

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

- Pay the printer now. SUBSCRIBE for the JOURNAL. -The big turkey is being done away with to-day. -The slaughter of porkers is the order of the day. -Preparations for Christmas will be next in order. -School Books at the JOURNAL Store on Penn Street. -With the coming Christmas time remember the poor. -The subject of conversation is changing from politics to fat hogs. -Gilt edged note paper just received at the JOURNAL STORE. Call on us. -Mr. F. E. Meek, of Altoona, is in town visiting his daughter, Mrs. J. F. Harter. -Don't depend upon your neighbor for a local newspaper, but subscribe for one yourself. -The roads are frozen hard and traveling is unpleasant on account of their roughness. -Rev. B. Hengst will preach German in the Evangelical church of this place next Sunday morning. -Our neighbor across the road, Samuel Weiser, Jr. has been erecting a wood house on his premises. -Front gates have easier times since the cold waves prevent the young folks from hanging on them so much. -With the approaching Christmas season, there is a slight increase in the attendance of our Sunday schools. -Frank Knorr had his kitchen and slant improved last week by putting a new roof on those buildings. -The Harter hunting party from this town succeeded in shooting one deer last week. Bob made the lucky hit. -Jacob Dutweiler bought Jonathan Kreamer's farm in Penn township, one mile southwest of town, at $ per acre. -Headquarters for school books, Slates, Slate and Lead Pencils, Paper and Envelopes, etc. at the JOURNAL STORE. -At the rink is a first class place to see some fun. So says the fellow, who watches the other one trying to smash the floor. -Those of our delinquent subscribers who have more wood than money are requested to bring us several cords of wood. -Many farmers are holding on to a great portion of their wheat cropping, in hopes of getting better prices for it after a while. -Chicken, Turkey, Oysters, Ice Cream, Cakes are some of the tempting delicacies to be had at the town hall this evening. -Wilson Bollinger and wife, who had been out in Dakota during the summer, have returned and stopped with Israel Confer's. -The ladies of the Evangelical Aid Society wish us to inform our readers that they contemplate holding a festival during the holidays. -Eat and grow fat on the splendid Thanksgiving supper, which the Lutheran Ladies' Mite Society will dish up this evening. Give them a trial. -A heavy rain storm prevailed the greater part of last Sunday. Through the night it grew colder and there was a slight fall of snow towards morning. -FOR SALE.-Seven greyhound pups for sale at reasonable prices. Apply to J. W. MUSSER, Woodward, Pa. -Dinges, Trumppheller & Co., still have those special prices on special lines of goods and now is the time to get your supplies at their store at Coburn. -In the railroad article on the opposite page the name of J. K. P. Hall, of congressional fame, appears conspicuously as president of several companies. -Don't forget the ladies of the Lutheran Mite Society, who have made so many preparations to give you a first-class supper this evening in the town hall. Give them your call. PURE ITALIAN BEES FOR SALE.-The undersigned wishes to sell about 30 colonies of bees at reasonable prices. Call on D. K. MUSSER, Aaronsburg, Pa. -COLD feet-two feet of snow. Bad cold-one settled on the lungs. Good cure-Dr. Kessler's Celebrated English Cough Medicine. Sold by J. Eisenhuth, Millheim, Pa. -Mr. Trumppheller and family, whose location at Millheim we announced in one of our previous issues, moved last Friday into the house on Mill street, lately occupied by D. I. Brown. -The bills advertising the sale of personal property of Carolina Gobbie, deceased, are up. Jacob Gobbie and B. F. Frankenberg, the administrators of the estate will sell the same on Saturday, Dec. 6th.

