-According to previous announcement the re-dedication of the U. B. church at this place was celebrated last Sunday forenoon, at which occasion Rev. M. P. Doyle, of Lebanon, preached a powerful sermon from Psalms XXVII: 4: "One thing have I desired of the Lord, that will I seek after; that I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of the LORD, and to inquire in his temple."

A large number of people were present to hear his eloquent discourse. He also preached in the evening to a crowded church, and again deeply impressed his audience by his forcible remarks. Their debt resting on the church from the late repairs was almost wiped out.

-Last Saturday evening an interesting meeting was held in the town hall by the Democracy of Millheim and surrounding country. After the customary election of President and Vice Presidents, the chairman, ex-sheriff about a rod away. So much for the Musser introduced the first of the speakers of the evening, Mr. A. Williams, who neatly paved the way for the speakers who were to follow, by a few statistical remarks. J. L. Spangler. Esq., was then introduced, who made a sound and sensible speech, quoting several of Blaine's condemning "Dear Fisher" Letters and making some striking comparisons between the character and career of the Mulligan candidate and such men as George Washington and Abraham Lincoln. Mr. Spangler was listened to with great interest and much enthusiasm. Hon. J. H. Orvis then took the floor amid a shower of applause and held the attention of his audience for a full hour. He is an awful dark street in comparison started out with an apologetic remark about being rusty in making political speeches but when done all admitted that the Ex-Judge cuts as great a figure on the political stump as he did on the bench. Judge Oryis in his address effectively showed the necessity of honest public officers and clearly proved that the republican candidate lacked the qualities of an honest and upright official and was consequently a dangerous man to entrust with the adminstration of the U.S. government. He eulogized the great Reform Governor Cleveland and spoke confidently of his election. His statement of facts about the congressional contest were telling and fair and impressed everybody with the advisability of voting for Hon. A. G. Curtin, of whom the Judge talked in very commendable terms. Further ing to induce Rev. Furst to stay with on Mr. Oryis referred to his successor on the bench, Adam Hoy, and gave his audience the assurance that he will make the best and safest president judge for whom nobody need hesitate to vote. After endorsing and recommending the balance of the democratic county ticket the speaker bid his pleased hearers good-night. Hon. J. II. Orvis is a man who is possessed of > less and honest manner. The addresses made our Democrats all the more solid, if such a thing is possible, and they will be heard from on November -DRUGGISTS all report a rapid and steadily increasing demand for McDonald's Celebrated Worm Powders. Penn Hall Shavings.

The banner spoken of in our last shavings was rais d on Tuesday evening, of last week, and quite a crowd of eager spectators were assembled to see the banner of "Cleyeland and Hendricks, Curtin and Victory.'

The Democratic meeting held at this place was attended by a good many people, considering the inclemency of the weather. The meeting was called to order by Mr. Joseph Smith, after which Mr. D. Runkle was chosen president and J. Smith, secretary. Aaron Will iams, Esq., was the first speaker. He made a good address and kept the audience in an uproar all the time by his little jokes. He was followed by district Attorney Heinle, whose ability as a political stump speaker is well-known. The democrats went home happy and judging by their smiles our republican friends were also in good humor.

F. Hosterman's Billy goat took into his head the other day that he was the Royal Bumper and tested his strength when one friends passed by. He struck the gentleman with full force and landed him JACK PLANE.

The people have found out by experience ; that it can be relied on in all cases of croup, whooping cough, colds, and lung troubles of any nature, and will have it.
