Notice that to make a proper selection of Holiday Gifts you must see for yourself and try to find the right place. We invite you to visit the

Journal Store

on Penn street during this holiday season where you will find a line of

Holiday Goods,

conspicuous for beauty and variety

The following are a few of the many articles suitable for presents and kept on hand at our place:

Latest styles of Ladies' Leather Satchels, Velvet Cabinet Frames, Autograph & Photograph Albums, Fancy Shell Boxes, Fine lot of Scrap Pictures, Holiday Cards, Toy Books, &c. &c.
LANCASTER ALMANACS.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

SUBSCRIBE for the JOURNAL.

—A fox crossed the pike above town on Tuesday.

—Read the JOURNAL store advertisement in this issue.

—Gilt edged note paper just received at the JOURNAL STORE. Call on us.

—For the choicest selection of Scrap Pictures call at the JOURNAL STORE.

—We are crowded with advertisements and must ask a little indulgence from our readers.

—A number of our dilapidated sidewalks have been repaired by the High Constable last week.

—Prof. Johnson, known to many of our readers as "Blind Charley" now resides at Catawissa.

—Our stores are filling up with Holiday goods and the juvenile part of the population is becoming excited.

—We understand that there is to be some kind of a show in the town hall this evening by an Indian doctor.

—Last Sunday evening the protracted meeting of the Evangelical Association at this place commenced.

—Ed. Zimmerman has the sole agency for Bowlby & Co's. Gang Lath Mill. See advertisement at another place.

—Mr. C. K. Sober, the champion wing shot, while out hunting one day last week, brought down 25 pheasants.

—Just received a new stock of Holiday Goods at the JOURNAL STORE. Our patrons are requested to come and see.

—We noticed brother Tom Harter of the Middleburg Post and Mr. Aaron Harter, of Hartleton in town on Sunday.

—Headquarters for school books, Slates, Slate and Lead Pencils, Paper and Envelopes, etc. at the JOURNAL STORE.

—Mr. D. W. Duncan, of Spring Mills, goes to Sunbury, as assistant ticket and freight clerk at the station of that place.

—What everybody says must be true and that is that D. S. Kauffman & Co's at Millheim, is headquarters for general merchandise.

—Game seems to be plentier in this immediate neighborhood, than it has been for several years and our hunters are in a good humor about it.

—The communication by "Observer" in this week's JOURNAL is brimful of news and does credit to the writer. Hope we may hear from him often.

—E. E. Knarr is local agent for Jamison, Fausset and Brown's great Bible commentary, of which we gave a detailed description in our last issue.

—The sparrows have moved to their winter quarters and are on the lookout for stray breadcrumbs which the housewife may shake from the table cloth.

—Notwithstanding the rain, the sale of the personal property of Miss Carolina Gobble, dec'd, was well attended and many articles sold at high prices.

—FOR SALE.—Seven greyhound pups for sale at reasonable prices. Apply to J. W. MUSSEY, Woodward, Pa.

WANTED.—A lot of Walnut, Ash and Poplar Lumber at J. E. Fetterolf's Furniture Shops, Main street, Millheim [formerly S. K. Sankey's cultivator works.] 3t

—Frank Collier got his Christmas present a little ahead of time but he willingly accepted it nevertheless. It is a fair girl baby and Frank feels like setting 'em up.

—Henry Behm and Jeremiah Winkler are the administrators of the estate of Isaac Behm, late of Haines township, deceased. See notice among legal advertisements.

—Never mind the weather, but bear in mind that at D. S. Kauffman & Co's bargain store, Millheim, you can buy more goods for less money than anywhere in this section.

—Rev. J. A. Koser, of Boalsburg, this county, has accepted a call from the Lutheran congregation at Northumberland, where he will enter upon his duties as pastor on Jan. 1st 1885.

—Read the advertisement of Cook & Sperring's Skating rink in another column. These gentlemen conduct their establishment in a very creditable manner and invite everybody to give them a call.

—D. A. Musser and F. P. Musser, accompanied by Mr. Frank Kauffman, were out on a few days' hunting expedition last week and returned with one deer. They started on another trip last Monday morning.

—Mr. John Moore, editor of the Harrisburg Sunday Telegram has been sentenced to pay a fine of $800, all the costs of suit and sixty days of imprisonment in the county prison, for libelling J. X. Giering.

—In a letter from H. H. Tomlinson, Ellsworth, Kansas, we see that he and his family are well and getting along finely. They seem to like the country, but miss the Pennsylvania mountains and hills.

—The Lutheran Sunday school of this place is making preparations for holding a Holiday entertainment on New Year's evening. From present indications the exercises promise to be of more than ordinary interest.

—We had quite a variety of weather since our last issue. On Friday it was as warm and sunny as in May. Saturday gloomy and rainy, Sunday and Monday stormy and cold, and Tuesday brought several snow squalls.

