The Coming Election.

Democrats, next Tuesday it is in your power to shape public affairs in future years, as to give the interests and welfare of this great country into the hands of honest and reliable officials, who will have nothing at heart but the good of its people. To accomplish this end you must make it the main point to be at the polls yourselves, and be there early and late to see that your fellow democrats, young or old, strong or feeble are there also. Get out the vote. Have that vote cast for your candidates only, without scratching or trading. If you trade you take a risk in another party's game and be the looser every time. There is no need for trading off any of your candidates—they are without any exception fully entitled to your strongest support. Lay your personal objections if you have any, aside and vote a straight and out and out democratic ticket, as it becomes your established and honest democratic conviction. If you do that you will not have voted in vain, but will have the satisfaction of having helped to gain a glorious victory for the democratic county, judicial and national ticket. A reward like this is worth working for. Therefore let us get out the full vote, and devote all our time to the achievement of democratic success.

At present it seems more than probable that Cleveland will be the successful candidate for the presidency of the United States and if elected we may look for a shaking-up of the country politically, officially and socially. Well, the health of the Government needs a thorough shaking up, and the Republican party will be utterly shaken to pieces. Bereft of office it will have nothing to hold it together, and the political philosopher, going about on the 5th of November with a lamp, will meet with no better success in finding Republicans, than did Diogenes in his search for an honest man.

DEMOCRATS, BEWARE!

Judicial tickets are being circulated with A. O. Furst's and Munson's name printed on. Watch for those tickets and by no means vote them. Adam Hoy is the democratic candidate for President Judge and the man you want to vote for. Keep an eye on bogus tickets.

THE New York Sun admits Cleveland's election and gives as a reason that the people are determined to have an honest man in the highest office of this great country. Straws tell which way the wind blows.

CONGRESS.

As matters stand now, a few days before the election, the three congressional candidates of this district, two of them democratic and one republican, are strictly speaking, irregular nominees. Curtin in the lead with the nomination and backing of the two largest counties in the district, Hall with a machine nomination of twelve conferees, who worked in the personal interest of their candidates, and Patton, the republican candidate nominated by a conference of volunteers from only three counties in the district.

Mr. Hall, the presumptuous aspirant for Curtin's seat in Congress, in his address to the voters of the district calls the Ex-Governor a "bolter." Well, if there is any bolting in this business, James Knox Polk Hall, from Elk, the smallest man from the smallest county in the district is the greatest and unsafest bolter in the lot. The conferees who nominated Mr. Hall were not representatives of the people, but were chosen by the candidates from the four counties whose combined democratic vote is about 1500 less than that of Centre and Clearfield counties.

Whenever an able and honest man like Curtin, who is the choice of the people for an important office is opposed by a few ringsters, we may be sure that there is an undercurrent of some special and selfish influence. That the aim of the Hall crowd was mainly to defeat Goy. Curtin is clear and it is asserted by reliable parties that they acted as agents of certain railroad corporations, who do not like Curtin, nor want him in Congress on account of the courageous stand he took against their landsteals. But just for that reason the 10,000 democrats of Centre and Clearfield as well as the many friends and admirers of A. G. Curtin in the other counties, want him there, and will send him there in spite of opposing monopolists and ring leaders. The very fact that Curtin will not play into the pockets of capitalists and railroad kings, but will represent the laborer, is the keynote to his election next Tuesday.

When reading Mr. Hall's letter in last week's Watchman it is no difficult matter to form an idea of the principles and abilities of the gentleman. He proves himself to be a confirmed egotist with strong tendencies to tell falsehoods. Among the many untrue statements in his brilliant (?) address to the Democracy he tries to harm Curtin on the ground of change of politics. He says that Curtin came over from the Republican party in 1879 and wanted an office immediately. That's cool, isn't it? Anybody, who knows anything at all, knows that Hon. A. G. Curtin left the Republican party in 1872, and served as a democratic delegate in the constitutional convention at Philadelphia 1872-1873, helped to defeat Grant for the presidency and stumped the country for Tilden in 1876 and has proved himself an earnest and devoted democrat without ever asking for an office. Little tales like that will do Mr. Hall very little good if any, because there are hundreds of men in the district who can testify to their incorrectness.

