

Notice that to make a proper selection of Holiday Gifts you must see for yourself and try to find the right place. We invite you to visit the

Journal Store

on Penn street during this holiday season where you will find a line of Holiday Goods, conspicuous for beauty and variety. The following are a few of the many articles suitable for presents and kept on hand at our place:

Latest styles of Ladies' Leather Satchels, Velvet Cabinet Frames, Autograph & Photograph Albums, Fancy Shell Boxes, Fine set of Scrap Pictures, Holiday Cards, Toy Books, &c. &c. LANCASTER ALMANACS.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

SUBSCRIBE for the JOURNAL.

Good apples at Kauffman's. The snow shovelling brigade to the front, now.

Prothonotary Brett has moved to Bellefonte.

Snowing at this writing—Wednesday forenoon.

Wm. Miller is learning the tinning trade with D. I. Brown.

Call at the JOURNAL Store for choice Cards and Pictures.

One more week and old Santa Claus will put in his best ticks.

Several applicants for the Millheim P. O. are looming up in a distance.

The lawful time for hunting and shooting deer run out last Monday.

A lot of new Fur & Seal Skin Caps just received at D. S. Kauffman & Co's.

For the choicest selection of Scrap Pictures call at the JOURNAL STORE.

Just received a new assortment of Holiday Cards at the JOURNAL Store. Come and see.

Is there any hope of getting that town-clock this winter? Referred to the committee.

D. S. Kauffman & Co., have a nice assortment of Buggy Whips, Cart Whips, Lashes, &c.

Last year at this time we had excellent sleighing. We hope for a little more of the "beautiful."

C. A. Sturgis was here on Monday and Tuesday. Charley will not forget his old hunting grounds.

Next week we expect to give our readers a full-grown Christmas issue. Look out for "Old Santa."

D. S. Kauffman, of the firm of D. S. Kauffman & Co., is off on a trip to his home, at Fisher's Ferry.

Did you hear or see anything of the band lately? Information of their whereabouts thankfully received.

Rev. Finkle, pastor of the Lutheran church at Hatleton, will preach at Millheim on Sunday evening next.

Just received a new stock of Holiday Goods at the JOURNAL Store. Our patrons are requested to come and see.

Grand exhibition of Holiday Goods at D. S. Kauffman & Co's Admission free to all, and it will pay you to come.

Mrs. E. Bartholomew and daughter have been on a visit to her parents at Nittany Hall for the last few weeks.

The revival, in progress at the Ev. church, is well attended. Seven penitents are at present seeking conversion.

By referring to our advertising column it can be noticed that our merchants believe in the use of printer's ink.

The finest lot of Candies, Oranges, Lemons, Bananas, ever brought to this section of country, at D. S. Kauffman & Co's.

One week more and everybody should sing, "Glory to God in the Highest, Peace on earth, good will toward men."

The Holiday Cards and Scrap Pictures at the JOURNAL Store are ahead of anything in the line in town. Come and judge for yourself.

George B. Nash, the former Spring Mills landlord is at present an inmate of the Delaware county jail, having been convicted of larceny as bailer.

Some remarkable cures in this vicinity, of long continued and obstinate disease, are attributed to McDonald's Blood Purifier.

Headquarters for school books, Slates, Slate and Lead Pencils, Paper and Envelopes, etc. at the JOURNAL STORE.

Santa Claus

There seems to be a struggle among the elements, snow, rain, wind and sunshine alternately gaining the upper hand.

WANTED.—A lot of Walnut, Ash and Poplar Lumber at J. E. Fetteroll's Furniture Shops, Main street, Millheim (formerly S. K. Sankey's cultivator works.)

E. W. Mauck respectfully invites customers in need of paper decorations to call on him and examine his new stock of samples. They are extra fine and beautiful.

The seventeen-year locusts are announced to "come around" next spring. Well the potato bug would have been nuisance enough, without adding the locust.

Henry Behm and Jeremiah Winkleblich are the administrators of the estate of Isaac Behm, late of Haines township, deceased. See notice among legal advertisements.