-Ladies wishing to practice roller skating are hereby notified that the rink will be free for them this afternoon (Thursday.) J. E. Sperring, Manager. -The fence at the northern end of the Millheim cemetery has been blown down by the recent storms and should at once be repaired. The present condition of it gives the premises a very dilapidated appearance. -Water in wells, cisterns and streams is very low and everybody is in fears of a water famine this winter. But no doubt rain will come in due time as it has before; all that is necessary is a little patience. -On Saturday, Nov. 29th, 1884, Mr. Joseph Bierly, attorney for the heirs of Michael Bierly, late of Miles township, deceased, will sell at public sale, the real estate of decedents, situate in Madisonburg. See Bills. -Mr. F. Bowersox, of Rock Spring, this county, spent a few days last week among his many friends in town. He favored us with a call and we found him the same old Frank-jolly, good-natured and full of business. -On Friday morning, Mr. George Douty, a son of Mr. Reuben Douty, residing at Carroll, about five miles east of Logansville, Clinton county, was found dead in bed. The young man was about twenty years old. -B. Harris, of Lewisburg, has entered the columns of the JOURNAL with a new advertisement. See what it says and make up your mind to call there or order from there. No better place to buy millinery anywhere. -There will be quarterly meeting in the M. E. church next Sunday. Rev. J. H. McGarrah, P. E., will be present. Preaching on Saturday evening. Children's meeting on Sunday afternoon. Everybody cordially invited to attend. -Miss Helen Hoyt, of Clearfield, spent several days with her brother-in-law, Mr. J. E. Sperring, who manages the roller rink. Miss Hoyt is a very graceful and accomplished skater and her skill was greatly admired by everybody. -A young son made his appearance at Mr. J. F. Torbert's the other day. The boy is said to be the very picture of his ma, and, of course, exceedingly handsome. The pater familias is naturally very proud and happy over the new arrival. -A HEALTH journal tells its readers how to take cold. What most of us want to know is how to let it go. Take a bottle of Dr. Kessler's Celebrated English Cough Medicine and it will go because it must. Sold by J. Eisenhuth, Millheim, Pa. -Mr. John Kerstetter, Jr., still makes a business of doing special jobs at carpentry. John is really an expert at the business and has large experience, both in making out plans, specifications and drawings, as well as a practical workman. People who entrust their work into his hands can safely rely on having it done in best style at the lowest prices. -During the recent revival meeting in the M. E. church of this place forty-four persons were converted and thirty members were admitted into the church. This is certainly an encouraging result for that congregation and reflects much credit on their preacher, Rev. Sarvis. BILL OF FARE FOR THANKSGIVING DAY AT THE FIRST NATIONAL HOTEL.-Dinner: Roast Turkey; Roast Turkey stuffed with oysters; Chicken Salad; Supper: Fried and stewed oysters, Baked Rock Fish. All other delicacies of the market will be on the tables. A cordial invitation extended to all. S. T. Frain, Proprietor. -What's up at Kauffman's? A big crowd of people there nearly all the time to see the new goods. No end to bargains. They offer splendid inducements to cash buyers. Their increase in sales is due to the fact that their store is headquarters for bargains. See their new advertisement in another column and then call on D. S. KAUFFMAN & Co., Main street, Millheim, and be convinced. -According to accounts given by the Harrisburg papers of the silver wedding of our esteemed friends, Prof. J. H. Kurzenknebe and wife, which took place recently the affair was a brilliant one and much enjoyed by the host and hostess as well as by the guests. Both arrived at Millheim on last Wednesday, to attend the wedding of their oldest son, Mr. H. J. Kurzenknebe and Miss Lizzie Harter. Mrs. Kurzenknebe remains a few weeks, the guest of Mrs. Jonathan Harter. "THE BOOK WORM." A unique, handsome, and delightfully readable little Monthly Magazine, containing for the year over 300 pages and many fine pictures, all for 25 cents a year, is a recent characteristic product of The Literary Revolution. Each number contains attractive selections from some noted book, -the last presents Prescott's famous chapter on the "Spanish Inquisition." What will interest a vast number of book-buyers will be the regular monthly news of the Revolution's progress, -an enterprise that has wrought wonders in the book world. A specimen copy of The Book Worm will be sent free to any address. John B. Alden, Publisher, 303 Pearl Street, New York.

Thanksgiving Supper.