Mr. Hall might as well take it for granted that his letter will not go far towards his success, and that the people demand the election of a man who is known by them and has proved a friend to them.

Hon. A. G. Curtin is the right man in the right place and every good and rational Democrat will vote for him.

Vote for Adam Hoy.

When preparing your ticket for the ball next Tuesday, it will be advisable for Democrats to be very particular about the judicial ticket. Bear in mind that Adam Hoy, the present president judge, is our man and that it would be a sad mistake to vote for his opponent, Mr. Furst. There is not an earthly thing that Mr. Furst has ever done for the Democratic party, but always displayed his bitter opposition to it. While Mr. Hoy has belonged to the democratic party from his boyhood up, has been an active worker and a popular and well-liked lawyer. Since he has been appointed by Goy. Pattison to take the place of Judge Orvis he has shown in every judicial question brought before him, that he possesses the ability of judging impartially and correctly. The office of President Judge will be in safe hands if given to Mr. Hoy. If elected he will re-enter upon the duties of his office with the manly resolution to fulfill them justly and conscientiously, and will not allow his prejudices to interfere with the performance of his important functions in any case. Remember his undisputed qualifications for the position and his genial disposition as a fellow citizen and see to it that he receives your vote. Do not trade, neither on the judicial nor on the county ticket. Vote for Hoy!

Look out for a political earthquake next Tuesday, and for agonizing, cruel news for the Republicans. The Democrats are up and doing to gain a grand victory if it's in the wood.

What it Means.

A vote for John G. Love and Wm. M. Allison to represent Centre county in the Legislature means two votes for a Republican United States Senator, while a vote for Leonard Rhone and J. A. Woodward means a Democratic United States Senator and a fair apportionment of the state. Under these circumstances no true Democrat will hesitate to vote for the nominees of his party. Rhone and Woodward will make honorable and efficient members and will represent their constituents well. Therefore stick to your ticket, Democrats and vote for Rhone and Woodward.

Judge Hoy's Record.

During the time Judge Hoy has been on the bench, five of his cases have been taken to the Supreme Court, one from Centre and four from Huntingdon county. Of the Huntingdon county cases three have been argued and decided. The one from Centre has likewise been argued and decided. All of these four cases were affirmed and the rulings of Judge Hoy sustained by the Supreme Court. This is a record scarcely ever had by any new judge and strongly appeals to the voters of this judicial district to liberally support Judge Hoy at the election next Tuesday.

DEMOCRATS look out for all kinds of stories about your nominees on the congressional, judicial and county tickets during the few days before the election. Under no circumstances pay any attention to such schemes, which are worked by men who foster personal spite against our candidates. Do not allow them to influence your honest vote in any wise or manner.

Look to your own welfare in voting for your representatives. Mr. Woodward is well-known as a man of marked abilities and one who takes great interest in agriculture. Mr. Rhone is an intelligent and honest gentleman, a practical farmer and like Mr. Woodward a fluent speaker. Both these gentlemen are good democrats and democrats should vote for them and thereby secure representatives, that will truly represent them. Besides we want a democratic majority in the Legislature so as to be able to secure a democratic United States Senator and a fair apportionment of the state. If you do not vote for Rhone and Woodward you help to defeat two democratic representatives and help the Republicans to the United States Senatorship. Weigh these points carefully in your minds, and then prove your loyalty to the party by voting for Messrs. Rhone and Woodward. A word to the wise is sufficient.

MR. MILES WALKER, the democratic candidate for sheriff is a gentleman of unquestioned qualifications for that office. He is an obliging and genial young man who will at all times have the faithful performance of the duties of his office at heart. A solid democrat himself, he deserves the cheerful support of his fellow democrats.