Call at G. A. Harter's grocery on Main street and see his immense stock of holiday candies. He makes a specialty of that line and therefore can offer the best bargains.

Mr. F. S. of Williamsport, an expert roller skater was in town the other day, and visited the rink in the evening. He expects to return about the holidays, when he intends giving an exhibition of his tricks on rollers. Due announcement by posters will be made of the occasion.

J. W. Stover's envelope calendars for 1885, with an advertisement of his full stock of watches and jewelry are out and are much admired. They were printed at this office.

For various reasons, and we are able to say they are weighty reasons, the Boro' School Board has decided to allow no playing on the school grounds except on days, when school is in session.

Mrs. Emma Tomlinson, after having spent several weeks at the residence of her father's uncle, Mr. Michael Urich, in the Loop, whose death we mentioned in last week's JOURNAL, has returned home again.

D. A. Musser and P. S. Meyer, of this place, have purchased one and a fourth acre of ground at Centre Hall, opposite the depot, upon which they expect to erect a steam flouring mill by next spring or summer.

The thanks of the JOURNAL man are due Mrs. Jesse Kreamer for a delicious mess of venison. Mr. Kreamer and son were out on Saturday with Mr. G. W. Harter and the latter succeeded in shooting two fine deer. Wash is the marksman.

Your tooth is too sound to be extracted, yet you cannot endure the agony it is inflicting. Your only recourse is a bottle of Zingari Toothache Drops. Relief certain, and only costs 15 cents. JOHNSTON, HOLLOWAY & CO., Philadelphia Agents.

Sold by J. Eisenhuth, Millheim, Pa.

We were informed that during the past season 49 deer have been counted by people living at Poe Mills, in the mountains, to have been taken away by hunters. Of these 16 were captured by the Musser and Gentzel party besides one bear. We consider this a brisk hunting season.

SOMETHING more or less than five thousand different liver pills are on the market. Some good, some indifferent, many bad and worthless. Life is too short to try them all, so if you want to be absolutely sure you are right get McDonald's Improved Liver Pills, and if you are not satisfied with the amount of benefit received you get your money back.

JOHNSTON, HOLLOWAY & CO., Philadelphia Agents.

Sold by J. Eisenhuth, Millheim, Pa.

Last Saturday evening a greater number were on the floor of the rink than any time before. About twenty five persons were skating and a much pleased audience watched the pleasant sport. This and to-morrow afternoon the rink will be open for ladies and the manager cordially invites them to avail themselves of this opportunity, as it will be free of admission.

We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of the well known Coleman Business College of Newark, N. J. This is one of the oldest business colleges in the country, has large and commodious quarters and is fully equipped. Young men desiring a business education cannot do better than avail themselves of its advantages.

We hear that Mr. W. T. Auman, the teacher of the pike school, above Smithtown, contemplates holding spelling school one evening each week. The first session took place last Monday evening. Great interest is being taken in these exercises by the scholars and others.

Among the legal advertisements our readers will find the Orphans' Court Sale of the estate of Jacob W. Stover, late of Haines township, deceased, by the executor, Mr. T. D. Stover. The sale will take place on the premises of the decedent, Tuesday, January 13th, 1885.

FOR SALE.—Seven greyhound pups for sale at reasonable prices. Apply to J. W. MUSSER, Woodward, Pa.

Posters for the Musical Convention at Aaronsburg, are being put up to-morrow. Don't fail to take notice of them and remember the good cause. Singers will be entertained free of charge. Date, Tuesday, Jan. 6th.

The Lutheran Sunday school will have its Christmas entertainment in the audience room of the Luth. church, Millheim, on Thursday evening, Dec. 25th, instead of New Year's evening, as had been arranged in the first place. A very attractive programme is being gotten up by the committee of arrangements and the public of town and neighborhood are cordially invited to attend the exercises. No admission will be charged. The programme will be published next week.