The Ladies' Mite Society of the Lutheran Church of Millheim will give a Thanksgiving Supper in the Town Hall on Thursday evening, Nov. 27th. The bill of fare will be TURKEYS, CHICKENS, OYSTERS, stewed and fried TEA and COFFE, ICE CREAM and CAKES. Meals-20 cents. Oyster Stews-20 cents. Children half price. Supper will commence at 6 o'clock, P. M. A table filled with FANCY ARTICLES, to be offered for sale, will be one of the attractive features of the evening. The proceeds will be used for the purchase of Matting for the Sunday School. A cordial invitation is extended to a generous public. -A son in Cleveland reads "Ice Cream Saloon," which is probably the worst cold spell of the season; but for the worst spell of cold Dr. Kessler's Celebrated English Cough Medicine is the best cure you will be able to find. JOHNSTON, HOLLOWAY & CO., Philadelphia Agents. Sold by J. Eisenhuth, Millheim, Pa. -We notice in last week's Centre Democrat that Hon. S. T. Shugert disposed of his interest in that paper and retired from the editorial calling. Mr. Shugert is an old, experienced and highly respected journalist and the craft regrets his departure from its ranks. Mr. F. E. Bible, the Recorder-elect of this county, takes charge of the editorial duties with his brother, G. P. Bible as business manager. Success to the new team. -The skating rink on Penn street is now in full running order. A number of ladies and gentlemen from town and neighborhood are taking an active part in the pleasant and healthy amusement, while many people daily visit the rink to witness the fun. We must add, to the credit of the proprietor and manager, that the rink is conducted in a very decent and orderly way, which naturally makes it so much more pleasant for the attendants. WEDDING BELLS.-On Thursday evening the wedding of Mr. H. J. Kurzenknebe and Miss Lizzie Harter, took place at the home of the bride's parents. The occasion was strictly private, only the nearest relations participating in the ceremonies. As our reporter was not admitted we are unable to give fuller accounts. It is said however that the presents given to the couple were costly and of excellent taste. *The writer offers his warmest congratulations. May the happy couple have a calm and untroubled sea on their journey through life. -In the absence of Rev. Aurand of Rebersburg, who had intended to fill the Lutheran pulpit last Sunday evening, but owing to the inclemency of the weather found it impossible to come, Rev. Benj. Hengst of this place, favored the Lutheran congregation with a very fine sermon on the message of the prophet Isaiah, III: 10, "Say ye to the righteous, that it shall be well with him; for they shall eat the fruit of their doings." The reverend gentleman was taken somewhat unawares, but his vast knowledge and experience enable him to always do full justice to his text. Coburn Briefs. Mr. Whiteman, of this place, passed through a dangerous experience last Wednesday evening. After the regular evening train had passed through the tunnel, Whiteman proceeded to go through with two mules. But before he got through, an extra train, running backwards from Coburn, came along and entering the tunnel struck one of the mules and instantly killed it. Fortunately the one Whiteman was riding pressed to the side of the tunnel, thereby saving its own and the rider's life. Andy Vonada is preparing to run his planning mill with full force. He has large piles of lumber stacked up around the mill. H. H. Trumppheller, one of our merchants, moved to Millheim last Friday. We still hear of a new church to be erected here soon. Z. Madisonburg News. Simon Hazel is slowly getting better. Daniel Hoy bought a horse and a new huckster wagon. George Shafer killed the boss porker last Thursday. It dressed over four hundred pounds. Oscar Nestlerod returned home on last Friday from the West. Can't say from what part of the West, because he was at so many different places. He had been from home for nearly three years. Philip Cares spent a few days hunting last week in the Seven Mountains above Potter's Mills. Fred Shingle moved to and now resides with Jacob Royer, back of town. STILL.

ANOTHER AGED CITIZEN GONE.