If you would have our county affairs administered economically and honestly so as to benefit every taxpayer vote for Wolf and Griest for county commissioners. They have shown in the past that they understand well how to keep house with the people's money.

R. G. BRETT, the democratic candidate for Prothonotary, is going to receive a heavy vote. He has warm friends everywhere, because he is a good citizen and an old democrat and will make an accommodating and efficient officer.

The Battle in Curtin's District.

One of the most interesting local contests in the State is in progress in the Twentieth district, where Ex-Governor Curtin and Mr. Hall, of Elk, are opposing Democratic candidates, with the Republicans apparently divided between Curtin and the policy of a candidate of their own. The district is largely Democratic on a strict division between the Democrats and Republicans, but it has large outside and independent elements which can hold the balance of power between the old parties when they decide to assert themselves.

If the Democrats of Clearfield, Centre, Clinton, Elk, Mifflin and Union counties could have voted directly to express their choice between Curtin or Hall as their candidate for Congress, they would have voted for Curtin three or five to one; but the vicious and demoralizing system of giving a complimentary nomination and pocket conferees to a man in every county, silenced the expression of the popular choice and reduced the nomination to a game of barter between a crowd of ambitious men. The fact that Curtin received the votes of four of the six counties of the district in the conference on different ballots, but never on any one ballot, proved that he was either the first or second choice of a decided majority of the conferees, and proved also that the most of the battling candidates meant to mock his friends with a pretense of support, but had predecided to defeat him. The result was, after five ineffectual meetings at as many different places, Curtin's conferees from Clearfield and Centre, who represented 1,500 majority of the whole Democratic vote of the district, ended the farce by nominating him, and the conferees from the other four counties nominated Mr. Hall.

There are many considerations, both local and general, which call loudly on the Twentieth district for the return of Ex-Governor Curtin to Congress. He stands abreast with Mr. Randall, as the most conspicuous Representatives of national fame in our delegation, and his services and influence for the vital measures now accepted as essential to better administration, to the protection of labor and to the dethronement of monopoly, have been recognized not only by the industrial voters of his district, but by the Democrats and friends of reform in every State of the Union. It is his well attested attitude and efforts for the Labor interests of the country that have made it perilous for his party to trifle with the industrial voters, and his eminent ability and national reputation appeal to the just pride of the people of the Twentieth district and of Pennsylvania.

The suicidal policy of rotation in office, enforced by the shrieks of locality, has done more to belittle Pennsylvania in our national councils than any other cause. Philadelphia has discarded it and now is honored throughout the land for returning the three oldest members of the House in continued service; and Lancaster now reflects the fadeless lustre of the Commonwealth of War, not only by the services of Thaddeus Stevens that were ended by death, but also by his re-nomination even when his dead body lay in state in his Lancaster home. And the people of the Twentieth district have strongly impressed their appreciation of eminent ability by forbidding the retirement of Senator Wallace from the public service. Since his first election to the Senate in 1863, he has been summoned to the United States Senate, as Senator or United States Senator, and that wise policy should demand the return of Ex-Governor Curtin. No man in the district can exceed Curtin in substantial usefulness to Pennsylvania, and the great struggle of the last session to save a safe and conservative tariff policy, in which he stood in the front rank with Randall, should command the heartiest approval of his district, as it has commanded the broad approval of the Democracy in its national platform. Viewed from any standpoint, the interests, the pride and the sense of justice of the voters of the Twentieth district, should lead them to the cordial support of Curtin, regardless of partisan differences.—Phila. Times.

A Queen's Opinion.

J. M. Queen writes from Johnston, W. V., that he has been sorely afflicted for several years, but was urged to try PERUNA, which he did, and he now feels that he is about over his trouble, and considers it the greatest medicine in the world. He says he has to go or send a distance of fifteen miles to obtain PERUNA, but he will repay him for this.