It is in order now for every manufacturer to praise and extol the virtues of his cough medicine, and claim it ever so much better than any other. On square business principles the proprietor of Dr. Kessler's Celebrated Cough Medicine says if you are not satisfied with the relief and benefit obtained, if you do not consider it well worth the price paid for it then take the empty bottle to your dealer and get your money.

JOHNSTON, HOLLOWAY & CO., Philadelphia Agents. Sold by J. Eisenhuth, Millheim, Pa.

Last Thursday evening, Mrs. Rebecca Royer, residing one mile south of Madisonburg, received a stroke of palsy, which partly paralyzed her and rendered her speechless. On retiring in the evening she enjoyed her usual good health, but could not sleep. She felt hungry and went to the cellar for a pie which she ate with great relish. Shortly after she began to feel badly and suddenly was overcome by the stroke. Her daughter-in-law heard the strange voice in the kitchen and found the invalid helpless and unable to speak.

Oysters! Oysters!! Oysters!!!—D. I. Brown has opened his oyster saloon, next door to his tinshop on Main street, and would respectfully inform the public that he is ready at all times to furnish them with fresh oysters, prepared to suit the tastes of his customers. The tables are constantly filled with the delicacies belonging to a complete oyster meal. Give him a call and be assured of the best accommodations. Do not forget the place—opposite Kauffman's store, Main street, Millheim, Pa.

A SETTLED FACT.—That the most convenient and agreeable place in town to buy a fine Christmas or New Year's gift is at P. H. Musser's Jewelry store. There you can buy the best Jewelry ever brought to this town for the least money as he will sell his excellent stock of goods at a small advance on cost. We advise our readers to examine his line of Gold and Silver Watches, Chains, Charms, Neck Chains, Rings, &c., before purchasing elsewhere.

ENTERTAINMENT.—The Green Grove Sunday school will hold an entertainment on Christmas evening, December 25th, 1884. No admission will be charged. A collection will be taken for the benefit of the school. Rev. B. Hengst will conduct the exercises and good addresses will be made. This will be the first entertainment ever given by the school and everybody is invited to be present.

Madisonburg News. We are glad to see our good old friend, Simon Hazel out of the house again. He had been confined by sickness for six weeks. Simon Hazel is making arrangements to build a house, the coming summer. David Burges and lady have returned from Baltimore much pleased with the sights.

Miss Ida Shafer came home from Lock Haven to see parents and friends. The new windows in L. B. Stover's store house add very much to its external appearance. T. F. Meyer and wife have returned from their trip, down the country. William Aley, of Jacksonville has started a writing school at this place, with a class of twenty scholars. Mr. A. is quite an expert in penmanship. Mr. Philip Grenoble, of Eities Gap, moved into Mrs. Brown's house one mile east of town.

On last Thursday night Mrs. Rebecca Royer of this place had a stroke of palsy which rendered her helpless and deprived her of her speech. Miss Alice Nesterod started for Lock Haven on Tuesday morning to learn dressmaking. Sorry to see her go. She has our best wishes. Charley Elaman erected a large wood house one his lot. Samuel Nathan is on the sick list. From all accounts he has dropsy. David Shafer has rented a large six-horse farm near Aaronsburg. Mrs. Sarah Meitzenstein and her two sons, who had been here on a visit to her sick father, left for her home (Nebraska) on Monday morning. She had intended to stay longer, but was called home to wait on her sick husband.

Some of our half grown boys make quite a habit of smoking around people's houses to look in at the windows. This is a mean fashion, boys—you ought to be ashamed.

Albert Klinefelter has rented George Reber's saw mill in Little Sugar Valley. Newton Fiedler started for Williamsport last Tuesday to visit his brother. On Tuesday Austin L. Nesterod again left this, his native town, for the wide West, much to the sorrow of his parents and friends. Austin is a young man who deserves much credit for his success in the world and we are proud to say that he has won and holds the esteem of all who know him. The manner in which he entertained the writer the evening before his departure will long be remembered. Good-bye, Aust, and success to you. STILL.