—Our neighbor, W. N. Auman, was made the happy father of a bouncing boy on Tuesday of last week, and on Wednesday he slaughtered a big porker, no doubt to show the young stranger that he shall be amply provided for.

—By all accounts all the Sunday schools in town are making arrangements for a proper celebration of the joyous holiday season. We will announce the different festivities when the programmes have taken a more definite shape.

—A dreadful disease, commonly called flux, and similar to cholera, prevails in parts of Virginia and Kentucky. Its cause is ascribed to bad water and over a thousand people have already died. In some localities coffins cannot be furnished fast enough.

—Rev. B. Hengst's youngest son, Mr. Lewis A. Hengst, of Baltimore, was here on a short visit to his parents on Monday. He left for his field of labor on Tuesday noon, being an official on the Northern Central railroad, a position very confining.

—The storm on Saturday night and Sunday played havoc with the tarpaper on the roof of the Evangelical church. It was torn into shreds and scattered to the four winds. We understand that the church roof is to be slatted without the packing.

—Our townsman, G. W. Stover, Jr. has been appointed constable, in place of Rev. Shannon, who removed from town some time ago. Wash is the right fellow for the office, as he was there before and consequently is experienced in the business.

—Some of the smaller scholars of the Lutheran Sunday school at this place are engaged in soliciting contributions for the re-building of the burnt church edifice (Lutheran) at Centre Hall. We hope our Lutheran friends will give them a warm reception.

—Your tooth is too sound to be extracted, yet you cannot endure the agony it is inflicting. Your only recourse is a bottle of Zingari Toothache Drops. Relief certain, and only costs 15 cents. JOHNSTON, HOLLOWAY & CO., Philadelphia Agents.

Sold by J. Eisenhuth, Millheim, Pa.

—Look, LOOK, LOOK at the bargains! D. S. Kauffman & Co., Millheim, Pa., have on hand a very fine line of Ladies' Coats, Dolmans and all kinds of Wraps, which they wish to dispose of before Jan. 1st, 1885. To accomplish this they have marked them down to almost cost and will give purchasers unparalleled bargains.

—On Wednesday of last week, Mr. Michael Ulrich, an old and respected citizen of Potter township, departed this life at his residence near Tusseyville, having attained the age of 81 years. Deceased was born near the Old Fort, and has been a resident of said township all his life. He was a consistent member of the Lutheran church for many years and died a christian's death. His funeral took place last Saturday forenoon, Rev. Fisher, of Centre Hall, officiating.

—A number of ladies have been visiting the rink during the past week to practice roller skating. Before long Millheim can boast of some graceful lady skaters.

—Rev. C. W. River, of Liverpool, Pa., the new preacher of the U. B. church at this place called on us the other day. He expects to move next week into the house at present occupied by Harvey Confer, on Penn Street. He is a right pleasant gentleman and will no doubt make a good shepherd for that congregation.

—Mr. John Liggott, of Beech Creek, whose visit to Sheriff Musser, of this place, last summer, we recorded in the JOURNAL, accidentally shot himself, while out hunting on Monday, Dec. 1st. The ball entered under the arm, passing through one lung and out back of the shoulder. His wound is believed to be dangerous.

—Ye musicians—read J. H. Kurzenknebe & Son's advertisement in another column. If in need of anything in their line, it will pay you to give them your patronage. They conduct the most complete establishment in Harrisburg and their Music House is daily growing in popularity. Apply to their agent, H. J. Kurzenknebe, Millheim Pa.

—SOMETHING more or less than five thousand different liver pills are on the market. Some good, some indifferent, many bad and worthless. Life is too short to try them all, so if you want to be absolutely sure you are right get McDonald's Improved Liver Pills, and if you are not satisfied with the amount of benefit received you get your money back.

A MATTER WORTHY OF ATTENTION.—Do not cause the printer to spend a poor Christmas on account of your negligence to pay the bills you owe him. We have very many persons on our books who owe us considerably on subscription, advertising and campaign work, and we must insist on a settlement of these debts. It is impossible to carry on business without means and as long as money due us is in the pockets of our debtors, it can do us no good whatever. Please give this matter your attention and those whom it may concern are requested to respond without much delay.

NOTICE.—The Ladies of the Aaronsburg Reformed Mite Society will hold a musical convention in their church at Aaronsburg, commencing on Tuesday, Jan. 5th, 1885 and ending with two concerts on Friday and Saturday evenings following. The proceeds thereof are to be applied to the furnishing of the new Reformed church of Aaronsburg.

The convention will be conducted by Prof. J. A. Weaver, of Pine Grove Mills, Pa., and other musicians of celebrity are expected. Terms of admission are as follows: Season tickets, 50 cents; family season tickets, $1.00; Concert tickets, 25 cents and single session tickets, 10 cents.

The public are most cordially invited to aid the worthy cause by their presence and influence.

