AND PENALTIES.—The open season is, for Birds—Wild turkeys, October 1 to January 1, $10; duck, September 1 to January 1, $10; woodcock, July 4 to January 1, $10; quail or partridge, October 15 to January 1, $10; ruffed or pinnated grouse, October 1 to January 1, $10; rail and reed birds, September 1 to December 1, $5; Animals—Elk and deer, October 1 to December 1, $50; squirrels, September 1 to January 1, $5; hares and rabbits November 1 to January 1, $5; Fish—Salmon or speckled trout, April 1 to August 1, $10; lake trout, October 1 to January 1, $10; black bass, pike and pickerel, June 1 to January 1, $10. PETERSON'S MAGAZINE for October comes to us with an increase of pages, and a more brilliant array than ever of steel-plates, colored fashions, colored patterns, and illustrative wood-engravings. The principal steel-plates, "Playing At Being Grandpa and Grandma," is as graphic as it is humorous—one of the very best things of the kind we have ever seen. The stories, continued and otherwise, are exceptionally good: in this respect, "Peterson" has long been without a rival. Some hints are whispered, in this number, in advance, as to what is to be done in 1885; and it is not too early, it is added, to begin to get up clubs for that year. The best way to see what is intended, and to test the merits of "Peterson," is to send for a specimen-copy, which will be sent, gratis, if written for in good faith. Address CHARLES J. PETERSON, 306 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

General George B. McClellan, according to the Watchman, is expected to address a big meeting of the democratic voters of this county at Bellefonte sometime during this campaign. Ex-Gov. Curtin, who is a personal and political friend of the General, has expressed his intention to get him there. That is good news, and our end will surely turn out en masse to hear the renowned speaker. MULTUM IN PARVO.—McDonald's Great Blood Purifier or Sarsaparillian Alternative is the most highly concentrated, most harmonizing and skillfully combined of all the blood medicine offered the public. Many certificates from well-known and worthy persons could be furnished to substantiate the virtues claimed for this great medicine, but the manufacturer prefers simply to say any purchaser feeling the benefit derived from the use of a bottle not equivalent to the seventy-five cents invested in the purchase can have their money returned. JOHNSTON, HOLLOWAY & CO., Philadelphia Agents. Sold by J. Eisenhuth, Millheim, Pa. See the advertisement of D. S. Kauffman & Co. in this paper. They have been to the cities purchasing fall and winter goods and are now ready to sell a fine article at a most reasonable price. In fact they run the bargain in this neighborhood and we advise our readers to go and call at their place and bring their neighbors along. We are certain it will pay them. Large posters have been printed at this office, advertising the public sale of the late Adam Fisher estate, in Gregg township by the executors, J. B. Fisher and Polly Fisher, on Friday, the 25th inst. Forty-five acres of land, flouring mill, saw mill, dwelling house and two tenant houses are the properties for sale. Madisonburg Scraps. Andrew Ocker is giving his barn a coat of coal tar. Joseph Bierly and Lewis Wolf killed a ruther the other night. Luther Stover purchased a new buggy from Mr. Gutelius, of Millifinburg. "Mr. Z —", take your hat out into the sitting room, there is no place for it in here." The farmers around here are busy raising potatoes and cutting corn. William Fisher intends moving to the eastern end of Nittany valley in a couple weeks. Mr. Jeremiah Hoy, Sr., an aged gentleman of this place, took sick last Thursday and is in a critical condition at this writing. SHIN DON E. ADVICE TO MOTHERS. Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. WIGGLESWORTH'S SCOTCHING SYRUP FOR CHILDREN TEETHING. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhoea, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. WIGGLESWORTH'S SCOTCHING SYRUP FOR CHILDREN TEETHING is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle. Miscellaneous. Congress has voted $300,000 in order to make a fine display of the government exhibits at the World's Exposition next winter. Some of the departments had only a rudimentary collection at the time of the Centennial at Philadelphia. These collections have been increased tenfold since then, and will be opened at New Orleans in fine order. The United States Geological Survey will furnish a fine exhibit of minerals, ores and rocks from all the States and Territories. It has a collection of interesting fossil animals and fossils exhibiting the characteristics of animals and plants now extinct. It has models of extinct volcanoes, the Grand Canon of Colorado, Yosemite Valley and the National Park. It has plans of the Comstock and other great mines of the country. To describe the specimens representing the life of former ages, fishes, reptiles, gigantic quadrupeds, now extinct, shell fish that have lived in ancient geological periods, would require a large volume. For habitual constipation, biliousness, sick headache, torpidity of the liver, congestion of the kidneys, malaria and all complication arising from a degenerated condition of the bowels, liver or kidneys, McDonald's Improved Liver Pills can be depended upon for certain and permanent relief; as a dinner pill, gentle cathartic and safe aperient, they are without an equal. Many eminent physicians use them in their daily practice. Money refunded to dissatisfied purchasers. JOHNSTON HOLLOWAY & CO., Philadelphia Agents. Sold by J. Eisenhuth, Millheim, Pa. A Terrible Catastrophe. A Great Flood in China—70,000 Persons Perish in the Water. SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 15.—The steamer San Pablo arrived here last evening bringing advice from Hong Kong to the 14th ultimo and from Yokohama to the 30th ultimo. Information had reached Canton of a frightful inundation in the province of Kiangsee. The news is dated at King-Tak, the chief centre of the pottery manufacture and one of the four great markets of the empire. The floods lasted four days and the entire country was submerged to the depth of sixty feet. Whole towns were swept away. It is believed that fully 70,000 persons perished. It was feared that a pestilence would follow. Cholera had broken out at Amoy. The number of deaths is not given. It has been declared to be an infected port.

Forest fires are raging in the mountains, about five miles southwest of Millheim. READING, Sept. 15.—Jacob Smith, aged forty-six years, a farmer of North Heidelberg, skinned his arm while thrashing. A poisonous plant came in contact with the wound, and Smith became ill. His arm swelled to four times its natural size, and his body became bloated. He died to-day in great agony. Mrs. Daniel Well, who nursed him, was stricken down this morning, and she is now dying from the effects of poison contracted through a cut on her hand. Her body is rapidly swelling like that of Smith's, whose corpse has turned black. Recently the National Bank of New Brunswick, New Jersey, failed through the dishonesty of the cashier, Hill, who upon the discovery of his conduct committed suicide. On Monday the president of the Bank Mr. Runyon, committed suicide also. The excitement of the double suicide of the president and cashier threw the people into intense feeling. Walter Carroll, a depositor, who lost heavily by the bank, committed suicide also. The bank examiners have discovered a deficit of near one million dollars. A number of estates and firms are practically ruined. Five hundred miners were thrown out of employment at Wilkesbarre, on Sept. 5th, by the enterprise mine caving in. Nearly two hundred acres of ground sank from six to eight feet. The Lehigh Valley railroad settled nearly six feet, and traffic was stopped for some hours. The air of the mines was driven with violence of an explosion and forced its way out of the shaft almost totally wrecking the inside workings. The ground is covered with seams for several hundred yards and five houses belonging to minors in the employ of the company are wrecked. Great fears are entertained that the mine is entirely ruined. CATARRH Hay Fever. From Col. J. M. Alden, of New York: I have suffered severely for the last ten years from Hay Fever in early and mid-summer and in the fall. I desire in the interest of my fellow sufferers to testify in favor of ELY'S CREAM BALM. My short use of it demonstrated its efficacy. J. M. Alden, 401 Broadway. Apply into the nostrils. ELY'S CREAM BALM is a remedy founded on a correct diagnosis of the disease and can be depended upon. CREAM BALM causes no pain. Gives relief at once. Cleanses the head. Cures head-ache, neuralgia, neuralgic inflammation. Prevents fresh colds. Heals the sores. Restores the senses of taste and smell. A thorough treatment will cure. Not a liquid or snuff.