Coburn Briefs. Andy Campbell murdered a hog weighing 533 pounds, one day last week. The work train was here on Monday, replacing a car on the track that had been derailed and repairing another which had broken down. The iron bridge at this place was improved by another layer of new plank.

—The Lutheran Sunday school will have its Christmas entertainment in the audience room of the Luth. church, Millheim, on Thursday evening, Dec. 25th, instead of New Year's evening, as had been arranged in the first place. A very attractive programme is being gotten up by the committee of arrangements and the public of town and neighborhood are cordially invited to attend the exercises. No admission will be charged. The programme will be published next week.

It is in order now for every manufacturer to praise and extol the virtues of his cough medicine, and claim it ever so much better than any other. On square business principles the proprietor of Dr. Kessler's Celebrated Cough Medicine says if you are not satisfied with the relief and benefit obtained, if you do not consider it well worth the price paid for it then take the empty bottle to your dealer and get your money.

JOHNSTON, HOLLOWAY & CO., Philadelphia Agents. Sold by J. Eisenhuth, Millheim, Pa.

Last Thursday evening, Mrs. Rebecca Royer, residing one mile south of Madisonburg, received a stroke of palsy, which partly paralyzed her and rendered her speechless. On retiring in the evening she enjoyed her usual good health, but could not sleep. She felt hungry and went to the cellar for a pie which she ate with great relish. Shortly after she began to feel badly and suddenly was overcome by the stroke. Her daughter-in-law heard the strange voice in the kitchen and found the invalid helpless and unable to speak.

Oysters! Oysters!! Oysters!!!—D. I. Brown has opened his oyster saloon, next door to his tinshop on Main street, and would respectfully inform the public that he is ready at all times to furnish them with fresh oysters, prepared to suit the tastes of his customers. The tables are constantly filled with the delicacies belonging to a complete oyster meal. Give him a call and be assured of the best accommodations. Do not forget the place—opposite Kauffman's store, Main street, Millheim, Pa.

A SETTLED FACT.—That the most convenient and agreeable place in town to buy a fine Christmas or New Year's gift is at P. H. Musser's Jewelry store. There you can buy the best Jewelry ever brought to this town for the least money as he will sell his excellent stock of goods at a small advance on cost. We advise our readers to examine his line of Gold and Silver Watches, Chains, Charms, Neck Chains, Rings, &c., before purchasing elsewhere.

ENTERTAINMENT.—The Green Grove Sunday school will hold an entertainment on Christmas evening, December 25th, 1884. No admission will be charged. A collection will be taken for the benefit of the school. Rev. B. Hengst will conduct the exercises and good addresses will be made. This will be the first entertainment ever given by the school and everybody is invited to be present.

Madisonburg News. We are glad to see our good old friend, Simon Hazel out of the house again. He had been confined by sickness for six weeks. Simon Hazel is making arrangements to build a house, the coming summer. David Burges and lady have returned from Baltimore much pleased with the sights.

Miss Ida Shafer came home from Lock Haven to see parents and friends. The new windows in L. B. Stover's store house add very much to its external appearance. T. F. Meyer and wife have returned from their trip, down the country. William Aley, of Jacksonville has started a writing school at this place, with a class of twenty scholars. Mr. A. is quite an expert in penmanship. Mr. Philip Grenoble, of Eities Gap, moved into Mrs. Brown's house one mile east of town.

On last Thursday night Mrs. Rebecca Royer of this place had a stroke of palsy which rendered her helpless and deprived her of her speech. Miss Alice Nesterod started for Lock Haven on Tuesday morning to learn dressmaking. Sorry to see her go. She has our best wishes. Charley Elaman erected a large wood house one his lot. Samuel Nathan is on the sick list. From all accounts he has dropsy. David Shafer has rented a large six-horse farm near Aaronsburg. Mrs. Sarah Meitzenstein and her two sons, who had been here on a visit to her sick father, left for her home (Nebraska) on Monday morning. She had intended to stay longer, but was called home to wait on her sick husband.