—Do not crucify the children by compelling them to take the horrible, nauseous compounds usually sold as worm medicines many of them as worthless as they are obnoxious, but get a box of McDonald's Celebrated Worm Powders. Purely vegetable. So easy and pleasant to take that the children will never know a medicine is being administered. You will in addition secure the very best vermifuge possible to produce. So sure are we of this that in all cases of failure to cause expulsion where worms exist we cheerfully agree to refund the purchase price. One Box of McDonald's Worm Powders guaranteed equal to four bottles of any worm syrup.

Madisonburg News.

The plasterers are done at the Lutheran church. The carpenters are still slowly at work.

Eddie Shafer came home the other day to go to school. He had been clerking in a store in Lock Haven.

Mr. Daniel Roush killed a wild turkey last Friday. If any one should doubt this statement, let him call at his place and be convinced.

The property and town lots of Michael Beirly, dec'd, were disposed of at public sale on Saturday. The old homestead and the two lots adjoining were sold to George Shafer for the small sum of $150. Two of the lots adjoining, another to J. H. Limbert, and three to A. Ocker. Jacob Nestleroad bought the balance of the lots. They varied in prices from $51 to $87.

Mr. John Haz-l, of Altoona, paid his sick father a visit on last Thursday.

Our schools are in a prosperous condition under the management of Geo. Limbert and Mr. Beirly.

F. F. Meyer and wife are visiting friends down the country. In their absence Mr. I. E. Shafer and Miss Marie Reber carry on the hotel business.

A stray duck came to Joseph Beirly's last Saturday. The owner can regain his property by calling on him.

Grant Shafer returned from the West last week.

A young bear has been seen about R. Grinnam's premises quite frequently of late.

Miss Ida Ocker is home from Lock Haven on a visit to parents and friends.

Sayings of an Observer.

AT COBURN.

The train is seldom on time of late. Wm. Kreamer has two helpmates and still it keeps them busy to wait on Geo. W.

Sam. Ulrich wears a Cleveland hat. Daddy Stonebraker does not want to hear much of politics since the election. Wheat only seventy-five cents per bushel.

AT AARONSBURG.

T. Yearick and wife returned from Philadelphia.

Charles Stover is in the oyster business.

Ed. Mingle gracefully bears the honors of a father.

D. H. Rote, Esq., has moved into his new office and is ready to deal out justice.

C. W. Bird still trades in old sewing machines.

Dr. Musser has a new hand at the bellows in place of Sa-Sa-Sam.

Adrew Immel is tired of the hotel business.

Mrs. Kurtz, from Milton, is visiting at Em'l Ettinger's.

F. J. Weaver killed a beef which dressed almost nine hundred pounds.

AT WOODWARD.

For salt river passes call on Van.

Michael Hess killed the largest porker in this neighborhood.

Dock and Jimmy have lots of business.

Allie Kreamer has accepted a position in C. W. Hosterman's store, as counter hopper.

C. W. Hosterman is building an addition to the St. Elmo.

Prof. Rishel has turned out to be a local preacher.

Harry thinks we ought to have a rink at Woodward.

Dan, the miller, is feeling very happy—it is a young Cleveland.

Andy Gregg attended Court last week.

Our singing class meets every Sunday afternoon in the Eastern precinct.

Franz Geiger, our skillful tailor, says business is booming. He is full of orders for wedding suits.

Joe Nights is about to be wedded.

Mesh Williams has finished his job and J. C. Metz's saw mill is in running order, and works like a charm.

Sullivan showed some of his dexterity some time ago in laying up one of our citizens for about two weeks. Bad business, Kufus.

Some of our Nimrods captured two fine deer last Friday. Josh Roush, Jr. shot the largest. The rest of the party claim it was a blind one. How is it, Josh?

I am sorry to say that the protracted meeting at this place was a failure as far as conversions were concerned. It seemed as if the members made no organized efforts. I would urge the Revs. to follow the old saying, "If at first you don't succeed, try, try again."

By all appearances the next thing to happen here will be the dissolution of our Sunday school. We are sorry to see it thus. Would advise you to get Rev. B. Hengst to straighten out matters so that the school will move on smoothly.

The wedding of Wm. Hinkson and Sarah Hosterman, spoken of some time ago, seems to have been preconcerted for quite a number of years. William went to see Sarah for twenty-three years and it is said that he from the beginning agreed to marry her as soon as a Democratic president would be elected. It was a long wait since 1861, but it has come at last. OBSERVER.

CATARRH

Many persons in this town are using Ely's Cream Balm for catarrh with most satisfactory results.

A lady is recovering from the effects of a cold which she had not enjoyed for fifteen years. Mr. Barb-r has used it in his family and commends it very highly. A Funk-banook lawyer testifies that he was cured of a partial deafness.—Pitts-on, Pa., Gazette.

Give it a trial.
