Mr. K. besides that, concluded to collect interest and loaded his coat pockets with about a peck of apples. The giver makes the gift precious, not so, boys? —DEATH OF MRS. ALEXANDER.—It is with deep regret that we chronicle the death of Mrs. A. Alexander, of Millheim, which occurred on Wednesday evening of last week, at about 9 o'clock. She had been ailing most of the Summer, but was shortly before her death in apparently fair health. Deceased was the widow of Mr. Amos Alexander, who preceded her to the grave not quite four years ago. She was a daughter of Mr. Christian Keller, of Centre Hall and was married to Mr. Alexander in 1827. Thirty-one years ago they moved to the farm, west of town, at present occupied by Mr. C. Alexander, one of her sons. In the year 1865 they moved to town, where they resided in their house, corner of Main and Penn streets, ever since. The subject of this notice was always known as a devoted and industrious wife, an affectionate mother and a christian lady, having been a member of the Reformed church from her youth up. Her bereaved family loses a beloved relative, while the community is bereft of an esteemed member of its society and a kind and obliging neighbor. The funeral took place from the house on Saturday forenoon and was attended by a large number of relations and friends. Services were held in the M. E. church, Rev. Z. A. Yearick officiating. —SHOCKING SUICIDE OF PROF. GRIER.—W. F. Grier, professor of Greek and Latin classics at Lewisburg University, committed suicide last Sunday night while delirious with typhoid fever. He had been sick for only a few days and Sunday he received a number of visitors at his bedside. About 9 o'clock his wife brought him his medicine, which he was taking in milk. He gruffly ordered her to bring him some more milk. So savage was his manner and so unusual was it with him to speak thus, that his wife became alarmed and left the bedside for assistance. After some difficulty, she succeeded in waking one of the professors of the institution and together both returned to the sick room. The wife upon entering the room, was met with the sight of her husband lying crosswise upon the bed in a pool of blood. During her absence he had procured a pocket-knife and with it cut two deep gashes into both sides of his neck. These not proving fatal, he cut another gash as deep as the blade would allow across his abdomen, and then plunged the knife into the left breast over the heart, where it remained imbedded until found by those returning. The unfortunate man lingered for a short time and then expired. The affair has cast a gloom over the school, where Professor Grier was a general favorite with the students, and upon the community, where he was highly esteemed. Professor Grier leaves a wife and two children. He was a man of exceptionally high moral character, and, although but 34 years of age, he had held his late position in the University for nearly ten years. He leaves an manuscript of a work on "Roman Literature," that will probably be published. —Sunbury Dem. Oct. 31.

—The excursion train to Oak Hall on Monday forenoon consisted of five passenger cars filled with excursionists. There were about 600 people in attendance at the meeting at Oak Hall, where addresses were made by L. A. Mackey, the president of the meeting, Hon. A. G. Curtin, of Bellefonte, Judge Bucher, of Lewisburg, and James P. Coburn, of Aaronsburg, all of whom spoke of the work and completion of the new road. —The mass meeting of the Democracy of Penna and Brush valleys last Friday evening at Millheim was an immense affair. The evening previous Sheriff Dunkle came from Bellefonte and posted bills announcing Hon. A. G. Curtin the speaker of said meeting. This was a pleasant surprise to our citizens and as the news spread it created an intense stir and excitement. Some of our local politicians at once set to work to make the necessary arrangements for a creditable reception of our successful congressman. Early on Friday morning messengers went out in all directions to arouse the people, flags and appropriate banners were swung to the breeze and bands were engaged. When near train time the Millheim Band boarded its wagon, which was adorned with the words "Curtin and Victory!" and started for Coburn station. Soon after the Brush Valley band and delegations from all the surrounding country followed, and when the train, which brought the the Governor from Union county, arrived, Coburn was thronged with excited people and their conveyances. As soon as Curtin had left the cars cheer after cheer went up for him and it fairly looked for a while as if they were going to tear him to pieces then and there. After a few remarks by him on the hotel porch the long procession escorted the old war governor to Millheim where a dense crowd were anxiously awaiting him and who received him with warm cheering. Supper over, the bands consolidated and escorted the Governor to the speaker's stand in the Penn street school house yard, which was filled with a large crowd of people, who were eager to hear him talk. The speaker was introduced by W. C. Heinle in a few complimentary remarks, when the Governor took the floor and made a telling speech against monopoly and its destructive influence on the country. His remarks were warmly applauded. D. F. Fortney and J. W. Gephart also made able addresses. The enthusiasm of the people was remarkable and fairly demonstrated their high esteem for their distinguished representative in Congress. It was a day for the Democrats, which will ever be remembered by the citizens of these valleys. —DR. SAWBONES says the surest way to take cold is to be always hugging the stove. Young man remember this, and when you go to see your girl on Sunday night don't spend your time hugging the stove; but if you do get a cold Dr. Kessler's Celebrated English Cough Medicine can be relied upon to cure you. JOHNSTON, HOLLOWAY & CO., Philadelphia Agents. Sold by J. Eisenhuth, Millheim, Pa. Madisonburg News. John Grimm sold his property the other day for $900. A. Ocker is able to be out of bed again. At this writing Simon Hazel is lying dangerously sick with some kind of a fever. Could not learn the nature of it. The plasterers are putting on the finishing coat in the Lutheran church of this place, while Jacob Hazel and John Shafer are busy working at the steeple. Miss Ida Ocker came home from Lock Haven to visit her sick father. She returned to that place on Tuesday. J. L. Roush has come home to vote for Grover Cleveland. J. E. S. came home to see Miss —. Both the young gentlemen, I suppose, feel that they are doing their duty to the country. STILL. —Did it ever occur to you, thoughtful and prudent reader, that Dr. Kessler's Celebrated English Cough Medicine must be an article of merit, or how could the manufacturer ever be able to advertise "money refunded to all dissatisfied purchasers."