Some of our half grown boys make quite a habit of smoking around people's houses to look in at the windows. This is a mean fashion, boys—you ought to be ashamed.

Albert Klinefelter has rented George Reber's saw mill in Little Sugar Valley. Newton Fiedler started for Williamsport last Tuesday to visit his brother. On Tuesday Austin L. Nesterod again left this, his native town, for the wide West, much to the sorrow of his parents and friends. Austin is a young man who deserves much credit for his success in the world and we are proud to say that he has won and holds the esteem of all who know him. The manner in which he entertained the writer the evening before his departure will long be remembered. Good-bye, Aust, and success to you. STILL.

Coburn Briefs. Andy Campbell murdered a hog weighing 533 pounds, one day last week. The work train was here on Monday, replacing a car on the track that had been derailed and repairing another which had broken down. The iron bridge at this place was improved by another layer of new plank.

—The Lutheran Sunday school will have its Christmas entertainment in the audience room of the Luth. church, Millheim, on Thursday evening, Dec. 25th, instead of New Year's evening, as had been arranged in the first place. A very attractive programme is being gotten up by the committee of arrangements and the public of town and neighborhood are cordially invited to attend the exercises. No admission will be charged. The programme will be published next week.

It is in order now for every manufacturer to praise and extol the virtues of his cough medicine, and claim it ever so much better than any other. On square business principles the proprietor of Dr. Kessler's Celebrated Cough Medicine says if you are not satisfied with the relief and benefit obtained, if you do not consider it well worth the price paid for it then take the empty bottle to your dealer and get your money.

JOHNSTON, HOLLOWAY & CO., Philadelphia Agents. Sold by J. Eisenhuth, Millheim, Pa.

Last Thursday evening, Mrs. Rebecca Royer, residing one mile south of Madisonburg, received a stroke of palsy, which partly paralyzed her and rendered her speechless. On retiring in the evening she enjoyed her usual good health, but could not sleep. She felt hungry and went to the cellar for a pie which she ate with great relish. Shortly after she began to feel badly and suddenly was overcome by the stroke. Her daughter-in-law heard the strange voice in the kitchen and found the invalid helpless and unable to speak.

Oysters! Oysters!! Oysters!!!—D. I. Brown has opened his oyster saloon, next door to his tinshop on Main street, and would respectfully inform the public that he is ready at all times to furnish them with fresh oysters, prepared to suit the tastes of his customers. The tables are constantly filled with the delicacies belonging to a complete oyster meal. Give him a call and be assured of the best accommodations. Do not forget the place—opposite Kauffman's store, Main street, Millheim, Pa.

A SETTLED FACT.—That the most convenient and agreeable place in town to buy a fine Christmas or New Year's gift is at P. H. Musser's Jewelry store. There you can buy the best Jewelry ever brought to this town for the least money as he will sell his excellent stock of goods at a small advance on cost. We advise our readers to examine his line of Gold and Silver Watches, Chains, Charms, Neck Chains, Rings, &c., before purchasing elsewhere.

ENTERTAINMENT.—The Green Grove Sunday school will hold an entertainment on Christmas evening, December 25th, 1884. No admission will be charged. A collection will be taken for the benefit of the school. Rev. B. Hengst will conduct the exercises and good addresses will be made. This will be the first entertainment ever given by the school and everybody is invited to be present.

Madisonburg News. We are glad to see our good old friend, Simon Hazel out of the house again. He had been confined by sickness for six weeks. Simon Hazel is making arrangements to build a house, the coming summer. David Burges and lady have returned from Baltimore much pleased with the sights.

Miss Ida Shafer came home from Lock Haven to see parents and friends. The new windows in L. B. Stover's store house add very much to its external appearance. T. F. Meyer and wife have returned from their trip, down the country. William Aley, of Jacksonville has started a writing school at this place, with a class of twenty scholars. Mr. A. is quite an expert in penmanship. Mr. Philip Grenoble, of Eities Gap, moved into Mrs. Brown's house one mile east of town.