Edward Shallock, former editor of the Saturday Journal, Wheeling, W. Va., says: "Gentlemen: Some time ago I was afflicted with a pain in my back in the region of the kidneys, and suffered considerably. Having read your advertisement, I went to Logan & Co., of this city, and purchased a bottle of PERUNA, which I took and it resulted in the complete removal of the pain. I think I can safely recommend it as a superior panacea for pains."

Mr. Aaron Shreffler, Alma, Marion county, Ill., writes: "Dr. S. B. Hartman & Co., Columbus, O. Dear Sirs: Myself and wife have taken three bottles of your medicine and received much benefit by the use of them. My wife was troubled with neuralgia, headache and weak stomach. Her headache has not troubled her for the last two weeks, and her stomach is much better. She took only PERUNA. I used both medicines, and my general health is so much improved that I feel like a new man. My stomach is very much better, and the MANALIN keeps my bowels all right. We intend to keep taking the medicines until we are permanently cured."

Evans T. Jones, Prospect, Marion Co., O., says: "After having taken medicine from different physicians of this place without any relief, I was advised to try your PERUNA, which I purchased of Cook Bros., druggists, of this place, and after using some six bottles of the same, I feel very much benefited. Am sure it will finally work an entire cure."

T. J. Ewing, Cattletown, Ky., writes: "In the early part of last winter, I contracted a severe cold, attended with a bad cough; then, being exposed during late fall, added to my disability. I have taken your PERUNA with good results. My cough has entirely left, soreness is gone, and am increasing in flesh."

Thomas Bradford, 314 Western Avenue, Albany, Cal., writes: "I have had liver complaint for three years; I thought I would have to quit work; I have taken two bottles of your PERUNA, and am well."

S. Wolf & Son, Wilmot, Ohio, write: "We handle your goods, and they give good satisfaction."

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 26 1884.

The election is but a little more than a week off, after about three months of as hot a campaign as we have had since old Tippecanoe rode into the White House under the cry of "two dollars a day and roast beef." This was what the Whigs of forty years ago promised to the workmen as a bait for catching votes, and the same game is being attempted now by the Blaine crowd, who are promising all the good-goddies of this life with an era of prosperity such as we have never seen, while manufacturers all over the country are closing up and throwing thousands of laboring men out of employment. Such facts as these staring the people in the face, can easily overcome any amount of magnetism and all the blatherdash about good times that the Republican orators can expectorate. The tremendous meetings of the Democracy in New York city and the prodigious gatherings of the Independents in other parts of the country, are portents of the cyclone that is going to sweep the fraudulent Republican organization out of existence on the 4th of November, for rest assured the defeat of that party at this Presidential election means absolute and irrevocable defeat. With all of their money and all of their effort and all of their fraudulent devices concentrated upon Ohio, their victory was just barren enough of results to encourage the Democracy to pull off its coat and go to work in earnest, and you may set me down as neither a prophet nor the son of a prophet, if my prediction of an utter Republican rout does not prove true.

I see that the lobby has already commenced to rally at the hotels, with Congress six weeks off and the Presidential election yet to come. Some of these third house chaps have an office in view, some are in the interest of some sort of a Government grab, but a good majority are for extra appropriations for public buildings in different portions of the country, and have simply come on in advance of Congress to enlist the good offices of the heads of departments. Here is a fellow from a one-horse town in Florida who has got a $150,000 appropriation, but he wants a quarter of a million. Little Nevada, with scarce population enough to entitle her to a Congressman, wants a $100,000 post office building for one of its towns that never had and never will have 4,000 people. Proctor Knott's Duluth has had $125,000, and wants more for a post office, when the town is going backwards with twice the celerity that it ever came forward. As a matter of absolute business, three-quarters of the public buildings that were authorized to be constructed at the last Congress were entirely unnecessary, but they furnished magnificent opportunities for corner-lot owners to rake in fortunes, and building contractors to quarter themselves on the Treasury for an indefinite period.

PHONO.