Father William Reaick, an old and respected citizen of Millheim, departed this life at the residence of his son, Peter Reaick, on Thursday, November 20th, 1884, at the age of 85 years, 10 months and 15 days. Deceased was born in Union county, January 5th, 1799, and migrated to Centre county in 1822. He settled in Penna Valley and followed agricultural pursuits until age began to tell on him, when he retired and made his home with his son. During the years of his retirement he was a regular attendant upon the means of grace and gave much attention to reading the new testament. It is stated that he read it through regularly nine times. He devoted much of his time to meditation and prayer. He was a consistent member of the Ev. Luth. church and died in great peace, trusting in the merits of Christ. His funeral took place on Sunday forenoon, when his remains were buried in the Lutheran cemetery in Aaronsburg, Rev. B. Hengst officiating. TOO MUCH CREDIT IN BUSINESS.-There are people who never think of paying cash, unless forced by strict rules. Farmers, more than any other class, sell their crops in the market for ready cash. But, suppose the farmer would change his system, and would sell his wheat by the single bushel, or bag, on credit to every consumer until his entire crop was scattered around in the country, and credited out to a thousand customers, and he depending on his cash when people see fit to pay him. Think of the trouble of sending out bill after bill, asking a thousand customers to pay the $1.00 to $5.00, repeating it again and again, and hearing of no returns, but their ill will, and be called hard names for being so mean, as to ask pay for so small an amount. Finally after a succession of years of such business they might have to loose many accounts amounting to large sums to keep peace and friends. To make all business prosperous you ought to sell for cash and when you get cash, buy only for cash and pay what you owe. If you owe the printer on job work pay him. If you take newspapers go and pay for them. Don't expect the publisher employing a number of men, who must eat and be clothed, and their families supported, to put these men off for their pay. These small sums soon amount to hundreds of dollars, and become a burden to carry, if not paid. The cash system in business is a pleasure. The credit system is burdensome, and when overdone, must prove a loss and a burden. Penn Hall Shavings. Hurrah for Cleveland & Hendricks! Mr. P. H. Meyer is teaching a class of 60 pupils in vocal music at this place. J. W. Bartzes & Bro. expect to go into the lumber business. Success to you, boys. Our Nimrods brought home a fine deer last week. The poor thing received a charge of 18 buck shot. Our school under the tutorage of Mr. Jones is in a flourishing condition. They contemplate holding an entertainment ere long. The squealing of the porkers reminds us that the big days are at hand. Then look out for the Lever Warscht. Some of the boys had a sad experience at the jubilee the other night. Please take the hint. Maj. Fisher brought home two fine oxen from this Pittsburg stock yard and expects to keep them for the spring trade. We are very sorry to loose our good friend and neighbor D. Weaver, who will leave us for Brush valley. He traded his property on the property known as Wolfe's Store. We presume our Democratic friends from Gregg township who vowed they would not shake under Republican administration must apply the razor now and show us that they meant business. We rather think Lite Musser was the looser in the horse trade we mentioned some time ago. Say Lute, he made a wreck for you too. Be more careful the next time. Our friend M. H. Gause, who is at present engaged at Centre Hall, building a grain warehouse, was robbed of his tool chest containing a lot of carpenter's tools, of his good overcoat, pair of new gloves, &c. Likely some of the Salt River men took them along to build their cabins up there. The American Flag which proudly floated in the air bearing the words "Cleveland and Hendricks-Curtin and Victory" was stolen from the rope stretched between Fisher's store and the house opposite. Whether the shameful trick was performed by a Republican or a Democrat, time will tell, but hardly think the latter guilty of it. But we have another one waving there, which was presented by Maj. Fisher. Now try your hand on this one, if you dare. We are ready for you. JACK PLANE. MARRIED. On the 20th inst., at the residence of the bride's parents, by Rev. Benj. Hengst, Prof. Harry J. Kurzenknebe, Harrisburg, Pa., to Miss Lizzie Bell, only daughter of Jonathan and Susan Harter, of Millheim, Md. DIED. On the 22nd inst., at Aaronsburg, Mrs. Elizabeth Muzie Gorn, in the 73rd year of her age. Interment in the Millheim cemetery, last Tuesday. On the 25th inst., at Millheim, Mr. Wm. Reaick, aged 85 years, 10 months and 15 days.