On last Thursday night Mrs. Rebecca Royer of this place had a stroke of palsy which rendered her helpless and deprived her of her speech. Miss Alice Nesterod started for Lock Haven on Tuesday morning to learn dressmaking. Sorry to see her go. She has our best wishes. Charley Elaman erected a large wood house one his lot. Samuel Nathan is on the sick list. From all accounts he has dropsy. David Shafer has rented a large six-horse farm near Aaronsburg. Mrs. Sarah Meitzenstein and her two sons, who had been here on a visit to her sick father, left for her home (Nebraska) on Monday morning. She had intended to stay longer, but was called home to wait on her sick husband.

Some of our half grown boys make quite a habit of smoking around people's houses to look in at the windows. This is a mean fashion, boys—you ought to be ashamed.

Albert Klinefelter has rented George Reber's saw mill in Little Sugar Valley. Newton Fiedler started for Williamsport last Tuesday to visit his brother. On Tuesday Austin L. Nesterod again left this, his native town, for the wide West, much to the sorrow of his parents and friends. Austin is a young man who deserves much credit for his success in the world and we are proud to say that he has won and holds the esteem of all who know him. The manner in which he entertained the writer the evening before his departure will long be remembered. Good-bye, Aust, and success to you. STILL.

Coburn Briefs. Andy Campbell murdered a hog weighing 533 pounds, one day last week. The work train was here on Monday, replacing a car on the track that had been derailed and repairing another which had broken down. The iron bridge at this place was improved by another layer of new plank.

—The Lutheran Sunday school will have its Christmas entertainment in the audience room of the Luth. church, Millheim, on Thursday evening, Dec. 25th, instead of New Year's evening, as had been arranged in the first place. A very attractive programme is being gotten up by the committee of arrangements and the public of town and neighborhood are cordially invited to attend the exercises. No admission will be charged. The programme will be published next week.

It is in order now for every manufacturer to praise and extol the virtues of his cough medicine, and claim it ever so much better than any other. On square business principles the proprietor of Dr. Kessler's Celebrated Cough Medicine says if you are not satisfied with the relief and benefit obtained, if you do not consider it well worth the price paid for it then take the empty bottle to your dealer and get your money.

JOHNSTON, HOLLOWAY & CO., Philadelphia Agents. Sold by J. Eisenhuth, Millheim, Pa.

Last Thursday evening, Mrs. Rebecca Royer, residing one mile south of Madisonburg, received a stroke of palsy, which partly paralyzed her and rendered her speechless. On retiring in the evening she enjoyed her usual good health, but could not sleep. She felt hungry and went to the cellar for a pie which she ate with great relish. Shortly after she began to feel badly and suddenly was overcome by the stroke. Her daughter-in-law heard the strange voice in the kitchen and found the invalid helpless and unable to speak.

Oysters! Oysters!! Oysters!!!—D. I. Brown has opened his oyster saloon, next door to his tinshop on Main street, and would respectfully inform the public that he is ready at all times to furnish them with fresh oysters, prepared to suit the tastes of his customers. The tables are constantly filled with the delicacies belonging to a complete oyster meal. Give him a call and be assured of the best accommodations. Do not forget the place—opposite Kauffman's store, Main street, Millheim, Pa.

A SETTLED FACT.—That the most convenient and agreeable place in town to buy a fine Christmas or New Year's gift is at P. H. Musser's Jewelry store. There you can buy the best Jewelry ever brought to this town for the least money as he will sell his excellent stock of goods at a small advance on cost. We advise our readers to examine his line of Gold and Silver Watches, Chains, Charms, Neck Chains, Rings, &c., before purchasing elsewhere.

ENTERTAINMENT.—The Green Grove Sunday school will hold an entertainment on Christmas evening, December 25th, 1884. No admission will be charged. A collection will be taken for the benefit of the school. Rev. B. Hengst will conduct the exercises and good addresses will be made. This will be the first entertainment ever given by the school and everybody is invited to be present.

Madisonburg News. We are glad to see our good old friend, Simon Hazel out of the house again. He had been confined by sickness for six weeks. Simon Hazel is making arrangements to build a house, the coming summer. David Burges and lady have returned from Baltimore much pleased with the sights.

Miss Ida Shafer came home from Lock Haven to see parents and friends. The new windows in L. B. Stover's store house add very much to its external appearance. T. F. Meyer and wife have returned from their trip, down the country. William Aley, of Jacksonville has started a writing school at this place, with a class of twenty scholars. Mr. A. is quite an expert in penmanship. Mr. Philip Grenoble, of Eities Gap, moved into Mrs. Brown's house one mile east of town.

On last Thursday night Mrs. Rebecca Royer of this place had a stroke of palsy which rendered her helpless and deprived her of her speech. Miss Alice Nesterod started for Lock Haven on Tuesday morning to learn dressmaking. Sorry to see her go. She has our best wishes. Charley Elaman erected a large wood house one his lot. Samuel Nathan is on the sick list. From all accounts he has dropsy. David Shafer has rented a large six-horse farm near Aaronsburg. Mrs. Sarah Meitzenstein and her two sons, who had been here on a visit to her sick father, left for her home (Nebraska) on Monday morning. She had intended to stay longer, but was called home to wait on her sick husband.

Some of our half grown boys make quite a habit of smoking around people's houses to look in at the windows. This is a mean fashion, boys—you ought to be ashamed.

Madisonburg News. We are glad to see our good old friend, Simon Hazel out of the house again. He had been confined by sickness for six weeks. Simon Hazel is making arrangements to build a house, the coming summer. David Burges and lady have returned from Baltimore much pleased with the sights.

Miss Ida Shafer came home from Lock Haven to see parents and friends. The new windows in L. B. Stover's store house add very much to its external appearance. T. F. Meyer and wife have returned from their trip, down the country. William Aley, of Jacksonville has started a writing school at this place, with a class of twenty scholars. Mr. A. is quite an expert in penmanship. Mr. Philip Grenoble, of Eities Gap, moved into Mrs. Brown's house one mile east of town.

On last Thursday night Mrs. Rebecca Royer of this place had a stroke of palsy which rendered her helpless and deprived her of her speech. Miss Alice Nesterod started for Lock Haven on Tuesday morning to learn dressmaking. Sorry to see her go. She has our best wishes. Charley Elaman erected a large wood house one his lot. Samuel Nathan is on the sick list. From all accounts he has dropsy. David Shafer has rented a large six-horse farm near Aaronsburg. Mrs. Sarah Meitzenstein and her two sons, who had been here on a visit to her sick father, left for her home (Nebraska) on Monday morning. She had intended to stay longer, but was called home to wait on her sick husband.

Some of our half grown boys make quite a habit of smoking around people's houses to look in at the windows. This is a mean fashion, boys—you ought to be ashamed.

Albert Klinefelter has rented George Reber's saw mill in Little Sugar Valley. Newton Fiedler started for Williamsport last Tuesday to visit his brother. On Tuesday Austin L. Nesterod again left this, his native town, for the wide West, much to the sorrow of his parents and friends. Austin is a young man who deserves much credit for his success in the world and we are proud to say that he has won and holds the esteem of all who know him. The manner in which he entertained the writer the evening before his departure will long be remembered. Good-bye, Aust, and success to you. STILL.

Coburn Briefs. Andy Campbell murdered a hog weighing 533 pounds, one day last week. The work train was here on Monday, replacing a car on the track that had been derailed and repairing another which had broken down. The iron bridge at this place was improved by another layer of new plank.

—The Lutheran Sunday school will have its Christmas entertainment in the audience room of the Luth. church, Millheim, on Thursday evening, Dec. 25th, instead of New Year's evening, as had been arranged in the first place. A very attractive programme is being gotten up by the committee of arrangements and the public of town and neighborhood are cordially invited to attend the exercises. No admission will be charged. The programme will be published next week.

It is in order now for every manufacturer to praise and extol the virtues of his cough medicine, and claim it ever so much better than any other. On square business principles the proprietor of Dr. Kessler's Celebrated Cough Medicine says if you are not satisfied with the relief and benefit obtained, if you do not consider it well worth the price paid for it then take the empty bottle to your dealer and get your money.

JOHNSTON, HOLLOWAY & CO., Philadelphia Agents. Sold by J. Eisenhuth, Millheim, Pa.

Last Thursday evening, Mrs. Rebecca Royer, residing one mile south of Madisonburg, received a stroke of palsy, which partly paralyzed her and rendered her speechless. On retiring in the evening she enjoyed her usual good health, but could not sleep. She felt hungry and went to the cellar for a pie which she ate with great relish. Shortly after she began to feel badly and suddenly was overcome by the stroke. Her daughter-in-law heard the strange voice in the kitchen and found the invalid helpless and unable to speak.

Oysters! Oysters!! Oysters!!!—D. I. Brown has opened his oyster saloon, next door to his tinshop on Main street, and would respectfully inform the public that he is ready at all times to furnish them with fresh oysters, prepared to suit the tastes of his customers. The tables are constantly filled with the delicacies belonging to a complete oyster meal. Give him a call and be assured of the best accommodations. Do not forget the place—opposite Kauffman's store, Main street, Millheim, Pa.

A SETTLED FACT.—That the most convenient and agreeable place in town to buy a fine Christmas or New Year's gift is at P. H. Musser's Jewelry store. There you can buy the best Jewelry ever brought to this town for the least money as he will sell his excellent stock of goods at a small advance on cost. We advise our readers to examine his line of Gold and Silver Watches, Chains, Charms, Neck Chains, Rings, &c., before purchasing elsewhere.

ENTERTAINMENT.—The Green Grove Sunday school will hold an entertainment on Christmas evening, December 25th, 1884. No admission will be charged. A collection will be taken for the benefit of the school. Rev. B. Hengst will conduct the exercises and good addresses will be made. This will be the first entertainment ever given by the school and everybody is invited to be present.

Madisonburg News. We are glad to see our good old friend, Simon Hazel out of the house again. He had been confined by sickness for six weeks. Simon Hazel is making arrangements to build a house, the coming summer. David Burges and lady have returned from Baltimore much pleased with the sights.

Miss Ida Shafer came home from Lock Haven to see parents and friends. The new windows in L. B. Stover's store house add very much to its external appearance. T. F. Meyer and wife have returned from their trip, down the country. William Aley, of Jacksonville has started a writing school at this place, with a class of twenty scholars. Mr. A. is quite an expert in penmanship. Mr. Philip Grenoble, of Eities Gap, moved into Mrs. Brown's house one mile east of town.

On last Thursday night Mrs. Rebecca Royer of this place had a stroke of palsy which rendered her helpless and deprived her of her speech. Miss Alice Nesterod started for Lock Haven on Tuesday morning to learn dressmaking. Sorry to see her go. She has our best wishes. Charley Elaman erected a large wood house one his lot. Samuel Nathan is on the sick list. From all accounts he has dropsy. David Shafer has rented a large six-horse farm near Aaronsburg. Mrs. Sarah Meitzenstein and her two sons, who had been here on a visit to her sick father, left for her home (Nebraska) on Monday morning. She had intended to stay longer, but was called home to wait on her sick husband.

Some of our half grown boys make quite a habit of smoking around people's houses to look in at the windows. This is a mean fashion, boys—you ought to be ashamed.

Albert Klinefelter has rented George Reber's saw mill in Little Sugar Valley. Newton Fiedler started for Williamsport last Tuesday to visit his brother. On Tuesday Austin L. Nesterod again left this, his native town, for the wide West, much to the sorrow of his parents and friends. Austin is a young man who deserves much credit for his success in the world and we are proud to say that he has